The GIRL SCOUT DISTRICT DIARY

Mrs. James W. Whalen — Ohio Trefoil Council

West High Neighborhood

Senior Troop 127, led by Mrs. Lowell B. Hardacre, is sponsoring a special Spic and Span Summer wear sale Saturday, May 10, at the home of Mrs. Raney, 436 S. Burgess-av, BR. 4-1642. Among the articles will be blouses, skirts, summer dresses, some suits, and five sets in size 10 for twin girls. Proceeds from this sale will be used toward the planned troop trip to New York City, following graduation from West High.

Westhill Neighborhood

Intermediate Troop 382 under the leadership of Mrs. John Dennaber, Intermediate Troop 744 (Mrs. George Borchers,) and Brownie Troop 612 (Mrs. Frank Erdy) took part in the Court of Honor at St. Joseph's Cathedral Apr. 27. Once a year the Catholic Youth Council spotlights scouting in the diocese and highest awards are presented.

May 31, is the date of the mother-daughter breakfast at St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church cafeteria. Mrs. Frank Erdy, leader, Troop 612, is chairman.

This breakfast is for all mothers and Girl Scouts in this parish. Awards and fly-ups will be granted.

Mrs. Redmond's troop 561 (6th grade girls) will serve. Mothers and daughters will go to mass and communion together and then attend the breakfast.

Brownie Troop 127

Troop members will visit Wonder Bakery after school on Friday, May 9. Mr. Ashworth will conduct them. Mrs. Robert Duncan is the leader.

Glen Valley Neighborhood Brownie Troop 870

April was a busy month. At Easter members were invited to an egg hunt at St. John's Episcopal Church, their sponsor.

Three new members are: Beverly Burton, Kathy Johnson, and Patsy Morisey.

A successful cookie sale was held. First prize went to Edna Hott, who got a Girl Scout flash camera, and Carolyne Stewart, second, received an official flash light.

The troop has completed Scout-A-Rama projects and Mother's day gifts.

Intermediate Troop 10

Girls have been working on their skating badge under the direction of Mrs. Billy Allan at the Grove City Skating rink. Transportation has been furnished by Mrs. Walter Deal, troop leader, Mrs. Stewart and Rev. Moore.

First prize winner in the recent cookie sale contest was Mary Deal who received Girl Scout blouse, shorts, and sox and Alice Weymss, second prize, a flashlight.

Members are making Mother's Day gifts.

A pajama party was held May 2 at the home of Mrs. Deal. The girls made skirts as part of their skating badge.

Some of the members will appear in a talent show, May 22 and 23 at St. John's Episcopal Church. Admission will be 25c.

The girls accepted a dollar from the church and are to see how much they can make it grow in eight weeks. The talent show is their project.

Residents Show Paintings During 'YM' Exhibition

Shirley Nix, 361 Powhatan-av, Lucille Timmes, 169 Southampton and Max Hall, 30 Wilson-rd, exhibited their paintings during the fourth annual exhibition of the YMCA Art League.

4. Paintings by Art League members will remain on exhibit through the month of May.

GROUP ADOPTS 'SACK LOOK'

'Bohemians' Prefer Brush To Bridge

NO FORMALITY HERE during this typical all-day painting (and talking) session of the "Happy Bohemians." The women like variety and paint still-life setups, live models, from memory, sketches and even dreams they've had the night before! One of these dreams was labeled "Nightmare" by the group but the artist took it good heartedly. Left to right are Mrs. Herbert Peters, Mrs. Henry DeMastry, Mrs. Christine English, Mrs. Thelma Walters, Mrs. Russell Simonson and Mrs. Jack Mitchell.

The "Happy Bohemians" is a group made up almost completely of Hilltop women who don't care to fuss with garden clubs or afternoon canasta sessions but would rather don sacks and work with turpentine and paint!

They're not actually as Bohemian as their title might imply—the paints they use are artist's oil paints and the sacks they wear are not to keep in line with the present "baggy look" but to protect their clothes! The sacks are really plastic bags acquired from dry cleaners.

Mrs. Thelma Walter of 806 Crescent-rd, is responsible for organizing this group of wives and mothers who like to take time once a week to do something creative with oil paint.

Mrs. Walter's husband, Leroy, owns the Art Wallpaper Store at 325 S. High-st, Bookkeeper for the business, she could see no reason for letting a large balcony of the storeroom go unused. Because she disliked solitary painting at home, she converted the balcony to a studio last January. Then Mrs. Walter ran an ad in this newspaper inviting other artists to join her there on Thursdays, with no cost involved.

At first Leroy wasn't sure he would fully enjoy a group of naturally-talkative women invading his store every week. "Actually, it has been fun to watch the women improve in their painting from week to week," Walter said smiling. "They have tried to talk me into joining the group but the only things I paint are houses and fences and such."

Mrs. Walter has studied fine arts both in Columbus and in her native Cincinnati. Her three grown sons, Jim, David and Leroy, Jr., are also artists.

The women are very candid in criticizing each other's paintings and try to help one another in adapting new techniques. On Thursday mornings the artists travel around Columbus sketching interesting people and places. In the afternoon they return to the studio to work their sketches out on canvas.

When the group first started meeting they ate their lunches at a downtown hotel but decided it would be cheaper and less time-consuming to pack lunches and eat in the studio while painting. Thus they adopted their title, the Happy Bohemians!

Local residents among the group include Mrs. Russell Simonson of 749 Ravine-av, Mrs. Christine English, 333 S. Westgate-av; Mrs. Herbert E. Peters, a former Hilltopper; Mrs. Jack Mitchell, 344-S. Brinker-av; Mrs. Henry DeMastry, 749 S. Hague-av, and Mrs. Harry Hawes, 330 S. Brinker-av.

The group has no membership requirements or dues and and other "Bohemians" will be welcomed!

SCENIC CAPE COD is being placed on canvas by Mrs. Thelma Walters from a sketch she made at the cape on a recent visit. She and her husband have traveled through all but five states. Walters usually fishes or becomes "beachcomber" while his wife makes sketches destined to join her art collection.

Elimination Of Frank Rd. Jog Planned

Recommendation to adopt a new state plan to make Frank-rd a continous throughway at the Southwest Freeway intersection was given by the City Planning Commission recently.

The plan will eliminate a bad jog in the portion of Frank-rd east of Rt. 104 about a quarter mile north of the section lying west of Rt. 104.

Harmon Merwin of the Regional Planning Commission said that with this plan it will be possible to have this important link under contract before too long.

Already under contract is a section north of Stimmel-rd and a section of the freeway south of White-rd extending to the junction with Rt. 40 near Harrisburg.

Route 104 will no longer be a separate state highway between Columbus and Stringtown-rd. Traffic will be traveling on the freeway south to Stringtown where existing Rt. 104 will again be used.

Ohio produced 2,990,000 turkeys last year, six per cent less than in 1956.

Pupils And Teacher Learn Together In Central Refinishing-Repair Class

By Ray Sheffer

There is an occupational class at Central High School that has a record for teaching as much to the instructor as it does to the students!

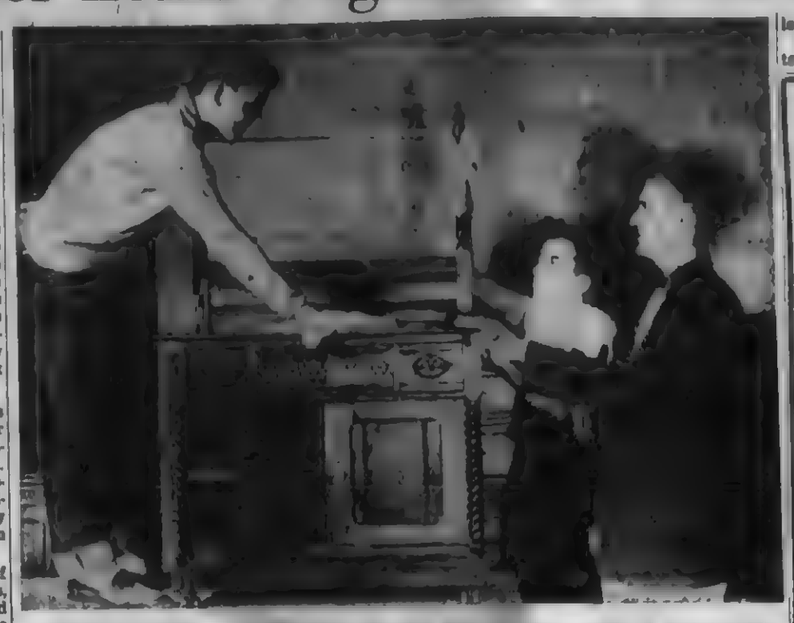
The class is Central's Furniture Refinishing and Repair Shop.

The instructor, Everett Reynolds, of 187 Alder-dr, Hilliards, O., frankly admits that he was not prepared to teach refinishing when he came to Central from Franklin Junior High School last fall.

He was asked to accept the position because of his background in teaching remedial reading students, which he now does in connection with his refinishing class.

Reynold's predecessor, Mrs. Pearl Kuehner, retired from teaching the class after 15 years in the refinishing field. Mrs. Kuehner said she knew nothing about this sort of work when she started but taught herself along with the students. Reynolds has done the same thing. The course just seems to instruct the instructors!

Found in Yellow Pages



The class is really a business and the students receive a pittance while they are learning.

The group even boasts a listing in the Yellow Pages under furniture refinishing and repair. It would be wise, however, not to expect immediate service since the class has enough orders to keep them busy until late next fall!

The course is part of Central's occupational division which enrolls 175 boys. The division is for boys over 16 who have mechanical aptitude and who have educational needs which cannot be met effectively in the standard classroom. Students completing the program receive a certificate rather than a diploma. This certifies that they are trained to follow this work in an outside business firm.

One of the biggest projects to conduct the class thus far was the refinishing of a bedroom suite for Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Stepleton, 400 Crescent-dr, Hilliards, O. The antique suite was given to them by a relative who acquired it at an auction near Lima, O.

The seven pieces, a chest of drawers, washstand, bed ends, bed sides and a heavily framed mirror, were covered with a sloppy green paint job and various coats to varnish. No one was really sure what type of wood was under this unattractive finish.

BEAUTY RESTORED! This washstand has been transformed from an ugly piece of furniture to a beautiful solid cherry antique. Central's Refinishing and Repair Class did the work. It is part of a bedroom suite belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Stepleton, Hilliards, O. Following three months of work by eight Central students, the boys are just polishing it off for the owners, left to right are: Charles Mencrief of 1421 Ellsworth-av; Eddie Milner, 1762 Cleveland-av; and Everett Reynolds, the instructor, of Hilliards.

The Central class began working on it three months ago. Students worked on the set an hour and a half daily and finally completed it the week of Apr. 21.

Make Exciting Discovery

At this writing, the Stepletons had not yet seen the results of the refinishing but they should be happy with the job! The bedroom suite is made of solid cherry and is estimated to be nearly 100 years old. The set would do justice to any collection of an antique scout now!

Although the class is in competition with outside refinishing firms, it does not operate for profit but to teach.

Reynolds said, "I'm proud of the work the boys turn out and what I've learned. The course is valuable to the boys even if they only use what they've learned as a hobby."

Reynolds and his wife, Rosetta, have two children, Janice, four and Jerry, two. He said he eventually plans to go into administrative school work.

Youth Orchestra Concert Is Set

Columbus Symphony Youth Orchestra presents spring concert of its third season on Sunday, May 11, at 8 p.m. in Hughes Hall, OSU.

Friends Celebrate Golden Wedding Day

MR. AND MRS. FRANK B. FRIEND

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Friend 99 S. Hague-av, mark the completion of a half-century of married life today with an open house reception at their home, 99 S. Hague-av.

Second golden wedding observance to be marked in that house, Mrs. Friend is the third generation in her family to celebrate a golden wedding day.

Her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Case, celebrated their golden wedding day in 1923 at the S. Hague-av address and her grandparents also reached their 50th anniversary.

Mr. Friend, now retired, operated for many years the Friends Upholstery Co. on W. [illegible].

A well-known sports figure, he played professional ball from 1910 through 1912 with Lima in the Ohio State League. It was a farm team of the Columbus American Association Club. In 1910 he played for a time with Columbus.

His name appeared in the 1913 lineup of the Columbus Cubs, members of the interstate league and in 1914, he returned to the Ohio State League playing with Chillicothe, Kenton, Columbus, Panhandlers, Mendel Tailors, Schmertz Tires.

In 1908 and 1909, Mr. Friend played with Young's Westerns, winners of the city championship.

Married May 7, 1906, by the late Rev. King, the couple belongs to St. Paul Evangelical Congregational Church.

They are the parents of three children, Mrs. George H. Kanavel, 147 Haldy-av; George Friend, 2106 W. Mound-st; Richard, 99 S. Hague, and nine grandchildren.

Double-Ring Wedding Ceremony Unites Phyllis Kay Shroyer, Charles E. Paul

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES E. PAUL

Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Kay Shroyer and Mr. Charles E. Paul Sunday, Apr. 20. Rev A. J. Weld read the double-ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Shroyer, 804 S. Hague-av., and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Paul, 93 N. Wayne-av.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over bridal satin. The basque bodice was topped with a deep v neckline and the bouffant, waltz-length skirt, worn over many tulle ruffles, featured a deep flounce at the hemline.

Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a crown of iridescent sequins and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, shattered carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Beverly Peterfy was maid of honor, and Sally Shroyer, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid. Both were dressed alike, in ice pink and mint green taffeta and net waltz-length gowns, with hairbraid hats sprinkled with rhinestones. Each carried pink and white shattered carnations.

Nancy Kay Susin, flower girl carried a nosegay of baby carnations.

Mr. Robert R. Shroyer served as best man, and Mr. Carl Shroyer, Jr., and Mr. Leonard W. Shroyer, ushers. All were brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a beige afternoon gown with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore navy with white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Hostesses were Mrs. Leonard Shroyer and Mrs. Carl Shroyer, sisters-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Arlis Carter and Mrs. W. C. Weeks, Jr., aunts of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Bellefontaine High School and was associated with the City National Bank. Her husband, a graduate of Stoutsville High School, is stationed with the U. S. Navy in Norfolk, Va.

After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the couple will make their new home in Norfolk.

What is closest to Mother's heart?
The answer is: her family, of course! Foremost in her thinking always is the security and happiness of her loved ones. Her smart budgeting, her thrifty buying, her talent for systematic saving . . . all serve to complete the picture of a family that is going places!
Smart mothers do their buying close to home from their friendly neighborhood or community stores where they know the men they are dealing with.

Hoge Unknots 'Y' Basketball League Tieup

After some four post-season playoff games, the Hilltop YMCA Junior Church Basketball league was won by Hoge Memorial Presbyterian.

The first round ended in a three-way tie between Hoge, Hillcrest Baptist, and Westgate Methodist with Hoge winning out. The second round appeared to be Hoge all the way but a surprise loss to West Park tied them with Hillcrest Baptist.

Hillcrest and Westgate Methodist had a make-up game in this second round to play before the outcome of the second round could be determined. With a win by Hillcrest, they would be tied with Hoge 5-1. A loss by Hillcrest would leave Hoge undisputed winner of both rounds.

The Hillcrest win 32-25 over Westgate Methodist gave Hillcrest another shot at Hoge. Hoge turned on the steam to win the round and the league is a 20-18 win.

Hilltonia Cubs Fete Parents

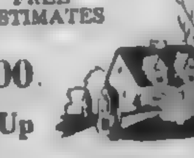
Dear Mr. Hartley:

I want to take this opportunity to reserve space in the Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News for a full page ad in the issue of May 14.

This will mark our thirtieth anniversary and we want to extend a special invitation to all our friends and customers to visit with us from May 15 through May 22.

Thirty years is a long time and we look back with pleasure upon this period during which time we have never once missed an issue of The Hilltop Record in which our ad did not appear.

We are proud of the fine Hilltop and adjoining community and proud of the fact that we have been able to do business for this long time with a forward looking newspaper like the Record and Rural-Urban News.



We are looking forward to a continuation of this fine Assoqiation.

Very truly yours,
W. Haydn Jones

Senior Citizens Club Marks Its Second Birthday

William Secrist, of 420 W. Cherry-dr, was in charge of music provided this afternoon for the second anniversary celebration of the Senior Citizens Club held in Old Memorial Hall.

The two-year-old club, now boasting 600 members 60 years of age and older, sponsored the celebration which featured the election of officers, short business meeting, refreshments and the showing of a film.

Guest speakers were Rabbi Nathan Zeliver and N. L. Barrack, superintendent of the city's Recreation Department.

Auction Gives Rousing Start To Lions' Newspaper Sale

TOP PRICE FOR PAPER—Hilltop Lions don't expect you to dig down in your pocket quite as deep, but they were "tickled pink" when Henry A. Flaherty, president of Columbus Coated Fabrics, bought the first edition of the annual "Hilltop Lions Tale" on a high bid of $250. Here, auctioneer Clarence Latham closes the sale to Bill Burget, who represented Flaherty. The annual pre-door sale auction of the Lions paper took place Tuesday noon at Lincoln Lodge. The door-to-door sale is Thursday evening.

The ninth annual edition of "The Hilltop Lions Tale" will be distributed on every street of the West Side and Hilltop tomorrow night by some 300 volunteer salesmen.

Residents will be asked to purchase a paper and pay the amount they think is appropriate to assist the Hilltop Lions in their work in the two communities. This edition of "The Hilltop Lions Tale" recounts how the club has spent some $10,000 for community betterment, sight-saving and youth work projects in the neighborhood this past club year.

The annual newspaper sale is the largest single money-raising project of the Hilltop Lions Club and every cent of proceeds is used in the benevolent projects of the club, according to a general newspaper project chairman Herb [illegible].

Residents who are not at home when the "older newsboys" call, are requested to read the edition carefully and send contributions if they so desire, to the Hilltop Lions Club in the [illegible]ed and addressed envelope left with the paper.

Among service clubs assisting the Hilltop Lions in distribution of the paper tonight will be volunteers from the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, West Side Optimist Club, West Side Kiwanis Club, West Franklin Kiwanis, Georgian Heights Civic Association, Franklin Heights Lions Club and the Southeast Lions Club.

In addition each member of the Hilltop Lions Club brought from two to four volunteers to assist. For distribution purposes, the club was divided into teams under the general chairmanship of Bill Sloter. Captains of the teams included Ervin Schmidt, Jack Kirwin, Al Dailey, Chuck Weaver, Pinky Higgins, Morgan Craytor, John Garber with Ed Stratton, Larry Farrand, Harold Greene, Pat Cleary, and Bob Delon with Gail Clark.

Prior to delivery, all the "newsboys" will assemble at West High cafeteria at 5:30 p. m. for a meal prepared and served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hilltop Lions Club.

Lion Al Dailey, veteran chairman of the auction committee,

Notes and Nubbins: The West High graduating class of 360 will receive their diplomas at exercises to be held at 7 p.m. on June 11 in the West High Stadium, thus accomodating more parents. . . It isn't often when a newspaper makes a mistake that the customer is happy, but such was so this past week when that half page ad in this paper listed the signature as "Garber's TV and Appiances" . . . We left out an L but it caused enough comment among readers that Mr. Garber realized even more that people were reading his ads . . . Jack Sherick is a patient at University Hospital, we hear . . . The Mose Williams' have received a formal invitation to attend the christening of the Independence CVA 62 at the New York Naval Ship Yards on June 6, a personal invite from the wife of Thomas E. Gates, secretary of the navy, and needless to say they will be on hand.

Good Job, Lions

Hilltop Lions are to be congratulated on the very fine auction of their newspaper Tuesday noon.

And on Thursday evening as they trek the Hilltop and West Side streets selling their papers everyone should remember that they are doing a fine job in community activities and you in turn should help them by buying a paper.

Remember . . . all you spend for a paper will come back in good work in this [illegible]

100 Bidders Give Support To Project

The Columbus Coated Fabric Co. top bid of $250 purchased the "first edition" of "The Hilltop Lions Tale" at the pre-sale auction Tuesday noon at Lincoln Lodge. Total auction proceeds, in excess of $3000, were swelled by six other bids in excess of $100 each.

Among these top bidders were the Rosary Development Co., Zans Casket Co., Hilltop-Westgate Realty Co., Jerry Spears Funeral Home, the Westinghouse cafeteria, and the Great Western Business Association. "Combination bids" of neighborhood physicians, osteopaths and chiropodists and lawyers also upped the proceeds considerably as did the combined bid of the "Eager Beavers," a group of Lion members.

Proud? . . . You Bet!

FIRST IN 55 YEARS—Herman Wihl, long-time Hilltop grocer, poses proudly with his granddaughter, little Donna Maire Wihl, first girl baby to be born in the Wihl family in half a century. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don P. Wihl, 3490 Eakin-rd, Apt. 2, she made her debut Apr. 25, at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

GRADUATES RATE TOP COVERAGE IN NEWS

Names make news . . . and top names in the news for the next few weeks will be those graduated from local schools.

Hartley Newspapers are now publishing the pictures and lists of all students being graduated from the elementary, junior and senior high schools in this community.

The series started in last week's issue includes public and parochial schools, and will be concluded by the middle of June.

Southwest Area Scouts Will Banquet At School

Southwest District, Boy Scouts of America, will observe its annual meeting Monday evening, May 19, at the Prairie Township School, New Rome. A dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Some 250 persons — Scouters and their wives — from the West Side, the Hilltop, and the Southwest, are expected to attend. The program will climax all the activities of the past year in local scouting circles.

Chairman of the district, Jerry Spears, Jr., will be master of ceremonies. Special recognition will be given scouts of the district who, during the past year, have received the Eagle and Silver ranks, and those who have earned church awards.

Officers for the coming year will be installed by C. A. Gimre, a member of the Council Executive Board. District Executive Robert Mead will present the awards to scouters and den mothers who will be honored for reaching standards in training and tenure.

Special musical entertainment will be furnished by Al Meyers, local entertainer. Address of the evening will be delivered by Herbert E. Evans, vice-president and general manager of the People's Broadcasting Company.

Scouters who have served on the arrangements and program committee for the 1958 Scouter's Annual Banquet are Armor Hank, Ralph Duncan and Eugene Schweitzer. Admission to the meeting will be by ticket, [illegible] may be secured from Hal C. Keller, BR. 9-7979.

Galbreath To Pay Tribute To Top Boys

John Galbreath, prominent Columbus realtor and civic leader, has invited all Eagle and Silver Scouts of the Central Ohio Council, their parents and unit leaders to be his guests at his Darby Dan Farm this Sunday afternoon.

Ceremonies, beginning at 2:30 p.m. at Darby House will be in recognition of the high rank achieved this year by 75 young men of the Council. Admission is by invitation and ticket. Darby Dan Farm is located south of W. Broad-st on the Kochel-Sugg-dam-rd.

Eagle and Silver Scouts of the Southwest District who have received invitations include: Karl Barth, Post 29; Jack Sanford, Post 29; Jerry Sanford, Post 29; Bill Doughty, Troop 172; David Morris, Troop 172; David Tritch, Troop 172; Darrell White, Troop 181; Larry Miller, Post 181; Gary Reynolds, Post 181; James Callard, Post 212; Fritz Ricker, Post 212; Tom Sibbalds, Post 213 and James Damorest, Post 225.

Bob Wolford, A Good Scout, Dies At 14

Services for Robert Lee "Bob" Wolford, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wolford, 136 S. Sylvan-av, were held Sunday at Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

Paralyzed from polio from the waist down, and confined to a wheelchair for the past four years, Bob's courage and enthusiastic participation in all phases of scouting were an inspiration to his brother scouts and leaders.

A member of troop 181, sponsored by Camp Chase Post, American Legion, since he was 11, Bob went with the troop on camping trips and was chef during cook-outs. He had passed all second class Scout tests except swimming.

He was a member of Glenwood Methodist Church.

Also surviving are a sister, Barbara at home and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wolford of Marysville and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Redmon of Dela[illegible].

Burial was in Oakdale Cemetery, Marysville.

Hilltop Makes Best Showing In Y Drive

At last week's report meeting at the YWCA, workers for the YMCA-YWCA Joint Development Fund turned in contributions of $32,221 to bring the fund total to $749,680.

The Hilltop Special Gifts Division, led by William E. Jones, topped all area organizations with a total of $34,269. A conspicuous contributor to this total was Mrs. Mose M. Williams, 4796 Hayden Falls-blvd, whose team has rolled up $8,339.

In close pursuit were teams led by Dr. E. E. McNamee with $4,310, C. Roy Agin, $3,274, J. Ray Anderson, $2,374, Ray Coffman, $2,110, and Roger Essig, [illegible].

The next report meeting for the Hilltop Special Gifts Division is on Thursday, May 15, at 7:30 in the Great Western Branch of Ohio National Bank.

Hilltopper Is Honored

Brian Richard Mahoney, cum laude graduate of Ohio State University in June, 1957, has been elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary and oldest cultural fraternity in the United States.

Mahoney was awarded a BA degree in science and maintained a straight four-point average throughout his college years.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Mahoney of 220 S. Brinker-av, he was also named to Phi Eta Sigma scholastic honorary fraternity and Alpha Epsilon Delta, national medical fraternity.

He earned membership in the "L" Society, national honorary, at West High for scholastic achievement and was selected for the Bausch and Lomb Science Award.

He is now associated with Jeffrey Manufacturing Co.

DC-3 Airplane Pilot Praises Sullivant 'Port

The commercial value of Sullivant Airport to this area was brought to light again when manager Gomer Jones hosted a DC-3 passenger plane Tuesday with seven food company executives aboard.

The business men bound for a meeting at Lincoln Lodge, Pilot L. T. Cleveland said, "Sullivant Airport is very convenient and saved us one and ½ hours' traveling time.

Local Man Perishes In Accident Inferno

William L. Wright, 2072 W. Mound-st, driver of this petroleum tanker semi-truck, of the Standard Oil Co., died in flames early Wednesday morning after his truck rammed the rear of another semi-truck halted at the Rome-Hilliards and Rt. 40 traffic light in New Rome, according to Prairie Township firemen. Prairie Township Firemen answered the call within minutes after being notified at about 2 a. m., but were unable to rescue the driver whose legs were pinned to the front seat. The driver of the other truck escaped unhurt. Assisting were firemen from Franklin Township, Hamilton Township, (Obetz), Port Columbus, Lockbourne AFB, and Hilliards. Traffic along Rt. 40 was backed up miles behind the accident site. The fire broke telephone lines along the road stopping all service west of New Rome. Houses on each side of Rt. 40 were endangered by the fire, but firemen sprayed a protective fog on the buildings. Only the paint was scorched.

J. Wichterman Is Honored

James A. Wichterman, 500 N. Powell-av, was initiated into two honorary groups during the campus of Ohio State University special May week activities last week.

He was chosen to be a member of Romophos, sophomore men's honorary group, and Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic fraternity.

A June '57 graduate of West High School, Wichterman is a member of Kappa Sigma social fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wichterman.

COLLISON VICTIM 'FAIR'

Clyde Prosst, 46, of 2076 Whitehead-rd, is listed in "fair" condition in Grant Hospital with injuries suffered Saturday in a head-on collision which was fatal to a Whitehall man.

City Okays Wiltshire Annexation

City Council Monday night approved the annexation to Columbus of 49 acres in Franklin Township known as Wiltshire Addition.

Council tabled the annexation last week to study further the city's right-of-way for possible road extension later in the area.

The road study completed, council passed the resolution with no debate this week.

The area is bounded on the north by Rosedale-av; on the south by Briggs-rd, and on the east and west by existing corporation limits.

Bolins Collect $110 Bonanza; New Jackpot Is Started Today

A lot of loot was the reward of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bolin, winners of this week's "Confederate" money jackpot, for their careful inspection of ads in each week's issue.

Longtime subscribers of the newspaper, the couple spotted the insignia in their copy of last week's issue and exchanged the newspaper at Hartley Newspapers' office for $110 in "Confederate" currency.

A brand new jackpot will be started this week with the insignia worth $5 in "Confederate" currency. An additional $5 will be added each week until the jackpot is claimed.

Ten $1 insignia, each worth one "Confederate" bill are also put in circulation each week, via Hartley newspaper [illegible].

Subscribers spotting the insignia may redeem their newspapers at Hartley Newspaper offices, 2465 W. Broad-st, before Saturday noon of the week of publication.

Advertisers appearing in the current issue of the newspaper will accept "Confederate currency in payment for any merchandise in their store.

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as paid in advance, or on his carrier boys' route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" money. Employes or carriers of the newspaper and members of their families are not eligible.

WINNER TAKES ALL and jackpot winnings totaled an impressive $110 in "Confederate" currency for Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bolin, 2920 Valleyview-dr, subscribers who spotted the lucky insignia in their copy of the newspaper. Planning a shopping spree with "nothing special in mind, just anything we happen to want," the couple happily left for a tour of advertisers' stores.

SCOUT CHECK REVEALS JAY-WALKERS ARE BUSY

In line with a nation-wide Boy Scout "Safety Good Turn" for 1958, a new Hilltop Explorer post made an interesting traffic survey here recently.

In one-hour checks at Binns and Sullivant and at W. Broad and N. Chesapeake members of Post 33 recorded the following offenses:

	Binns & Sull.	W. Broad & N. Chase
J-Walking	17	37
Crossing against light	9	8
Not looking	3	1
Getting out/in on traffic side of car	13	16

Participating in the check were Bill Bisbee, Bob Reitzel, Mike Krouse, Mike Brady and Art Loeffler.

The post meets at Westgate Methodist Church and has vacancies for eight boys.

Those interested in joining may contact Bill Bisbee at BR. 4-6162.

J. Florio Wins Stylist Award

Joseph N. Florio, hair stylist 2035 Sullivant-av, is the recipient of the 1958 hairshaping award at the Gibbs and Co. Show.

Owner of the Hilltop salon since 1949, his other awards include an award of merit in 1956 at the international hairshaping competition, an award from the Ohio Cosmetologists association in 1957, second prize in hair cutting at the Ohio Cosmetologists Association's 1957 state show and the Caryl Richards rocket wave award for proficiency in permanent waving.

He studied at the Capital Beauty School in Columbus and M. Louis Hair Design Institute in New York and worked for the Institute in Washington, D. C., at the Neil House in Columbus, Kennelworth and Sea View Hotels in Miami, and at the Union Store.

SCOUT CHECK REVEALS JAY-WALKERS ARE BUSY

In line with a nation-wide Boy Scout "Safety Good Turn" for 1958, a new Hilltop Explorer post made an interesting traffic survey here recently.

In two-hour checks at Binns and Sullivant and at W. Broad and N. Chapel, members of Post 29 recorded the following offenses:

	Binns & Sull.	W. Broad & N. Chapel
J-Walking	17	27
Crossing against light	9	8
Not looking	3	1
Getting out/in on traffic side of car	13	15

Participating in the check were Bill Bisbee, Bob Heibel, Mike Krouse, Mike Brady and Art Loeffler.

The post meets at Westgate Methodist Church and has vacancies for eight boys.

Those interested in joining may contact Bill Bisbee at BR. 4-8163.

J. Florio Wins Stylist Award

Joseph A. Florio, hair stylist 2885 Sullivant-av, is the recipient of the 1958 hairshaping award at the Gibbs and Co. Show.

Owner of the Hilltop salon since 1949, his other awards include an award of merit in 1956 at the international hairshaping competition, an award from the Ohio Cosmetologists association in 1957, second prize in hair cutting at the Ohio Cosmetologists Association's 1957 state show and the Caryl Richards rocket wave award for proficiency in permanent waving.

He studied at the Capital Beauty School in Columbus and M. Louis Hair Design Institute in New York and worked for the institute in Washington, D. C., at the Nell House in Columbus, Kennelworth and Sea View Hotels in Miami, and at the Union Store.

New Manager, Salesman At General Tire

R. E. Hollingsead

A new store manager and a new salesman began duties this week at General Tire Service at Broad and Eureka.

Bill Reynolds

Richard E. Hollingsead will manage the store for which he has served as credit manager and salesman since returning from the service.

Hollingsead began his experience in the service department of his father's Fourth and Long st store. He later was advanced to credit manager.

A former air force first lieutenant he served two years as a radar officer in the Orient and Mexico. He was graduated from the OSU College of Commerce in August 1955.

W (Bill) Reynolds, who lived about 15 years on the Hilltop is now handling commercial and retail sales of General Tire products and appliances at the local store. He has eight years' experience in the tire business and was associated with a downtown auto agency.

ALEXANDER BUILDS

J. G. Alexander, 870 S. Richardson-av, has a permit to construct a one-story frame dwelling at 3103 Mary-av.

HAS PERMIT

Joseph J Geenter, 90 S. Gift st, is remodeling a frame dwelling.

4 reasons why it's best to buy the new Dean & Barry House Paint with poly-lin*

Smoother Surface because Poly-lin makes possible a house paint that levels better. No unsightly brush marks. No thinned-out places to prematurely weather and wear.

Higher Gloss because a smoother surface reflects light more evenly to bring out the full beauty and lustre of Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-lin.

Looks Better Longer because Poly-lin makes Dean & Barry house paint more durable—tougher, stronger, more elastic all the way through.

No Extra Cost for the superior beauty and durability Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-lin gives. So why pay more — why take less?

looks like a million

Finest paint value ever! Finest exterior finish ever! That's what users say about the new Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-Lin. And you'd like to tell you first hand why it pays to choose this new Dean & Barry brand. So come in today —no obligation, of course.

* Poly-lin is the Dean & Barry trade name for 100% pure polymeric linseed oil.

St. Mary Magdalene Parish Will Honor Young Athletes

St. Mary Magdalene Athletic Association will honor the boys and girls of the parish who have participated in various athletic activities.

Certificate awards will be presented Friday evening, May 16, in the school cafeteria, followed by movies, refreshments and door prizes. Parents are invited.

James Veeley former football coach at St. Mary Magdalene school and new baseball coach at Holy Name will be guest of honor.

The success of the program has been attributed to the efforts of Ted Kruse, chairman in charge of the boys and Mrs. Alice DeMastry, assistant chairman in charge of the girls. C. J. McDonald will be master of ceremonies.

Slate 'Mr. Texas' For Public Visit

Cowboy actor Red Harper, who is starring in his own film at the Free Christian Drive-In (block south of 1900 W Mound-st) Saturday night, will also make a free public appearance here the following Tuesday.

Harper, who had the cowboy lead in Billy Graham's "Mr. Texas" and "Oiltown" will be featured in "Sunday On The Range" at the drive-in. Also on the bill will be the premiere showing of "Centerville Awakening."

Jimmy Rea, drive-in director, said everyone is invited to the personal appearance of "Mr. Texas" (as he is known to millions) Tuesday night, May 20 at Starling Junior High School. The free program begins at 7:30 p.m.

East Regains Title During West Relays

By Dave Morris

A powerful East High School track squad last Wednesday triumphed over five other Columbus schools to win the Hilltop Relays with a score of 89 3-6 points.

The Central High Pirates ran a close second with 88¼ points. North finished next with 48 1-6 points. West High brought down fourth place with 39 7/10 points. West was followed by South and Linden with 25 and 19½ points respective.

Flippo Will Be At Harry Graham Shoes Saturday

Flippo the Clown will appear in person at Harry Graham Shoes, 2384 W. Broad-st, Saturday at 2 p.m., in connection with a contest being conducted by the Hilltop store, during which several bicycles will be awarded.

attributed the unprecedented success of the auction to the combination of an excellent meal, the hypnotic chant of auctioneer, Clarence Latham, hard committee work, and spontaneous enthusiasm of the more than 100 guests. The mayor and other governmental and civic leaders were among those in attendance.

Serving on the auction committee were Liana Ron Jones, Dr. Jerrold Ferritto and Jerry Spears Sr.

A complete list of bidders will be published next week.

From The Engineer's Seat

Suicide Occurs At Rail Crossings!

Most Ohioans would never think of going over Niagara Falls in a barrel. Yet many have no more compunction about the same flirtation with suicide in a car, shooting over railroad crossings seconds before an oncoming train.

A man going over the falls is news. People are astonished by the courage and dare-devil spirit of the adventure. All odds are against such tricks.

Shooting across a grade crossing seconds before hundreds of tons of steel roar by is not news to the railroad engineer. He is not astonished. He lives with this winking at suicide every day. When the race ends in a tie, he knows the people in the automobile are no prettier sight than the man at the bottom of the falls.

The engineer thinks his story would be of news interest to a public which admires boldness and daring currently seen in the success of today's western heroes.

He thinks the story might save someone's life.

It's the story of time-fighting "heroes" gambling to save a few seconds at a train crossing. The added sensational interest: "these poor heroes are dying," the railroader says.

Once you hop aboard with the engineer you soon see his job is more than enjoying the beauty of the Ohio countryside, the fresh air, the corn fields and open pastures.

It isn't long before you catch sight of a car in the distance bearing down on the tracks ahead. It doesn't look as if he's going to stop. You catch your breath as the engineer blasts on the whistle. The car stops at the red flashing lights 100 feet down the track (we're doing 60), checks to see how close our train is . . . guns his motor, then zooms across the track with a puff of exhaust.

You catch yourself wondering what kind of a mental patient was in the driver's seat. But you soon find out he wasn't a mental case, he wasn't a daredevil, he wasn't a criminal, another bum or hot-rodder. He was simply one of the hundreds of rushing Ohioans who gamble with suicide and murder at grade crossings. One of the hundreds who have no respect or fear of trains.

From crossing to crossing you hold your breath in tense suspense. It's about like riding a roller-coaster in an amusement park. The engineer is constantly on edge.

One hundred thirteen, who would probably have liked to have lived were killed. Some 295 who were injured will have a train and track number seared into their memory for a lifetime.

Few motorists ease up when they see the advance warning signs posted on the highway 500 feet from the crossing. The state highway department thinks the signs are important. They think the taxpayer's life is worth $48,000, the cost of posting these signs at 2,400 grade crossings across the state. Yet . . . the blueprints for these signs are traced in tragedy and blood.

Only a half-dozen cars stop behind the bar painted on the pavement to provide the margin of safety.

Some even seem surprised the trains are running.

You begin to wonder about these drivers daring hopscotch with sudden death. It's elementary trains don't gallop or buck. Tons and tons of surging steel propelled by 20,000 horsepower can't dodge on a couple of three-inch rails.

If the car should stall on the tracks while the driver is shifting gears to gun up his motor . . . if his calculations of the train's distance and speed are in error . . . if he should suddenly become paralyzed with frozen fear—train hits car—the driver loses the sensation of having extra time for a lifetime.

You wonder about all of these "ifs." But you can't ask the dead if they wondered.

Between whistles you ask the engineer how he can take the nerve-shattering tension and strain. "You get used to it," he said. "It's part of the job. There's nothing we can do if they don't stop. You just get ready to duck in case any wreckage flies up against the windshield," he said rather philosophically.

Sympathetically you ask him if he ever slows down at crossings. "No, we'd be fools if we didn't keep the throttle open. We have to make our runs on time. This one is due in Richmond at 10:51 a.m. If we slowed down for every car that looks as if it weren't going to make it, we wouldn't get 20 miles."

The engineer is interested in saving lives. He does not cheapend the life of the motorist who gambles with his own, but he has to think of the safety of his train and more important, his own precious cargo of passengers.

You talk to the white collar railroad men at the regional office and find them just as realistic. One of them is hopping mad about letters that come in periodically from drivers suing the railroad for clipping them.

In many cases, he documents, the driver gets clipped after going through the red flashers. In some instances they nearly run over the watchmen.

"We put an average of $15,000 into red flashers at crossings. Sometimes they run as high as $60,000. We pay the watchmen pretty good to stand duty. And then some individuals have the nerve to sue us for clipping them."

The railroader said he'd like to give these kinds of drivers "open hand-engraved invitations" to have the personal job of helping to remove the human wreckage in an accident, as he has seen all too often.

The angry man behind the desk thought "it might shake them up." "Maybe they might decide to inconvenience themselves to stop and wait for us to go by.

"Maybe."

Dead Heat!

Hartley Newspapers Receive UA 'Thanks'

Hartley Publications were cited May 8 for their public service in behalf of the United Appeal. A certificate of merit was presented to C. C. Hartley, publisher, right, at an awards ceremony for press, radio and television. The award was made by Cynthia Mason, who attends Ohio Avenue Day Nursery, a UA supported service. Cynthia and two other children in her family attend the nursery every day while their mother, sole support of the family, works. Jack Ranney, who conquered cancer, and Lt. Charles T. Phillips, a navy flyer who received Red Cross blood, also expressed thanks in behalf of persons who have benefited. The ceremony was part of UA's "Thanks to You" Week observance.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

VEGETABLES — Asparagus, green beans, frozen peas, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts.

FRUITS — Fresh pineapple, bananas, lemons, rhubarb.

OTHER FOODS — Fryers, pork loins, ground beef, large eggs, dairy products.

WHAT'S BEHIND THE PRICE OF BEEF???

There's plenty of talk lately about the price of beef, and lots of folks are asking, "Who's to blame for the current prices?"

Let's look at the reasons behind the present beef situation. Then you, as a consumer, make your own decision about who's to blame.

We usually get clues or advanced warnings about changes in prices and supplies of food. Our first clues to the present situation came last year during the serious drought in our country.

Cattle ranges became so short of water and grass that producers were forced to drastically reduce their herds and send large numbers of animals to market. This brought larger than normal supplies of beef to market and consumers enjoyed very low prices.

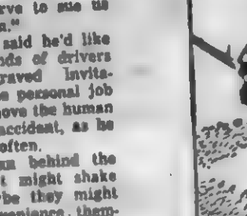
Supply and Demand — Recent weather conditions have been more favorable to the production of grass and feed. This situation has encouraged cattlemen to hold more of their stock to rebuild their herds. Also, they are feeding animals to heavier weights to increase supplies. Obviously this causes a temporary reduction in the supply of beef and with it a period of higher prices. In other words, we see the economic law of supply and demand in action.

There's more to tell about demand, too. We're a nation of beef eaters. In recent years we have had a change in appetite and as individuals we've been eating more beef than in earlier years. Rapidly increasing population has also created a greater demand on our reduced beef supply.

So who's to blame? Have you made your decision? Actually, no one is to blame for our present beef situation. We're in a period of adjustment. Increasing the size of herds means good future supplies of hamburgers, roasts and steaks. It takes time to get an animal ready for market. When they move to market you'll see the law of supply and demand work in the other direction — toward lower prices.

FRESH PINEAPPLE TIME

Our markets offer fresh pineapple the year 'round, but the peak of the season is mid-point this week. Cuba is shipping the Red Spanish variety now. Mexico will soon put its Sugar Loaf variety on our produce counters. Sugar Loaf is sweeter than the Cuban pineapples.



If frozen pineapple is a favorite with your family now is a good time to stock the home freezer or locker with pineapple.

Lions Gift Provides New Light For Those Living In Darkness

Don Rumley, left, chairman of the Sight Saving Committee of the Hilltop Lions Club, presents $500 check to Cleo Dolan, chief of Services for the Blind of the Ohio State Division of Social Administration. The check made possible the purchase of the new Braille Multigraph duplicator seen here. Matching federal funds met the total of $1100 purchase price. The machine facilitates the duplication of pamphlets, programs, manuals and letters for the blind. It can be operated by blind persons and should enable more to make use of the Braille system of reading.

Youth's Condition Good After Car Hits Abutment

Charles R. Thomas, 18, of 1535 Safford-av, is listed in good condition in Mt. Carmel Hospital where he was taken yesterday after crashing his car against a railroad underpass abutment.

He suffered gashes and his head and right knee.

The youth drove his car north on Yale-av and rammed against the abutment of an underpass of the Pennsylvania Railroad, just south of McKinley-av, police reported.

Pack 21 Enters Center Ring For A Circus At West Park

THEY'RE HAVING A CIRCUS! Cub Scout Pack 21 of West Park Methodist Church is going to hold a circus tomorrow at the church beginning at 7:30 p.m. Samples of typical characters to be on hand are, left to right, standing, Bobby Reser, 184 Cypress-av, Indian; Neil McKnight, 48 Dane-av, animal trainer; Johnny "Bill" Keeling, 112 E. Princeton-av, strong man; and on all fours, Joe Chenault, 262 Whitethorne-av, lion!

Cub Scout Pack 21 of West Park Methodist Church will shed their uniforms tomorrow night and don a variety of weird outfits for their parts in the side show and center ring of the pack's circus being held at the church, 7:30 p.m.

Russ Blythe will act as ringmaster for the big show which will feature a parade of tamed animals (cub scouts), cowboys, Indians, strong men, animal trainers and many others.

The real old-fashioned circus will of course have popcorn and soft drinks for everyone plus an Indian war dance by a guest troop from First Presbyterian Church.

The pack's seven dens, made up of 48 boys, will all participate. Mrs. Virginia Richmond is the program chairman and Allan Wemyss is the cubmaster.

All boys of Pack 21 and their fathers will meet at West Park Church Saturday, May 17, at 10 a.m. for the annual "Father and Son Outing" at Tar Hollow State Park.

Your Youth

The boys' and girls' craft classes are coming right along and any new people desiring to join are welcome to come to the "Y". 'Boys' craft — Tuesday at 3:30, girls' craft Friday at 3:30. Don't forget the "Y" movies on Mondays at 3:30.

Our Hilltop Y's Men's Club has been working for the past month on the development of two baseball diamonds at the "Y" site on Valleyview-dr. This project is being headed by "Y" board member, Roy Agin. It is hoped that a clinic for all Little "Y" players can be held at the Valleyview site to start the Little "Y" program early in June. Boys interested in Little "Y" will receive blanks for application at their schools very soon.

Indian Guides in the Hilltop Nation are looking forward to a campout at Camp Willson on June 7 and 8. All tribes should get their reservations into the "Y" office as soon as possible.

Schedule for the week follows:

Wednesday, May 14 — Gra Y, John Burroughs School, 3:30 p.m.; Slo-Pitch, Westgate Park, 6 p.m.; "Y" Indian Guides, Sioux, Mingo, Seneca, Huron, Comanche, 7:30 p.m.

Tax Aid Suffers No Slump Says Accountant Greenfield

In most business firms, the months of January, February and March can be expected to bring a slight recession. Edward

Ed Greenfield

Greenfield, however, has never had any worries at this time of year—he's in the tax game!

Right now, most people would rather forget about people like Greenfield, but since his business rush has subsided he has more time for the press!

Greenfield's Accounting and Tax Service, 699 Harrisburg-pk, Central Point Shopping Center, has been located in the center for five years. He has been in business in this vicinity since 1952.

Ed and his one employe, Tom Mathews, both agreed that this had been one of their most successful years as far as tax service is concerned. The firm also handles public accounting, bookkeeping and auditing for many Columbus businesses.

Is OSU Grad

Greenfield is a Columbus native, was graduated from Ohio State University in accounting and was a lieutenant colonel in World War II. Following his war duty, he worked as a public accountant for a Toledo firm.

He then opened his first office on the Hilltop.

Ed and his wife, Gwen have three children and reside at 5586 Riverside-dr. His chief hobbies are woodworking and gardening.

He is a member of HBA, Masonic Order, the Shrine, West Side Kiwanis Club; Dublin (O) Business Men's Association; is a past president of the Columbus Chapter of the National Society of Public Accountants and the Central Point Business Men's Association and is a trustee of Dublin Community Church.

Name Youths In TB Script Semi-Finals

Nine youths from this area were named semi-finalists in the "TV Spotlights TB", art-script contest, which was judged last Wednesday at the Tuberculosis Society with a total of 517 entries.

The contest consists of writing 20-second television spot announcement on TB accompanied by artwork to be converted into a TV slide.

The local semi-finalists were Jo Ann Hardy, 843 Eureka-av, of St. Joseph's Academy; Bob Litman, 2222 Amherst-rd, West High School; Dora Lina, 278 N. Harris-av West High; Beverly Greenwood, 841 S. Richardson av., West High; Duane Casto, 1536 Sullivant-av, West High.

Jerry Huber, 291 S. Yale-av, Starling Junior High School, and Patricia Gillespie, 78 N. Princeton-av also of Starling. Donna Seward, 392 S. Hague-av, and Richard Sings, 3448 Steele-av, both of West Junior High

They are all eligible for two portable television sets, six $25 savings bonds, and five art scholarships to be awarded in the final judging. In addition, the finalists' work will be aired on WBNS-TV during the summer.

For Your Thoughts

Question: Do you believe that the many atomic and hydrogen bomb tests have had any effect on weather conditions in recent years?

Mrs. Joseph Cahill, 569 S. Terrace-av: "No, I don't think they have. I believe weather is something that is completely controlled by God and nature. As for the 'old fashioned winters' we used to have—don't worry, they'll be back again one of these years! I just don't think atomic energy has anything to do with the weather."

Mrs. Ona Reed, 227 S. Warren-av: "We had peculiar weather before they even heard about the atomic bomb! Nature just likes to surprise us every year with a variety of weather. I don't think bombs affect our

Mrs. Richard J. Peyton, 256 S. Huron-av: "I think our weather this area is just naturally becoming milder. I dont' believe our nation's bomb tests are bothering weather conditions. This past winter was old fashioned enough for me! I do think that we haven't been having nice spring weather like we used to, but it's only nature!"

Mrs. Harold Rein, 28 S. Ogden-av: "Well, something has sure switched our seasons and I imagine the bomb tests have had a big part of it! We don't seem to have a spring and fall any more, just winter and summer. I don't know the technical facts but it seems to me if we keep blowing all this energy up in the air it will have an effect."

Y's Men Stamp Savers Too; You Can Help World Project

Don't throw away those used postage stamps!

The Hilltop Y's Men's Club saves all cancelled postage stamps except blue three cent stamps for the International Y's Men's Bishops' Fund. This is an international service project of Y'sdom.

Each cancelled stamp has a point value which is added to the club's achievement rating. The whole envelope is preferred. Committees soak the stamps off.

Those wishing to help in this project may turn envelopes in to the Hilltop YMCA, 2728 W. Broad-st, or call BR. 9-4641, to have them picked up by a member of the staff.

Some Fishermen Discover Silver Lining In High Waters

SILVER LINING? It would be difficult to convince these wet, disgruntled fishermen that clouds overhead have a silver lining. If they're wise they will wait a few days, and do some fishing below dams and lodges.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

If you're enough of an optimist, I guess you can find a silver lining in almost any dark cloud that appears on the horizon. Bad weather is a bug-a-boo hovering over fishermen that can ruin their best laid plans. Torrential rains during spring and early summer send fishermen home in droves, and the resulting high, muddy water keeps them there.

Bob Strohm bides his time, however, and tries to go fishing during the first few days after water levels return to normal. Bob concentrates on deep holes below dams and rocky ledges. The fishing is good—way above [illegible].

Strohm is the game protector in Franklin County and discovered this choice bit of information while making his rounds in the area. In checking fishermen he found that catches were unusually good in these places after a period of high water. A little personal investigation on his own revealed that smallmouth bass and crappies provide fast fishing if you hit the "holes" at the proper time. Walleyes also put in their appearance in Big Walnut Creek.

Two Theories Advanced

It is Bob's theory that the high water permits free passage back and forth over the barriers — dams and ledges. After the water recedes the fish attempt to return to their usual haunts. The barriers stop them, and they congregate below dams.

Another factor may be that the swift, coffee-colored water has made it difficult for fish to find food. This leaves them mighty hungry when the water returns to normal.

I know a number of fishermen who prefer to fish below dams whether we have had high water or not. I have gone fishing with them, but my experience has been that fishing is not any better there than at any hole or large pool in the stream.

This may be because fishermen tend to congregate at dams, and the fishing pressure is greater at these areas. The combined effort of several good fishermen can "fish out" a pool, and this may be the case at heavily [illegible].

In any event, I'm not going to grumble quite so much at the next batch of bad weather. But I'll keep my eye peeled for that nice sunny day when the water clears up. Then I'll try a few holes below a couple of log jams and a dam or two. Hope to see you there.

Roberta Camp, James Cox Exchange Vows

Hilltop Community Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Roberta Faye Camp and Mr. James Edward Cox, May 4. Rev. J. L. Dean read the marriage ceremony at 1:30 p.m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Camp, 211 S. Hague-av, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Cox, 894 Whitethorne-av.

The bridal gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle was designed with a scalloped V neckline, long, tapering sleeves and bouffant ballerina-length skirt of many layers of tulle with lace applique.

MRS. JAMES EDWARD COX

A crown of sequins and pearls held her waist-length veil of imported silk illusion and she carried a white Bible mounted with white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Sharon Camp served as maid of honor for her sister. She wore a daytime-length gown of white organdy over nile green taffeta with a bateau neckline, brief sleeves and matching velvet ribbon, forming a bow with streamers in the front. Her matching flower hat had a circular veil and she carried yellow rosebuds.

Mr. Bobby Towksbury served as best man and guests were seated by Mr. Clarence Phillips, Mr. William Beckwith and Mr. Jack Cox.

The mother of the bride chose a champaign gown with red rosebuds, and the bridegroom's mother, a blue frock with pink rosebuds.

Hostesses for the reception held at Glenwood Methodist Church following the ceremony were Miss Karen Brock, Miss Rachel Reeder and Miss Marge Horger.

The new Mrs. Cox was graduated from West High School and is employed at Mutual Life Insurance Co. Mr. Cox was graduated from Central High School and is employed at Columbus Engineering Manufacturing Co.

Glenwood Youth Are Praised For Year's Achievements

West Columbus youngsters who played hard and well in Glenwood Recreation Center events during the past year were honored at a buffet banquet last Wednesday.

Despite overlapping schedules including the Hilltop relays, about 150 persons attended. Introduced were city recreation officials, Glenwood staffers, advisory council members and other civic workers.

Some sage advice on character building and physical fitness was directed to the youngsters from Floyd Stahl, assistant athletic director and former basketball coach at OSU.

Bill Brown, Glenwood Advisory Council president, was toastmaster. Emmett Seely, a member of the Columbus Recreation Commission, handed out awards to representatives of Glenwood's outstanding teams.

West Bandsmen To Present Concert May 16

CONCERT FOR SPRING" will be presented by the West Junior and Senior Concert Bands under the direction of Clair Barnard, May 16, 8 p.m. at West High auditorium. Concert Day Set At West

All senior vocal groups including the choirs, glee clubs, ensembles and choruses, will participate in the Spring Concert, planned at West High School Sunday, May 25, 3 p.m.

The public is invited to the annual event.

Admission is free, and a free will offering will be taken to finance the purchase of sheet music.

Week-Long Church Fete Set Monday

St. Mary Magdalene annual church festival will open for six days starting Monday on the church grounds at Sullivant and Powell, with the Goodin Amusement Company on the midway.

Ferris Wheel, merry-go-round and kiddieland rides will be included. An effort is being made to bring the twister ride most popular at the Ohio State Fair during 1957.

Free admission to the showgrounds will prevail throughout the engagement and plans are made to stage a special children's matinee on Saturday with all rides, including the Twister, reduced in price to school children from 1 until 3 p.m.

Cornerstone Ceremony Set

Corner stone-laying ceremony of Unity Church of Christianity will be held at the new building site, 3566 Olentangy River-rd Sunday, May 18, 2:30 p.m. Rev. A. Joseph Jones, pastor, will officiate.

Regular membership meeting will be combined with the ceremony and all members and friends of the church are invited.

Representatives of each organization of the church will participate.

First unit of the building, expected to be completed by July 1, will house the church sanctuary, offices, Sunday School rooms, club rooms and reading rooms.

Adventist School Registration Set

Open house and registration will be held Thursday, May 15, 9 a.m. until noon, for all children, especially first graders, who plan to attend the Seventh-day Adventist grade school, 1560 Union-av, next year.

Registration for all students who plan to attend the school next year, but are not attending now, will be held Sunday, May 25, 9 a.m. to noon.

Named Assistant At Schoedingers'

J. R. Norris

Joe Richard Norris, a native of Ashville, is now full-time assistant to Jack Imler, manager of Hilltop chapel, Schoedinger and Co.

A licensed embalmer and funeral director, he has been associated during the last eight years with Humphreys and Son at Urbana.

Norris is a member of Harmony Lodge, Masons, and the Jaycees of Urbana. He and his wife and two daughters expect to move here soon.

TIMKIN GIFT SWELLS YM-YWCA CAMPAIGN

Walter Kramer (right), general manager of The Timken Roller Bearing Company in Columbus, presents a check for $25,000 from The Timken Roller Bearing Company Charitable Trust to E. L. Smith, industrial Committee chairman for the YMCA-YWCA $2,250,000 Joint Development Fund. Smith is also manager of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation here. Other recipients of funds from Timken trust included the Columbus Boys' Clubs and the United Hospitals Building Fund. This gift brought collections to $810,856.

With a gift of $25,000 from the Timken Roller Bearing Company Charitable Trust, the YMCA-YWCA Joint Development Fund achieved a total of $810,856 at its latest report meeting at the YWCA.

The Timken gift, presented by Columbus General Manager Walter Kramer to Edward L. Smith, chairman of the Industrial "A" Division, brought the latter's total to $167,110. The total of all industry gifts rose to [illegible].

The Hilltop Special Gifts Division, led by William E. Jones, continues to lead the eight area division with a total of $39,990. Spring Street Division follows with $28,940, and South Side with $19,970. These community campaigns are responsible for $91,900 of the campaign total.

At the last report meeting, Jones said that an organization of approximately a hundred women would be formed to supplement the efforts of the Hilltop committee which has hundreds of prospects who must be seen before the campaign closes.

The committee's next meeting is scheduled for Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Great Western Office of Ohio National Bank.

Some nine hundred workers are being invited to a mammoth outdoor report meeting at South Side "Y" Park on May 26. Dinner will be provided and work and recreation will be combined.

Bean Fete Plans Under Way

Queen Hopefuls May Enter Race For Crown And Honors

Hilltop Bean Dinner, the community's annual fun-filled, two-day celebration planned this year for June 24 and 25 at Sullivant Avenue Airport, promises to be the most entertaining ever staged.

All the familiar program favorites of other years will be included and hard-working committee chairmen and members, under the direction of Chester Herbert, general chairman, are planning many new and exciting innovations.

Beans, of course, will be plentiful and free. A queen will reign over festivities, little girls with the prettiest pony tail hair-dos will be selected, games and entertainment galore for young and old alike, will be on the agenda.

Selection of a queen from Hilltop's "fairest of the fair," will be made from contestants registered for the event.

Interested girls may pick up entry blanks at Hilltop Business Association, 3183 W. Broad-st; Hilltop Swimming Club, 2737 Valleyview-dr, or Hilltop Record office, 2465 W. Broad-st.

Any single girl over 16 is eligible to enter the competition for prizes and honors that go with the crown and title, "Hilltop Bean Dinner Queen."

A queen and her court will be chosen Tuesday night, to reign over the festivities during the next day and evening.

Local merchants may sponsor a queen-candidate of his choice, or select a name from entrants by calling the Hilltop Business Association Office.

Entry blanks, accompanied by a billfold-size photo of herself, should be returned by the applicant to The Hilltop Record office, 2465 W. Broad-st.

Hangers will house 26 interesting and educational exhibits, arranged by local merchants.

Of interest to all, they will include displays of the newest trends in home furnishings and appliances, as well as such demonstrations as carpet cleaning and modern sewing techniques.

Little girls' bobbing pony tails will be judged Tuesday afternoon by a panel of hair stylists.

The proposed Hilltop YMCA, to be built at Hilltop Civic Center, Valleyview-dr at Hague-av, and planned to benefit everyone in the community, will get a hearty assist from the affair's proceeds. All profits from the Bean Dinner will be given to the "Y" building fund.

Fremont Street Resident Finds Fascination In Plastics Studies

NORMAN BROADWAY, research chemist at Battelle Memorial Institute, removes half of a broken plastic specimen from a machine used to measure the strength of materials. The apparatus starts gradually increasing tension on a sample and records the tension at which it breaks. Broadway has done much to solve color fading in plastics.

In America today, more than ever before, scientists are being written about, talked about, and thought about. Yet to most of us, the scientist is a person seen at a distance, not someone you might rub elbows with in the corner drugstore or say "hello" to on the street.

But the fact is that many Hilltoppers have known at least one scientist for years. He is Norman J. Broadway, 3006 Fremont-st, a research chemist in the Rubber and Plastics Division of Battelle Memorial Institute.

In his career at the research center, Norm has participated in scientific studies of many problems. One such study concerned the color fading of certain laminated plastics used for such purposes as table tops. Ultraviolet light, which is present in sunlight, was absorbed by the pigments used to color the plastics and the pigments faded. Ordinary window glass filters out much of the ultraviolet part of sunlight, so the colors of plastics used inside buildings were not affected. Fading and discoloration did occur, however, when the articles were left outdoors for long periods.

In their research, Norm and his colleagues discovered that a chemical compound could be added to the pigments to lessen the color change. They also developed a plastic coating which filters out ultraviolet light before it reaches the pigmented [illegible].

At present, Norm is editing a book on the effect of nuclear radiation on rubber and plastics. The subject is new and important. Both materials used in building nuclear equipment and designers must have hitherto unknown data on how they will stand up to radiation. It has been learned, for example, that a plastic often used for seals and gaskets is actually made stronger by radiation but later becomes weakened.

Also Talented Organist

The Battelle scientist has called the Hilltop home since his family moved here from Findlay in 1927. He is organist at the Livingston Methodist Church; a member and former dean of the Central Ohio Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and is "completely booked" as a piano teacher.

In addition to earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in chemistry at Ohio State University, he studied at Capitol College of Oratory and Music under Dr. Grant Connell. After World War II, in which he served the Air Force as a civilian instructor in radio operation, he turned to science. Research has two basic appeals, he says: it is challenging, and it serves others.

Norm and his wife, Ruth, have two children, Gordon Stanley, 8 and Selma Ane, 3. A full-time scientist and a skilled musician, Norm finds that parenthood is almost a career in itself.

'Lions Tale' Proceeds Reach $10,000 Mark

It rained hard but that didn't matter. West Siders and Hilltoppers opened their hearts and pocketbooks to the amount of more than $3,600 when some 300 volunteer newsies, selling the "Hilltop Lions Tale", knocked on their doors last Thursday evening.

Club officials announced that the three phases of the Hilltop Lions' annual fund raising venture showed gross proceeds of about $10,000. This included $3,100 raised at the May 14 auction at Lincoln Lodge and some $3,300 worth of advertising.

Thirteen members of the Hilltop Y's Men's Club supplemented the list published last week of organizations "fielding" volunteers in the [illegible].

The auction was declared the most successful yet.

A complete list of bidders follows:

Henry A. Flaharty, president, Columbus Coated Fabrics, $250; Rosary Development, $200; Hilltop Physicans, $150; Spears Funeral Home, $100; Zane Casbet Co., $125; Great Western Business Men's Association, $100. Eager Beavers, Hilltop Westgate Realty, the Business Mens' Association, Westinghouse Cafeteria, Mayor Sensenbrenner, Benny Klein Steak House, First Federal Savings and Loan Assn., Downtown Lions Club, Hilltop Dentists, Jones Lumber Co., City National Bank, Hilltop Lawyers, Hilltop

Teacher Is Given $500 Study Grant

Mrs. Verona Rothenbush, teacher at Starling Junior High School, was elected by the Board of Education yesterday as recipient of a $500 grant to finance a workshop in remedial reading.

One of ten $500 grants, contributed by an anonymous donor annually for the past five years, the money is used at the discretion of the Board of Education to finance worthwhile projects of Columbus teachers.

Applications are made to the Board and selections are made on the basis of the proposed project's worthiness and the teacher's record of accomplishments.

Mrs. Rothenbush, a resident of 2996 Neil-av, has taught remedial English at Starling for the past several years, and would use the money to share her knowledge and experience with other teachers, by conducting a workshop during summer vacation months.

Enrollment would be limited to 15 teachers. Each would work with one pupil who needs help in reading.

Any eligible pupil would be considered. Parents should submit their applications to Mrs. Rothenbush as early as possible.

Workship sessions would include lectures by experts in the field of reading, discussion of books and articles in the field, study of instructional material, guildance in the use of tests and supervised work with individual students.

Morning sessions would be devoted to teacher' work with pupils and afternoons to lectures, reading and conferences.

Tentative plans call for the workshop to begin June 16 and continues for two or three weeks.

Kay Glass Honored At Miami U.

Kay Glass

Kay Glass, daughter of Coach and Mrs. R. G. Glass of West and a graduate of West High School, was crowned Queen of the May at Miami University this year, an honor bestowed upon a senior woman by women of the school for being outstanding in her class.

Kay has been on the dean's list four years for scholastic attainment, was president of the Frosh Dorm, president of Pi Beta Phi pledge class, president of Cwens (freshman honorary), vice president of Pi Beta Phi sorority, president of Associated Women Students, Kappa Delta Pi (education honorary), member of Wesley Foundation, Freshman Council, Student Senate and Mortar Board.

She was chosen outstanding woman of her freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, and this year was chosen outstanding Pi Beta Phi of the state of Ohio.

Kay will be graduated this June from Miami, and will begin teaching fourth grade at Upper Arlington Elementary School next year.

Will Conduct Service For 'Boys In Gray'

Sunday, June 1, is this year's date for a memorial program unique in this area . . . the service for Confederate [illegible] buried at Camp Chase cemetery.

The historic cemetery on Sullivant-av, between Powell and Guernsey-ave, is the resting place of 2,360 sons of the South who died while they were impounded here during the Civil War.

"We hope to see many more people at our service this year" said Mrs. M. W. Crocker, who is affiliated with the local Dixie Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Holliday Ruggles is president and Mrs. Paul North, program chairman.

Confederate Memorial Day is commemorated every year on the Sunday closest to the birthday of Jefferson Davis, only

Parents of the athletes are invited to attend.

HEY KIDS!

Free Want Ads Again!

Boys and girls, if you're 16 years of age or younger this newspaper has a swell offer for you . . . a chance to advertise in the classified ad pages — free!

Now you can let employers know that you're available for part-time or summertime work. You can trade something you don't want for something you need very much. You can sell your bike or other possessions or you can advertise some second-hand item.

Every year at this time this newspaper offers thousands of boys and girls a chance to learn about the big results those popular want ads can bring. There are only a few simple rules:

1. Only boys and girls under 16 may submit free want ads.

2. Ads must not contain more than 20 words, including your name, address or phone number.

3. Name, age, address or phone number must be listed or ad cannot be accepted.

4. No ads will be accepted by telephone. They may be taken to the Hartley Newspapers office, 2465 W. Broad-st, or mailed to Boys' and Girls' Want Ad Dept., 2465 W. Broad-st.

5. All ads must be received by 10 a.m., Monday, June [illegible].

6. The newspaper has the right to edit or reject any ad.

In addition to introduction of officers, the following awards were made: Scouters Award, (three years of service) Norman Ingmire, Mearl Weaver, James Sharkey, Horace Elliott. Scouters Key (unit leader three years) Alan Wemyss.

Den mother awards (two or more years with training) Mrs. Ruth McClung, Mrs. Ruby McKnight, Mrs. Dorothy Hale, Mrs Maxie Minnier and Mrs. Grace Coder.

Service pins were presented to Dr. C. O. Miller (15 years) and C. O. Rawlings (21 years)

The evening's address was given by Herbert E. Evans, vice president and manager of People's Broadcasting Co. Bill Meyers furnished entertainment and the Prairie Township seventh graders served the meal prepared by their mothers.

'NUFF SAID!

Nothing pleases a company more than to be assured that its product performs a real service for customers. From one morning's mail at Hartley Newspapers came this cheery, unsolicited letter:

"Last week I put an ad in your newspaper to sell my refrigerator. It worked like magic. I could have sold ten of them.

"I notified another lady how to do the same thing—for she has been advertising some furniture in the daily paper and can't even get anyone to look at it. I hope she has as good fortune as I did.

"I just had to tell you how much I appreciate your help through your want ads.

"Gratefully yours, Mrs. Paul Murnane, 640 Butler-av."

Ads placed in Hartley newspapers are read and re-read. They get your message across. Just call BR. 9-9444.

Legion, VFW Units To Aid Poppy Sale

Auxiliary members of the Camp Chase and Smith-Barratt American Legion Posts as well as the Westway Veterans of Foreign Wars will be selling poppies during Buddy Poppy Days, Friday and Saturday, May 23, 24.

Mrs. J. Shelley LaMonte, of 195 Stevens-av, is general chairman for the VFW and Mrs. Robert Dunlap is heading the drive for the American Legion.

Mrs. George Ell, 188 S. Harris-av, and Mrs. Ronald Wolford, 88 Valerie-st, Grove City, are co-chairmen for Westway's part in the campaign.

All flowers are made by disabled war veterans in hospital and convalescent workrooms at the Sandusky, O., Hospital for the American Legion and Dayton VA Hospital for VFW.

Poppy money is used for rehabilitation work in these hospitals as well as others including Columbus State, Benjamin Franklin Tuberculosis and Aum rest, and Chillicothe VA Hospitals.

Sadie Hawkins Day Decreed At Glenwood

Third Annual Sadie Hawkins Dance will be held Friday, May 23, at Glenwood Recreation Center.

All teenagers and pre-teens are invited. They are to be in "Dogpatch" attire and will be eligible for the "Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae" contest.

Another attraction will be the Sadie Hawkins race. "Marryin' Sam" will be impersonated by Tony Agrieti. No admission will be charged and refreshments will be served.

The dance, sponsored by the Guys and Dolls Club, will last from 7:30 until 10:30 p.m.

Two West Pupils Receive $200 JA College Grants

Two West High School students were among seven Columbus high school youths who won Junior Achievement awards for outstanding work.

West's Jerry Schroy and Janis Harvey were presented $200 college scholarships at the annual JA banquet last Wednesday at the Ohio Union Building.

Janis Harvey worked with Turnco, a junior company manufacturing wrought iron planters under the sponsorship of the Ternstedt Division of General Motors.

Schroy's company, the JA Bank, is sponsored by the City National Bank.

Popular Swap Ads Must Arrive Sooner

A change in deadline for receipt of Free Swap Ads in Hartley Newspapers will be effective next week. The new deadline will be 9 a.m. on Monday.

This will mean that free swap ads must be mailed no later than Saturday if they are to arrive in time for publication in the following week's papers.

Swap ads are free to any paid subscriber to any Hartley Newspaper. Such subscribers may swap anything except real estate, autos or trucks. The ad must not exceed four lines including name, address and phone. There are approximately 20 words in four lines.

Owner Of Old Trail Lanes Says Bowling Is Booming

"Bowling has been cleaned up and popularized since women and children entered the game a few years ago," said Jerry Winkel, owner of Old Trail

Jerry Winkel

Bowling Lanes, 3686 W. Broad-st, and representative of the firm in the Hilltop Business Association.

Winkel points out that at one time bowling was a sort of "back alley" sport and not popular in the summer. Since women have become interested and with the advent of the junior bowling leagues the sport is really booming, he said.

He said more people are bowling in the summer months than before and "luxury bowling palaces" are being built all over the country.

Business Has Expanded

Jerry and his brothers, Robert and Jack, are a family corporation and have owned Old Trail since 1950. Last summer they had additions built and expanded their original 14 lanes to 30. They were the second bowling establishment in the city to install automatic pinspotters.

Because of the brightness in the future of bowling, Winkel, Inc., is building an ultra-modern bowling alley at W. Lane-av and Starr-rd, to be called Fiesta Lanes. Its design is unique and is said to be unequaled in this city.

Jerry said his first venture with his brothers, a grocery store located on the North Side, has been successful and is still in operation under the direction of Bob Winkel.

Married and the father of seven children, Jerry resides with his family at 4995 Lyon-dr.

His interests outside of bowling include swimming, fishing and working in the yard. Travel is limited by business duties but he and his wife try to visit Florida several times a year.

He is a member of HBA, Knights of Columbus, Santa Maria Council, St. Andrews Men's Club and St. Andrews Church.

11 'Money' Prizes Offered Subscribers In This Paper

Added bonus of valuable "Confederate" money insignia makes 11 copies of today's newspaper worth much more than "the paper on which it's written."

One copy of today's issue contains the big jackpot insignia, valued at ten "Confederate" dollars, and the others contain $1 insignia.

Subscribers spotting the insignia on ads in their copies of the newspaper may claim the prize "money" by presenting the copies at Hartley Newspaper office, 2466 W. Broad-st, before Saturday noon. Confederate" currency will be accepted by advertisers appearing in current issue of the newspaper at face value for any merchandise in their store.

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as having paid in advance or on his carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" currency.

Complete rules and exact replicas of the lucky insignia are shown in the accompanying box.

Look For This

Any subscriber who finds this insignia stamped on an ad in this copy of this newspaper, should take it to the office of Hartley Newspapers before Saturday at noon. It will be redeemed for $10. in "Confederate" currency which can be used to make purchases at any local business establishment advertising in this issue.

This insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

No employe or carrier of Hartley Newspapers nor any member of his family, is eligible.

Duncombe Quits City Budget Post

City Finance Director John A. Skipton announced that Sydney Duncombe, 184 S. Richardson-av, resigned Tuesday as superintendent of the budget.

Duncombe will work with the Legislative Service Commission for the State of Washington while attending the University of Washington.

Skipton has not yet named a successor to the $940 a month post.

Highway Closes Thurn Brothers Meat Business

The expressways have put another West Side firm out of business — but only temporarily!

Thurn's meat smoking plant, at 848 Kirby-av, was closed last Saturday because the city wanted the land for an expressway.

This put a temporary halt to the Thurn meat business, a 72-year-old firm, which operates in Booths 11, 12 and 13 in Central Market. The three generations of the Thurn family have manufactured their own smoked meat in the plant since 1884.

Brothers Robert, Lee and Paul Thurn, owners of the business, will reopen their Central Market booths as soon as their new plant is completed. The new one is under construction now at 533 Greenlawn-av and will go into operation near the end of July.

Ringer Serves His Last Term For Valleyview

Valleyview Mayor Charles J. Ringer will not seek re-election in 1960 due to health reasons, he said last week.

Ringer has been top official in the village since 1952. He is currently in the first year of his fourth term.

He stated: "It is not my desire to run for office again. I have enjoyed the close relationship existing among council members since I have been mayor, but my health is not what it should be."

The mayor suffered a heart attack five years ago that formed a blood clot and left him with the loss of a leg.

Girls' Softball, Tennis Beginning At Glenwood

Beginning Monday, and Wednesday this week all intermediate and senior girls will have an opportunity to play softball at 5:30 p.m. at Glenwood Recreation Center. No regular teams will be set up until the beginning of the summer program.

Tennis is on the agenda for Tuesday and Thursday at 5:30. Instruction will be offered in addition to regular play and practice.

Vicki Quinn, intermediate, and Pat Holley of junior girls, won the Glenwood badminton tourney.

To Honor Men In Liquor Store

Two West Siders will be honored Thursday for their outstanding work in the state liquor store, 3737 S. High-st, which has been chosen by the State Department of Liquor Control as the "May Store of the Month."

The store will receive a certificate recognizing the store for its overall cleanliness, appearance of store staff and courteous conduct toward customers.

Robert Keeler, 55 Dana-av, acting store manager; and Joseph Hanes, 188 West Park-av, will be cited for their parts in making the store one of the finest of its kind.

23 Retirees With Picnic State Hospital To Honor

Twenty-three employes who are retiring from their positions at Columbus State Hospital will be honored at a picnic May 22 at Shelter House 6, Indian Camp Park.

Sponsored by the Employes F&R Club, reservations have been made for approximately 500.

Most of the retiring employes are 70 years of age or over. Eleven are retiring from nursing services, seven from engineering and maintenance, one from housekeeping; one from the storeroom, one from research and two from clerical positions.

They represent a combined total of 273 years service at Columbus State Hospital and many have worked as public servants in other positions with the city, county and state governments before their employment here.

Jack Zuber, hospital administrator, will act as master of ceremonies for the program and will introduce the superintendent, Lowell O. Dillon, M.D. who will present gifts from the F&R Club to retiring members.

Honored guests include Jesse Alspach, 2118 N. Fourth-st; Gertrude Book, 54 W. Ninth-st; Albert Brooke, 2423 Wicklow-rd; Nannie Brown, 1960 W. Broad-st; Bert Daft, 489 Hilltonia; Ora Davis, London; Elbert Davison, 37 Belvidere.

R. R. Bangham Will Speak To Kiwanis Club

Hilltop Kiwanians will hear an address entitled "Another Chance" Thursday noon by Robert R. Bangham of Columbus and Wilmington.

R. R. Bangham

Bangham is executive secretary to the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants. He is active in the Masons, Rotary, Methodist Church and American Legion (was on the Boys' State commission 17 years).

Bangham also served four terms in the Ohio Legislature and has held top state offices in finance and welfare. He was also manager of Ohio Penal Industries.

Local GM Plant Calls About 700 Employes Back

Paul L. Jones, plant manager of the Ternstedt Division of General Motors Corp, 200 S. Georgesville-rd, said Saturday that about 700 persons have been called back to work in the past two weeks.

Jones said the recalled workers had been laid off during an inventory adjustment at the plant.

He added that another seasonal recall of employees is expected sometime in the fall.

Starling Wallops Hilltonia Jr. Hi

Starling Junior High School's baseball team established some kind of a record in defeating Hilltonia by the score of 32 to 4 in a six inning game played on the winner's diamond.

Bill Poling and Larry Staten hit home runs for Starling while Charles Rinehart, John Potts, Ronnie Pinto and Harold Miller each hit four for four.

Batteries: Karn, Barnes and Neely, Staten and Rinehart.

Local Man To Graduate From Factory's School

James Hiland, 29, of 96 N. Huron-av will be graduated tomorrow from the sixth session of the Jeffrey Factory School for authorized industrial distributors held at Columbus, by the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co.

He will be awarded a certificate of achievement by J. E. M. Wilson, vice president in charge of sales.

Hiland, a salesman with the Columbus Belting and Supply Company, received this recognition along with 22 other distributor representatives.

Ticklers . . . . by George

Dear Son

Television Now Goes To Chittlin'

Chittlin' Switch,
Monday afternoon

Dear Jason:

Well, I've really got some news for you this week. I've been expecting a letter from you all week but suppose you are busy steering that big cruiser around.

To start off with, Chittlin' Switch isn't so far behind the times now. We've got television and so Paw bought a television set. Of course, the TV station is in Polecat Ridge but it comes in real clear. Your little sister, Astigma, really takes each program just as though the people on the screen were folks she knows. The other night she was crying so hard I thought her heart would break. She told me the story she had just watched on television was very, very sad. It seems that the ending of the story she was interested in was a real tear jerker. The lady died and the man had to go back to his wife.

I really don't know what will ever become of your Uncle Lushmore. He's still running around nights, drinking, and going with wild, wild women. He's got 30 days so often from Judge Potts that they're thinking of naming a month after him. The other day Lush was passing through Geon Gulch and stopped into the Bon Ton Saloon for a drink. Lush ordered his favorite cocktail: about a pint of straight booze in a tall glass with one ice cube. The bartender, being a friendly man, asked Lush if he'd like a twist of lemon peel in it. Your Uncle told him that if and when he wanted lemonade, he'd ask for it.

Your Paw and I went to a carnival at Pasture Flats, and he took me into the tent where they had a knife thrower who worked with his wife. I was very disappointed as the man had a very bad aim. He threw 50 knives at her and missed her every time.

The hospital is just filled with people you know. The old maid school teacher is laid up with internal injuries. She was taking a milk bath when the cow slipped on the bar of soap and landed on her back.

Uncle Lushmore landed in Ward H with a possible fractured skull. He was hit by a man who was driving his car down a big broad highway on a clear day. However, the man couldn't see Lushmore because his windshield was all cluttered up with "Drive Safely" stickers. They've now passed a new law in Chittlin' Switch. Any car going over 35 miles an hour must have a driver.

I understand that they've got a wonderful new invention up in the city of New York. The latest model cars up there have modern devices to safeguard the pedestrian. If a car runs over you, the exhaust pipe sprays you with penicillin and a "Get Well" card drops down on your chest.

One thing I'm positive of, Paw will get well. We owe fifty for the room, a hundred for the nurse and one fifty for the doctor. With all that we owe on him they won't let him kick the bucket.

Guess that this is about all for now. Oh, yes. Your little nephew, Cheddar, is just getting to be too fresh for six years old. The other day he was at the house and he told me that he had been to church and had heard the preacher say that people were dust and would return to dust and asked me if I thought it was true. I told him that whatever the preacher said must be right and then he told me to go into my bedroom and look under the bed. He said that there was a whole mob of people under there either coming or going.

Write soon.

Your loving MOM

Physical Detail Unimportant To Drama Of Last Supper

If the scene of the Last Supper lacked dramatic impact in the simple description which the New Testament gives, great artists would have dramatized it for us and made it unforgettable.

The greatest depiction of the scene is the famous painting by Leonardo da Vinci, though it is probably more emotional than historically accurate.

It is unlikely that the disciples ate at a long table al Leonardo's arrangement. More likely they were grouped together at tables in the form of hollow squares, and were reclining instead of sitting, as such was the custom of the time.

But the physical details are unimportant. Jesus and His followers were Jews and they were engaged in the holiest of all Jewish observances—the celebration of the Passover. This specific celebration in the upper room has a new and added significance as the origin of the Christian sacrament, the essence of Christian faith.

All that makes Christianity worthwhile is portrayed in the glorification of the Christian service. Though one of the Twelve was a traitor, these disciples had been called to a high honor. It was not to exercise power like kings, but that of serving the King of Kings, who is beyond all others.

He stooped to conquer and give Himself completely to the service of His Father and His fellowmen. By joining in that spirit we can perpetuate the spirit of the Last Supper in the upper room.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Take Your Catch Home!

Picture yourself sitting in a boat anchored near Starve Island. You are on Lake Erie for a day of fishing in the beautiful island area — one of the best fishing spots in the country.

You snap on a spinner to try for smallmouths or perhaps white bass. A few casts bring no action, so you work the spinner slower, closer to bottom. Suddenly there is a terrific strike, and your rod tip arches down to meet the water.

The first run shows plenty of power, and your first thought is that you have hooked a granddaddy smallmouth bass. You turn him, and the fish rushes under the boat heading for deeper water. He bores down deep, and then a little deeper.

To Keep, or Not to Keep?

A few seconds later you have him near the surface—a few last water-sloshing flip flops—and you net a silvery sheepshead. What would be your reaction?

Many anglers in this situation would feel that they have been cheated, for somehow sheepshead have gotten the reputation for being a worthless fish. This is difficult for me to understand, for they have plenty of fight when taken on light spinning tackle. They hit artificial baits. And yes, they are good to eat. What more can you ask from a fish?

Granted that they do not rate with walleyes and perch in eating quality, nor with the smallmouth bass in slashing acrobatics. But I'm certainly not ashamed to admit that I enjoy catching them, and I usually take my catch home for a session with the frying pan.

Preparation Makes Difference

Sheepshead, and all fish for that matter, should be cleaned promptly and kept well refrigerated until cooked. Fillet them and take the skin off. This is standard procedure for me, because fish are easier to skin than to scale. Take a fillet and lay it skin side down on a board. Then with a sharp knife start at the tail and work the flesh loose. With a little practice this becomes very easy.

Many fishermen do not even bother to keep largemouth bass, because of stories of "mossy" and "muddy" tastes. This could be true when bass are taken from certain waters during hot weather. Skinning them removes most of this taste. In early summer though, a bass that has been filleted and skinned is as good as any fish you will eat.

It got to thinking about the eating qualities of certain fish after attending a fish fry with a group of outdoor writers from all over Ohio. We were guests of Jack Lay, Port Clinton, and we were served sheepshead, catfish, walleyes, and perch.

Jack has had considerable experience with fish frys, and said that they usually figure on three-quarters of a pound of fish per person. After the meal Jack told us that we had eaten twice that amount—a pound and a half each. This was a very practical experiment in deciding whether sheeps head are palatable or not.

Jack and his brother are commercial fishermen on Lake Erie and would, of course, very much like to sell some of the sheepshead they catch. The market for them, however, is non-existent. In fact, they can't even give them away.

Actually, fishermen are missing a bet if they don't fully utilize their catches. Fish are a high protein, low calorie food. The pleasures of fishing are doubled when you take your catch home.

Flag Pole Sitter Set For Ascent

"Mad" Marshall Jacobs who gained considerable fame recently when he was married atop a 200 foot flag pole in Coshocton will be sitting on top of this pole at Cunningham & Young's used car lot in West Jefferson from Friday, May 23, until midnight Friday, Memorial Day.

You probably have read of the remarkable stunts of this man in Life Magazine or heard him on "We The People" of Lowell Thomas' radio program. Some of the acts he has performed have really been unbelievable.

"Mad" Marshall will erect this pole Thursday and Friday by himself and will then ascent to the top at 7 p.m. Friday and stay aloft until midnight May 30. Every evening at 7 p.m. he will come half way down the pole and shave, take a bath in a 50 gallon steel thank, eat his supper and then climb back to his lofty perch. He sleeps right on top of the pole and doesn't strap himself in.

He will have a telephone with him on the pole and will be calling various numbers in Madison and Franklin Counties and award cash prizes to those who can quote the well known slogan of Cunningham & Young.

Loveless Appliance, West Jefferson, have furnished him a transister radio and electric shaver for his convenience and pleasure while he spends these eight days and nights way up in the sky. Loveless has also equipped the pole with adequate lights to comply with the laws and also to enable the public to see that he is there at all hours of the night.

Library Will Display West High Art Exhibits Through Mid-June

PLENTY OF PREPARATION went into the West High School Art Exhibit now on display in the Hilltop Branch Library. The art work will remain there until June 14. Preparing the pictures for their trip to the library are, left to right: Harry Postlethwait of 76 S. Reys-av, an art student for two and a half years; Mr. Richard E. Teichert, West's art instructor; and Vicki Haslett, 322 Porter-st, an art student for one year.

West High School's Art Department exhibit, which went on display last week at the Hilltop Branch Library, 2955 W. Broad-st, and will continue there until June 14, is said to be a "first".

"It is the first time, so far as we know, that any single Columbus high school has displayed work for such a long period of time in a public building," said Richard E. Teichert, West's art instructor.

He added, "Not everyone who takes art at West intends to be an artist, but for the student who does here is an opportunity to gain the background needed For those who take it purely for enjoyment comes the discovery that art experience is invaluable in everyday living."

In the exhibit, which is representative of work from the 10B through the 12A, there are 23 framed pictures, plus ceramics, carvings and third-dimensional space designs. The display is open to the public during regular library boura.

Preparation committees included: framed and matted pictures, Dora Lian, Duane Casto, Donna Green, Charles Roush, Dixie Miller, Charles Demmler, Karla Dorr, Jim Caldwell and Bill Ingle; brochure, Lola Laudman, Ronnie Clark and Robert Riebel; three-dimensional objects, Charles Milaw, Bill Seesholtz and Calvin Lutz; labels, Bob Litman; guest book, Beverly Greenwood.

West Pupils Win Five Awards In TB Art-Script Competition

Four West junior and senior high students took five out of 13 awards in "TV Spotlights TB," fourth annual television art-script project sponsored by the Tuberculosis Society, WBNS-TV, and Columbus Art School.

West had the largest number of winners of any school.

In the senior high division, Beverly Greenwood, 941 S. Richardson-av, won a $200 scholarship to Columbus Art School on the basis of art excellence alone.

For an effective art-script combination, Duane Casto, 1536 Sullivant-av, received a $25 savings bond.

Two awards in the junior high division went to Richard Sines, 2448 Steele-av, a $25 savings bond for his art and script combined, and a Saturday morning scholarship to Columbus Art School for effective artwork.

Donna Seward, 282 S. Hague-av, also received a $25 savings bond.

Winners of the television sets and savings bonds for slide and script combinations will see and hear their work aired during the summer on WBNS-TV.

Forty-six schools were represented among the 517 entries.

Group Will Help Teenagers Snare Elusive Summer Jobs

The scramble for summer jobs is of special concern to teenagers over 16 this year. The "pickings" will be slimmer, say job experts.

A committee has been formed to help them, however. On it are representatives from 32 agencies, schools, companies and clubs.

While the group believes that students profit from making their own search for summer jobs, it will operate registration centers in Glenwood, Sunshine and Schiller Recreation Centers in this area. Adult volunteers will be on hand from Monday, June 9, thrpugh June 13, to register students who have not been able to get jobs.

Applications will be matched with job orders for teenagers received through the Ohio State Employment Service. Employers can register their needs with the OSES office or the nearest high school.

Information on the plan has been sent to the Hilltop Community Council, Hilltop Business Association, Lincoln Village Residents Association, Inc. and West Side Board of Trade.

More details can be obtained from William D. Lakin at AX. 9-3148, Ext. 608.

FOYAL PLANS RETREAT

FOYAL (Federation of Young Adult Lutherans) will leave Friday, May 23 to join groups from Pittsburgh, Pa. and Washington, D.C. for a weekend retreat at Camp Lutherlyn near Butler, Pa.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Vegetables — Asparagus, cucumbers, green beans, frozen peas.

Fruits — Bananas, Valencia oranges, pineapple, canned apricots.

Other Foods—Fryers, ground beef, ham, large eggs, dairy products.

FOOD BUYING IS BIG BUSINESS

Today's family spends about one-fourth of its disposable income for food. Retail food sales last year totaled almost four billion dollars.

To get the most from these food dollars many decisions must be made. While more food for less money is the aim of many, it is not the only measure of wise food shopping. Family satisfaction may be more important to you. Many factors affect wise food buying. Used together, these factors can result in both greater mealtime for your family and save you dollars.

Buy in Season—Seasonal buying offers many advantages such as economy, larger supplies, better quality, high nutritive value, and less waste.

When and Where—The right time to shop depends upon needs, demands on time, cost of goods, and community conditions. You'll find your shopping easier if you choose a day and a time to shop when the selection offered by your store is normally large and of best possible quality, and when you can make savings.

Food prices vary from store to store, sometimes from day to day during the week. When choosing a store look for economy, quality, variety, location, convenience, parking facilities and employee courtesy. Credit availability may be important in the event you might wish to use it.

A shopping list will save both time and money, even if you find it necessary to make substitutions while in the store.

Food buying skill is developed through improved buying practices. It's a bit like the slogan, "Learning to do by doing." The satisfactions that come as a result of good money management will reward the effort it takes to become a better food shopper.

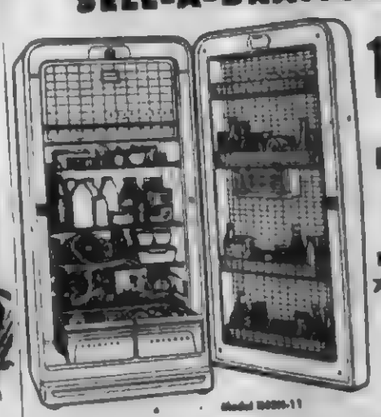
Let's talk about

YOUR BIRTHDAYS

Every year, with monotonous regularity, each of us 'celebrates' a birthday. With each birthday, we grow a little older. If we also grow a little wiser, we realize what life insurance can do for our future and for our families. And on each birthday, we would be wise to ask ourselves a few questions:



"Have my circumstances changed since last year? Do I now need greater life insurance coverage? Had I better not do something about it immediately before my age changes again, and any new policy which I take out proves more expensive?"

I'm sure I can be of service. Why not give me a call? You will be under no obligation.

About The Hilltop

In the very near future, the David Wallaces, natives of Scotland will receive their US citizenship papers. Their daughter, Debbie, was born in this country and they are looking forward to a new arrival from the stork in September. Mr. Wallace is a bacteriologist at Columbus State School, where he and his family reside . . . Young Harry Haney is back in "civvies" again . . . Newlyweds Lt. and Mrs. Clyde Reed are due back from a honeymoon trip through the East. Mrs. Reed is the former Nancy Ann Timmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Timmons of Westgate. The lieutenant, a Michigan resident, is at present stationed at Lake Charles, La.

Decoration day, May 30, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph (Joe) Birnbrich, owners and operators of Hilltop Florist will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary . . . Young Dave Dell, senior at St. Charles, is looking over the college brochures. In all probability he will attend OSU . . . Longtime Hilltopper, Orville Garrett, will be officially retired from Columbus State School, June 1. Mr. Garett, a war veteran, will be 74 years young this month.

Pfc. William W. Bauer will soon be back in "civvies" again. While in Germany he was named soldier of the month . . . Recently, Loda Bell McPherson returned home after a six-week vacation. Traveling red carpet style, she joined her sister, Florida Foster, in Texas where they boarded a train on an extended tour of the West. While in California they felt the lure of the islands and booked passage on a luxury liner for a stay in Hawaii . . .

On Apr. 12, in Christ Lutheran Church, Jack Russell Sanford exchanged nuptial vows with Beverly Gay of Bexley. Mr. Sanford is a sophomore in the college of education at Ohio State University and is employed by Aeration Processes, Inc. . . . Out at Old Trail Bowling Alleys, Columbus Auto Spring sponsored by Jack Ziegler, wound up in first place in the Sportsman's League . . . Recently, Benjamin Solomon passed the state board of examination for Professional Engineers and Surveyors . . .

WEST SIDE BOY SCOUT NEWS

Edited By JACK H. FRAVEL

To Camp at Blue Creek

A camping trip is planned for this weekend by Troop 29. The unit will spend Saturday and Sunday in the Hocking Hills, near Blue Creek.

Scoutmaster Loren West invites fathers of troop members to attend one or more troop meetings between now and July 1. The troop will recharter after that date, and it is important that all of the fathers know the functions of the troop and its committee.

Post Reclaims Award

A meeting of the 225 units' unique Parents Auxiliary took place Thursday evening at St. Matthews Lutheran Church. Discussion centered around the combined camping trip and picnic to be sometime in July. The attendance award went to the post.

Fire the Phil

It was decided at the last meeting of Pack 114 that a softball league will be set up with teams consisting of boys from the several dens. Money for the equipment will be taken from the pack treasury. A trophy will be awarded to the champion den at the end of the season.

June 22 there will be a pot-luck outing for members of Pack 114 and their families, on the Richter-rd property of Elmer Hickson, pack treasurer.

A late but interesting observation: Pack 114 looked nice when it marched in the May Day parade.

St. Brendan's Church Clubs Plan Festival

St. Brendan's Church, located at the corner of Dublin and Davidson-rds, will be the site of a "Spring Festival" Friday and Saturday, May 30-31, it was announced recently by Joseph Fehn and Charles Wetterer, co-chairmen of the Festival Committee.

The "circus-like" festival will feature "Flippo" the clown, free balloons for the kiddies, pony rides, gifts, games, food and refreshments. The hours of the festival are 2 to 11 p.m. daily.

The affair is being sponsored by the Ladies' Miriam Club and the Men's Club. The funds derived will be used for the church's building fund.

K. Gull Named Youth Director

Kirby Gull has been named youth director of Westgate Methodist Church, replacing William Stegall who resigned.

Gull is a pre-theology student at Ohio Wesleyan University and received his license to preach this month from the Zanesville District Methodist Church. He was one of two representing the 40,000 youth of the Ohio Conference, speaking at an evangelistic rally held in Veterans Memorial Hall this winter. He also served as conference worship chairman.

He will be honored during a coffee hour reception next Sunday following the 11 a.m. service.

New Series Of Novena Planned

St. Mary Magdalene Church, Parkside and Roya-av, will hold a new series of the Miraculous Medal Novena, starting Monday, May 26.

Rev. Charles Lucier, O.P., and Rev. Leonard Fick will conduct the series.

Novena devotions are at 6:30 with Mass, 10, 3, 4, 5:30, 6:30, 7:30 and 8:30. The 8:30 Mass each Monday morning is offered for the intentions of those making the Novena and confessions are heard at each service.

Missionary Rally Held At Local Church Of Christ

Churches of Christ in the Columbus area conducted a missionary rally May 14 through 18. Ten direct-support missionaries spoke concerning their work in various congregations.

Appearing at Thomas Avenue Church of Christ were Charles Troyer, missionary to Italy, on Wednesday night; A. B. McReynolds, Kiamichi Mountain Mission, Thursday; Leland Terrell, president Winston-Salem Bible College, Friday; and Paul Pratt, missionary to Burma-Japan on Sunday night.

Choir Will Sing Requiem

Chancel Choir of Westgate Methodist Church will present Brahms' "German Requiem," its third and final major choral work of the year, on Sunday, May 25, during the 11 a.m. worship service.

Choir will be under the direction of Jack Grigsby. Soloists are Mrs. William Kontras, soprano, and Dr. James Hardie, baritone. Mrs. Bruce Clark will be at the organ.

Cornerstone Will Be Laid Sunday

Cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new Concordia Lutheran Church, 225 School House ln, Lincoln Village, will be observed Sunday, May 25 at 2:30 p.m.

Pastor of the congregation is Rev. Paul Hutchinson. Frederick Stritsel is the architect and Howard Zimmer the builder.

Construction of the new church is progressing rapidly and scheduled for completion near the end of June.

Falcon Boosters Plan Special Spring Festival

A Spring Festival featuring many amusement rides will be sponsored by the Franklin Heights Boosters Club, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday next to the high school at 1091 Demorest-rd.

Included along the midway will be the new Scrambler, made popular at last year's Ohio State fair.

Admission to the showgrounds will be free, during all three days. The grounds will be opened at 1 p.m. on Memorial Day and Saturday when school children will be offered reduced prices on all rides.

BUILDS GARAGE

E. R. Soualin, 274 S. Southampton-av, has a permit to construct a one-car concrete block garage at 466 Binns-blvd.

URGE PROMPT LISTING OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

Kindergarten and first-grade children who will start to the Columbus Public Schools next fall will be registered before School is out this spring, Supt. Harold H. Eibling reminded parents.

Many parents have not called the elementary school in their neighborhood to make registration plans, Dr. Eibling said.

Any child who will be five on or before December 31 may be registered for kindergarten. Children who will be six on or before Dec. 31 must be registered for first grade if they are not enrolled in a kindergarten of the Columbus Public Schools at present.

Registration can be speeded if parents take an original birth certificate and diphtheria and polio records to the school.

Birth certificates for children born in Columbus may be obtained at the City Health Department, 181 S. Washington-blvd.

Foster Parents Meet State School Social Aides Today

Approximately 70 foster parents of Columbus State School residents attended the fifth annual Family Care Parents Meeting today at the school.

The meeting is an all-day workshop to give social workers a chance to discuss problems and new techniques with outside persons who willingly accept Columbus State School patients in their home.

These persons try to provide a natural home environment for their "state guests" and to aid in their social, vocational, educational and mental growth.

This form of social service has been in effect locally for six years and reportedly helped many state school residents grow into well-rounded, well-adjusted persons taking their place in the business and social world.

Today's meeting was divided into three discussion groups: home for adults with no vocational ability; homes for adults with jobs; and homes for children. Foster parents attended the session which best suited the type of patient living in their home.

Milton Kanzaki, social worker at the Columbus State School, was the general chairman of the meeting.

At present, the school has nearly 600 residents living in some 175 outside homes in Ohio.

Athletic Group Sponsors Dance

Athletic Association of St. Mary Magdalene will sponsor a "Holiday Hop" dance in the church hall Thursday, May 29, 9 p.m. until midnight.

Music will be furnished by Carl's Combo for round and square dancing. Public is invited to attend.

In charge of arrangements are Paul Weisenbach, dance chairman; Bill McGuire, refreshments; C. J. McDonald, treasurer and Vic Thomas, publicity.

Catholic Young Adults, under the supervision of Allen Huffman will decorate.

West Senior Banquet Held

June graduating class at West High School held its senior banquet May 13 at Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church. Reading of the class prophecy was a featured part of the program.

All arrangements were made by class officers and appointed committees.

Entertainment committee was comprised of Marty Abrams, chairman; Carolyn Beery, Mary Jo Cramer, Jerry Galloway, Gary Fullerton and Cliff Shoemaker; decorations, Don Hallam and Marcia Holzapfel, co-chairmen; Chuck Roush, Sharon Boyd and Vicki Haslett.

GIRL SCOUTS News and Notes

NEWS OF WESTHILL NEIGHBORHOOD

Mrs. Robert Duncan, leader of Brownie Troop 137 reports on the South-a-Roo held in the Youth buildin, Ohio State Fairgrounds on May 2: "This was a fine opportunity to view Girl Scouting and all its phases.

Girls and adults worked together to complete more than 60 exhibits, all varied, interesting and educational. There was little repetition. Each exhibit carried a definite theme—easily recognized."

Scouts demonstrated knot tying, basket weaving, painting puppet making and child care. Folk dancing and puppet shows were taking place most of the time.

The evening program, a pageant climaxed the day with color and excitement.

At 91, Mrs. Hughes Continues Active Life Around Her Home

"NEVER HAD TO WEAR GLASSES," boasts Mrs. Denia Hughes who can still read small Bible printing and thread a needle for her quilt work.

By Ray Shaffer

Celebrating 91 years of life didn't stop Mrs. Denia M. Hughes from going right on with her daily chores—cleaning, making quilts and reading her Bible without the use of glasses!

Mrs. Hughes, a resident of 317 S. Highland-av, has a clear mind and easily remembers details of her life including her childhood in Urbana, O.

She has just begun her spring house cleaning and the morning of this interview had cleaned out her coal furnace—that's doing pretty well for a woman of 91!

Mrs. Hughes hasn't been out of her home for several years. She says she has never been ill but her doctor has warned her that any fall at her age could be serious. Therefore, she seems content to remain at home and spend her hours sewing quilts.

Her grandson, Walter Smith, 250 S. Wayne-av stops in once a week to help her with any heavy work and to do her shopping. A hired man comes during the summer to take care of her lawn.

The sale of her quilts boosts her income somewhat. However, she uses the money unselfishly. From time to time she has various prayers and religious poems printed to give the many people who visit her.

"Young people today seem to have so many more problems than I did at their age so I feel if I give them a little prayer to read it might lift their morale," said Mrs. Hughes.

Has Firm Faith

She is deeply religious and faithfully reads her Bible twice a day. A widow of six years, Mrs. Hughes said, "People ask me if I'm not scared to live alone. Why, I don't live alone—the Lord is with me every minute, every day!"

She is broad-minded about her religion and goes to church every Sunday by way of radio. "I listen to the services of all the various religious sects. I learn a little more from all of them," she said.

Before her marriage, she taught vocal and instrumental music and had studios in Ohio Indiana and Kentucky. She still maintains this vivid interest in good music.

A Hilltopper for 40 years, Mrs. Hughes' late husband, Albert, was employed by the Union Fork and Hoe Co. for 50 years and was a member of its Diamond Club. Their one child, Walter, is also deceased.

Having outlived most of her immediate relatives, Mrs. Hughes now enjoys the company of friends, young of old. Amusingly she refers to anyone in their 60's or 70's as extremely old!

West High Grads Of 1940 Plan Picnic Reunion

West High School graduating class of January, 1940, will hold a picnic reunion at Westgate Park, July 5.

An effort is being made to secure addresses of all members of the class, and to date the following have not been located:

Rollie Alden, Emeline Bright, Robert Coleman, Dorothy Eileen Figgins, Elsie Elnor Ford, Nettie Harr, Katherine Elizabeth Johnson, Jack McConnell, Robert Joseph Montrose, Richard Rhoads, Donald Richardson, Maryjane Tiller, Jack Wilkins, Richard Williams, William Wilson, Elaine Wiseman, Norman I. Wylie.

Any information regarding these persons may be relayed to Mrs. Delma Davis Cooper, 1985 Kentwell-rd, HU. 6-1293 or Mrs. Theda Dalton Hart, 3154 Fisher-rd, ER. 4-9696.

Tonti Builders Begin Project At New Rome

Tonti Builders, of 2506 W. Broad-st, has begun construction of a $1.26 million home building project at Rome Heights in the 4000 block of W. Broad. The program, which started May 1, is taking place south of Lincoln Lodge.

In addition, Tonti is building 40 homes in Grove City and on Karl-rd. The New Rome construction program brings the amount spent by Tonti over the last two years in Rome Heights to over two million dollars.

Three-bedroom brick and stucco homes in the $17,000 to $19,000 range are being planned. Financing can be accomplished with open-end mortgages. Optional mortgage payment insurance is also offered.

Altogether the firm completed and sold $3,000,000 in new dwellings last year.

Your Youth

By Bud Martin and Al Hellewell

Information and application blanks for the Hilltop YMCA "Little Nine" baseball went into the schools this week.

Aimed at boys 8-12, the YMCA seeks to teach the fundamentals of baseball, good sportsmanship and an appreciation of the game. Each team is to have a manager-coach. Those older boys and adults interested in coaching one of these teams should contact Bud Martin at the Hilltop "Y". Action should begin shortly after school is out in June.

West Senior Hi-Y will hold the annual Installation Dinner for new officers this Saturday, 6:30 p.m. at Burgess EUB Church. Among the guests will be the West High faculty members who played in the popular Faculty-Hi-Y basketball game this winter.

The last of the regularly scheduled swims for boys will be 3:45 p.m. Saturday afternoon at the Central YMCA.

Schedule for the week follows:

Wednesday, May 21 — Hilltop "Y" Golden Age Club, Hoge Memorial, 1:30 p.m.; Gra-Y, John Burroughs School, 3:30 p.m.; Slo-Pitch, Westgate Park 6 p.m.

Thursday, May 22 — West Senior Hi-Y meeting, West High, 8 a.m.; Gra-Y, West Mound School, 3:30 p.m.; Gra Y, Binns School, 3:15 p.m.; "Y" movies, Oakley Baptist Church 7 p.m.; "Y" Indian Guides, Apache, 7:15 p.m.; "Y" Board of Management meeting, Hilltop "Y", 7:30 p.m.; YM-YW Report, Great Western Ohio National Bank, 7:30 p.m.

Friday, May 23 — Gra-Y, Westgate School, 3:30 p.m.; "Y" Girls' Craft, Hilltop YMCA, 3:30 p.m.; "Y" Movies, Glenwood Recreation Center, 7 p.m.; "Y" Indian Guides, Navajo, Cherokee, Blackfeet, Mohawk, 7:30 p.m.; "Y" Indian Maidens, Mohican Tribe, 7:30 p.m.

Saturday, May 24 — Gra-Y softball, John Burroughs playground, 9 a.m.; "Y" Indian Dancers, Hilltop YMCA, 9:30 a.m.; Boys' Swim, meet at Hilltop Y with towel, bus fare, 10 cent fee, 3:30 p.m.; "Y" Square Dance, Westgate Park, family potluck, 8 p.m.

Women Add Force To YW-YMCA Development Drive

A women's section of the Hilltop YMCA Special Gifts Committee was formed last week to aid in the coverage of thousands of prospects in the Hilltop area for the $2,520,800 YMCA-YWCA Joint Development Fund. Among the captains greeted were Mrs. Roy Van Ins, Mrs. Eldon Ardle, Mrs. Elmer Hagenberger, Mrs. Roy Cave, Mrs. Betty Daft.

Chairman William E. Jones of the Hilltop YMCA Special Gifts Division, shows his enthusiasm for the work of Mrs. Moss Williams, as they watch her score pass the $9,000 mark, highest of the team totals. Visible are the panels of thousands of cards of prospective donors for which volunteer solicitors are sought.

Hilltop Special Gifts Division of the YMCA-YWCA Joint Development Fund, which has raised a total of $41,246 in the current campaign, received new impetus last week with the enlistment of approximately 100 women volunteers.

They will extend the work of the Special Gifts Division, headed by William E. Jones, which has been largely composed of men. The additional help is needed, Jones said, to cover the thousands of prospects in the Hilltop area before the close of the campaign at the end of June.

At last week's organization meeting in the Great Western office of the Ohio National Bank, the women's section was not complete. Captains present were Mrs. Betty Daft, Mrs. Roy Van Ins, Mrs. Eldon Ardle, Mrs. Wilford Slate, Mrs. Roy Cave and Mrs. Elmer Hagenberger.

A report meeting for this division is scheduled for Tuesday, June 3, at 7:30 p.m. in Ohio National's Great Western office.

Mrs. [illegible]

The exceptional record compiled by Mrs. Moss M. Williams, who has been the only captain of her sex in the Special Gifts Division, was highly commended by Jones and warmly applauded by the workers present at the last report meeting. Mrs. Williams' team has achieved a total of $9,284, the highest in the division. General Chairman C. C. Hartley is in second place with $5,234, Dr. E. E. McNamee in third place with $4,546, and Roy Agin in fourth place with $3,744.

Pleading for more women workers, Jones said that it was possible to double the returns if more workers would volunteer for this community task. He expressed his willingness to enlist workers at his office in City National Bank & Trust, at 3100 W. Broad where cards are available for those willing to assist.

At the last general report meeting of all divisions, the campaign total stood at $830,043. Of this amount the special gifts divisions in the branch areas have contributed $100,298.

Memory and Faith

"This Memorial Day as we in America make the pilgrimage to the graves of our loved ones there will be an added solemnity for all.

"In our Nation's capital a service for two American servicemen, — one from World War II, the other from Korea, who were selected from the thousands of unknown dead — will be held. They will be entombed beside the Unknown Soldier of World War I in Arlington National Cemetery.

"There the three will sleep through the ages under the inscription "Here Rest in Honored Glory, American Soldiers, Known Only To God."

"Let us each make our own silent tribute to these men. They could be your sons or mine. 'Unknown' . . . they are ours!" (Submitted by Mrs. H. H. Herron, 71 Eldon-av, past president, Department of Ohio, Blue Star Mothers of America.)

Various patriotic organizations have announced commemorative services this weekend in nearby cemeteries.

SUNSET, ALTON SERVICES

Sunset and Alton Cemeteries will be the scene of Memorial Day services of Camp Chase Post No. 96, American Legion.

Rev. A. L. Roth, of Hilltop Baptist Church, will participate with Legion officers in the service to be held at the veterans' plot in Sunset Cemetery at 10:30 a.m.

Services will be held in Alton Cemetery at 11 a.m. with Rev. J. L. Dean of the Hilltop Community Church giving a brief message.

The post firing squad will fire the traditional salute, followed by "Taps" in the salute to the dead. Eugene R. Krumm is chaplain. Post Commander Harry Richter is program chairman. The post will also be in the downtown parade.

GEORGESVILLE SERVICE

Westway Post 3441, VFW, will assemble at the downtown post home at 8 a.m. and proceed to the parade. At 1 p.m. Auxiliary and post members will form at the post home under the leadership of unit president, E. Wolford, and post commander, Sam Weller, to go to Georgesville Cemetery. Post chaiplain, Marshall Marsh, and past commander, James Horn, will be in charge of memorial services. The speaker will be Rev. Buster Hammons of Lilly Chapel.

A pot luck open house will be held at the post home later in the afternoon.

Rev. A. Wold Will Receive Honorary Doctorate Degree

Rev. Alfred J. Wold

Rev. Alfred J. Wold, minister of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church since 1939, has been invited to attend commencement exercises June 9 at Macalester College, St. Paul, Minn. to receive an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

After graduation from McCormick Seminary, Chicago, Rev. Wold held pastorates in Minneapolis and Chicago.

During the 19 years he has been pastor of Hoge Memorial the membership has more than doubled and he has been occupying a new church building at 2930 W. Broad-st since May, 1958.

Rev. Wold has held terms as chaplain to the House of Representatives, State of Ohio, and has been active in many community projects.

This week he and Mrs. Wold are attending the general assembly of Presbyterian Church USA, in Pittsburgh. Rev. Wold is a commissioner from Columbus Presbytery.

Fire Lt. Herold Retires After 25 Years Service

Fire Lt. John Herold, long time resident of the Hilltop, formerly of 389 S. Richardson-av, assigned to No. 17 engine House, Broad-st at Wheatland-av, retired last week after 25 years service due to physical disability.

A retirement party in his honor was held by members of the West Side engine houses at Firemen's Park, Buckeye Lake. He was presented an appropriate gift plus his retirement badge.

Herold, who recently built his own home at Buckeye Lake, has a brother and two nephews in the fire department.

Airport 'Business As Usual' To Be Rule During Festivity

The crown is on the hatrack, the throne stands empty and a trophy as well as a $25 savings bond is waiting—all for the '58 Hilltop Bean Dinner Queen! Two runners-up will also be awarded a $25 savings bond.

In just a few short weeks, Sullivant Avenue Airport will be humming and buzzing with Bean Dinner carnival spirit. This year's event is planned for June 24 and 25.

Members of Hilltop Business Association, sponsors of the festival, with Gomer Jones, operator of Sullivant Avenue Airport, has allocated space at the port to allow plenty of room for Bean Dinner events as well as provide for aircraft of any size to make safe landing.

It will be "business as usual" for all planes normally expecting to land at the 'port. Snow fences will separate the runway from the area reserved for festivities, and facilities to accommodate landing of planes of any size will be available throughout the two days.

The urge to wear a crown and be a queen of something or anything seems instilled in girls the world over, from their first reading of Snow White and Cinderella.

One local lovely will reign in regal splendor over all gala activities planned for Bean Dinner days, and collect valuable prizes as well.

Two others, chosen as members of her court, will share in the glory and prizes.

Movie-star beauty and television personality are not required to sit on the Bean Dinner throne. Youthful attractiveness, poise and personality will place some Hilltop girl in the June limelight. Contestants must be over 16 and single.

Entry blanks are ready and waiting at the Hilltop Business Association Office, 3183 W. Broad-st; Hilltop Swimming Club, 2737 Valleyview-dr, and Hilltop Record office, 2466 W. Broad-st.

Contestants should pick them up without delay and return the completed forms, with a billfold size picture of themselves, to the Record office.

Contracts On Hilltop School Let

Contracts for the new Lindbergh Elementary School, to be built on Lindbergh-dr immediately west of Eureka-blvd, were awarded yesterday by the Columbus School Board.

Members met in a special early session to award the contracts, in order to save one week of summer construction time.

The new, nine-room school is needed in September.

General and electrical contracts went to the Cardiff Construction Co. of Columbus on a low bid of $118,218, and plumbing, heating and ventilating contract to Dotter, Inc., of Columbus on a bid of $39,490.

Smith Chosen As President By Optimists

Laben Smith

Laben Smith will be installed next Tuesday as the second president of the Western Optimist Club when the group meets at the Colony Restaurant at noon.

Smith, who lives at 630 Morning-st, Worthington, is a partner in the Smith Brothers Tool and Supply Co., Sullivant-av. He will succeed Dr. Robert Wylie, the group's first president.

Others who will be installed are Don Reaver, first vice president; Paul Pontius, second vice-president; Joe Fratino, secretary; and Howard Hagen, treasurer.

New directors of the club are Jack Schluep, Jack Albers, Jack Teagardner and Dr. John Pasias.

West Is Second

Central's 6-5 victory over host South yesterday cinched the City League Baseball championship for the Bucs, making this the eighth city title for the team since 1921.

Close rival West, in second place, was vying for a city title-share with the first place Pirates. West's hopes were dashed after a 5-0 loss to its Linden guests. A West win and a Central loss would have tied the two for the championship which they shared last year.

FEW DAYS LEFT FOR KIDS' ADS

Last year 60 youngsters took good advantage of the Free Want-Ads offered annually by Hartley Newspapers at the close of the school year.

Many found good summer jobs, traded bikes, sold pony rides, etc. through the power of Want-ads.

This year the ads will be printed the first week of June. Orders are arriving in every mail. Make sure yours reaches us before the deadline . . . 12 a.m. Monday, June 2.

Remember the rules:

1. Only boys and girls under 16 may submit free want ads.

2. Ads must not contain more than 20 words, including your name, address or phone number.

3. Name, age, address or phone number must be listed or ad cannot be accepted.

4. No ads will be accepted by telephone. They may be taken to the Hartley Newspapers office, 2466 W. Broad-st, or mailed to Boys' and Girls' Want Ad Dept., 2466 W. Broad-st.

5. All ads must be received by 10 a.m., Monday, June 2.

6. The newspaper has the right to edit or reject any ad.

Sports Take Spotlight At Recognition Banquet

HEAD COACH Bill Schmitter proudly welcomes to the banquet, his boys who made a good showing in spring sports at West this year. He chats with Vaughn Ammon, baseball captain; Jerry Davis, West trackman, and his coach, Rufe Gipes.

By Joyce Willis

The 1958 "All Sports" Banquet, honoring the athletic department of West High School was held Monday evening in the Westinghouse Corp. cafeteria.

Each phase of sports in which the West High Cowboys participated was recognized. Players and their parents coaches and their wives and the faculty attended.

Fred "Curley" Morrison, ex-Ohio State, Cleveland Browns football great gave a 20-minute talk on the success that can be attained through good sportsmanship and a good attitude in training.

George Williams, West High history teacher, acted as toastmaster. He was introduced by David Rinehart of Hilltop Lions. Mr. Williams called on coaches of the various teams who in turn introduced the players.

Entertainment was furnished by the "Sequins" a choral group from the West High music department and Clair Barnard, director.

Sponsoring the annual recognition banquet were the Hilltop Lions Club, Hilltop Kiwanis, Hilltop Business Association and the West High Athletic Association.

Varsity and Reserve football squads were piloted this year by Head Coach Bill Schmitter and assistants Charles Meyers, Bill Brown and John Butler. Team physician was Dr. Robert Davis, and equipment manager was John Heskett.

Golden Age Club Holds '58 Banquet

The Golden Age Club of Sunshine Recreation Center held its eighth annual banquet last night at the center with the evening's activities headed by Emcee N. J Barach, superintendent of the City Recreation Department.

About 160 persons attended. Rabbi Nathan Zelizer was the guest speaker. Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner extended greetings to the Golden Agers.

The club presented a gold electric clock to Sunshine's Advisory Council, to be placed in the center.

The oldest man and woman club members present were honored. They were Mrs. Carrie Conrad, 88, of 1234½ W. Broadst, and Lafayette Byrum, 92, 382 S. Hague-av. Mrs. Conrad received an orchid and Byrum was given a tie.

Members of the Golden Age Club, which is the oldest and largest club of its kind in the city, were entertained by teen-agers from Sunshine.

Planned club activities for coming months were announced. Members will hold a picnic at the Columbus Zoo Park in July. Boat rides at Griggs Dam are planned for golden agers in August.

The club group will go to Blacklick Woods for a picnic in September and Hocking Hills in October.

Princess Of 'Pony Tails' Is Sought

Pony tails? You bet!

The contest, inaugurated two years ago and sponsored by The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News to name as sovereigns of the pony tail set the little girls with the prettiest hair-dos, has proven its popularity.

Little girls by the dozen with bobbing pony tails brushed into polished perfection, responded with enthusiasm. Each one, seemingly prettier than the last, paraded before a panel of judges for honors and silver dollar prizes.

Crowning glories of all contestants will be judged by hair stylists on the first day of the Bean Dinner, Tuesday, June 24 at 2 p.m. on the bandstand.

There will be three classes for entrants, divided into age groups between one and 12 years.

Prizes of five silver dollars for first place, two silver dollars for second and one shining cartwheel for third, will be awarded winners in each age classification of one through four, five through eight and nine through 12 years.

Any child planning to enter should be registered by calling Betty Daft at this newspaper, BR. 9-9444.

Any little girl in the circulation area of The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News, with the exception of employe's children, is eligible to enter.

Lions, Glenwood Methodist Lead Pack In 'Y' Slo-Pitch

The Hilltop Lions Club got off to a fast start by defeating the Y's Men and Northway VFW to lead in the first round of the Club Division. The Lions scored a victory over Westway VFW to go through the first round undefeated. They play Westway this week.

Glenwood Methodist Church leads the Church Division with a 2-0 record followed closely by Hillcrest Baptist who have won one game and lost none. Hillcrest's victory was the expense of West Park Methodist Church, last year's champion, who is in third place with a one won, one lost record.

Burgess EUB played a fine game against Glenwood Methodist, losing 8-1. They are tied for third place with West Park Methodist as is Hope Memorial who defeated Westgate Methodist 22-5.

Westgate EUB and Westgate Methodist haven't broken into the win column as yet but promise to be real competition for the teams now in the lead as the season wears on.

Rat 'Paradise' Thing Of Past

Observers report progress in the clean up of the large rat colony discovered last month just east of the Eshelman Grain mill on W. Sullivant-av.

Two poison feeding stations have been in use and cyanide gas used extensively. Old grain mounds, which were a natural attraction for the rats during the last few years, are being torn out.

William Maurer, owner of a nearby farm, stated he had been waging war with monoxide exhaust from a tractor and very few of the rodents are reappearing.

Trophy, Bond—

the title and crown will be published in succeeding issues of the Record, beginning next week, until Bean Dinner time. In order to include all pictures, some entries must be received in the Record office this week.

Each girl will be sponsored by a local business or professional person, who will provide her with a corsage to wear during the competition.

Sponsor may enter a contestant of his choice, or register with the Hilltop Business Association and be assigned an entrant. It is not necessary for any girl to have a sponsor before entering.

Planes "Evicted"

Planes normally housed in the hanger and shop buildings planned for Bean Dinner exhibits and food service, will be stored on east side of the field.

Snow fences, separating the runway from the area reserved for festivities will assure safe landing facilities for all aircraft normally using the field. Emergency landing accommodations for planes of any size are also provided.

Full effects of the field's inestimable value to the city and Hilltop as a landing port for corporation planes carrying visiting executives is noticed more each year, as the use of such aircraft becomes more widespread.

Equipped to handle normally DC3 planes, largest in corporate use, the field is also prepared to handle emergency landings from any aircraft.

Pilots, clearing to landing during the Bean Dinner, will be instructed in added precautions to assure the crowd's safety.

Herbert Is Chairman

General chairman in charge of this year's event and the complex task of co-ordinating the efforts of many committees into one smooth, well-planned program is Chester Herbert, longtime Hilltop grocer.

Herbert's Grocery, 3078 W. Broad st, at Burgess-av, is one of the oldest businesses on the Hilltop to operate continuously in one location, has been in operation more than 40 years.

A charter member of Hilltop Business Association, he has worked in some capacity on each Bean Dinner.

Bible School Planned At West Broad

Daily Church School will be held at West Broad Street Presbyterian Church beginning Monday, June 16, at 9 a.m.

Classes for all school ages including kindergarten, will be held each morning until 11:30 a.m. for two weeks, ending June 27.

Boys and girls living in the vicinity of the church are invited to attend.

Teaching staff has selected a program of activities on the theme, "We Worship the Lord." In addition to daily worship, boys and girls will have handwork, singing and recreation. Refreshments will be served daily.

Memorial Day—

the Confederacy will be assisted in the ceremony by members of Camp Chase post, American Legion. Charles A. Jones will speak and the 37th Division Army band will play.

FOREST LAWN SERVICE

American Legion Nord-Est Post 701 will conduct an 11 a.m. service May 30, at Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens, 5600 E. Broad-st. A planting of 20,000 blooming plants has been made. The public is invited.

GENERAL SERVICE

Nearly 100 armed forces units, civic and veterans groups will march west on Broad-st from Washington-av to Civic Center-dr., starting at 9 a.m. Friday. Following the parade various services will be held in the vicinity. A floral anchor, honoring Navy and Marine dead will be dropped into the Sciote River at Broad-st bridge. Ceremonies will also be held in front of police headquarters and in the new Veterans Memorial building.

Salary Hikes Set For 700 GM Workers

Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, announced pay increases Saturday that will effect approximately 700 salaried employes at the GM Ternstedt plant here beginning June 1.

Salary increases will apply to all employes earning less than $684 per month and in general, will amount to about $10.50 more per month or two-and-a-half cents per hour, whichever is higher.

Curtice announced increases for 94,000 salaried GM employes and wage increases for 10,000 hourly-rate workers not represented by a union. Paul Jones, local plant manager, said the Ternstedt plant has no non-represented workers.

Cost-of-living allowances will continue in an upward adjustment of $10 for both groups.

Employes earning more than $667 per month will be raised in $544.

Depression Turns Druggist Toward Coiffure Specialty

SHERMAN EDWARDS

The depression may have brought a great many problems to people but to one local businessmen it brought a complete switch in occupation that seems to have proved successful.

Sherman Edwards, owner of Sherm's Hair Stylist shop, 237 S. Hague-av, was operating a drug store at Hague-av and Broad-st, when the depression hit. In 1936, the drug business in a slump, Edwards sold out and took hairdresser training.

Soon after, he and his wife, Ruby (also a hairdresser), were operating the large beauty salon in the Fort Hayes Hotel.

Sherm's new career was halted for a service stint during World War II. Following the war, he returned to his native Hilltop where he operated beauty shops in several locations before building one at the rear of his home on Hague-av.

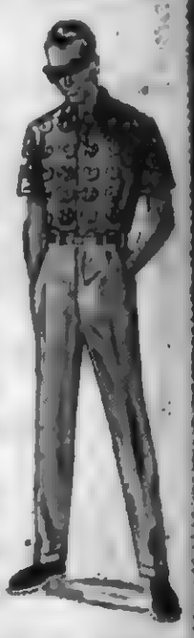
Attend May Conventions

He and his wife still work in the shop together and manage to attend most the hairdresser's conventions held in the country. These conventions are designed to display new techniques and styles.

Edwards said, "when you stop trying to learn more about your trade then you stop the growth of your skill and creativeness—and I'm not ready to quit yet."

Fishing and swimming fill the hairdresser's spare hours.

He is a member of HBA, Hairdresser's Guild of Ohio, American Cosmetician's Association.



You'll jump with joy too —when you see the bargains at Glick's Furniture Fair — opening Sunday at the Ohio State Fair.

Firemen Plan Annual Fish Fry

The second annual fish fry sponsored by Franklin Township Fireman and Auxiliary Company 3 will be held Friday, June 6, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the firehouse on 2193 Frank-rd.

Menu will consist of fried fish, baked beans, home-made fruit pies, scalloped potatoes, cole slaw, coffee or tea and milk for the children. Donations will be adults: $1.25; children 65c.

Catfish, Bass Entries Popular; Midgets To Rate Prizes, Too!

Entries are really rolling in to the Hartley Newspaper Fishing Contest at Madison Lake.

Some of the leaders are: Fred Rhaderer, 175 S. Sylvan, one pound, 2 ounce largemouth bass; L. Kent Hummel, 2166 Northern-rd, 11 ounce crappie; Joseph K. Kelise, 96 Shady-av, London, five pound, 12 ounce channel catfish; L. F. Spangler, 3302 Brookgrove-dr, Grove City, one pound three ounce crappie.

Steve Roll 765 E. 9th-st, two pound, 10 ounce carp; Edwin Glauf Rt., 3, London, one pound crappie; Darrell Smith, 11 Fairview-av, London, four pound smallmouth bass; George Duke, 64 E. 11th-av, six pound, 13 ounce channel catfish; and Leslie West, 2347 Dover-rd, four pound, eight ounce channel catfish.

Channel catfish seem to be in the limelight, for more have been entered than for any other species. Bass and crappies have been showing up in Madison Lake catches, however, the last couple of weeks. The lucky catfish anglers report that nightcrawlers and minnows have been the most effective baits. Dorothy Ward, at Carner's Boat Dock, told me that the demand for live bait has been exceptionally high this year, and the good stringers of catfish are the attraction. Most catfishermen have had their best luck at night.

With so much interest right now in "Mr. Whiskers" a couple of fishermen have inquired again about the prizes in this category. Here they are:

First place — Shakespeare Wonder-Cast reel; second place—Johnson Century reel; third place—Cumberland fish creel, and Te-pet-se life preserver boat cushion.

All prizes are on display at Carner's Boat Dock, headquarters for the fishing contest.

In case you don't catch any really big fish, you still have a chance for some prizes. R. A. Mehnert, Alliance, president of Ray's Bait Co., has supplied some of the famous Dene's Gypsies Spinners for consolation prizes. These baits will be given to those "unlucky" fishermen who don't win one of the top prizes. Also, a booby prize will be awarded in each class for the SMALLEST fish entered.

Thanks to the interest of Mr. Mehnert in the Hartley Newspapers Fishing Contest, this is probably the first time in history prizes will be given for the tiniest fish caught on hook and line. The chances of you breaking the world's record with a big fish are pretty slim, but the small fish category is wide open.

This is the kind of contest that appeals to me, and it's lucky for you that I can't enter. I must qualify as some type of small-fry champion—I've caught more than my share. Now we'll see if I'm the only person with a deadly attraction for minnows. Enter your fish—large ones, small ones, and in-between ones, and try for a Dene's Gypsies spinner.

Gethsemane Symbol Of Suffering

Gethsemane has become a symbol for acute trial and suffering.

When we speak of passing through Gethsemane in connection with some sorrow, do we always realize that Gethsemane was a real fact in a real human life? It was in the garden called Gethsemane that Christ experienced that anguish of soul that preceded the anguish of body as He was scourged, crowned with thorns, forced to carry His cross and finally nailed to it.

There are people who, in their zeal to do honor to Christ, have emphasized His divinity to the exclusion of His humanity. They miss the essential meaning of Christ in relation to God and man. The gospel centers around the incarnation as expressed by St. John: "The Word was made flesh and dwelt amongst us."

It is the revelation of the divine character in human life that makes the story of Christ, from the manger in Bethlehem to the Resurrection and Ascension, significant for man.

If we could ever doubt the humanity of Christ, that He was subject to human temptations and trials, all doubt should be removed by the scene in the garden of Gethsemane.

Here was a human soul facing human tragedy. One whom He trusted was about to betray Him. Others He loved were proving themselves inadequate in the hour of His greatest trial. His soul, we are told, was exceedingly sorrowful and, as He prayed, the inner conflict was so intense that His sweat drops of blood.

Yet Christ had the strength to say, "Not my will, but Thine be done."

He arose from prayer, though discouraged by the failure of His disciples, able to say, "Arise, let us go forth."

Christ was prepared for betrayal and the Cross.

An old-timer is a fellow who remembers when the knife-grinder jingle-jangled his big-wheeled cart through the neighborhood several times each summer.

Why is it that buses make express-train speed when you're on the way to the dentist's office?

'Dear Son'

Chittlin' Switch
Monday noon.

Dear Jason:

Guess I'll sit down and drop you a line or two before it's time to go to the movies.

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday night, old grandmaw Sludge and I go to the Bon Ton Theater at the Switch to get our free gift.

Monday night is "dish" night and the manager gives out free dishes to the ladies; Wednesday night is "cosmetic" night and he gives the ladies lipsticks or something; and Friday night is "surprise" night. If the show is any good, it's a surprise.

I sure wish Zelda was modest as Salina. Zelda came home from town the other day with what she called a bathing suit that she had purchased in town. I told her that no daughter of mine would ever appear in public in a two-piece bathing suit. Zelda agreed with me and then asked me which piece I prefer she didn't wear.

Uncle Lushwell is in the hospital again. This time it was a broken back. He and your Paw were up in the barn bottling some hootch from the still and Ned Pooser and some other guys from the nighborhood were helping. Evidently the gang of them absorbed too much of the joy juice and Lush decided that he could fly like a bird and climbed to the top of the barn and did a spread eagle in the air. On the way back from the hospital I asked Paw why he didn't try to stop him. Paw said that he was so loaded he was taking all bets that Lush could do it.

It seems that everybody around here is having a run of bad luck of some sort. I was reading in the Chittlin' Switch DAILY SUGLE last week where old Zeke and Blanch Tench were instantly killed over in Pasture Flats. It seems, according to the newspaper article, that they were trying to manufacture some beer for their own consumption and they had an enormous crock sitting in the middle of the kitchen filled with hops and yeast. It was about 11 o'clock one night while they both were in bed that they heard a terrible rumbling noise coming from the kitchen and they both hopped out of bed to investigate. Of course, it was just the mash working. They should have known that. Just as they both stuck their heads into the crock the whole business exploded and blew the both of them right through the roof. The newspaper went on to say that it was the first time they had been out together in twenty years!

I have to laugh when I think of your brother's little boy, Cheddar. He's only five and he says the funniest things. The other day in school the teacher was trying to show them addition and asked them if she laid one egg on the table and two on the chair how many would she have altogether. Cheddar told her that he didn't think she could do it.

Well, Jason, guess that this is about it for now. Oh, yes, I suppose you know Rufus will be graduating from that agricultural college up there in Brooklyn in a couple of months. He will be awarded three degrees. First he'll be getting his B.S. Well everybody knows what B. S. is. His second degree will be M. S. which, I presume stands for more of the same. When he wrote me and told me that he had to go back to school in the fall to take a post-graduate course to earn his Ph.D he had me stopped because I didn't know what Ph.D stood for. Paw told me that knowing Rufus, Ph.D. could mean only one thing. "Filled Higher and Deep Last!"

Your loving,
MOM.

'Urge To Submerge' Brings New Business To This Area

MONSTER? Nope, it's Charles F. Leroy wearing his favorite outfit for skin-diving. Many people believe frogmen wear only skimpy swim suits—not so says LeRoy. Full-sized rubber suits are the fashion "down under" because the underwater world gets chilly.

A new business venture, unique in this part of Ohio, has come here, to serve those who have taken up skin-diving—one of the newest and most thriving sports in the country.

Charles F. LeRoy's Television Sales and Service, 2324 Sullivant-av, now carries as a sideline a complete line of skin-diving gear.

LeRoy and his wife, Grace, got the "urge to submerge" three years ago. Because the sport requires a diving partner as a safety measure, the LeRoy husband-and-wife team has been ideal, Marilyn, 13, eldest of their four children, has also taken up the sport.

With everything from aqualungs to waterproof flashlights in stock, LeRoy supplies equipment that heretofore could only be acquired from the West Coast or Ohio Skin Divers Headquarters in Cincinnati.

Club Offers Services

The Columbus Underwater Explorers Club, founded only a year and a half ago, has been growing steadily since skin-diving has been popularized for the family. The club has reserved Sportsman Lake, Cedarville, O., for its own use.

Proving that the sport is a practical one, the club has offered its services to the city of Columbus for any rescue work that might be needed and to be on hand during summer boat races on the Sciote River.

Skin-diving is now the sporting sensation of Florida and California. But Ohio skin-divers have determined to bring the fun to their own state.

Columbus' first basic course in the sport was completed by the club May 26, in the K of C pool, 80 S. Sixth-st. Ray Tussy, ex-navy frogman, taught the course.

Much of the popularity of skin-diving can be attributed to ex-frogmen who want to continue exploring the underwater world and also be joined by their families.

Skin-divers can carry on a wide variety of activities including underwater photography, spearfishing, treasure hunting and general exploration.

If you see people leaving LeRoy's store with any number of weird-looking objects, they're skindivers getting ready for a summer of fun.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Vegetables — Asparagus, greenhouse tomatoes, cucumbers.

Fruits—Strawberries, lemons, bananas, frozen lemonade.

Other Foods — Fryers, ground beef, rib steaks, frankfurters, large eggs, ice cream.

LET'S HAVE A BARBECUE

The long Memorial Day week-end officially opens the picnic season. Many families will include a picnic in their plans for this holiday week-end, be it in their backyard, with friends, or at a nearby park. Food out of doors always tastes better. A barbecue may be just the answer to the question, "What shall we eat?"

What is Barbecuing?—In the broadest sense barbecue means cook-out-of doors. In a more strict sense, barbecuing is cooking, especially meat . . . in a specially seasoned sauce.

The sauce builds the reputation of the barbecue. Some like sharp tangy sauce with lots of fire, while others prefer one that is more mild. Here is where the imagination can be put to work.

What to Barbecue—Meats of all kinds, and practically all cuts can be barbecued. Tender chicken or turkey, pork, beef and rabbit are easy ones to do. Fish fillets are good, too.

Less Tender Cuts of Meat . . . those which require long, moist cooking . . . may be barbecued, but they need to be treated to a tenderizing period prior to barbecuing. This is done by covering the meat for 12 to 48 hours, depending on the size and thickness of the pieces, in a food acid preparation in the refrigerator. Food acids such as lemon juice, vinegar, tomato juice, or the barbecue sauce itself will do the job.

Have you tried Kabobs?—Kabobs are meals on a skewer or green stick. Alternately place cubes of meat and vegetables on a skewer, brush with melted butter, and cook over fire until done, turning frequently. Any meat and vegetable combination as ham with sweet potatoes, and pineapple chunks (especially fresh) may be used.

Note: If green sticks are used make sure they are long but not too pliable. Scrape the bark off the end where the food is to be placed.

For the Rest of the Meal—spring onions, local grown radishes, cucumbers, carrots and greenhouse tomatoes may well be considered for salads or relishes.

For dessert, how about strawberries? Local berries will soon be available. Meanwhile those from our neighbors to the south are of good quality and are reasonably priced.

Don't forget to round out the barbecue with plenty of cold [illegible].

Natural Gas Helped Them Decide!

Communities prosper when industry moves in. Industry makes jobs, jobs attract people, people provide markets for industry's products; so the cycle goes!

Natural gas plays a vital role in attracting industry to a community. And your gas company, a part of the Columbia Gas System, supplies industry with ample quantities of this important low-cost commodity — as a fuel, a tool or a raw material — at low cost.

Natural gas has been — and continues to be — an important factor in the economic growth and progress of this part of the country — the area where this dependable "wonder fuel" was originally discovered and put to work for the benefit of man.

Dr. Lowell Dillon Pays Recognition To State Hospital Retirees At 'Indoor Picnic' Thursday

"There is nothing more fitting than a ceremony to commemorate the retirement of folks who have contributed so many years of service."

This was the opening comment of Dr. Lowell O. Dillon, superintendent of the Columbus State Hospital, at the hospital's retirees recognition service last Thursday.

Because of bad weather, the picnic honoring retirees, was held in the hospital's club room instead of the shelter house at Indian Camp Park. Approximately 300 attended. More than 20 retiring employes were recognized.

Jack Zuber, hospital administrator, acted as Master of Ceremonies. Dr. Lowell O. Dillon, M.D., superintendent, was guest speaker and presented Service Certificates and gifts to the retirees.

In his speech Dr. Dillon pointed out that the retiring employes' many years of service was indicative of their sincere interest in their work and was deserving of the highest regard.

Urges Interesting Hobbies

"There is no substitute for a pleasant and interesting hobby," said Dr. Dillon. He urged hospital employes to develop a hobby now in preparation for the spare hours that follow retirement.

Zuber read letters from retirees, Homer J. Roling and Ora L. Davis, who were unable to attend, and from Dr. Charles Hamner and Calvin Black, who retired earlier this year.

Group pictures of the retirees were taken by the pictorial editor of MOTIVE, official publication of the Department of Mental Hygience and Correction of Ohio.

The club room was decorated with spring flowers to best simulate the cancelled picnic. Dinner was served buffet style from three tables covered with a variety of foods.

Chairmen of the committees planning the recognition service included: Freda Denison, arrangement; Edith Elliott, food; and Ethel Reynolds, program. The Flower and Retirement Club sponsored the "indoor" picnic.

Honored retirees included: Jesse Alspach, Gertrude Book, Albert Brooke, Nannie Brown, Bert Daft, Elbert Davison, Finley Denison, Curtis Kerr, Grace Krisher, Michael Lavelle, Clovis Lee, Retta Lenox, Sherman McCoy, William Lenox.

Grace Mills, Ellen Murphy, Pearl Papez, John Reynolds, Edward Schroeder, Addaline Scott, Charles W. Wilkes, Lida C. Ashleman and Frank Arthur.

Barbecue Time . . Shop For Less Tender Cuts

Backyard barbecue enthusiasts always welcome a long weekend when the weather is agreeable. It gives them a chance to really live it up. The picnic season usually coincides with what was traditionally "straw hat" season before the days of so many barehead-in-all-kinds-of-weather fans. It begins, officially by concensus, with Memorial Day and runs until evenings get too chilly in the fall for cookers-out to be comfortable even gathered around an outdoor fireplace.

Barbecuers have tried about every kind of food imaginable in their outdoor cookery. Mostly we think of some kind of meat when we talk about barbecuing. Tender chicken or turkey, pork, beef and rabbit are good meats to barbecue. So are fish fillets.

Some barbecue experts speak of sauces disparagingly, while others say the sauce makes the barbecue. So with all degrees between the sharp and tangy to the mild, almost flaverless to choose from, the imagination can go to town.

Extension specialists in Marketing Information for Consumers at The Ohio State University, Columbus, say that while the tender cuts and kinds of meat are probably used more often for barbecuing, the less tender cuts may be used with satisfaction if marinated (tenderized in a food acid such as lemon juice, vinegar, tomato juice, or the barbecue sauce) for 12 to 48 hours before cooking.

Kabobs also make good outdoor cooking treats. Make them by placing cubes of meat alternately with vegetables on skewers, brushing with butter, and cooking over the fire until done. Turn frequently. Use any meat and vegetable combination.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Landenberger, 569 Townsend-av, announce the engagement of their daughter, Eileen to Mr. Joseph A. DiGiovanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul DiGiovanna of Richmond Hill, N.Y.

Miss Landenberger was graduated from West High School, attended Ohio State University and is a junior at Chicago College of Osteopathy. She is a member of Delta Omega Sorority.

Mr. DiGiovanna was graduated from Richmond Hill High School and St. John's University. He is also a junior at Chicago College of Osteopathy and is a member of Iota Tau Sigma Fraternity.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Burgess Avenue Church Is Scene Of Thomas-Chestnut Wedding Ceremony

MRS. LESLIE L. CHESNUT

Vases of white and pink gladioli decorated the altar of Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church Mar. 22, for the wedding of Miss Marguerite Ann Thomas and Mr. Leslie L. Chesnut.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thomas, 446 S. Terrace-av. Mr. Chesnut's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Chesnut of 692 S. Richardson-av.

The bride's gown of imported chantilly lace over satin was fashioned with a scoop neckline of tiny points, long tapering sleeves and a satin crossover cummerbund, extending into long streamers to the end of the chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion was caught by a pearl and iridescent trimmed crown. She carried a crescent bouquet of white fugi mums surrounding pink demure Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Marvin Geyer was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. David Harris, Mrs. Richard Thomas and Miss Lois Moran. They were identical gowns of shell pink taffeta trimmed in deep coral fashioned with portrait necklines and very full skirts. They wore open crowns with back bows topped with circular maline veils and carried bouquets of deep pink hyacinths with pink roses and violets.

Mr. Ralph Bruckman served as best man and Mr. Richard Thomas, Mr. Louis Proper and Mr. George Hill as ushers.

The bride is a graduate of West High School and is associated with Richard G. Clark, attorney. Mr. Chesnut is a junior at Ohio State University.

Local Chorus Fetes Founder

Mrs. Bartha Masters, resident of 428 S. Powell-av since 1911, was honored at a dinner by the Hilltop Women's Chorus at the Gloria, last night.

Program, in charge of Mrs. Betty Scott, was a version of the "This Is Your Life" television show.

Twenty-five years ago, Mrs. Masters directed the John Burroughs Mother Singers for several years and then, 12 years ago, organized and has directed the Hilltop Women's Chorus.

Harry Masters, husband of the guest of honor and a former Keith vaudeville entertainer, sang "Smilin' Through," and different episodes in Mrs. Master's life were enacted by members of the chorus who had donned clothing reminiscent of the particular incident.

Program was concluded with a presentation of flowers and gifts to Mrs. Masters.

Brother Of Bridegroom Officiates At Ceremony

Spray arrangements of red carnations decorated the altar of St. Mary Magdalene Church Apr. 12, 10:30 a.m. when Miss Mary Joan Sayder became the bride of Mr. Louis J. (Jerry) O'Rourke, 2883 Sullivant-av.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Snyder, 2743 St. Joseph-av.

The Nuptial High Mass was celebrated by Rev. John O'Rourke, brother of the bridegroom, assisted by Rev. Raymond Bauschard and Rev. James Hanley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pure silk bombazine and imported, handmade Alincon lace designed on princess lines, a beaded, empire scoop neckline. The full, gored silk skirt was caught at the hemline with a lovers bow knot, forming a Parisian, belt-shaped bouffant skirt extending into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of French imported illusion was caught to a lace crown accented with pearls and iridescents.

Mrs. John R. Frost, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Snyder, Mrs. Henry Nini and Miss Marilyn Williams.

They wore ballerina length gowns styled alike of embossed white nylon over orchid taffeta and silk chiffon, featuring elongated bodices and draped silk chiffon necklines.

All, excepting the matron-of-honor, carried crescents of light pink carnations with deep purple violets and light pink satin streamers. Honor attendant carried a crescent of deep pink carnations and violets.

Mr. John D. Waldo, jr., served as best man and ushers included Mr. James Waldo, Mr. Donald Capretta and Mr. David Snyder, brother of the bride.

A reception was held in the evening at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Snyder chose a capri blue suit of Cupisanti with matching accessories and corsage of white Amazoneras with pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. O'Rourke's gown was of pink nylon lace over taffeta with navy blue accessories and identical corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Rosary High School and is associated with the payroll department of General Motors, Ternstedt Div. Mr. O'Rourke is a graduate of Aquinas High School and is associated with the City Traffic Engineering Department.

They are at home at 816 Derrer-rd.

Church Plans Bible Studies

A series of prophetic Bible Studies will be given at Brown Road Community Church, 1197 Brown-rd, beginning June 4 and continuing each Wednesday night at 7:30, by Dr. S. Ellsworth Nothstine. Studies will be conducted in the Book of Revelation.

Dr. Nothstine has delivered prophetic lectures in churches and Bible colleges on the west well as in the middle west. All coast and in southern states as who attend the first night will receive a soucenir chart similar to the large one that will be used for the studies. Those attending should bring their Bible noebooks and pencils.

State School Girl Choir To Sing At Roses' Park

Second offering on the Park of Roses Summer Concert Series Program will be the Columbus State School Girls' Choir June 1, 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Munice will direct the choir, and be accompanied by Mrs. Edward McGuire The 25 member, all girl choir, was originated in 1943.

The girls will sing; "Let There Be Music," "Make America Proud of You," "Let Not Your Song End," My Blue Heaven" and many others.

Columbus Municipal Band will play for Memorial Day ceremony at the park, May 30, 7 p.m.

Your Youth

By Al Hollowell and Bud Martin

Little "9" application blanks have been distributed to all the schools and can now be turned in at the Hilltop "Y." A clinic is being planned to open the program this year. It will be held at the new ball fields on the YMCA lot on Valleyview-dr which the Hilltop Y's Men, under the direction of Roy Agin, have worked so hard to complete.

We are looking forward to an outstanding Little "9" year with clinics being run throughout the year to enable boys to learn to play better ball. Also planned are summer evening games to be played with parents present. These will be exhibition, contests and not league games. Be sure and get you Little "9" application in right away. Ask for yours at your school or drop in at the "Y."

On Saturday, May 24, David Line and Al Hollowell went to Cincinnati to spend the day and see Cinerama. This was David's prize for being our top taffy salesman for the year 1958.

Our Hilltop YMCA - YWCA campaign effort has now reached a total of $41,346. Any parents who have not had an opportunity to make a pledge toward our new YMCA and would like to be called on may contact Al Hollowell at the Hilltop "Y." This is the big push for our building and everybody's support is needed to make this much needed facility a reality.

Program for the week follows:

Wednesday, May 28 — Gra-Y John Burroughs School, 3:30 p.m. Slo-Pitch, Westgate Park, 6 p.m.; "Y" Indian Guides—Sioux, Mingo, Seneca, Huron, Comanche, 7:30 p.m.

Thursday, May 29 — Gra-Y, West Mound School, 3:30 p.m.; Gra-Y, Binns School 3:15 p.m.; Y movies, Oakley Baptist church 7 p.m.; YM-YW Report, Ohio National Bank, Great Western at 7:30 p.m.

Friday, May 30 — Decoration Day.

Saturday, May 31—Gra-Y Softball, John Burroughs Playground 9 a.m. Y Indian Dancers, Hilltop YMCA, 9:30 a.m.

Monday, June 2—Gra-Y, West Broad School, 3:30 p.m. Y Movies, Hilltop YMCA, 3:30 p.m. Y Indian Guides—Cayugas, 7:15 p.m.

Tuesday, June 3 — Y Boys' Indian Craft — Hilltop YMCA, 3:30 p.m. Gra-Y—Highland Avenue School, 3:30 p.m.; Hilltonia Jr. Hi-Y — Hilltonia School, 7 p.m.; Y Indian Guides—Miami, Chillepwa, 7:30 p.m. Y's Mencttes 8 p.m. Slo-Pitch — Westgate Park, 6 p.m.

Wednesday, June 4—Gra-Y, John Burroughs School, 3:30 p.m. Slo-Pitch, Westgate Park, 6 p.m.

Church Names Music Director

Robert C. Johnson

Bethlehem Lutheran Church announced last week that Robert C. Johnson will take over the position of choir director and organist at the church. He has assumed duties with the choirs already, and will begin playing the services on Sunday, June 8.

A teacher at Hilltonia Junior High School, he is a graduate of West High School and Ohio State University. He is a member of the American Guild of Organists, and is treasurer of the Hilltop Choir Directors Association.

New organ will be heard for the first time at the dedication service on Sunday, June 29, and will be heard in recital on Wednesday, July 2. The two choirs will participate in both services.

Public is invited to attend the services, and to inspect the new building at Vida-pl and S. Harris Sunday, June 29 in the afternoon. Rev. Paul R. Milheim is pastor.

Johnson has been choir director and organist at Hilltop Lutheran the past six years.

Westgate MYF Lists Officers

Church Of God Will Honor Its Pastor, Sunday

Seventh anniversary of Elder J. C. Wilber, pastor of Church of God, 116 S. Wayne-av will be observed Sunday June 1, 1958, with a program sponsored by the Deacon and Deaconess Boards.

Special services will be held on this day with a guest speaker. Envelopes for the occasion will be distributed among members and friends under the capable leadership of the pastor.

Church of God has added many new members and has also recently built an addition to the church auditorium.

All old and new members and friends are cordially invited to help commemorate this special occasion.

Reporters, Timothy Price and Billy Manns —Adv.

THE SECRET IS OUT!

Club Founder Has Namesake; 'Marion Hamilton' Is Iris, Too!

By Ray Shaffer

It took six long years but an Indianapolis flower grower finally came up with a new variety of iris and named it after a Hilltop woman.

Mrs Marion Hamilton of 2945 Palmetto-st, has had her name applied to a beautiful pale salmon-colored Iris grown by Florist Earl Roberts of Indianapolis

Mrs. Hamilton and Roberts have been carrying on a correspondence for nearly seven years regarding the special flower She hadn't even told her family or close friends, until last week that there was a possibility of a "Marion Hamilton Iris."

Roberts spent three years developing the flower. He then sent it to London, England, to the International Iris Symposium to get permission to call it the "Marion Hamilton Iris."

Approved in London

The flower was kept in London for two years to check its growth and originality of variety Finally, in September 1957, permission was granted to name the flower after the Hilltopper and put it on the market

Melrose Gardens of Melrose, Calif., has purchased the complete stock of this iris variety and is retailing it at $15 a bulb.

Mrs. Hamilton and Roberts met only once. He is a cousin of one of her close friends and visited her eight years ago. He was so impressed with her iris garden and her general knowledge of flowers that he determined to pay tribute to her with the new variety.

A member of the Columbus Iris Society for 25 years, Mrs. Hamilton is founder and member of the Highland Garden Club which celebrated its 20th birthday this year.

Her fellow club women are still amazed that she was able to keep the Marion Hamilton Iris a secret for so many years. They are also very proud for people are often named after flowers but few flowers are ever named after people!

West High Graduation Exercises Will Take Place 'Under The Stars'

School's First Outdoor Commencement Planned

Commencement day exercises at West High School, Wednesday, June 11, 7 p.m. will mark an important first in the school's history. More than 200 graduating seniors will receive their diplomas in the spacious school stadium at first outdoor commencement ceremony ever held at West.

Planned to accommodate a larger audience, the move will enable more family members and friends to be on hand for the happy occasion.

Limited seating facilities of the school auditorium have, in years past, curtailed the number of guests. Each graduate received a specified number of tickets and could invite no more guests.

Passes will also be issued this year and, in the event of rain, graduation will be held in the auditorium. Only ticket holders will be admitted.

Shirley Anderson and Gerald Galloway, chosen as senior class speakers, will discuss "Deep Are The Roots" and "Tomorrow Is At Hand."

Robert Darrow, principal, will preside during the ceremony. Music will be furnished by West High Concert Band and the graduating chorus will be directed by Clair Barnard and Mrs. Edith White.

Following the prelude and processional by the band, class and audience will join in singing "Star Spangled Banner" and James Callard will lead in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Rev. Arthur Rismiller of the Lutheran Welfare Center will give the invocation and the chorus and graduating class will sing, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Class speeches by Shirley Anderson and Gerald Galloway will be followed by "He," sung by the graduates and chorus. Paul Langdon, president of the school board, will present the diplomas

Rev. Fred P. Cunningham, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Congregational Church, will pronounce the benediction.

Baccalaureate service for the June, 1958, graduating class will be held Sunday, June 8, 3 p.m. at West High auditorium.

Dr. Joseph Shellhaas, pastor of Glenwood Methodist Church will speak and the West High Choir will sing.

Class officers will preside and participate in the service. They are James Callard, president; Jim Williamson, vice-president; Judy Jester, treasurer, and June Johnson, secretary.

All parents and friends of the graduates are invited.

CURTAIN IS GOING DOWN on 12 years of books and "yearning" for more than 200 graduating seniors at West High School. The yearning has been for that unforgettable event that links youth to maturity—graduation day. Commencement exercises at West will be held Wednesday, June 11, 7 p. m. in the school stadium. In the event of rain, ceremonies will be held in the auditorium. Seen here are typical graduates—Diane Rohr, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Rohr, 291 S. Brinker-av and Terry Reichart, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Reichart, 47 Haldy-av, in a preview pose.

Workers' Rally Adds To 'Y' Fund Pledges

Workers attending an outdoor rally of the YMCA-YWCA Development Fund at South Side Y Park last week, brought in $23,605 to boost the campaign total to $853,648.

Largest report at the meeting was $9,000 turned in by David A. Davis' Industrial "B" Division.

Special gifts divisions, representing local community areas, achieved a total of $106,684. Hilltop, led by W. E. Jones, remained in first place with $41,881. Spring Street had $31,455, South Side $22,340, Grandview-Arlington $3,788, Bexley-Whitehall $2,193, and the Downtown Division $805.

Speaker at the outdoor meeting was Ray E. Hughes, Spring Street board member, who heads its special gifts division.

Hughes, who has been involved in every 'Y' campaign since 1915, said the YMCA's great contribution to the social order was as a builder of men. "If we want a better world, encompassing all races, creeds, and philosophies, we must train our youth in Christian principles."

"The YMCA and the YWCA need and deserve the support of the community," Hughes asserted, "because they work devotedly to strengthen the foundations essential to progress."

Bandit Robs Store Of $700

Jake J. Riddle, 42, of 712 Chestershire-rd, co-owner of the J. and T. Market, 2461 Sullivant-av, reports that the store was robbed of $700 Tuesday.

Police said the bandit came to the rear door and knocked calling Riddle by name. The owner let the man in and the latter asked for some milk.

While changing a $20 bill for the man, the bandit pulled a gun and asked for all the money in the store. He took the money and fled through the rear door.

Promotion Exercises Set For Junior High

Ninth grade students at West and Starling Junior High Schools will be promoted to senior high in commencement exercises planned for next week.

Graduation ceremonies at Starling are scheduled for Tuesday, June 10, 2:30 p.m., and West Junior's exercises will be held Wednesday, June 11, 2:30 p.m.

Raymond E. Trinter, principal, will preside during Starling's graduation program. The school orchestra and chorus, directed by Emma Ashbrook and Vaughn Jones, will provide the music.

Following the prelude and processional, Nancy Glick will lead the pledge of allegiance. Jerry Huber will give the invocation and graduates will sing, "Once To Every Man And Nation."

Steve Cunningham and Marilyn Peters, class speakers, will discuss "Our Enemy" and "Our Challenge."

Joanne Foe will present a piano solo and graduates will sing "I Like It Here." Presentation of diplomas will be followed by the benediction by Larry Wells.

West Junior High

Ninth grade students of West Junior High will be graduated Wednesday, June 11, 2:30 p.m. in the school auditorium

Robert Darrow, principal will preside and the school Orchestra and Advanced Girls' Glee Club, directed by John Dale and Mrs. Dolores Blankenship, will present the music.

Dottie Nachman will lead the pledge to the flag after the processional, "Onward Christian Soldiers." Rev. F. B. Clay, pastor of Wheatland Avenue Methodist Church will give the invocation and the glee club will sing "He."

Debbie Draper will represent the girl graduates as speaker, and John Edwards, the boys. They will speak on "Thoughts On Tomorrow" and "Bridges To Careers."

Graduating class will sing "Oh Brother Man," and, following presentation of diplomas, Rev. Clay will pronounce the benediction.

Eleven Play Areas Open Here Soon

Eleven city-operated playgrounds will be open to West Side and Hilltop youngsters soon after the final school bells ring.

Part of 63 such areas to be maintained in Columbus through the summer, they will be opened for supervised play on Tuesday, June 17.

Burroughs School, 2585 Sullivant-av; Chicago Avenue School, 40 N. Chicago-av; Dana Avenue School, 300 S. Dana-av; Glenwood Center, 1925 W. Broad-st; Sullivant Gardens Center, 594 Mt. Calvary-av.

Sunshine Center, Sullivant-av and Sandusky-st; Hauntz, Columbian and Springmont-avs; Highland School, 40 S. Highland-av; Holton, N. Eureka-av, McKinley, Central and McKinley-avs; Westgate, S. Westgate and Wicklow.

Burglars Steal Safe From Grill

Thieves stole a safe containing approximately $800 from Dildine's Grill, 207 N. Cenntral-av, police reported Tuesday.

The burglars entered by breaking rear door glass and rolled the safe from under the bar and out the back door, according to detectives.

Westgate Methodist Pastor Assigned To Dayton Suburb

Rev. George W. Taylor, pastor of Westgate Methodist Church since 1953, will leave in mid-June to accept the pastorate of Christ Methodist Church in Kettering, suburb of Dayton.

The transfer will involve an exchange of pastorates. Rev Taylor's successor will be Rev. Ross E. Winner, present pastor of Christ Methodist.

Rev. Taylor is attending the Methodist conference meeting in Lakeside this week, and announcement of the appointment was made in the Kettering-Oakwood Times newspaper.

The new Westgate Methodist Church building, Wicklow at Algonquin and Brinker-avs, was under construction and the congregation was meeting in the basement unit when Rev. Taylor accepted an appointment as its pastor.

First services in the completed $415,000 building, were held Dec. 22, 1955 and consecration services, Mar. 11, 1956.

Before his assignment to Westgate Methodist, Rev. Taylor was pastor of Mt. Washington Methodist in Cincinnati for four and a half years and, before that, pastor of Mt. Healthy Methodist, Cincinnati.

Rev. George W. Taylor

During the war he served for two years as chaplain with the 19th General Hospital Unit ETO.

He is a member of The Hilltop Kiwanis Club, the Hilltop Ministerial Association and Hilltop YMCA Board.

Rev. Winner will assume his duties as pastor of Westgate Methodist Church Sunday, June 15.

Minister of Christ Methodist since 1953, he had been associate pastor, and then acting minister, of Trinity Church in Youngstown before his assignment in Kettering.

Mr. and Mrs. Winner are parents of three children.

BEAN DINNER IS ONLY THREE WEEKS AWAY

Royalty will reign this year, as always, over festivities during Hilltop Bean Dinner and, with the big event less than three weeks away, interest in the annual queen contest is mounting.

Valuable $25 savings bonds for the queen and two runners-up give an added interest to the contest. The queen will also receive a handsome engraved trophy.

Contestants for the honors and title of queen must either live on the Hilltop or be employed by a Hilltop firm. Entrant must be over 16 and single.

Girls should return an entry form, available at Hilltop Business Association Office, Hilltop Swimming Club and The Hilltop Record, to the Record office, with a billfold size photo of herself.

Entries should be filed immediately.

Selection of a queen will be made from registered contestants on the first evening of the Bean Dinner, June 24, and the judges will base their conclusions on poise, personality and appearance. Girls will wear street clothing.

A Hilltop businessman will serve as sponsor to each girl, and provide her with a corsage.

'Pony Tail' Entries Are Coming In

Registations for the annual pony tail contest, sponsored by The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News and judged during Bean Dinner festivities, have been pouring into the office all week.

Any little girl in the circulation areas of the newspapers is eligible to anter and may register by calling Betty Daft, BR 9-9444. Children of employes are not eligible.

Contest will be judged at the Bean Dinner Tuesday afternoon, June 24 at 2 p.m., on the bandstand.

A panel of hair stylists will choose as winners in each of three age groups, the little ladies who, in their opinions, have the prettiest pony tail hairdos.

Winners in each of three age groups, one through four, five through eight and nine through 12 will receive silver dollar prizes

First place winners will receive five silver dollars, second place prize is two silver dollars and third, one silver dollar.

EARLY BIRD ENTRANT in the race for a queen's crown and two-day reign over Bean Dinner festivities is Martha Abrams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Abrams, 207 S. Richardson-av and a June graduate of West High School.

Central High Reunion Set

Richard Marsh

Richard Marsh, a Starling Junior High teacher, and Central High graduate, will MC the variety show to be given at the annual reunion of Central High's class of 1950.

The reunion will be held at the Fiesta Club, 1991 S. Champion-av, June 14. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. and will be followed by a variety show, contests, and dancing until 1 a.m.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Margaret Omohundro, 706 Seymour, CL. 3-7552.

Gravel Lease Turned Down By Commission

By a unanimous vote, the City planning Commission has recommended that City Council reject a proposal to lease a 40-acre tract north of Frank-rd and east of Rt. 104 as a gravel site. The commission voted to retain the site as possible use for a nursery.

Planning Director Jack Bachtel stated it would be unwise to sell the gravel rights since the location of a new road paralleling Southwest Freeway is unknown.

Council President W. Wesley Llewelyn sponsored the lease. He estimates that the city would realize $15,000 from royalities on the gravel.

Army Specialist Stewart Active In German Drill

Specialist Third Class Raymond G. Stewart, 21, stepson of Edmond J. Davis, 129 S. Princeton-av, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 8th Infantry Division near Belsen-Hohne, Germany.

A tank gunner in Company D of the division's 68th Armor in Baumholder, Specialist Stewart entered the army in December, 1955, and arrived in Europe in September, 1956.

He attended Central High School. In civilian life Stewart was employed by May & Co.

Letters To The Editor

Conscience Gets Driver Who Hit Dog

Editor's Note: We have a firm rule in that we never publish a letter unless it is signed. But, like every rule, there are exceptions. The following anonymous letter, found in our mailbox last Friday morning, is presented in the hope that it will bring a measure of solace to at least two deeply wounded people and it may serve as a warning to pet owners.

TO A BROKEN HEARTED BOY

I saw you in my rear view mirror last Tuesday evening. I saw you run screaming into the street, saw you scoop up your pain-stricken and howling little black dog in your arms, saw you run with your precious burden to your porch. I couldn't hear you cry, but the sound of your heartbreak wrenched my heart.

I just couldn't stop. I was driving south on Glenwood-av near Mound-st, definitely not exceeding the speed limit. Your dog darted across the pavement. I saw him only as he flashed under my front wheels. I felt the terrifying double crunch of wheels on a soft body. And then I saw you.

I was already late for two appointments and I just could not stop and do what I should have done — comfort you in my own numbed state of shock.

Several years ago, my own dog was run over. The man stopped and helped me look for nearly an hour for my injured, frightened pet. We couldn't do anything when we found him. His pelvic region had been crushed and the doctor had to lead him to a painless death by means of an injection. Still, the fact that the man—also blameless—had stopped and offered assistance, helped heal the hurt.

Don't be bitter. I couldn't stop.

Maybe I've spent these sleepless nights for nothing. Maybe your dog wasn't seriously hurt. Maybe he's already wagging his tail and giving you the adoring glances all small black puppies give to their young masters. I'd like to think so.

Perhaps I should be thankful that you didn't dart into the street immediately behind your dog. I couldn't have braked in time to avoid you, even at my low speed.

I drove on. But I do care—tremendously. I know your grief. I share that grief!

Three Way Tie Exists In Y League

As of last Wednesday's play in the club division of the Hilltop "Y" Slo-pitch softball league, things are all tied up.

Westway VFW, Hilltop Lions and Northway VFW each has a record of two wins and one loss going into this evening's games.

Westway meets Northway on diamond three, while Lions and Y's Men play on diamond two tonight to begin the second round of play.

Glenwood Methodist won from Westgate EUB to keep the lead in the Church Slo-Pitch division, remaining undefeated.

West Park added another win to its record making 3-1, as it defeated Burgess EUB 15-12.

Hillcrest's 15-9 win over Hoge Memorial gives them a 2-1 record, while Hoge falls to a 1-3.

The Burgess team has an even record of two wins and two losses. Westgate Methodist rested this week.

A draftee was awakened by his platoon sergeant after the rookie's first night in an army barracks.

"It's four-thirty!" bellowed the sergeant.

"Four-thirty!" gasped the rookie. "Man, you'd better go to bed. We got a big day tomorrow.

'Wonders' Never Cease To Attract Throngs Of Visitors To Great Western

"The Walk of Wonders," replicas of many of the world's recognized "wonders," at the Great Western Shoppers' Mart, W. Broad-st and Wilson-rd, is officially "open" for the season—its third.

Conceived by Don M. Casto, Sr., who, with Joseph Shilken, developed the mart, construction was completed two years ago under the supervision of Ivan Puseker, well known Columbus artisan. The "wonders" include the Taj Mahal, the Leaning Tower of Pisa, Niagra Falls, the Sphinx and Pyramids, Colorado Canyon, Carlsbad Caverns, the Acropolis and Parthenon, Eiffel Tower and Fountain of Trevi.

The replicas bring thousands of visitors to the mart each season and specially chartered bus loads of adults, as well as school children, are often seen viewing the spectacle. It has also proven to be a mecca for camera enthusiasts, particularly when the thousands of flowers are in the height of their blooming season, and the entire area is a galaxy of color.

National recognition has also been achieved by the "wonders" in magazines and on television, and it has received visitors from almost every country in the world.

The Taj Mahal

The Taj Mahal, built in 1630 by the Indian ruler Shah Jahan, in memory of his favorite wife, Mumtaz-i-Mahal. Constructed of white marble and inlaid with gold, the floors of the original building were of solid pink marble and the mausoleum itself surrounded by numerous fountains. The original is in Agra, India. It is faithfully reproduced to scale at Great Western.

Completely landscaped, it is classed by many as the most beautiful of the "Walk of Wonders" spectacle. Numerous fountains and pools with goldfish attract the attention of both adults and children. It has also gained some international fame, having been visited on many occasions by natives of India, who marvel at the excellent reproduction of the original Taj Mahal.

The Fountain Of Trevi

At the northeast corner of the mart is a duplicate of the famous Roman Fountain of Trevi, featured in the movie, "Three Coins in a Fountain." Constructed between 1735 and 1762, it is rated as Rome's most magnificent.

According to custom, travelers who drink from the fountain by moonlight and toss coins backward over their shoulders into the pool, insure safe return to their homes.

Niagara Falls

The original, an attraction at Buffalo, N. Y., for honeymooners since the turn of the century, has been duplicated in considerable detail at Great Western. Though somewhat smaller in size, of course, it is not difficult to visualize it as the real thing!

There are both the Canadian and American Falls and Goat Island; even buildings of the nearby city of Buffalo have been constructed to scale. Thousands of gallons of water churn over the Great Western Falls each minute.

The Acropolis and Parthenon of Ancient Greece

Intricate details of ancient buildings of Greece have been duplicated in their replicas. For better display, however, the relationship of one to another does not necessarily conform to the original setting; individually, they have been constructed as nearly like those on the hills above Athens as photos of the ruins and books on the subject made possible.

The famous Parthenon on the Acropolis was begun in 447 B. C. and completed 11 years later.

Sphinx and Pyramids

Through the ages the Sphinx has withstood the ravages of time and retained the mystery of her origin. Factual details are available, however, concerning the Cheops, which serves as the tomb of a Pharaoh, an engineering marvel 5,678 years old. Replicas of both, as well as two other pyramids, are at Great Western.

Leaning Tower of Pisa

Faithfully reproduced in detail, the Leaning Tower of Pisa is approximately 14 feet high. The structure is made of cast white concrete. Much library research was necessary and actual photos taken in Italy for the specific purpose were used.

Eiffel Tower

Recognized as one of the most famous of the "World's Wonders," The Eiffel Tower of Paris has a 19-foot replica at Great Western.

The original, built in 1889 for the exposition of that year by A. G. Eiffel, the tower has caused considerable controversy. It was considered a freak in architectural design when it was erected, and was a real eyesore to every red-blooded Frenchman until it was made apparent that the monstrosity was drawing tourist trade into Paris faster than the bistros of Montmartre.

It doesn't have the soft flowing lines of a Frank Lloyd Wright creation; in fact it's just a plain big frame consisting of huge steel beams that look like they were riveted together by an apprentice carpenter. But its very ugliness is what makes it extraordinary and today France is more than grateful to a man named Eiffel.

Carlsbad Caverns

A section of Carlsbad Caverns has been ingeniously constructed below the area occupied by the Acropolis. Through the windows, which have been provided for both adults and children, the "beauties which Mother Nature "planted" in New Mexico have been recreated.

Town Meeting Ends Twentieth Year

Columbus Town Meeting concluded its twentieth season of public service programming Sunday. Its incisive weekly discussion of issues pertinent to the day will be missed.

The program, unique not only in its nature but in the public support it commands, was founded on the premise that the public must have both sides of questions that determine the course of the future. Through the years it has illuminated the changing and challenging elements of our political, scientific, educational, economical, religious, and governmental affairs.

Supported solely by public contribution Town Meeting has long exhibited dedicated responsibility. This summer another note will be added to its service ideals.

In order to better inform its wide Ohio audience, the forum will return to the air at infrequent intervals during the vacation season.

Town Meeting's program committee, headed by President C. Emory Glander, working with Mrs. Grace Hare Frye, Director, will maintain a constant vigil on developments throughout the world, holding a constant check on the public pulse and events that shape our times.

Stations WBNS-TV and WBNS-Radio have agreed to devote air time to programs as issues dictate.

We applaud the decision of Town Meeting's Board and these stations. In this fast moving world, information is vital for survival, particularly the balanced type of information developed by free discussion.

We earnestly suggest that the public continue to participate, support, and aid this worthwhile service endeavor.

Cross Cry Emphasizes Humanity

Christ's death on Calvary followed quickly His agony in the Garden of Gethsemane.

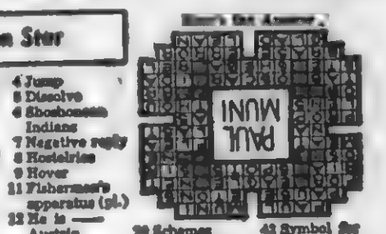
We are wont to say that there is an agony of soul that is greater than any physical pain, but physical pain can mean agony of soul as well. A martyr may bear his sufferings, upheld by his faith and determination to let nothing induce him to renounce his fidelity to right and truth. But while man lives and is conscious, the body cannot be separated from the soul. Bodily pain, no matter how courageously it is endured, often means agony of spirit.

It is in this light that we must interpret the cry of Christ, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" Here, as in the agony at Gethsemane, is emphasized the deep and real humanity of the Christ who suffered on the Cross.

It was the human cry that Job, under the burden of his afflictions, had uttered when he had been tempted to curse God and die.

It was a momentary cry of intense anguish, but the spirit of Christ under suffering was manifested more truly in His attitude toward the good thief. He knew in the moments following His outcry that God had not forsaken Him, for He said to the thief, "This day thou shalt be with me in Paradise."

As the sun's light failed and darkness came over the land, and the veil of the temple was torn in two, the spirit of Gethsemane came back. "Not my will, but thine be done," He said, and "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit."



This was [illegible] the Cross.

Hot Weather Treats To Make A Steamy Summer Bearable

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

For a hot-day luncheon, frozen fruit salad serves as a combination main dish and dessert. Of course, a pitcher of iced tea goes with this luncheon, too.

Ice Tea Recipe (16-18 servings)

Premeasure ¾ cup loose tea (or remove tags from 18 teabags). Bring 1 quart of freshly drawn cold water to a full rolling boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat and while water is still bubbling, add all the tea at one time. Stir. Brew 5 minutes, uncovered. Stir and strain into pitcher holding an additional quart of freshly drawn cold water. (Do not refrigerate.) Serve in ice-filled glasses, with lemon and sugar to taste.

Frozen Fruit Salad (About 6 servings)

One can (1 pound 14-ounce) fruit cocktail, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, ½ cup liquid from fruit, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 package (3-ounce) cream cheese, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 8 marshmallows, quartered; 1 cup heavy cream, whipped.

Drain fruit cocktail, saving ½ cup liquid. Sprinkle gelatin over ¼ cup of liquid. Add sugar to the remaining ¼ cup liquid and heat; pour over gelatin.

Combine cheese and mayonnaise; stir in gelatin mixture, mixing until smooth. Combine with marshmallows and fruit. Fold in whipped cream. Pour in a 6-cup mold or refrigerator tray.

Freeze, without stirring, until firm. Serve on salad greens.

What could be better for that midsummer heat wave than cooling ice tea and delicious frozen fruit salad?

Chitlin' Switch,
Sunday Afternoon

Dear Jason:

Things around the old home town are the same as usual. Your brother Zeke is still going around with that Saliva Patts girl from Polecat Ridge. I won't say I don't like Salvia but I honestly believe she'd steal straw from her mother's kennel. There's a story going around that she's going to have an operation on her nose. She's not going to have it straightened—just placed between her eyes. I guess you can call Savlia slightly on the ficicle side.

She's been married before, you know, and at her first wedding she threw her bouquet and while it was still in the air she decided she didn't like the guy she had just married so she ran and caught it herself.

As far as her age goes, she's pretty close mouth about it but I hear she's trying to get the government to mail her Social Security check to her in a plain wrapper. Saliva also believes she can sing and last year she made a 12-inch record of her singing. The only thing that would help it would be a 12-inch hole in the center. But Zeke loves her so I guess you'll be trying to get some leave to come to the wedding. Zeke says Saliva has the face of a Saint and I had to agree a — St. Bernard.

Well, Jason, next week I'll drop you a letter from New York. As a mater of fact, it's really Brooklyn where the convention is, the Hotal St. George.

Write soon.
Your loving,
MOM.

Settled Job Problem Early Paint-Town's Chuck Jones

The manager of the Paint-Town Store, Great Western Shoppers Mart, is one of those lucky individuals who decided on an occupation early in life and stuck to it!

Charles "Chuck" Jones, the paint store's manager, entered the field of retail home decorator's supplies while still in high school, in his hometown, Mansfield, O.

Following his graduation in marketing from Ohio State University and two-year service stint for Uncle Sam, Chuck became manager of the Great Eastern Paint-Town store. Three months later, he took the same position at Great Western.

Charles Jones

With Company 10 Years

Jones' 10-year paint career has been with the Dean and Barry Co. exclusively.

The store carries a complete line of floor and wall tiles, unpainted furniture, wallpaper, paint and special paper 'scenics' and murals. The firm also provides rental service on sanders, polishers, rug-scrubbers and steamers.

Chuck said, "Our chief aim is to make each customer's personal decorating problem our concern and help in every way we can."

Outside the store, Jones takes an active interest in bowling, golf and photography. He lives with his parents at 3600 Mountview-rd.

Chuck is a member of HBA, Tri-Village Jaycees, Columbus Paint Dealers Association and First Community Church.

As more work by the Hilltop YMCA Y's Men's Club was put forth Tuesday evening, preparations for the opening clinic for "Little Nine" baseball continue to shape up. The date for the clinic is definitely set for Saturday, June 14, 10 a.m., on the Valleyview site for the new Hilltop YMCA.

Arrangements for a brief workout with professional and semi-professional baseball talent as instructors are under way for members of the Hilltop "Y" Little Nine. A batting demonstration by these leaders will also be given. With 140 applications already in, a good number of boys and their dads are expected to be on hand.

Hilltop "Y" plans are shaping up for Intermediate and Junior Church Softball Leagues. Teams enlisted in the Intermediates to date are DeMolay, Hillcrest Baptist, West Park Methodist, Hoge Memorial Presbyterian and Avondale EUB. In the Junior league: Hillcrest, West Park Methodist, Hoge Memorial, Hilltop Christian, Glenwood Methodist are interested, along with possibly Highland Friends, Hilltop Church of God, Hilltonia EUB and Oakley Baptist. Intermediate league will start Thursday, June 13, at Westgate Park. Due to the Little Nine Baseball clinic on the 14th, the Junior league will not begin until Saturday, June 21, at 10:30 a.m., at Westgate Park.

Schedule for the week:

Worker Escapes Serious Injury In Scraper Fire

John D. Edwards, 31, of 883 Sullivant-av, was treated and released Monday afternoon from Mt. Carmel Hospital for burns he suffered when a road scraper he was operating that morning caught fire near the Spring-Sandusky Interchange.

Edwards, a construction worker, leaped to safety when the machine burst into flames. Police said the scraper blade apparently struck a natural gas line which set off the blaze.

An employe of the Red Eagle Construction Co., Edwards suffered burns on his hands and face. The scraper, valued at $22,000, was declared a total [redacted].

Logan Davis, 609 S. Burgess-av, has a permit to remodel a frame dwelling.

Twelve Community Leaders Commemorated By Kiwanians

MEMORIAL to 12 deceased members of the Hilltop Kiwanis club was presented on this "Circle and K" floral board last Thursday. Elmer Hegenberger, program chairman, stands beside it.

Now in its second decade of service to the community, the Hilltop Kiwanis Club last week took special notice of its growing list of esteemed dead.

Thursday noon 12 past members were commemorated. They were Dr. Chester O. Cramer, (who died in 1947); Ira Claggett (1950), Woody Clark (1950), Ray McVay, Sr., (1951), Dr. Howard Whitehead (1951), Curt Roberts (1952), Tom Wolfendale (1954), Fred Raether (1955), Lou Saunders (1955), O. H. Craft (1956), Otto Mattox (1957) and Darrell E. Jacques (1957).

Each man was recalled in a commentary given by Rev. George Taylor, pastor of the Westgate Methodist Church. Rev. Harold Dutt, of Westgate EUB Church gave a memorial sermonette.

As the ceremony was read, [redacted] members placed 12 carnations in a 'K' memorial board. Two hymns were sung by a Kiwanian quartet and "Taps" were rendered. Elmer Hegenberger was in charge of the program.

West Side Men Pass CSC's Inspector Exam

Lawrence Conley, 355 Ballowsav, was one of eight of the city's 11 rooming house inspectors who passed the controversial Civil Service examinations Monday.

Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner's son, Richard, placed third with 94.66. Conley's score was 93.33.

Ten of the 11 inspectors wrote a letter several weeks ago to the Civil Service Commission protesting various parts of the tests. Results included the additional 30 questions given on the subject of carbon monoxide poisoning, placed on the exam at the insistence of Assistant Safety Director William L. Leh[redacted].

Safety Director Leo L. Phillips has until today to appoint other inspectors in the Building Department.

Josephinum Sets Dedication Rite

Rev. Amleto G. Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States, will officiate at the dedication of the new college building and recreation center on the campus of the Josephinum Seminary, Worthington, Wednesday, June 11 at 10 a.m.

Archbishop Cicognani is head of the Josephinum, only papal seminary on the North American continent.

Week-long program of dedication ends Sunday afternoon, June 15, with an open house, from 1 to 6 p.m. providing an opportunity for everyone to tour the Josephinum.

Fifteen Seniors Rate Unique Titles At Central High School

What would a graduation be without the traditional list of superlatives—the sweetest this, the cutest that, and the one most likely to do nothing! Central High School has announced its superlative seniors chosen by the students. The following is quoted from the school newspaper, "The Outlook."

"Judy Bakenhester and John Pepper as the Most Popular Senior Boy or Girl. Shirley Green and Nick Collura share honors as the Cutest Couple. They've also been sharing company during two years as steady dates."

"Donna Lang and David Gilkerson were named by the Central graduating class as the Best Dressed Boy and Girl.

"John Gatewood, six-feet, two inches, 185 pounds of Central senior, now holds title to Best Athlete.

"The Prettiest Senior Girl is Marilane Holton according to the vote. She is a majorette and was Central's 1957 Homecoming Queen.

"Sue Ott and Tom Everhart have been affectionately labeled the Noisest Senior Boy and Girl while Allen Strickler and Ruth Moore were honored as the Most Talented Boy and Girl.

"Dean Holt, who can usually be seen sneaking into registration after the 8:45 bell, was a natural for the Senior Most Likely to be Late title.

Connie Doser and John Brooks were named the Most Bashful Senior Boy and Girl."

Hilltonia To Get New Instruments

Hilltonia Junior High School's band will play on next year—but no new instruments! The school is one of four junior high schools in the city that will receive new band equipment through the action of the board of education yesterday.

The board awarded contracts to three firms for a total of $2564.65 worth of new musical instruments to be furnished to the schools.

Musical Arts will supply a sousaphone at $342.65. Gaetz Music House was low bidder on two baritone horns ($376.50), two French horns ($329.50) and three string basses ($561). Van's Music Sales will supply two mellophones ($270) and 18 violins ($675).

SOCIAL PLANNED

WSCS of the Alton Methodist Church is having an ice cream social at Brown Township school house, Sunday, June 8, from 5 to 8 p.m.

Randolph Graham, 866 Campbell-av, is remodeling a dwelling.

Guest To Speak At St. Timothy's; Bible School Set

STARLING NEWS

Two Named On All-City

Starling's baseball team is well represented on this year's all-city junior high team. Mickey Rieser was selected for first string short stop.

Harold Miller, John Potts and Charles Rinehart were awarded honors for their excellent ball-playing season and are on first string.

STARLING RUNS TWO

Starling's baseball team defeated Berry, Junior High by a score of 10-3 at Jet Stadium Friday, May 23.

Starling had 10 runs: 7 in the first inning; 2 in the second and 1 in the sixth.

Berry had 3 runs, all scored in the third inning. Staten was winning pitcher and Rinehart was winning catcher. Nicely was losing pitcher and Kettler catcher.

Starling handed Barrett its first league loss by a score of 3-2 at Jet Stadium May 27. Barrett executed a triple play in the fifth, but Starling with two outs in the last inning came right back to pound out seven hits and score three runs.

Staten won his own game by doubling with two on. Staten and Rinehart were winning pitcher and catcher; Bufford and Burgett took the loss.

9A PARTY

After a week of final examinations, Starling's 9A graduating class will have its party Friday, June 6, at school.

Following rehearsal for commencement in the morning the 9A's will be excused to prepare for their party at 3:30.

Entertainment will be provided by talented 9A's. As this story was written the final selection of talent had not been

Joys Of Trotlining Are Many

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

I was floating down a stretch of Big Darby Creek in a canoe about this time last year casting for smallmouth bass, and I was pleased to note that we floated over several trotlines in the course of a day's fishing. It was reassuring to me to know that this somewhat primitive form of sport fishing is still alive and kicking.

Some of my earliest fishing recollections are associated with trotlining, and I'm certain that the first respectable string of fish I ever caught came from a trotline.

Since then I have plied this ancient art, taught to me by Earl King, on the Muskingum, Mohican, and Kokosing Rivers, and Wills Creek and Big Darby Creek. Sleek channal catfish and big shovelheads are the prizes awarded to skilled trotliners. Suckers, carps, and occasional bass are also taken. But a trotline was designed with catfish in mind.

FAVOR NIGHT BAITING

By baiting up your line just before dark you fish through the night. This is when catfish are out prowling around looking for a meal. When the fishing is particularly good—during the dark of the moon, or when the stream is rising slightly after a rain—some fishermen run their trotlines one or twice in the night. By doing this they can take off freshly caught fish, and keep the hooks baited for more prospects. Crayfish are expert bait-stealers, and by replacing bait through the night you improve the chances of a catfish finding your minnows and nightcrawlers.

When it comes to deciding what baits to use you have an unlimited variety, but I think minnows are best with nightcrawlers running a close second. I've also had good luck on catalpa worms, liver, shrimp, and chicken entrails. (This last bait was in good supply before the day of cut-up chickens neatly wrapped in super markets). Chunks of yellow laundry soap and marshmallows are also used as trotline bait.

I remember trotlining as a companionable sport. Earl King and I would spend an afternoon seining minnows in preparation to setting a line. Sometimes we would spend two or three hours the night before catching nightcrawlers. Other expeditions led to catalpa groves in a quest of bait. Putting out the line would be accomplished only after much discussion as to where would be the "right spot."

Tying on stagings was a knack to be learned—they mustn't slip and become tangled with other hooks. Finally, the bait was put on just at dark. As the evening crept on with accompanying night noises, a man and boy alone in a boat found much of interest to talk about.

PROVES MANY A THRILL

The next morning at daylight anticipation was at flood tide. Would there, or wouldn't there be fish on the line to make it throb? Chances are, there were. In any event, fog was rising from the water, wood ducks were whistling overhead, birds were singing—and it was a good time to be alive.

Once a trotliner always a trotliner. I still know where to seine for minnows, and how to prod the big chubs out from under roots. My reflexes are slowing down a bit, but I think I can still grab nightcrawlers. I know that I can tie a staging onto a trotline. And I'll bet I can still estimate to within two pounds the size of a fish just by feeling him throb on the line.

Before many days go by I'm going to relive these joys.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle R. Franks

FRUITS — strawberries, lemons, pineapple, canned applesauce.

VEGETABLES — asparagus, greenhouse tomatoes, leaf lettuce, canned green beans.

OTHER FOODS — fryers, ground beef, ham, large eggs, milk.

STRAWBERRY SEASON SHORT AND SWEET!!

You won't need persuasion to get you to take home the beautiful bright red strawberries that are arriving in our markets now. Anyone would find them hard to resist.

We have enjoyed them early in the season from the southern states, but in early June the luscious crop of local homegrown strawberries is here. The season is short. Before long we must switch again to the frozen ones. So don't wait. Eat them fresh in all your favorite ways. It's time also to locate your supply for freezing and for making cooked or frozen jam.

SELECTING AT THE MARKET — Look for fresh, clean, bright red berries with green caps, one with no white spots or green tips. That glossy appearance means they're freshly picked.

CARE AT HOME — Ripe berries should be used soon after purchasing. They keep best if you spread them in a shallow pan and cover lightly with waxed paper in the refrigerator.

Wash gently in running water, then remove caps when you're ready to use them. Berries lose vitamins and become water logged if they stand in water.

GOOD TO EAT — GOOD FOR US. — Fresh strawberries arrive at the time when fresh oranges and grapefruit are on the decline. This is good, for strawberries are excellent source of Vitamin C. A cup of strawberries contains enough Vitamin C for an adult's daily needs at the cost of only 55 calories per cup.

VARIETIES FOR FREEZING — You have several choices when you buy local berries. You may buy them at your grocery, at a roadside stand, or you may pick them yourself. In any case, it's wise to select a variety that freezes well. Varieties recommended in Ohio include Pocahontas, Surecrop, Earlidown, Midland, Sparkle and Fairland.

ASPARAGUS

Last call to put fresh homegrown asparagus in the home freezer or locker for next winter's meals. After this week quality will be on the down grade.

Doris Boase, John Condon Repeat Vows

MR. AND MRS. JOHN R. CONDON

St. Agnes Church was the scene of the nuptial high mass uniting Miss Doris Jo Anne Boase and Mr. John R. Condon. Rev. Robert Schmidt, Rev. Raymond Lavalle and Rev. Thomas officiated at the 10:30 a.m. ceremony before an altar decorated with white lilies and azaleas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boast, 778 S. Eureka-av. Her husband is the son of Mrs. David Condon, 2203 Sullivant-av.

The floor-length bridal gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over blush pink satin, was designed with a fitted bodice, sabrina neckline encircled with appliques of iridescents and seed pearls, and long, tapering sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured lace panels and scattered iridescents and seed pearl-trimmed appliques.

A Juliet cap of lace and tulle held her fingertip vail and she carried pink shattered carnations with deeper pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley in a cascade arrangements.

Miss Jane Green, maid of honor, wore a cornflower blue crystallet gown in ballerina length with a scalloped hemline, scoop neck and deeper blue embroidered design. She carried shattered pink carnations.

Mr. Otis Jefferies served as bestman and guests were seated by Mr. Milton Brehl and Mr. Jack McAndrews.

The mother of the bride chose a light gray suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of white shattered carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue gown with white accessories and an identical cor-

Miss Cell Green was hostess at the reception held in St. Agnes Church Hall immediately following the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Condon was graduated from Holy Rosary High School and is employed at Cussins & Fearn, Hilltop Branch. Mr. Condon was graduated from Aquinas High and is employed at Burrows Electric Co. as a construction electrician.

Following a wedding trip to Chicago and Wisconsin, the couple is at home at 2553 Sullivant-av.

Ladies of Maria Plan Installation Ceremony

Ladies of Maria will install new officers at the K of C. club rooms, 2596½ W. Broad-st, at 8:30 p. m., June 11.

Officers for 1958-59 are: president, Mrs. Jos. Gregory; vice president, Mrs. Robert Schwendenman; secretary, Mrs. Pat Martin; treasurer, Mrs. Paul Weisenbach.

Installation breakfast will be held at the club rooms at 9 a. m., Sunday, June 22.

CAMP CHASE UNIT TO MEET FRIDAY

Camp Chase American Legion Auxiliary will meet Friday evening, June 6 at the post home.

Girl Staters from 1957 and 1958 will participate in the program. Their mothers are also invited.

Mrs. Edward Dellenbach, 15th district president of the auxiliary, will be a guest.

Camp Fire Girls Plan 'Jet Night'

June 6 has been designated "Jet Night" for Camp Fire Girls, with the girls selling tickets to the baseball game in Jet Stadium.

Representatives of all three groups will participate in pregame ceremonies, under the direction of Bob Adkins.

Fifty cents of each ticket sold by the organization will be retained to be used in furthering the sanitation project at Camp Wyandot. Tickets may be obtained from any leader in Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls or Horizon Club groups, or by calling the Camp Fire office, CA 8-4341.

Children with Jet Badges may use them by paying an additional 50 cents. In case of rain tickets will be honored June 7.

Apple Slices Are Fine With Mixed Cheese Dip

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

Ever serve "applesnacks"? They are crisp slices of red Delicious apples for the nibbling tray served with an interesting three-cheese dunk. Friends in the State of Washington gave us this idea.

Three-Cheese Dunk

One cup cottage cheese, well drained, 1 cup grated cheddar cheese, 2 ounces bleu cheese, mashed, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon horseradish, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 3 green onions, finely chopped, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon celery salt, pepper.

Blend cheeses together. Add remaining ingredients. Pile in bowl. Serve with crisp, fresh apple slices.

• • •

Then from California came this salad recipe:

Belvedere Salad
(4-6 generous servings)

Three-quarters cup macaroni, 1 cup ripe olives, 1 (6½-ounce or 7-ounce) can tuna, 3 hard-cooked eggs, 2 cups finely shredded cabbage, ½ cup mayonnaise, 2 teaspoons prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain, and rinse thoroughly with cold water. Cut olives into large pieces.

Drain oil from tuna, and flake coarsely. Dice eggs. Combine macaroni, olives, tuna, eggs and cabbage. Blend mayonnaise, mustard, vinegar and salt, and toss lightly with salad mixture.

Dunking apple slices in a dip made of three cheeses will please guests as a meal appetizer or snack idea.

West's Graduating Seniors Dance Night Away At Prom

Senior prom gaiety for West High School graduates extended into a full 24 hours of fun this year, with a schedule of social events planned to outlast the merrymakers' energy.

Starting at 7 p.m. Thursday, a round of "coketail" parties preceded the prom. Graduates danced to the music of Tommy Dale's orchestra in a "Dreams Of Sayonara" setting.

West High's gym was magically transformed for the affair into an Oriental theme, with Japanese lanterns and decorations.

A prom party at the Deshler-Hilton with a meal of fried chicken and more dancing to Tommy Dale's band followed throughout the night.

At 6 a.m. breakfast at Westgate Park, Shelter House and a swimming party at Hilltop Swimming Club started Friday's festivities.

Those with sufficient endurance were still ready for fun at the senior class picnic held at 4 p.m. at Westgate Park. Others took time out at home for a nap, but were on hand to wind up the unforgettable "prom fun."

Largest Of Branch Libraries Boasts Summer Reading Club For Youngsters

Only three days old, the Summer Reading Club at Hilltop Branch Library, 2955 W. Broad-st, already boasts nearly a hundred members, and at least that many inquiries have been answered about the weekly summer Story-Craft Hour which begins Wednesday, June 18.

Some 2500 Hilltop youngsters are expected to take part in the reading club "which costs nothing, gives no prizes and promises nothing more than delightful memories of a summer happily and profitably spent," according to Mary Elizabeth Keyes, head librarian.

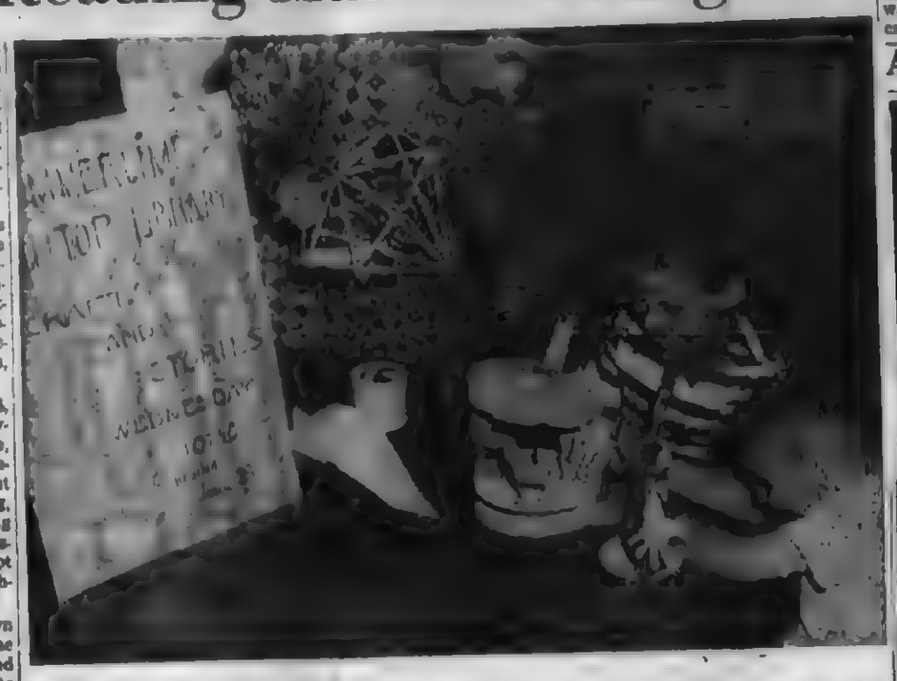
Open to youngsters six to 14, the club may be joined anytime during the rest of June, Miss Keyes added. A child becomes a member by signing out four books of his own choosing, reading them, and returning them. He then receives a registration card which will be kept on file at the library throughout the [illegible].

Each child will keep his own record on this card and the books he has read. At the end of the season, he will designate the five titles he has most enjoyed. The registration card then becomes his permanent souvenir.

Nearly 2000 youngsters were members of last year's reading club at Hilltop Library, which has the largest circulation of the 11 branches of the Columbus Public Library system.

Mrs. Lakin Directing

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lakin, who appears regularly on the Thursday evening WOSU-TV presentation of "The Five and Ten Show," will be in charge of the summer Story-Craft session. Mrs. Lakin was an art education major at Ohio State University and holds a master's degree in the field from Miami University. An assistant at Hilltop Library since January, she has worked for several years in other branch libraries and the bookmobile service of the Columbus Public Library system.



Crafts, Guessing Games Set

The Story-Craft sessions will be on successive Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. starting June 18.

Each session will include a story and closely-related paper-scissors-paste-craft instruction period. Planned craft projects include zoo animals, birds, flowers, cages, space helmets, wire sculpture and papier-mache.

A game and [illegible] period will [illegible] be included in the hour, which has been designed to appeal to wide age group. Both individual assistance and "buddy-instruction" will be utilized in the craft projects.

Another library activity for young patrons beginning the first week of summer vacation will be a weekly "name-the-story-book-character" contest. Each week a different illustration will be displayed. Children will mark their guesses as to the identity of the character portrayed on special ballots. Names of those youngsters who guessed correctly will be posted on the bulletin board for the next full week.

And here's what we'll make! . . . Library assistant Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lakin shows prospective members of the Hilltop Library Story-Craft Hour class some of the exciting things they will make on Wednesday mornings starting June 18. Already "sold" for the summer are Deborah Bennell, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Bennell, 119 Binns-blvd, and Jerry Agricsti, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Agricsti, 165 S. Huron-st.

Form Cat Appreciation Project For Boys, Girls

The Cat Welfare Association, Inc. announced a summer activities program from June 16 through Aug. 31 of neighborhood cat appreciation groups for boys and girls, 9 to 15, in the greater Columbus area.

Three cash prizes will be offered for the best club projects.

Application blanks and information can be obtained by calling AX 9-1736 after 6 p.m. or on Saturdays and Sundays.

Child, 5, Struck By Car Tuesday

Rebecca Romine, 5, of 409 S. Yale-av, was held in Mt. Carmel Hospital yesterday for observation of bruises she suffered when struck by a car while crossing the street in front of 425 S. Glenwood-av, police reported.

Driver of the car, Donald J. Ray, 31, of 1960 Fairmont-av, was not cited. Police said the girl walked into the street from between two parked cars.

She suffered bruises on the head, arms, legs and abdomen.

WEST SIDE BOY SCOUT NEWS

Edited By JACK H. FRAVEL

Seven Win Medals

Six boys from Post 226 and their advisor, Jim Demorest have won medals for sucessfully hiking the Silver Moccasin Trail.

Friday afternoon, May 30, the post left Columbus for Lebanon, O., where they camped that evening. Saturday the explorers began their hike at the historic Golden Lamb Hotel, the oldest hotel in Ohio, and ended it more than 15 miles and four hours, later—at the Fort Ancient Museum. The boys saw much beautiful farm land and several examples of Hopewell and Adena Indian architecture and culture. In addition to hiking the trail, each explorer had to write a book report on the Mound-builders to earn the medal. Hiking with the local unit were scouts and explorers from Middletown, O., and Evansville, Ind.

The six boys finishing the trail were: Doug Boggs, Jim Demorest, Jack Fraval, Carl Hott, Kenny Martin, and Larry Rennie. Art Hott provided transportation from Columbus and was in charge of equipment during the two-day excursion.

Frank To Be New ASM

Troop 39 reports they will have a new assistant scout master when their charter is turned in this July. He is Eugene Frank, who has been serving unofficially in this position recently.

Twenty-nine boys in the troop were present for the camping trip at Hocking Hills last weekend.

Bike Safety Stressed

The Apache patrol of Troop 225 has two new officers. Larry Bicherdt has been elected assistant patrol leader, with Dan Wells as his superior.

A thorough-going course in bicycle safety is being conducted at present for the benefit of the entire troop. The Webelos Den of Troop 225 has been studying photography under the guidance of George Sealer.

A cook-out will be held by the troop at Glenwood Park, June 16.

Post 181 Marches

Post 181 of Hillcrest Baptist Church participated in the Memorial Day parade downtown last Friday. Members who marched were Gary Reynolds, Jon LeFavour, Larry Miller, Bernard Chapman, Mike Pugh and Jim Malloy.

The post meets on Monday evening in the church basement. Boys interested in joining should appear at the church at 7 p.m. on Monday.

The post is also selling light bulbs to buy tents and equipment. Those wishing to purchase light bulbs may call BR. 4-2294.

Camera Turns On Cameraman

X-Ray Van Will Work At Bean Fest

Again this year the Tuberculosis Society's Christmas seal X-ray cruiser will park at the Hilltop Bean Dinner to give free chest checks to the public. The event will be held Tuesday and Wednesday June 24 and 25 at Sullivant Avenue Airport.

Charles M. Campbell, executive secretary of the Hilltop Businessmen's Assn. is coordinating with the TB Society to organize a successful X-ray program at the dinner.

"Are You Positive?", the theme of the program, adopted from the new TB movie, will be carried out.

The cruiser will make a return visit to Central Point Shopping Center, Tuesday, June 10, from 3 until 9 p.m.

GM Program Ends Union Shop, Dues

Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors Corp., last week outlined a 15-point program for operation without a union contract which went into effect Thursday midnight for the 3500 workers at the Terrstadt Division plant here.

GM and the United Auto Workers Union, who have failed to come to an agreement thus far, will continue talks and hope to have a new contract soon.

Meanwhile, employes continue to work without a contract under the new 15-point program.

Only two of the points will mean any change in work schedules, pay or benefits received by the employes. They are:

"Union members will no longer have the obligation to pay dues to the union as a condition of continued employment in General Motors. The union will be unable to request and cause the discharge of an employe for non-payment of dues.

"New employes will not be required to join the union. Since General Motors now has no responsibility and authority to deduct union dues from wages, no such deductions will be made."

Descendant Of Mutineer Will Speak In Columbus

Parkin Christian of Pitcairn Island, great-great-grandson of Fletcher Christian, leader of the famed Mutiny on the Bounty, will appear in Columbus Wednesday, June 11.

He will be at Harding Sanitarium in Worthington at 3:30 p.m. and at the Eastwood Seventh Day Adventist Church, 26 N. 21st-st at 8 p.m. He is here as delegate to the world conference of Adventists to be held in Cleveland June 19 to 29.

Making his first visit to the United States, Christian, 74, is elder statesman of Pitcairn Island and, until January, 1958, was chief magistrate of the Island Council and acted for the governor of Fiji in all civil matters.

Pitcairn Island has been featured recently in National Geographic, Life and Reader's Digest magazines.

Hoge Plans New Schedule

Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church will go on a summer schedule beginning June 8, with one worship service at 9:30 a.m. and church school classes for children through the junior age at the same hour.

Classes for older children and for adults will be dismissed until September.

President Of Mother Church

Leonard T. Carney of Boston, Mass., has been named president of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

He succeeds Miss Mabel Ellen Lucas of Brookline, Mass., and will serve a one-year term.

Local Children Enroll In Tar Hollow Camp

Students of the local Seventh Day Adventist School who will attend camp at Tar Hollow State Forest June 1 to 15, are Aleta and Danny Dunson, Anita Giebell, Carol Harris, Duane Knecht and Joan Sierman.

Carl Carnes, 436 Stimmel-rd, will serve as a camp counselor.

PERMIT SECURED

John R. Smith, 165 N. Oakley-av, has a permit to remodel a frame dwelling.

Hoge Plans Lawn Fete

Annual lawn fete of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, 2930 W. Broad-st, will be held Saturday evening, June 7.

Each organization of the church, conducting booths and concessions, will transform the entire grounds into a mardigras setting. Food, fun and favors for all the family are planned, including Flippo, the clown.

In the event of rain, the affair will be held in the church basements.

Nazarenes Plan Farewell Service For Missionary

Members of Nazarene churches in this area will take part in a farewell service for Rev. and Mrs. Charles Gates, outbound missionaries to Brazil, at Bellows Avenue Church of the Nazarene, Monday night, June 9 at 7:30.

Natives of Ohio, Rev. and Mrs. Gates have been serving as pastors of the Avon Lake Nazarene Church since he graduated from the Nazarene Theological Seminary in 1955. They are both graduates of Olivet [redacted] College, Kankakee, Ill.

The couple will leave for Brazil in the fall to enter Portuguese language school in Campinas, 60 miles northwest of Sao Paulo.

Cocherl Church Plans Meeting

Rev. W. G. Weston

Rev. W. G. Weston, evangelist of the Christian and Missionary Alliance will hold evangelistic services at Cocherl Memorial Alliance Church, 2148 McKinley-av, from June 9 to 15 at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

Rev. Wayne R. Hineman is pastor of Cocherl Memorial. Public is invited.

Bible School Set At Local Church

Bible School will open Monday, June 16 at Westgate Methodist Church, 345 S. Brinker-av. Classes, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday, will continue until Friday, June 27.

Children from four years through the sixth grade will be accepted.

Mrs. Robert McCarty will be in charge and those wishing additional information may call her, BR. 9-3428 or Mrs. Orval Minniear, BR. 9-1086.

West Park IYF To Hear Speaker

West Park Methodist Church Intermediate Youth Fellowship will have as speaker this Sunday evening at 6:30, Raymond Trinter, principal of Starling Junior High School.

It will be the last group meeting until Sept. 7, and there will also be a recognition service for the 24 members that will go into senior high group.

All parents and friends are invited.

REMODELS

Robert Weil, 1240 Georgesville-rd, has been granted a permit to remodel a frame dwelling at 865-66 S. Burgess-av.

REASONS FOR CONFIDENCE IN AMERICA'S FUTURE

1. MORE PEOPLE: U. S. population has doubled in last 50 years! And our prosperity curve has always followed our population curve.

2. MORE JOBS: Though employment in some areas has fallen off, there are 15 million more jobs than in 1939 — and there will be 22 million more in 1975 than today.

3. MORE INCOME: Family income after taxes is at an all time high of $5300—is expected to pass $7000 by 1975.

4. MORE PRODUCTION: U. S. production doubles every 20 years. We will require millions more people to make, sell and distribute our products.

5. MORE SAVINGS: Individual savings are at highest level ever—$300 billion—a

KIWANIS AWARDS MADE

College Scholarships Granted To Three West High Seniors

SCHOLARSHIP, character and service to church, school and community were big factors in the choice of three West High seniors for Hilltop Kiwanis college scholarships. Grants totalling $500 each were awarded to these young people being congratulated by Kiwanian Paul Langdon, president of the city public school board. Left to right are Sharon Neibler, 789 S. Wayne-av; Langdon; Michael Mickelson, 1891 Vaughn-st, and Carol Brobst, 221 Letchworth-av. Together with their teachers and parents, the trio was honored at a Kiwanis luncheon. The club has made these awards for many years.

Rev. J. Lyon To Leave Church In Briggsdale

Rev. James Lyon

Rev. James H. Lyon, pastor of Briggsdale Methodist Church for the last five years, is leaving the church and the Central Ohio area for a new post near Cincinnati.

Rev. Lyon, who was born in Lancaster, in the northern part of England, will preach for the first time this Sunday in his new church, Okeana Methodist Church, ten miles from Cincinnati.

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, at the Ohio Methodist Conference held last week at Lakeside, appointed Rev. Raymond Himes, who has just been graduated from Boston University, as the new minister of the Briggsdale Church.

Rev. Lyon was a minister for nine years in Manchester, England, before coming to the United States in 1923. Since his arrival in America, he has been pastor of a number of large churches in the Ohio area including Cincinnati, Lima, Chillicothe and Springfield.

When his wife died five years ago, Rev. Lyon asked the Conference for a smaller church and was sent to Briggsdale. He said, "my wife was a great help to me and I felt I could no longer handle a large church without her."

Since coming to Briggsdale, he has accepted 185 new members into the church, and baptized 97 adults and 45 infants.

Rev. Lyon has been an area chairman for the local United Appeals campaigns for the last four years and has participated in PTA and other community activities.

He plans to return to England for a visit when he is settled in his new church. He emphasized that he has no plans for retirement and when he does it will be in the United States. "I don't plan to retire in England though I still have brothers and sisters living there."

Rev. Lyon has two married children. His son, who is a research chemist for DuPont, lives in Remington, Del. His daughter lives in Dayton.

Disabled Vets List Officers

Capitol City Chapter 3, Disabled American Veterans, named new officers to serve for the coming year, in its recent election.

William Peoples, 283 S. Princeton-av, will serve as commander; Lovell L. Baker, 54 N. Chase-av, senior vice-commander; Howard Marshall, 528 Royal Forest, junior vice-commander; H. O. Parke, 314 S. Glenwood-av, treasurer; C. R. Mooney, 2930 Agler-rd, officer of the day and R. A. Scott, 1420 Oakland Park, adjutant.

Membership in the chapter has passed the 1100 mark for 1958.

NYC Valleyview Tracks To Stay

New York Central Railroad officials last week flatly denied a rumor that NYC was planning to abondon its right-of-way which passes through Valleyview.

The rumor had it that NYC was going to use the nearby Pennsylvania Railroad's right-of-way in routing trains to Cincinnati. The NYC spokesman said this is not true and no plans of this type have ever been discussed.

Frank Watts, a trustee of Glenwood Methodist Church, said the rumor has been circulating for about three years. The removal of NYC's tracks would have meant the end of what many local residents consider a "danger factor" to children.

The tracks run adjacent to the proposed Hilltop Community Center where many children will be active throughout the year. Glenwood members, who are planning to build a new church in the center, have been extremely interested in the possible relocation of the NYC right-of-way.

'GIVE US A JUNE NIGHT' . . . IS GRADUATES' PLEA

Whatever the weather, starshine or rain, West and Central High graduating seniors will receive their diplomas tonight!

Inside or outside . . . that is the question.

Football fields and stadiums are in tip-top shape, faculty members are keeping a collective, watchful eye cocked on the skies and graduates' fingers are crossed hopefully.

Unknown quantity in the formula for a successful, historical "first" at both at both schools tonight is a tempermental weather-man.

If he gives a favorable nod, both schools will hold outdoor graduation ceremonies under starry June skies, adding glamor to the event and additional seating room for proud family and friends.

If, however, he turns an unsympathetic ear to fervent hopes and wishes, graduation exercises will move indoors and only ticket holders will be admitted.

The day dawned with torrents of rain, but "clearing by noon," with a starry June night," is promised.

Graduation ceremonies at West will be held at 7 p. m. and at Central at 8 p. m.

Little-Used Claggett Fund Will Aid Handicapped Man

Benevolence of a man who passed from the Hilltop scene eight years ago was recalled this week.

Trustees of the Ira Claggett Trust Fund have agreed to assist a handicapped young man in Franklin County in his attempt to start a business of his own.

Ira Claggett for 30 years operated a grocery at Wayne and Sullivant-avs. He later entered the real estate game and prospered. His name was always prominent in lodge, YMCA, church and service club endeavors.

He died suddenly May 27, 1950 following a one-day illness.

Claggett, himself was handicapped . . . because of defective eyes he always wore dark glasses. This may have prompted his establishment of a trust to give financial aid to handicapped young men (under 30) who want to start a business. The money amounts to "four figures" and is handled under probate court order by Charles H. Campbell, Phil Stout and Dr. E. E. McNamee.

The latest recipient of Claggett aid is not publicly identified because of his handicap. His venture will be a telephone answering service. Last week the Hilltop Kiwanis Club (to which Claggett belonged) rounded up desk and files and needs a few more chairs to equip an office for him.

"The generosity of Claggett could help a lot of others," said Campbell. "So far only a few have been aided. Names of anyone qualified may be sent to me at the Hilltop Business Association and will get full consideration," Campbell added.

Heavy Rains Flood Many Homes Here

West Side and isolated sections of the Hilltop have apparently been hit hardest in the city with basement flooding according to weather officials.

Tuesday marked the third straight day that Columbus has been drenched by heavy rains and lightning. The steadily swelling Scioto River is threatening several southern Ohio river towns.

Lightning hit a utility pole at Rich and Sandusky-sts last night shortly before 6 p.m. knocking out downtown traffic signals. Rush-hour traffic slowed to a crawl by the downpour caused multiple congestion at intersections where traffic signals were either darkened or stuck on one color.

The Fire Department's alarm circuit was damaged by the same bolt of lightning. Moments later, a West Side home at 711 W. Town-st, was struck by another bolt.

Low sections of both Hilltop and West Side reported many flooded basements. If rains continue as they did this morning, the water-logged condition of this section of the city could grow considerably worse.

The danger spot to watch will be the banks of the Scioto River near Grandview-av. This was the area through which the river overflowed during the flood of 1913 which devastated the West Side.

Hilltop Council Sets June Meet

Hilltop Community Council Committee and advisory board will meet Thursday, June 12, 8 p.m. at the Hilltop YMCA.

Opening of public playgrounds for the summer months will be discussed. P. W. Nippert will show some slides of his European Tour.

Brazen Burglars Ransack Widow's Third Floor Home

"It's an awful feeling to come home and find most of your prized possessions gone."

That was the comment Mrs. Naomi Hunter gave to this newspaper following a brazen robbery which stripped her 12 Wisconsin-av apartment almost bare.

Mrs. Hunter, a widow, supports herself from earnings as a clerk and basement buyer for Seiller's Department Store, 2404 W. Broad-st.

Sometime while she was away between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. last Wednesday, thieves mysteriously made off with a two-year old 21-inch RCA television set, a GE AM-FM radio, Hoover sweeper, Sunbeam toaster and two clocks. The burglars ignored a toy bank containing $14.

"I was flabbergasted," Mrs. Hunter said. "How would anyone have the nerve to come up to my third floor rooms and carry all that stuff down a flight of stairs used by six families?"

None of her neighbors reported seeing anyone. The night lock on her back door apparently had been opened with a key. Nothing was forced.

"I've been at this address 24 years, but never had anything as disgusting and discouraging as this happen before," Mrs. Hunter declared.

Haines Joins Kiwanis

Vlv Haines, 71 Martin-av, recently was accepted as a member of the West Side Kiwanis Club. Haines is a plant superintendent in Ohio Bell Telephone Co.'s eastern district.

SOUTH-WEST IS LOSER

City Awarded School Tract

By Ray Shaffer

State Board of Education in its meeting Monday night approved annexation to the Columbus school district of three Franklin Township areas, affecting 432 pupils now in the South-Western Local School District.

Pupils to be affected are residents of two of these three areas, Rainbow Addition and Georgian Heights.

A spokesman for the Columbus Board of Education said the additional students would only slightly crowd city schools temporarily.

V. J. Ullman, executive head of the South-Western Board of Education, said the transfer of the pupils from the district would leave relatively few class rooms empty next fall, "roughly about three or four."

Ullman said these empty classrooms would be used to expand the district's educational program.

Elementary students from Georgian Heights will be sent to Binns Elementary School. Students now attending Binns, who live on the eastern edge of the school's district, will be sent to the new Lindberg Elementary School now under construction. The new school will be opened this fall although some construction work may still be going on. Some Georgian Heights students may also be sent to Linmoor.

Elementary pupils from Rainbow Addition will be sent to West Mound Street Elementary School. The Columbus Board plans to let contracts next week for the construction of an addition to West Mound School.

The Columbus Board of Education spokesman said, "there will be nine new classrooms in Lindberg School and six more added to West Mound. This means there will be 15 new classrooms for the additional pupils and there will be little or no crowding necessary."

The West Mound addition should be completed by fall, but if not, the September school opening will be delayed for the Rainbow students until the construction is finished.

Junior high students from Georgian Heights will attend West Junior High School next fall and will switch to Westmoor Junior High School when it is completed next February.

Junior high pupils from Rainbow will go to Hilltonia Junior High School.

High School students from both areas will attend West High School. "West will be slightly crowded for awhile next fall but not much more than it has been several times before," said the local board official.

Play Areas On Hilltop Set To Open

Annual Playground Opening Ceremonies, sponsored by Hilltop Community Council, are scheduled for Tuesday, June 17.

Opening ceremonies will be held at Glenwood, Haunts, and Highland Parks at 1:30 p.m. and at Holton, Westgate, and Burroughs Parks at 1:45 p.m. Included will be games, contests and vehicle parades.

Prizes will be awarded for first place in the competition. Separate contests will be offered for boys and girls. There will be three age groups (6 and under, 7 through 10, and 11 through 13). The vehicle parade is divided into two divisions—two wheeled bikes and any other decorated vehicle.

Arrangements at each playground are being handled by PTA committees and the other playground supervisors who will be working during the summer season.

The playground and the PTA's in charge are as follows:

Glenwood—West High PTA, Mrs. William Berger, chairman, 3025 Fairmont; Mrs. Eugene Plahuta, 145 Columbian; Mrs. Lloyd Stubbs, 281 Columbian; Mrs. James Bloom, 234 Belvidere; Mrs. Donald Lufts, 156 Lechner; and Mrs. Eldora Denman, 217 Clarendon-av.

Highland — Highland School PTA. — Mrs. Claude O'Neal chairman; Mrs. Sherman Morrison, 201 S. Oakley-av; Mrs. Robert Vagnier, 91 Whitethorne; Mrs. Hernden Cummings, 170 S. Wayne-av; Mrs. Charles Davidson, 234 S. Highland-av; Mrs. H. N. Maxwell, 51 Midland-av; Miss Barbara Dearing, 38 S. Wheatland.

Local Bus Firm Robbed Of Safe And $1500 Cash

Sheriff Deputies report that burglars broke into the Columbus-Celina Coach Co., 566 W. Rich-st, Friday morning and carted off a safe containing from $1000 to $1500 in cash and 45 payroll checks.

John Persons, 49, of 256 N. Garfield-av, discovered the safe while fishing along Big Run Creek Friday morning. He found the safe, constructed of steel and measuring 3 x 3 x 3 feet, opened and emptied in a lane off Rt. 104, three miles south of the city.

Payroll checks and valuable corporation papers were still in the safe. Police said the combination lock had been knocked off and pins from the door hinges were removed.

Police said the burglars probably carried the safe off in a truck. Mrs. Hazel Cluff, 53, of 2916 Parsons-av, is the owner of the company.

Time Is Now For Entry In Queen Race

Caught up in the happy rush of end-of-school activities, Hilltop girls planning to enter the Bean Dinner Queen Contest may postpone, until too late, submitting their entry forms.

With the big event less than two weeks away, there is no time to spare in registering for the competition.

Any single girl, 16 or more, living on the Hilltop or employed by a Hilltop firm, may enter the contest by picking up an entry form at the Hilltop Business Association office, Hilltop Swimming Club or The Hilltop Record.

Entries returned to the Record immediately to the Hilltop Record.

Contest will be judged Tuesday night, June 24 at the Bean Dinner, and the queen will be awarded a throphy and $25 savings bond. Two runners-up will also receive $25 savings bonds.

Enteries returned to the Record Office this week are those of Mary Grabill, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ruth Grabill, 162 N. Ogden-av. Mary, a graduating senior at West High, is an employe of Seiller's Depart-

Insignia Is Valued At $25 Today

Twenty five "Confederate" dollars, each worth 100 cents in merchandise when spent with advertisers appearing in today's newspaper, are free for the finding for some lucky subscriber this week.

Big jackpot insignia is valued at $25, and ten additional insignia, printed on ads in ten other copies of this issue, are worth one "Confederate" bill each.

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as having paid in advance or as his carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" money.

Copies of the newspaper containing lucky insignia may be redeemed at Hartley Newspapers' office, 2465 W. Broad-st, before noon on Saturday.

Employes or carriers of Hartley Newspapers and members of their families are not eligible.

A TRIPLE THREAT to top honors in the Pony Tail contest, to be judged during the Bean Dinner at Sullivant Avenue Airport June 24, 7 p.m. are the three blond daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Needham, 425 Waymouth-pl. Sponsored by The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News, the contest is open to all little girls ages one through 12 living in the newspapers' circulation area. Winners in each of three age groups will be awarded silver dollar prizes of five cartwheels for first place, two for second and one for third place. Shown are Terry, three and Janet and Sharon, 19-month-old twins. Children should be registered for the event by calling the newspaper, BR. 9-9444.

'Best Ever' Program Slated For Fete

Bean Dinner 1958, now less than two weeks away, promises to be the most spectacular ever staged by Hilltop Business Association members. Sullivant Avenue Airport, with acres of ground and spacious hangers housing exhibits and food service, will be the scene of the June 24 and 25 event.

Committee members, hard at work for months, have arranged a two-day program of feasting and fun sure to entertain thousands of guests in the grand manner.

King Bean will reign supreme with three tons of the delicious morsels, cooked with ham and served with crisp, salted crackers, free on both nights.

All the old favorite attractions and entertainment features will be included in the program, along with new ideas and surprises never presented before.

Planned activities, scheduled to start early in the afternoon both Monday and Tuesday, includes two full hours of games and contests for youngsters. Boys and girls will compete in games, races and relays, for shining silver dollar prizes.

Professional acrobats will perform during both evenings delighting the crowd with their skill and daring atop a 100 foot ladder.

Favorite fun features with a new twist will include the traditional tug of war between Hilltop Lions and Kiwanians. Harder Lake will be miles away but losers will still be all wet, with well-aimed fire hoses providing the drenching.

An authentic display of early American furniture, prepared by three local furniture stores, will be among the featured exhibits prepared by businessmen.

One of 36 interesting, educational displays, the furniture showing was planned by Gilicks Great Western Store. City Furniture and Mann Furniture and Appliance Company, in response to the recent trend towards early American decor.

An arrangement of bedroom, living room and dining room pieces, as well as occasional pieces, will extend completely across one end of the Airport hanger.

In addition to the combined exhibit, comprised of pieces supplied by each store, the three furniture stores will each have a seperate display close by.

Two spacious hanger buildings will be used to house the array of booths and displays arranged by other merchants.

REASONS FOR CONFIDENCE IN AMERICA'S FUTURE

1. MORE PEOPLE: U. S. population has doubled in last 50 years! And our prosperity curve has always followed our population curve.

2. MORE JOBS: Though employment in some areas has fallen off, there are 15 million more jobs than in 1939 — and there will be 22 million more in 1975 than today.

3. MORE INCOME: Family income after taxes is at an all time high of $5300—is expected to pass $7000 by 1975.

4. MORE PRODUCTION: U. S. production doubles every 20 years. We will require millions more people to make, sell and distribute our products.

5. MORE SAVINGS: Individual savings are at highest level ever—$300 billion—a

KIWANIS AWARDS MADE

College Scholarships Granted To Three West High Seniors

SCHOLARSHIP, character and service to church, school and community were big factors in the choice of three West High seniors for Hilltop Kiwanis college scholarships. Grants totalling $500 each were awarded to these young people being congratulated by Kiwanian Paul Langdon, president of the city public school board. Left to right are Sharon Neibler, 787 S. Wayne-av; Langdon; Michael Mickelson, 1891 Vaughn-st, and Carol Brobst, 221 Letchworth-av. Together with their teachers and parents, the trio was honored at a Kiwanis luncheon. The club has made these awards for many years.

'GIVE US A JUNE NIGHT' . . . IS GRADUATES' PLEA

Whatever the weather, starshine or rain, West and Central High graduating seniors will receive their diplomas tonight!

Inside or outside . . . that is the question.

Football fields and stadiums are in tip-top shape, faculty members are keeping a collective, watchful eye cocked on the skies and graduates' fingers are crossed hopefully.

Unknown quantity in the formula for a successful, historical "first" at both at both schools tonight is a tempermental weatherman.

If he gives a favorable nod, both schools will hold outdoor graduation ceremonies under starry June skies, adding glamor to the event and additional seating room for proud family and friends.

If, however, he turns an unsympathetic ear to fervent hopes and wishes, graduation exercises will move indoors and only ticket holders will be admitted.

The day dawned with torrents of rain, but "clearing by noon," with a starry June night," is promised.

Graduation ceremonies at West will be held at 7 p. m. and at Central at 8 p. m.

Little-Used Claggett Fund Will Aid Handicapped Man

Benevolence of a man who passed from the Hilltop scene eight years ago was recalled this week.

Trustees of the Ira Claggett Trust Fund have agreed to assist a handicapped young man in Franklin County in his attempt to start a business of his own.

Ira Claggett for 30 years operated a grocery at Wayne and Sullivant-avs. He later entered the real estate game and prospered. His name was always prominent in lodge, YMCA, church and service club endeavors.

He died suddenly May 27, 1950 following a one-day illness.

Claggett, himself was handicapped . . . because of defective eyes he always wore dark glasses. This may have prompted his establishment of a trust to give financial aid to handicapped young men (under 30) who want to start a business. The money amounts to "four figures" and is handled under probate court order by Charles H. Campbell, Phil Stout and Dr. E. E. McNamee.

The latest recipient of Claggett aid is not publicly identified because of his handicap. His venture will be a telephone answering service. Last week the Hilltop Kiwanis Club (to which Claggett belonged) rounded up desk and files and needs a few more chairs to equip an office for him.

"The generosity of Claggett could help a lot of others," said Campbell. "So far only a few have been aided. Names of anyone qualified may be sent to me at the Hilltop Business Association and will get full consideration," Campbell added.

Heavy Rains Flood Many Homes Here

West Side and isolated sections of the Hilltop have apparently been hit hardest in the city with basement flooding according to weather officials.

Tuesday marked the third straight day that Columbus has been drenched by heavy rains and lightning. The steadily swelling Scioto River is threatening several southern Ohio river towns.

Lightning hit a utility pole at Rich and Sandusky-sts last night shortly before 8 p.m. knocking out downtown traffic signals. Rush-hour traffic slowed to a crawl by the downpour caused multiple congestion at intersections where traffic signals were either darkened or stuck on one color.

The Fire Department's alarm circuit was damaged by the same bolt of lightning. Moments later, a West Side home at 711 W. Town-st, was struck by another bolt.

Low sections of both Hilltop and West Side reported many flooded basements. If rains continue as they did this morning, the water-logged condition of this section of the city could grow considerably worse.

The danger spot to watch will be the banks of the Scioto River near Grandview-av. This was the area through which the river overflowed during the flood of 1913 which devastated the West Side.

Hilltop Council Sets June Meet

Hilltop Community Council Committee and advisory board will meet Thursday, June 12, 8 p.m. at the Hilltop YMCA.

Opening of public playgrounds for the summer months will be discussed. P. W. Nippert will show some slides of his European Tour.

SOUTH-WEST IS LOSER

City Awarded School Tract

By Ray Sheffer

State Board of Education in its meeting Monday night approved annexation to the Columbus school district of three Franklin Township areas, affecting 432 pupils now in the South-Western Local School District.

Pupils to be affected are residents of two of these three areas, Rainbow Addition and Georgian Heights.

A spokesman for the Columbus Board of Education said the additional students would only slightly crowd city schools temporarily.

V. J. Ullman, executive head of the South-Western Board of Education, said the transfer of the pupils from the district would leave relatively few class rooms empty next fall, "roughly about three or four."

Ullman said these empty classrooms would be used to expand the district's educational

Elementary students from Georgian Heights will be sent to Binns Elementary School. Students now attending Binns, who live on the eastern edge of the school's district, will be sent to the new Lindberg Elementary School now under construction. The new school will be opened this fall although some construction work may still be going on. Some Georgian Heights students may also be sent to Lindberg.

Elementary pupils from Rainbow Addition will be sent to West Mound Street Elementary School. The Columbus Board plans to let contracts next week for the construction of an addition to West Mound School.

The Columbus Board of Education spokesman said, "there will be nine new classrooms in Lindberg School and six more added to West Mound. This means there will be 15 new classrooms for the additional pupils and there will be little or no crowding necessary."

The West Mound addition should be completed by fall, but if not, the September school opening will be delayed for the Rainbow students until the construction is finished.

Junior high students from Georgian Heights will attend West Junior High School next fall and will switch to Westmoor Junior High School when it is completed next February.

Junior high pupils from Rainbow will go to Hilltonia Junior High School.

High School students from both areas will attend West High School. "West will be slightly crowded for awhile next fall but not much more than it has been several times before," said the local board official.

Play Areas On Hilltop Set To Open

Annual Playground Opening Ceremonies, sponsored by Hilltop Community Council, are scheduled for Tuesday, June 17.

Opening ceremonies will be held at Glenwood, Raunts, and Highland Parks at 1:30 p.m. and at Holton, Westgate, and Burroughs Parks at 1:45 p.m. Included will be games, contests and vehicle parades.

Prizes will be awarded for first place in the competition. Separate contests will be offered for boys and girls. There will be three age groups (6 and under, 7 through 10, and 11 through 13). The vehicle parade is divided into two divisions—two wheeled bikes and any other decorated vehicle.

Arrangements at each playground are being handled by PTA committees and the other playground supervisors who will be working during the sum-

The playground and the PTA's in charge are as follows:

Glenwood—West High PTA. Mrs. William Berger, chairman, 2025 Fairmont; Mrs. Eugene Plahuta, 145 Columbian; Mrs. Lloyd Stubbs, 231 Columbian; Mrs. James Bloom, 234 Belvidere; Mrs. Donald Lafta, 156 Lechner; and Mrs. Eldora Denman, 217 Clarendon-av.

Highland — Highland School PTA. — Mrs. Claude O'Neal chairman; Mrs. Sherman Morrison, 201 S. Oakley-av; Mrs. Robert Vagnier, 91 Whitethorne; Mrs. Herndon Cummings, 170 S. Wayne-av; Mrs. Charles Davidson, 234 S. Highland-av; Mrs. H. N. Maxwell, 51 Midland-av; Miss Barbara Dearing, 36 S. Wheatland.

Time Is Now For Entry In Queen Race

Caught up in the happy rush of end-of-school activities, Hilltop girls planning to enter the Bean Dinner Queen Contest may postpone, until too late, submitting their entry forms.

With the big event less than two weeks away, there is no time to spare in registering for the competition.

Any single girl, 16 or more, living on the Hilltop or employed by a Hilltop firm, may enter the contest by picking up an entry form at the Hilltop Business Association office, Hilltop Swimming Club or The Hilltop Record.

Entries returned to the Record immediately to the Hilltop Record.

Contest will be judged Tuesday night, June 24 at the Bean Dinner, and the queen will be awarded a throphy and $25 savings bond. Two runners-up will also receive $25 savings bonds.

Enteries returned to the Record Office this week are those of Mary Grabill, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ruth Grabill, 162 N. Ogden-av. Mary, a graduating senior at West High, is an employe of Seiller's Depart-

Rev. J. Lyon To Leave Church In Briggsdale

Rev. James Lyon

Rev. James H. Lyon, pastor of Briggsdale Methodist Church for the last five years, is leaving the church and the Central Ohio area for a new post near Cincinnati.

Rev. Lyon, who was born in Lancaster, in the northern part of England, will preach for the first time this Sunday in his new church, Oxanna Methodist Church, ten miles from Cincinnati.

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, at the Ohio Methodist Conference held last week at Lakeside, appointed Rev. Raymond Himes, who has just been graduated from Boston University, as the new minister of the Briggsdale Church.

Rev. Lyon was a minister for nine years in Manchester, England, before coming to the United States in 1923. Since his arrival in America, he has been pastor of a number of large churches in the Ohio area including Cincinnati, Lima, Chillicothe and Springfield.

When his wife died five years ago, Rev. Lyon asked the Conference for a smaller church and was sent to Briggsdale. He said, "my wife was a great help to me and I felt I could no longer handle a large church without her."

Since coming to Briggsdale, he has accepted 185 new members into the church, and baptised 97 adults and 45 infants.

Rev. Lyon has been an area chairman for the local United Appeals campaigns for the last four years and has participated in PTA and other community activities.

He plans to return to England for a visit when he is settled in his new church. He emphasized that he has no plans for retirement and when he does it will be in the United States. "I don't plan to retire in England though I still have brothers and sisters living there."

Rev. Lyon has two married children. His son, who is a research chemist for DuPont, lives in Remington, Del. His daughter lives in Dayton.

Disabled Vets List Officers

Capitol City Chapter 3, Disabled Americas Veterans, named new officers to serve for the coming year, in its recent election.

William Peeples, 233 S. Princeton-av, will serve as commander; Lovell D. Baker, 54 N. Chase-av, senior vice-commander; Howard Marshall, 528 Royal Forest, junior vice-commander; H. O. Parks, 314 S. Glenwood-av, treasurer; C. R. Mooney, 3930 Agler-rd, officer of the day and R. A. Scott, 1420 Oakland Park, adjutant.

Membership in the chapter has passed the 1100 mark for 1958.

NYC Valleyview Tracks To Stay

New York Central Railroad officials last week flatly denied a rumor that NYC was planning to abondon its right-of-way which passes through Valleyview.

The rumor had it that NYC was going to use the nearby Pennsylvania Railroad's right-of-way in routing trains to Cincinnati. The NYC spokesman said this is not true and no plans of this type have ever been discussed.

Frank Watts, a trustee of Glenwood Methodist Church, said the rumor has been circulating for about three years. The removal of NYC's tracks would have meant the end of what many local residents consider a "danger factor" to children.

The tracks run adjacent to the proposed Hilltop Community Center where many children will be active throughout the year. Glenwood members, who are planning to build a new church in the center, have been extremely interested in the possible relocation of the NYC right-of-way.

Brazen Burglars Ransack Widow's Third Floor Home

"It's an awful feeling to come home and find most of your prized possessions gone."

That was the comment Mrs. Naomi Hunter gave to this newspaper following a brazen robbery which stripped her 12 Wisconsin-av apartment almost bare.

Mrs. Hunter, a widow, supports herself from earnings as a clerk and basement buyer for Seiller's Department Store, 2404 W. Broad-st.

Sometime while she was away between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. last Wednesday, thieves mysteriously made off with a two-year old 21-inch RCA television set, a GE AM-FM radio, Hoover sweeper, Sunbeam toaster and two clocks. The burglars ignored a toy bank containing $14.

"I was flabbergasted," Mrs. Hunter said. "How would anyone have the nerve to come up to my third floor rooms and carry all that stuff down a flight of stairs used by six families?"

None of her neighbors reported seeing anyone. The night lock on her back door apparently had been opened with a key. Nothing was forced.

"I've been at this address 24 years, but never had anything as disgusting and discouraging as this happen before," Mrs. Hunter declared.

Haines Joins Kiwanis

Viv Haines, 71 Martin-av, recently was accepted as a member of the West Side Kiwanis Club. Haines is a plant superintendent in Ohio Bell Telephone Co.'s eastern district.

Local Bus Firm Robbed Of Safe And $1500 Cash

Sheriff Deputies report that burglars broke into the Columbus-Celina Coach Co., 586 W. Rich-st, Friday morning and carted off a safe containing from $1000 to $1500 in cash and 45 payroll checks.

John Persons, 49, of 256 N. Garfield-av, discovered the safe while fishing along Big Run Creek Friday morning. He found the safe, constructed of steel and measuring 3 x 3 x 3 feet, opened and emptied in a lane off Rt. 104, three miles south of the city.

Payroll checks and valuable corporation papers were still in the safe. Police said the combination lock had been knocked off and pins from the door hinges were removed.

Police said the burglars probably carried the safe off in a truck. Mrs. Hazel Cluff, 53, of 2916 Parsons-av, is the owner of the company.

Insignia Is Valued At $25 Today

Twenty five "Confederate" dollars, each worth 100 cents in merchandise when spent with advertisers appearing in today's newspaper, are free for the finding for some lucky subscriber this week.

Big jackpot insignia is valued at $25, and ten additional insignia, printed on ads in ten other copies of this issue, are worth one "Confederate" bill each.

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as having paid in advance or on his carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" money.

Copies of the newspaper containing lucky insignia may be redeemed at Hartley Newspapers' office, 2465 W. Broad-st, before noon on Saturday.

Employees or carriers of Hartley Newspapers and members of their families are not eligible.

A TRIPLE THREAT to top honors in the Pony Tail contest, to be judged during the Bean Dinner at Sullivant Avenue Airport June 24, 2 p.m. are the three blond daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Needham, 425 Weymouth-ln. Sponsored by The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News, the contest is open to all little girls ages one through 12 living in the newspapers' circulation area. Winners in each of three age groups will be awarded silver dollar prizes of five cartwheels for first place, two for second and one for third place. Shown are Terry, three and Janet and Sheron, 19-month-old twins. Children should be registered for the event by calling the newspaper, BR. 9-9444.

'Best Ever' Program Slated For Fete

Bean Dinner 1958, now less than two weeks away, promises to be the most spectacular ever staged by Hilltop Business Association members. Sullivant Avenue Airport, with acres of ground and spacious hangers housing exhibits and food service, will be the scene of the June 24 and 25 event.

Committee members, hard at work for months, have arranged a two-day program of feasting and fun sure to entertain thousands of guests in the grand manner.

King Bean will reign supreme with three tons of the delicious morsels, cooked with ham and served with crisp, salted crackers, free on both nights.

All the old favorite attractions and entertainment features will be included in the program, along with new ideas and surprises never presented

Planned activities, scheduled to start early in the afternoon both Monday and Tuesday, includes two full hours of games and contests for youngsters. Boys and girls will compete in games, races and relays, for shining silver dollar prizes.

Professional acrobats will perform during both evenings delighting the crowd with their skill and daring atop a 100 foot ladder.

Favorite fun features with a new twist will include the traditional tug of war between Hilltop Lions and Kiwanians. Harder Lake will be miles away but losers will still be all wet, with well-aimed fire hoses providing the drenching.

An authentic display of early American furniture, prepared by three local furniture stores, will be among the featured exhibits prepared by businessmen.

One of 36 interesting, educational displays, the furniture showing was planned by Glick's Great Western Store, City Furniture and Mann Furniture and Appliance Company, in response to the recent trend towards early American decor.

An arrangement of bedroom, living room and dining room pieces, as well as occasional pieces, will extend completely across one end of the Airport hanger.

In addition to the combined exhibit, comprised of pieces supplied by each store, the three furniture stores will each have a seperate display close by.

Two spacious hanger buildings will be used to house the array of booths and displays arranged by other merchants.

Picnic Planned At Youth Center

Shoe Round-Up Winner Collects; Count Game Set

Ellery Smith

Ellery Smith, 11, of 145 W. Oakley won the Schwinn bicycle offered by Harry Graham Shoes in the KEDS old shoe round-up. Ellery had a total of 1,361,000 points.

The mountain of old shoes, at the close of the contest, was eight feet high and 41 feet around at the base.

Harry Graham and his sales force counted the old shoes and each one put his individual count in a sealed envelope. It took three people four hours to count them and no one of the three knows the complete total.

At the Hilltop Bean Dinner there will be a blown-up picture of "Boot Hill" in the Harry Graham Shoes booth and the public will have a chance to guess the number of old shoes turned in. Three closest guesses made will win a pair of shoes.

Zoning Cases Are Scheduled

Two zoning cases involving Franklin Township sites will be heard June 26 by the Franklin County Rural Zoning Commission.

Wilbur Erlenbach and Jack Mithoff, 1947 Brown-rd, Columbus, have applied for a change of zoning on two lots of the Marndale Addition, located at the northwest corner of Brown and Frank-rds, from a residential to a general commercial district.

In a second case, Frank Yassenoff, 912 W. Fifth-av, Columbus, has applied for a change of zoning on a strip of land located at the southwest corner of Eakin-rd and Harrisburk-pk, having a frontage of 300 feet on Harrisburg-pk and about 1450 feet on Eakin-rd. The application requests that the zoning be changed from a residential to a light manufacturing district.

Both cases will be heard publicly at 8:30 p.m. June 26 at the Sullivant-av Airport, 3911 Sullivant-av.

Pvt. Squeo Ends 'Basic'

Army Pvt. James J. Squeo, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Z. Squeo, 36 N. Hartford, recently completed eight weeks of basic combat training under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Knox, Ky.

A 1957 graduate of Central High School, Squeo was employed by the Ohio National Bank before going on active duty.

Is Selected For 3-Year Study Course

Wilbur H. Morrison

Wilbur H. Morrison, 684 S. Roys-av, has been approved for admission to the Ohio Savings and Loan Academy for a three-year course of study on all phases of savings and loan operations.

Morrison is secretary treasurer and a director of Main Federal Savings and Loan Association, which last April celebrated its 70th year in Columbus with extensive modernizing and an open house at 24 E. Main-st.

His prime avocations are his family, fishing, bowling, and Southeast Lions. Morrison has been an active Lion for 13 years and is a past president. He also is a steward and member of the finance committee of Westgate Methodist Church.

Frank Road To Be Part Of Freeway

Plans to remove a quarter-mile hitch on Frank-rd at Rt 104 have been approved by regional planners and the State Highway department as part of the North-South Freeway program.

Also under consideration are plans to extend Frank-rd eastward to Lockbourne-rd from its present terminus at High-st.

The new interchange will be located halfway between the present two separated sections of the road. It will enable a continuous flow of vehicles east and west. Traffic will be able to drive onto the Freeway from Frank-rd and Rt. 104.

A survey estimates that Frank-rd will be host to over 10,000 cars, trucks and buses a day in less than 20 years.

Fulford Will Retain High Scouting Post

More than 200 scouters were present last night at the annual meeting of the Central Ohio Council, Boy Scouts of America, at which Jack H. Fulford was re-elected president for the coming year.

The Scouters were guests of the Westinghouse Electric Corp, Phillippi-rd.

Fulford, president of the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co., remarked that the council can be proud of a most successful year in growth of boy membership and outstanding achievements, most notable of which is the acquisition of Green Hill Scout Reservation.

Green Hill is the new 1125-acre camp site acquired by the council in the Hocking Hills, near Logan.

Fulford said, "the council provides wholesome, character-building activites for more than 16,000 boy-citizens of tomorrow representing nine Central Ohio counties. The council serves some 2,000 boys in the Hilltop and southwest area alone."

Dr. Edward S. Chapman was elected vice-president. Robert Irwin was re-elected council treasurer and Harker Hittson was selected as the new council commissioner.

Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner and Dr. Harold Yochum, of Capital University, also attended the meeting.

Graduates From Case Institute

David L. Williams, son of Mr., and Mrs. H. M. Williams of 133 Guernsey-av, received his degree in engineering administration from Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, June 5. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

An employe of Westinghouse Electric Corp., he will enroll in Westinghouse Educational Division in Pittsburgh July 13 for a training period, and then be assigned to a position with the company.

Krogers To Have 'Trading Post' At Great Western

The "Trading Post," a colorful orange board approximately 32 inches wide by 40 inches long, which may be used by any customer who wishes to swap any item, is being installed at Korger's Great Western store.

Customers secure a card from the store office, write their name, address, telephone number and items they wish to swap on the card. The card is then placed between the divider strips located on the board.

The "Trading Post" board will accommodate about 70 cards. Customers may check the board from time to time and see what other people wish to trade.

Beulah Park Baseball Team To Aid Little Nine Players

Members of the Beulah Park Jockey Club's championship semi-professional baseball team will be on hand to give instruction to members of the Hilltop YMCA "Little Nine" baseball league during the opening clinic 10 a.m. Saturday morning at the Hilltop YMCA's Valleyview site.

Boys and their dads are invited to meet at home plate on the northwest diamond at 10 a.m. for introduction of players by Bill Schmitter, West High baseball coach.

Following the introductions, there will be a hitting and bunting demonstration by the Beulah Park team. Instruction by positions will follow, as pitchers, catchers, various fields and bases work out with the Beulah players as coaches.

Little Nine managers will choose their teams as they watch the boys working out, so that at the close of the clinic each boy present will be notified of his team assignment.

The clinic is the first of several planned for this summer by the Hilltop YMCA Program Committee. Further opportunities for coaching by men who know how to play these various positions are being planned, in addition to evening exhibition games to allow the parents to see their boys in action.

The two ball diamonds on the YMCA lot are the results of a great deal of time and effort on the part of the Hilltop Y's Men's Club and the interest in the development of this property for the benefit of the community.

Buckingham Brothers Build Thriving Auto Parts Trade

Considering that only six years ago he didn't know anything about auto mechanics, Bill Buckingham, co-owner of Buck's Auto Supplies, 3428 Sullivant-av, seems to have come a long way on his own teaching.

Bill Buckingham

The firm is owned by Bill and his brothers, Norman and Jack. The brothers are born-and-raised Hilltoppers and graduates of West High School.

Before this, their first business venture together, Bill was a construction electrician, Norman was in school and Jack worked at their father's new car agency in Marysville, O.

Bill said, "When we opened this store, I didn't know one auto part from another. Between extensive reading, experience and Jack's help, I soon learned the business. Now, I'm even building my own 'hot rod' in my spare time."

Parts Business Grew

According to Bill, the business has been successful. He said they had originally opened an auto repair garage with the auto parts supply as a sideline. The latter business proved best and they closed the garage.

The firm offers machine shop and lawnmower service, plus a full line of auto parts and accessories.

Bill, his wife, Mary Jo, and their three children reside at 439 S. Huron-av. Jack, his wife, Jo Ann, and their four children live at 179 S. Burgess-av. Norman lives at 171 S. Terrace-av.

Bill's outside activities include basketball, bowling, tennis, fishing and tinkering with motors.

He is a member of HBA, Moose Lodge, Ohio Jobbers Association, Central Ohio Lawn Mowers Association and St. Mary Magdalene Church.

Service Held Monday For Mrs. M. Worthen

Services for Mrs. Mary Sleeth Worthen, 71, of 157 Dana-av, were held Monday at Wylie S. Shroyer Funeral Home. She died Friday.

Mrs. Worthen was a member of West Park Methodist Church and Frances Willard WCTU.

Surviving are her husband, Charles A.; three daughters, Mrs. Betty Young of Calumet City, Ill., Mrs. Vernon D. Sanford of 164 Westmoor and Mrs. Phil McDonald of Arlington, Tex., son, Charles A. Jr. of Maumee; 12 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren.

Burial was in Tuppers Plains.

GEORGE IRWIN NASH

Services were held Monday for George Irwin Nash, 46 of 1917 Belmead-av, at Egan-Ryan Funeral Home. He died Friday at White Cross Hospital.

Surviving are his wife, Philamine; three sons, George W. of Marion, Richard with the U. S. Army in Greenland and Albert of Mansfield; daughter, Mrs. Betty Songer of Citrus Heights, Cal.; six grandchildren; mother, Mrs. Alberta Nash; five sisters, Mrs. Mildred Pickens, Mrs. Edith Coon, Mrs. Mary Ferguson, Mrs. Ruth Pevsner, Judith Nash, all of Marion and Miss Esther Doolittle of Cleveland. Burial was at Green Lawn.

Market Owner Admits Robbery Report Is Hoax

Jake J. Riddle, 48, co-owner of J. and T. Market, 2461 Sullivant-av, admitted to detectives last week that his report of a robbery of $748 last Tuesday was a hoax!

Riddle had told police that a gunman wearing railroader's clothes had come into the market and robbed him of all cash on hand.

Police were suspicious and finally Riddle admitted the whole story was a hoax to collect insurance money. He was charged with making a false report.

Fly The Flag Proudly!

June 14 is Flag Day—will an American Flag be waving its patriotic rainbow of color in front of your home?

Many of us will get out of bed this Saturday, look out the window and notice that a neighbor has placed a flag in front of his home.

A common thought will be . . . . "say, that John Doe is a pretty patriotic guy. I wonder where our old flag is? I've been so busy planning my vacation I forgot about Flag Day."

America is getting to be a busier place every day. Its citizens work and play at a whirlwind pace. We have come to take the symbol of our heritage all too much for granted.

Few Americans readily recognize the national flags of many countries in the world. Yet, people from nearly all these countries, large and small, can easily describe the American Flag.

To them, it is a banner of a rather fairyland-like country across the seas where people are free and happy.

To many of us, the American Flag is something we salute only during special official functions. To many more, the "Star Spangled Banner" is just the last song they play when a radio or television station signs off!

Tonight, a young Guatemalan boy will graduate from a local high school. This writer recently interviewed that boy who has only been in this country three years.

He said, "I love American music but especially the "Star Spangled Banner", "America" and "America The Beautiful". They make me feel good inside."

He added, "if you are going to take my picture, I want to be standing in front of the American Flag. It means so much to me."

Let's show that it means something to us and fly our American Flag "high and handsome" this Saturday.

Dear Son:

A New-Type Alarm Clock Is Developed In Chittlin'

Chittlin' Switch,
Wednesday, five a.m.

Dear Jason:

Well, to start off with, your Paw has to be up early in the morning these days as he's got at least three stills full of hootch in the hills that he's bottling. He likes to be up at sun-up but Monday he wouldn't get up until noon.

But I hit on a good idea Tuesday and since then he gets right up when I call him. Each morning when I go to his room to wake him I open the door and fling the cat on his bed. In nothing flat he's on his feet. He sleeps with the dog, you know.

Your sister, Morphine, got herself a new boy friend. He has been down here at the Switch for about a year now teaching school at Pasture Flats High. He's a nice enough lad and one of those college graduates from the North. He wears a toothbrush in his lapel as his college emblem. (He's from Colgate, you know.) As a matter of fact, he asked your Paw if he'd have any objections to your sister marrying a Yankee. Paw told him he couldn't think of a better way to pay them back for that Civil War deal.

Personally, I don't think the marriage will last because he's got a good education and you know how your sister hated school and quit. On top of that, Morphine is a terrible cook. After all, if they get married he'll have to eat sometime. Morphine is so lazy she thinks Manual Labor is a Spaniard.

Your grandmother came over after she did her last number at the Gaiety Burlesque Theater and served the drinks. She was real helpful, Jason, but you would think that at 85 years of age that grandmaw would know enough to use a bottle opener. I keep telling her that she's going to ruin her gums one of these days.

Write soon.
Your loving, MOM.

Bible Comment:

Sunlight Follows Dark Night

No description can do justice, can suggest all the wonderment and glory of the Resurrection for the disciples.

They had followed Christ with all that they possessed on earth. All their vision and hope of heaven was staked on their commitment to Him.

Undoubtedly they had looked for some earthly consummation of His Kingdom and some triumphant outcome in which they would share.

Their hopes must have been high as they saw, and shared, Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem with the spreading of palm branches and the "Hosannas" of the people.

And then had come the cruel and disillusioning experience as they saw Him overcome by earthly powers, led for trial and crucifixion. It was an hour of darkness but scarcely an hour in which their faith would be obliterated.

They had not lost the sense of the glory and beauty of all that He had said and done. The sadness of the lost but glorious dream was in their memory of hope turned to tragedy: "We trusted that it had been He who should have redeemed Israel."

And then, suddenly out of their black night, came the glory of the Resurrection morning — the rumor, as yet a wistful longing, that Christ was alive and that some had seen Him. Then came the assurance of His actual presence and the evidence that convinced even the doubting Thomas.

No words can convey what they felt. There was the reality of the revived faith and hope in which the disciples went out to establish the Church and fulfill Christ's commission to preach the Gospel to every creature.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Fruits—Strawberries, lemons, bananas, frozen lemonade.

Vegetables—Cabbage, new potatoes, leaf lettuce, cucumbers.

Other Foods—Fryers, ground beef, large eggs, milk.

A BEST BUY — MILK

During June Dairy Month special attention is drawn to dairy products, even though they are "best buys throughout the year." This is because milk production reaches its seasonal peak in late spring and early summer. A new record is in prospect for this year.

High-quality dairy products in the form you as a consumer desire, are made possible through constant research carried on throughout the country by experiment stations, universities, and private businesses.

Research Resources—Roughly one-fifth of the consumer's food dollar is spent on milk and other dairy products. This fact is disclosed in a report on "Consumers and Dairy Marketing Research" by Glen H. Mitchell of Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, Wooster.

Some interesting results show up in the current report. One interesting comparison is in the methods of buying milk. These vary from one community to another. For instance, over three-fourths of the people in Boston get their milk delivered to their homes. In Youngstown, over two-thirds of the families buy their milk at the store. Over a third of the milk is sold in gallon jugs in Akron, but these are practically unknown in Columbus.

Ohio consumers drink more milk per capita than the national average.

Researchers are trying to learn why people in some communities use more milk than those of other areas, what people actually prefer in terms of containers, method of delivery, and other factors that might influence consumption of dairy products.

This work is based on the assumption that research helps progress. Research is a means of finding better, more efficient ways of satisfying human needs and desires. It points to continued progress in providing the public what it wants.

MEMO TO MOTHERS

As the weather warms up, milk shakes and other chilled milk beverages will be especially appetizing as will the ice creams and other frozen desserts. (Add a few homegrown strawberries this week for a special treat.)

When school is out, plan for an extra supply of milk at home to replace what the children had at school.

Mid-West Horse Show And Rodeo Set Next Month

The tenth annual Mid-Western Horse Show and Rodeo will be held at the Ohio State Fairgrounds Coliseum, in Columbus, July 3-6.

Bucking broncs and wild bulls have been secured for the rodeo events, and the performance classes will boast schooled horses and top show horses. Cowboys and cowgirls from a ten-state area will compete for the prizes and trophies offered by the Mid-Western. The six chapters of the Franklin County Future Farmers of America will compete in the calf scramble. The winners of last year's calf scramble will exhibit their fat steers in the first junior fat stock show, and will compete for the trophies and prizes given by the Mid-Western Horse Show and Rodeo.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Entries are still rolling in at the Hartley Newspaper Fishing Contest at Madison Lake. Here are a few turned in during the last few days: Ralph Sharp, 3360 Richardson, Grove City — 8½-inch bullhead and 11-inch crappie; Ronnie Ferguson, 4491 W. Broad-st, Columbus — 20½-inch carp, and 18-inch largemouth bass; Dick Vogt, 1418 S. Sixth-st, Columbus — 8½-inch bullhead.

Ray Dubay, 3638 Buckgrove-av, Columbus—17-inch carp; Ray Huffman, Darbydale — 10½-inch crappie and 7½-inch bluegill; Gerald Stires, Rt. 1, London — 10-inch bullhead; Ed Ra[illegible] 378 W[illegible] Columbus — 12-inch crappies Woodrow Bayser, J[illegible] Mound-st, South Charleston—7½-inch bluegill; Robert L. Lyons, 177 N. Main-st, London—10½-inch crappie; Fay Myers, 432 Tibbetts-av, Springfield — 16-inch catfish; and Rogene Lehman, Rt. 5, Wapakoneta — 9¼ inch bullhead.

Carner's Boat Dock at Madison Lake is headquarters for the contest, and prizes are on display there.

The contest is bringing to light a fact that we have known for some time — that fishing is a family sport. A few youngsters have entered fish in the contest, and this week's list includes a lady angler. Whatever age or sex, the urge to pull in a fish is almost universal.

Many Ohio schools are including outdoor sports in their physical education programs. Camping, fishing, hunting and archery are sports to be enjoyed a lifetime. Few of us feel inclined to run a 70-yard touchdown, or swat a homerun after we leave school. But the desire to row a boat, cast a fly, or sit along a creek bank and watch a bobber never leaves us.

Booklet Is Offered

One of the best things to come along in many a day to help you and your family enjoy fishing is a new booklet "Fishing's Fun For Everyone," published by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. Well illustrated, the booklet covers such topics as: fishing is adventure, be your own weather man, fishing is a family affair, know your fish, how to catch panfish, and many others. In all, there are 22 articles telling you how to fish in Ohio.

A very interesting article in the book is entitled "I'll Vote For Farm Ponds." The author, Donald L. Tennant, has had wide fishing experience from Canada to Florida, and states that Ohio farm ponds have given him some of his best fishing experiences.

He says many pond owners do not realize the good fishing the ponds provide. A pond that has been stocked for only a couple of years is fishable and should be fished. Taking the family on a farm pond outing is a popular outdoor sport right now. Why not try it?

"Fishing's Fun For Everyone" can be obtained by writing to 1500 Dublin Road, Columbus 12, O. Price is 25 cents.

Bifocal glasses were invented by Benjamin Franklin.

Fishing Fun For Everyone

GREASE UP THE SKILLET! Crappies are bigger and better than ever . . . according to the fellows who visit local fishing haunts. This nice one, measuring nearly 15 inches and weighing a pound-and-a-half, is held by Donald E. Luke, 17, who caught him in the Scioto River, west of the Mound-st bridge. Donald, who lives at 535 Van Buren-dr, said it was the first time he ever fished the spot. He caught two other 12-inchers there, too, using minnows as bait.

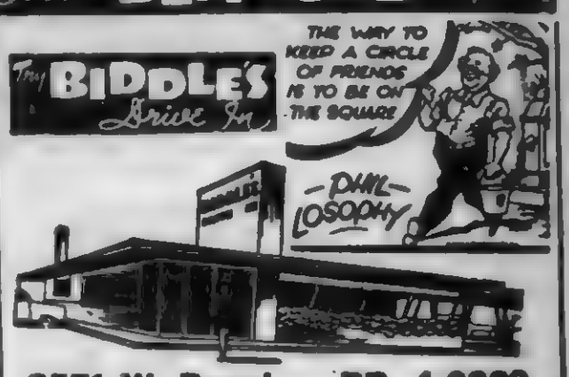
Music Man Here Stages Contest For Youngsters

In conjunction with the Broadway hit show "The Music Man," the three Ziggy Coyle Music centers in Columbus have announced a prize contest for children.

Two new instruments, six two-month studio scholarships, and six Capitol record albums of "The Music Man" will be awarded. Entrants must say in 25 words or less why they would like to play in a band. The entries must include name, age, address, and choice of instrument. They must be postmarked no later than June 20.

Further details are available at the local store, 2668 W. Broad-st.

BUY IN QUANTITY



Buying food in quantity may result in a saving in the food budget, however large quantities should be purchased only when there is use for the items, adequate storage space, a low cost per unit and convenience.

Light their life with FAITH

Bring them to worship this week

"Ever stood next to your youngster in church? If you have, then surely you've felt that surge of warm feeling spread over you . . . as I have. As we attend church each week with Lance, we see his heart grow bigger with the qualities of love, friendship and tolerance." Rosalind Russell

"Faith is a priceless gift that everyone can possess . . . a source of love, comfort and strength which is sorely needed in these troubled times. Only you and I, as parents, can give this gift of Faith to our children." Herbert H. Lehman

"My mother used to tell me, 'If you plant a crop and don't cultivate it, nothing grows. That's the way with religion . . . it dries up if you don't tend it.' Going to church has become a habit in our home." Jackie Robinson

"Our family has always done most things together. And as often as possible, that's the way we went to church." Norman Rockwell

"There are no words to describe a parent's peace of mind, when he knows, that no matter what happens, the children will always be 'at home' in the one place time does not change." Bing Crosby

Sponsored to the Religion in American Life Program by

"Without Faith, life is meaningless. With it, life is rich and full. Each generation must pass on to the next this fundamental truth—and our children are the richer for learning this truth from their parents." Sam Goldwyn

"When together parents and children come to know the beauty and healing of scripture and hymn . . . then parents communicate their belief in God to their children. And help them find a deep abiding faith of their own." Clara Savage Littledale

Black Boards Replaced By Diving Boards As Swimming Pools Spring To Life Again

SCHOOLS CLOSE, POOLS OPEN—It seems as soon as the last exam is finished, school doors locked, books and teachers put away, that swimming pools become the favorite haunt for teenagers. Boys take to the water in an effort to impress the girls with their diving talents. The girls, however, seem only to make it as far as the beach and avoid the water as much as possible! They decorate not saturated West High student Alice Rees, left, of 788 M. Westmoor-av, and her friend, Nancy Gaskill, 224 N. Oakley-av, seem to find that dangling their toes in water at Hilltop Swimming Pool, helps eradicate all memories of school! Other pools that have opened in the area includes Westgate, Maple Shades and Hall Ridge.

Guys, Dolls Club Holds Banquet

Guys and Dolls Club held its second annual June banquet Monday, June 2, at Glenwood Recreation Center. All ninety-four members attending the banquet were presented with pink and white carnations.

Toastmistress for the banquet was Mary Joel Stephens, president of Guys and Dolls Club. Members were awarded with pins signifying the club by Jack Stephens. Sandy Ruzicka presented the Guys and Doll of the year award to Tony Agriesti and Sue Hennick.

Agriest received cuff links and Miss Hennick received a corsage of white carnations. This award is given to the boy and girl who have been the best members of the club for the past year.

Entertainment was provided by the Trends: Sandy Ruzicka and Karen Ruzicka doing a tap dance; Kathy Brown doing a song and dance; and Marianne and Sally Eberts doing a comedy act.

Hilltop Cabby Is Robbed Of $20 Early Tuesday

Police report that cab driver John W. Gent, 44, of 327 S. Wayne-av, was robbed of $20 at gunpoint early yesterday in the 400 block of Edward-st.

The local cab driver picked the man up at Long-st and Hamilton-av, drove him to the holdup scene where the bandit pulled a revolver, took the driver's money and fled.

Central's Occupational Division Graduates 26

The Occupational Division of Central High School presented 26 graduate students their certificates Monday evening during a Recognition Program, a service similar to high school commencements.

The invocation was given by Rev. Ira P. Day, of Neil-av Methodist Church. The address "Standard Equipment," was given by E. F. Reichelderfer, of the Columbus Board of Education's Department of Child Study.

Certificates were presented by Paul R. Langdon, president of the Board of Education.

Awards were presented to outstanding boys in each of the Occupational Division's areas of study by the Malcolm Jeffrey Post, American Legion. James F. Decker gave the awards.

Those boys receiving awards and the section they represent include: Elmer Tanner, sheet metals; George Ailshire, mathematics; Richard Clouner, machine shop; Dale Pyle, drafting; William Kirkpatrick, general metals; Charles Harton, pattern foundry; Ronald Foster, furniture refinishing; Arthur Coleman, expression and citizenship; Frank Erb, electricity; George McKnight, cabinet making; Carlos Caldwell, science; and Fred Danielson, baking and foods.

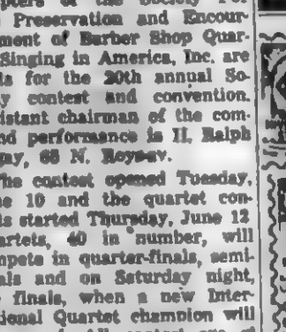
Barber Shop Sing Contest Is This Week

More than 8,000 Barber Shop quartet fans from throughout the U. S., Canada and the Canal Zone are singing their way through downtown Columbus this week.



The Columbus and Buckeye Chapters of the Society For The Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc. are hosts for the 20th annual Society contest and convention. Assistant chairman of the command performance is H. Ralph Kagay, 68 N. Roysav.

The contest opened Tuesday, June 10 and the quartet contests started Thursday, June 12. Quartets, 40 in number, will compete in quarter-finals, semi-finals and on Saturday night, the finals, when a new International Quartet champion will be named. All contest are at Veterans' Memorial.

The last event of the contest-convention is Sunday at 2 p.m. at Veterans where the newly crowned champions and five past champion quartets will perform for the general public. Only tickets for this last performance are now on sale; all contest tickets were sold out in February. Tickets for the Sunday show, The Command Performance, are on sale at Heatons or the Deshler Contest Headquarters.

Whing Ding

Elmer Chansult, committee chairman of Pack 21, has been named assistant chairman of the Southwest District's annual "Whing-Ding," to be held this year on Aug. 16, at Westgate Park. Cubmaster Allen Wemyss and his wife are on the food committee, and Mrs. Chansult and Mrs. McKnight on the prize committee.

A potluck supper, followed by square dancing, will constitute Pack 21's June 19 meeting at Southview Shelterhouse. Festivities will begin at 6 p.m.

To Hike 34 Miles

New officers for Post 225, to serve for the next six months were elected at the post's last business meeting. Jim Demorest takes over the job of post secretary, and Carl Hott will become the new crew leader. Kenny Martin was voted librarian. Larry Rennie was elected deputy senior crew leader, and Jack Fravel senior crew leader. Jim Demorest will continue to hold his office of post quartermaster.

The post planned its program for the next three months, climaxed by a 34-mile hike, the Kentucky Lincoln Trail. Other events scheduled for summer include a swimming party, a post bowling party, several camping trips, a birthday party for two post members in July, a parents auxiliary picnic, and several money-earning projects to finance the Lincoln Trail hike.

Camp Chase-Hilltop Kiwanis Baseballers Begin Season

The first game of the season for the Camp Chase-Hilltop Kiwanis Babe Ruth baseball team proved a little disappointing when the team suffered a 9-7 defeat at the hands of West Side Boys' Club Saturday.

The boys, however, have rallied and are ready and waiting to prove their skill with their next opponent. Last year, the team won the Central Ohio Babe Ruth League Championship.

The Hilltop Kiwanis Club has joined Camp Chase Post, American Legion, as the new co-sponsor of the team.

Boys, 13, 14 and 15 years of age make up the team. There are five youths in each age group. Dick Hill is the coach and Ray McVay, athletic officer of Camp Chase, is the team manager.

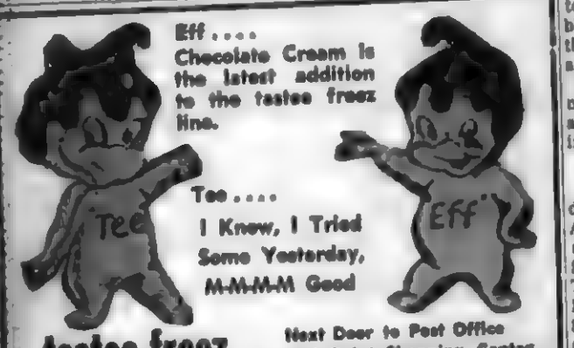
Hillcrest Lanes Will Offer Free Bowling Lessons



"Bowling is booming," is a familiar term these days. Within the last few years the sport has swiftly climbed to rate in popularity as one of America's top family activities. There are now an estimated 25 million bowlers active in the United States.

Hillcrest Bowling Lanes, 3440 W. Broad-st, is planning to do its part to increase interest in the sport. Beginning Wednesday, June 18, free lessons will be given to any interested person. There is no age restriction.

Free use of equipment and baby-sitter service will also be provided. Free refreshments too!

Instructions will be given as a three-session course running June 18, 25 and ending July 2. A special award will be given the final evening of instruction.

George Smith, representing the Brunswick, Balke and Collender Co., will be the instructor. He will be assisted by Chris Bucci, Hillcrest's regular teacher.

Settlement Houses May Expand Local Program

A major shift in program is in store for the seven settlement houses serving Columbus as the result of the recommendations of a United Community Council committee.

The committee, which included Robert E. Holmes, 4200 Dublin-rd, and Carl H. Bogart, 742 Binns-blvd, recommended that the settlements give first priority to expanding services in the surrounding areas.

The activities of the settlements are largely centered within the agency building at the present time. The new program will shift from one that is chiefly recreation to a program that meets the total needs of the neighborhood.

The plan calls for the settlement houses to be active in the extension of neighborhood councils. The councils will be composed of citizens who are concerned with improving standards of housing, health, welfare and recreation. Indoor activities which meet the overall need of the settlement house neighborhood will be carried on.

The settlement house survey was made by United Community Council to determine how the community dollar could be spent most effectively. All seven agencies are supported by the United Appeal Campaign.

The report of the committee will be considered by the board of Trustees of United Community Council at the July meeting.

Agencies included in the survey: Central Community House, 333 E. Mound-st; Neighborhood House, 800 Leonard-av; Godman Guild, 468 W. Goodale-st; St. Stephen's Community House, 379 Barthman-av; Gladden Community House, 183 Hawkes-av; Friendship House, 118 W. Main-st; and Southside Settlement, 363 Reeb-av.

Pointers Given On Fly Control

The control of flies on the dairy farm is possible but not through wishful thinking. Certain practices must be followed if the results are to be satisfactory, states D. Lyle Goleman, extension entomologist at OSU.

Clean-up fly breeding places. Keeping the barn and other farm buildings free of manure will greatly reduce the fly problem.

Seepage from silos is an ideal breeding spot. Without proper sanitation no insecticide can be expected to be effective.

Spray barn walls and ceiling. Insecticides will remain effective on the barn wall for a period of 4-6 weeks. Remove animals and avoid contamination of feed and water.

Screw a small hook or towel rack to a baby's high chair to hold wash cloths and bibs.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

NEVER BLAMED YOU; FAMILY TELLS DRIVER

EDITOR'S NOTE: A letter of regret addressed to a broken hearted boy was received by this paper last week. The letter was written by the driver of an automobile which struck the boy's dog. An equally heart-warming reply was received this week from the boy's family. Both letters are printed below.

TO A BROKEN HEARTED BOY

I saw you in my rear view mirror last Tuesday evening. I saw you run screaming into the street, saw you scoop up your pain-stricken and howling little black dog in your arms, saw you run with your precious burden to your porch. I couldn't hear you cry, but the sound of your heartbreak wrenched my heart.

I just couldn't stop. I was driving south on Glenwood-av near Mound-st, definitely not exceeding the speed limit. Your dog darted across the pavement. I saw him only as he flashed under my front wheels. I felt the terrifying double crunch of wheels on a soft body. And then I saw you.

I was already late for two appointments and I just could not stop and do what I should have done — comfort you in my own numbed state of shock.

Several years ago, my own dog was run over. The man stopped and helped me look for nearly an hour for my injured, frightened pet. We couldn't do anything when we found him. His pelvic region had been crushed and the doctor had to lead him to a painless death by means of an injection. Still, the fact that the man—also blameless — had stopped and offered assistance, helped heal the hurt.

Don't be bitter. I couldn't stop.

Maybe I've spent these sleepless nights for nothing. Maybe your dog wasn't seriously hurt. Maybe he's already wagging his tail and giving you the adoring glances all small black puppies give to their young masters. I'd like to think so.

Perhaps I should be thankful that you didn't dart into the street immediately behind, your dog. I couldn't have braked in time to avoid you, even at my low speed.

I drove on. But I do care — tremendously. I know your grief. I share that grief!

Unsigned

TO THE DRIVER WHO DIDN'T STOP:

We wish to thank you for your letter of great concern about our little dog, Scampy. I'm sorry to tell you he gave his last little whimper on the way to the veterinarian. We all miss him very much, but we never blamed you, for we know how daring little puppies are.

We consoled ourselves some by being thankful it wasn't one of our three children and that it didn't cause you to have a serious accident.

Mike, our son, was going to see about a lawn mowing job and didn't know the dog was following him until he was hit. We hadn't thought much about your feelings until we read your letter and only wished you could have stopped so we could have put your mind at ease.

We never realized how attached one could become to a pet until a friend brought us a little black cocker puppy last October, the first dog we ever had. He died three months later in the pet hospital.

We bought Scampy, the same day to help ease the pain when we had to tell the children.

We are sorry it had to be you that hit him and cause you so much grief. We pray this letter will do as much for you as your letter did for us. We know we will find another little black puppy just like him very soon.

TB Society Announces Start Of 1960 Seal Design Contest

The call is out for local artists—amateur or professional.

Friday, the contest to design the national Christmas seal for 1960 opens, offering five local prizes plus a chance at national recognition and a $500-award to be presented by the National Tuberculosis Society of Columbus and Franklin County and the Columbus Art School.

Local awards include a $400-professional art scholarship to Columbus Art School or $100 in cash; two $50-Evening School scholarships; and two $15-family memberships to the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts.

All entries, following local judging, will compete on a national scale.

The design of the top national winner selected this October, will appear on the Christmas seal two years hence.

Local competition ends Sept. 8. Interested artists should contact the TB Society, 503 Oak-st, Columbus 15, or call CA. 8-6704 for further details.

Company Cites Area Sohio Men

Five area Sohio dealers will be honored by the Standard Oil Company of Ohio during Dealer Appreciation Week June 15-21 with bronze plaques in recognition for their continued service.

St. John's Lutheran Is Scene Of Osman-Douglas Wedding Ceremony

Arrangements of all white flowers and green palms decorated the altar of St. John's Lutheran Church for the wedding of Miss Rosemary Elaine Osman and Mr. Merriel D. Douglas, May 3. Rev. C. T. Langhoiz read the marriage service at 7:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerol G. Osmon, 709 S. Richardson-av, and her husband is the son of Mrs. Wyatt S. Douglas of Memphis, Tenn., and the late Mr. Douglas.

Her bridal gown was fashioned of white embroidered nylon and white chiffon. A tiari trimmed with tiny pearls held her bridal veil and she carried white carnations and a pure white [illegible]

Miss Judi Stewart, maid of honor, wore a ballerina-length pink frock fashioned of layers of ruffles and carried pink and white carnations.

Deanne Osman served as flower girl for her sister. Her pink gown was styled with a bateau neckline and bouffant skirt, and she also carried pink and white carnations.

A reception, held at the church, followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Osman chose for her daughter's wedding a blue silk sheath gown with white accessories, and the mother of the bridegroom wore rose pink with white accessories.

The new Mrs. Douglas was graduated from West High School and attended Ohio State University. She was associated with the finance department of the State of Ohio.

Mr. Douglas was graduated from high school in Memphis, attended Memphis State College and is now serving with the U.S. Air Force, stationed at Langley Air Force Base, Va.

Melda Jones, Raymond Pankiewicz Are Wed May 24 At St. Aloysius

Miss Melda Jones and Mr. Raymond Pankiewicz repeated their marriage vows May 24, 11, a.m. at St. Aloysius Church. Rev. Charles Foeller read the wedding service before an altar decorated with white pom pons and gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, 198 Fernhill-av. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Pankiewicz of Donora, Pa.

Her floor-length gown of imported rose point lace and tulle was designed with a round scalloped neck and long, tapering sleeves.

A crown of seed pearls and rhinestones held her silk illusion veil and she carried yellow roses and white stephanotis.

Miss Margie Holman served as maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Sue Byerly of Clementon, N.J., and bridesmatron, Mrs. Peggy Olecki of Latrobe, Pa., cousin of the bride.

They were gowned in princess style frocks of white nylon over yellow taffeta with daisy head bands and yellow veils. They carried Colonial bouquets of yellow daisies and white feathered carnations.

Mr. Ian Wolf of St. Louis, Mo. served as bestman and guests were seated by Mr. John Hinojosa and Mr. Don Jones, brother of the bride.

Mother of the bride chose a blue silk sheath with white accessories and pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue linen gown with white accessories and cymbidium orchids.

Home of the bride's parents was the scene of the reception. Miss Barbara Reed was hostess.

The new Mrs. Pankiewicz was graduated from West High School and is employed with the Columbus Transit Co. Her husband was graduated from Donora High School and is serving with the US Air Force stationed at Lockbourne.

Following a wedding trip to Washington, D.C., the couple is at home at 917 Miller-av.

Editor Of Market Basket Shares Summer Favorites

By Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Hot weather brings a big change in people's tastes for food. With this change comes a complete revamp of the shopping list and menu. Here's a treat that will aid in your dessert planning.

Busy homemakers will bless this strawberry ice cream pie during the hot summer months. For all its glamour it's simple to make. Furthermore, the cookie crumb crust can be prepared ahead of time—and it doesn't need baking or chilling.

1 pint strawberries
1 quart ice cream
9-inch crumb crust
Whipped cream.

Crush or slice most of the strawberries, reserving a few for topping. Sweeten the crushed berries as desired. Spoon ice cream into crust, overlapping pieces to make a firm, full filling. Spoon ice cream into crust, overlapping pieces to make a firm, full filling. Pour the crushed berries over the ice cream and top with the whole berries. Decorate the edge of the pie with whipped cream. Six servings.

Crumb Crust

1 cup plain vanilla wafer crumbs (16-20 cookies)
2 tablespoons sugar
⅓ cup melted butter or margarine

Combine ingredients; press firmly into 9-inch pie pan, covering bottom and sides.

Frozen Strawberry Jam

An uncooked jam with the full flavor of the fresh fruit.

2 cups crushed strawberries (about 1½ quarts fresh berries)
5 cups sugar
1 package powdered pectin
1 cup water.

Combine fruit and sugar and let stand about 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Make a pectin solution by stirring powdered pectin into the water, bring it to boiling point, and boil rapidly for one minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add the pectin solution to the strawberry-sugar mixture. Stir for two minutes. Ladle into jelly glasses, cover and let stand at room temperature 24 to 48 hours, or until jellied. Seal with hot paraffin, cover with lids and freeze. Yield: nine glasses.

After removing a jar of this jam from the freezer it may be stored in the refrigerator up to three weeks. Frozen strawberries may be used for this recipe instead of fresh. Reduce the amount of sugar used in the above recipe by one cup if frozen sweetened strawberries are used.

This recipe may also be used with sieved blackberries or raspberries.

Teenager's Dances Set At Westgate

For the fifth consecutive year, the popular summer dances held at Westgate Park Shelter House have been scheduled, the first of which will be held this Friday, June 13.

The dances, sponsored by the Youth Council of the Hilltop Community Council, will be entitled "Twilight Time" this season. Music will be furnished by the West High School "Twilighters."

The series of 12 dances, which begin at 8:30 and end at 11:15 p.m., will be chaperoned by members of local service organizations. Admission will be 50 cents stag and 75 cents drag.

Mrs. H. C. Booth, chairman of the Youth Council, said there will also be free square dances held at the park each Tuesday, between 7:30 and 10:30 p.m. The City Recreation Department will furnish callers. The square dances are for youths of junior high age.

Co-chairmen for the Friday evening dances include Barbara Barnhart and Mike Kagey, entertainment; Ellen Smith and Judy Newkirk, publicity; and Jerry Hummel, finance.

The GIRL SCOUT DISTRICT DIARY

Mrs. James W. Whalen — Ohio Trefoil Council

Glenvalley Neighborhood

Brownie Troop 590

Troop members made wishing wells for their mothers recently of popcicle sticks and filled them with artificial flowers.

Intermediate Troop 10

Members of Troop 10 are working on their "My Trefoil Badge." A new member, Annette Ratliff, was welcomed recently into the troop. The troop members also made wishing wells for their mothers. Leader of both Troop 590 and Troop 10 is Mrs. Walter Deal. Under her direction they participated in a Talent show held at St. John's Episcopal Church on May 22 and 23, and were in the grand finale.

Flag bearers were June Deal, Carolyne Stewart and Cheryl Nelson. Color guards were Judy Meyers and Jackye Nelson.

Scout leaders Deal and Stewart gave instruction in close order drill. Those participating were Joyce Perdue, Judy Savage, Linda Shott, Joyce Weakly, Annette Ratliff and Mary Deal.

Neighborhood Meeting

A special Mother-Daughter [illegible] for the Glenvalley Neighborhood was held Saturday, May 17, at Gladden Community House. It was the neighborhood's first attempt to gather all the troops and their mothers together. There were 117 in attendance. Seven troops out of the nine in the neighborhood attended. This was a pot luck buffet and was followed by songs under the leadership of Mrs. Lester Sowers, leader of Troop 557. Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Joseph Stevenson, leader of Troop 22 and past neighborhood chairman. Mrs. Vernon Rudell, Jr., was in charge of the buffet table.

Each troop decorated its own table, and contributed towards the entertainment. Awards were given to Scouts in Troops 585 and 22. Moving pictures were shown by Mrs. Carl Chaffin, leader of Troop 246 and Troop organizer and past neighborhood chairman.

Mrs. James Snyder, neighborhood chairman, and all scout leaders wish to express their appreciation to the girls and their mothers helping to make the meeting such a success, as well as those at Gladden Community House who also cooperated.

Westhill Neighborhood

The regular monthly meeting of the Westhill Neighborhood was held on May 15 at the Hilltop "Y". Those in attendance were Mrs. Sammie Lancia, Mrs. Robert Merrick, Mrs. R. B. Logan, Mrs. George Borchers, Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mrs. John Dennaher, with Mrs. Leslie Borton, neighborhood chairman, presiding. The following were discussed during the meeting:

Troop consideration of the Juliette Low program for next year—shall it be neighborhood or wider? This will be the first item on the fall agenda. Inasmuch as some neighborhood troops failed to participate last year it is hoped there will be 100 per cent participation this year.

Day Camp

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dead son and brother, Robert Dwight Worthen who gave his life for his country, June 7, 1944, in France.

The fleeting years go on and on—
Time changes over, yet
Food memory keeps before me
Pictures I do not forget.
Your short life was so very full
Of sacrificial love . . .
No one will ever know but God
Whose records are above.

Ethel Titus Worthen.
Sadly missed by mother, sisters and brothers.

Lindamood Takes Part In Communications Test

Pvt. Robert L. Lindamood, son of Thurman R. Lindamood, 38 N. Sylvan-av, recently participated in a communications system field training exercise with the 93rd Signal Battalion at Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

Lindamood, a teletype operator in the battalion's Company A, entered the army in September 1956 and received basic training at Fort Chaffee, Ark.

The 22-year-old soldier is a 1953 graduate of St. Mary's High School and attended Ohio State University and Bliss College.

Westgate School Patrol 'Given Pat on Back'

FOR A YEAR OF FAITHFUL SERVICE nearly 80 boys and girls of the Westgate Elementary safety patrol were honored at an assembly last Thursday. Each of the sixth graders received an honor certificate from supervisor-teacher, Mr. Philip Griffin (left). Up for their awards are two gold badge members (outstanding performance) Sally Baker, 156 Guernsey-av, and Randy Barclay, 451 S. Sylvan-av. In the background is Mrs. Paul Watkins, 240 S. Brinker-av, PTA Committee chairman who arranged the serving of hot chocolate to safety patrollers during the winter.

For Your Thoughts

Question: If you had your choice of a new car, would you choose the standard American size or a small foreign model? Why?

Clark H. Dildine, 621 Butler-av: "I like American cars! I'm driving one of the bigger models in this country now and I'm too big a guy to fit in one of those dinky foreign jobs. If one were given to me, I'd keep it just long enough to sell it!"

Beulah Bruce, 767 S. Roys-av: "Well, I work at General Motors and of course I'm crazy about American cars! I do, however, think a small car would be nice for a 'second' car but not for the family auto. I know that easy parking and gas economy are advantages offered by foreign models but I think that American makers will be offering these too, soon."

Mrs. Robert Hartung, 733 S. Warren-av: "I prefer a regular-sized car any day. Even if the American auto makers start putting out small ones, I will still profer a car, not a midget! Frankly, I would never feel safe in one of those little things."

Mrs. Ersen B. Hooper, 423 Townsend: "We've always been a railroad family and never owned a car. If I did buy one, I think it would be the 'large family size.' The more 'car' I have around me, the safer I'd feel!"

Mrs. Ray P. Price, 94 S. Westmoor-av: "Well, those little cars annoy me when they dodge in and out of traffic while I'm driving. Our church bus driver has been warned to watch turning corners so he won't go running over any of those tiny foreign cars! Believe me, I feel much better in a car that looks like a car!"

'Y' Slo-Pitch Leagues Paced By Westway VFW, Glenwood

Westway VFW won the first round of the "Y" Slo-Pitch Leagues followed closely by Lions and Northway Post.

In the first games of the second round, Northway Post VFW edged Westway VFW 9-8 in a hard fought contest that saw Westway trying to fight from behind in the last inning.

In the other contest, Bob Case of the Hilltop Lions Club pitched near shut-out ball in a 20-1 decision over the Hilltop Y's Men's Club. Case held the Y's Men scoreless until the last inning when Carl Stephan led off with a double and scored on the next play of the game. Northway and Lions are now tied in the second round each with a victory while Westway and Y's Men each receive a loss.

In the Church Division, Glenwood Methodist is out in front all alone with a 2-0 record. West Park Methodist and Hillcrest Baptist follow close behind with one loss each. Burgess EUB is in the fourth slot with a 2-3 record followed by Westgate EUB, Hoge Memorial Presbyterian and Westgate Methodist in that order.

The big game next week will be Hillcrest Baptist versus Glenwood Methodist as the Hillcrest team will have an opportunity to move into a tie for first place by defeating Glenwood. West Park, the other second place team, has a bye next week.

The "Y" slo-pitch leagues are played at the Westgate Park ball diamonds. The Church League starts at 6 p.m. each Tuesday and the Club Division plays at 6 p.m. each Wednesday.

Your Youth

by Al Hollowell and Bud Martin

"Y" Summer Fun Club applications are now being accepted at the Hilltop YMCA Branch for all Hilltop boys and girls eight years old and up.

The registration fee for a Y member is $1, for a non-member it is $2. Registration opens June 10. The Summer Fun Club program is seven weeks of fun and activities for youngsters. It includes rubberneck tours, nature studies, hikes, girls' and boys' craft, treasure and scavenger hunts, movies, overnight campouts, swims and special events. Something is scheduled for each day.

A point system is in effect and the top three individuals will be awarded prizes this year. Forms for registering for Summer Fun Club may be obtained at the Hilltop Y. Each youngster entering will receive a Summer Fun Club T-Shirt.

The Y movies and craft classes will not be held from June 14 until the beginning of the Summer Fun Club program. The Club starts on July 8 and ends on Aug. 21 with a special recognition program for all participants.

A new Y Indian Guide Tribe has been formed on the Hilltop, the Scioto Tribe headed by Chief Loren Caborn. The boys in the tribe attended West Mound School. The Indian Guides attended Camp Willson last week-end for their annual spring campout. The boys and their dads had a good time and approximately 100 fathers and sons attended.

Schedule for the week follows: Wednesday, June 11 — Gra-Y, John Burroughs School, 3:30 p.m.; Y Slo-Pitch-Club Division, Westgate Park, 6 p.m.; Y Indian Guides, Sioux, Mingo, Seneca, Huron, Comanche, 7:30 p.m.

Bean Dinner Slated For Next Week At Airport

WHAT'S COOKING? . . . BEANS! Up to their necks in program plans for the annual Hilltop Bean Dinner, to be staged at Sullivant Avenue Airport June 24 and 25 are committee members, from right, Gomer Jones, operator of the Airport; L. G. Mansfield, program chairman, and Chester Hebert, general chairman.

HBA Hosts Invite All To Community Party

Sullivant Avenue Airport, scene of this year's annual Hilltop Bean Dinner, will take on a drastically different appearance next Tuesday and Wednesday. Planes will make way for merrymakers by the thousands, with only the runway reserved for aircraft traffic.

Remaining acres will be the setting for the biggest bean festival ever.

Beans will be good and plenty, entertainment is designed to delight everyone, prizes of cash and merchandise will be awarded, midway will be teeming with attractions and two buildings jammed with exhibits and displays.

A staggering variety of planned events throughout the two-day affair is arranged with something of interest and entertainment for everyone. Additional space and enlarged facilities of the airport make possible program features never practical before.

Three tons of beans, cooked with ham and served free with crisp, salted crackers, during the dinner hour each evening, will satisfy the appetites of the thousands expected at the gigantic "open house."

In addition to beans and entertainment, the midway will offer more rides than ever before, with some brand new ones introduced this year. Carnival attractions will also be plentiful.

Displays by the armed forces, Tuberculosis Society's X-ray cruiser parked on the midway to offer free chest checks and the traveling zoo are a few of the added interests.

Some brand new events, to be premiered at this Hilltop Bean Dinner, will lend an added spice to the variety.

BASEBALL CLINIC for boys on Tuesday afternoon is among the innovations. Three members of the Columbus Jets will be on hand to dazzle the youngsters with a demonstration of their ability and offer professional tips of the game. They are "Whammy" Douglas, pitcher; Tony Bartirome, first baseman, and Bill Onuska, catcher.

A NEW TWIST to an old favorite, tug of war match between Hilltop Lions and Kiwanians, will be staged. Although many miles from water, the losers will still be drenched from fire hoses, aimed relentlessly across the line of defeat.

WATER BATTLE between two six-man teams of Columbus firemen will be staged at 7:15 Wednesday. Opposing teams, each manning a fire hose, will attempt to direct streams of water on an aluminum barrel. Winners will be the team forcing the barrel across a designated line.

1958 Bean Dinner Program

8:30 p.m. West High Band Concert
9:30 p.m. "Price Is Right" Auction. Bandstand

Water for the events will be pumped from the Georgian Heights Addition, nearly 400 yards from the scene. Lt Charles Smith, Lt. Frank Grashel and Capt. Ralph Burden of the Sullivant Avenue Firehouse arranged the event.

Professional acrobats will entertain each evening, performing atop a 100 foot ladder.

COMBAT DOGS, trained at Lockbourne Air Force Base, will be on hand both evenings with their trainers, in a demonstration of the training course. Members of the Canine Corps, disciplined in obedience and combat, will attack on command, a trainer protected with a padded suit.

'Pony Tail' Contest Is Still Open

Pony Tail Contest, its popularity proven by the enthusiastic response of a flood of entries, will be judged Tuesday, June 24, 2 p.m. at the bandstand, first event of this year's Bean Dinner.

Sponsored by The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News and open to all little girls one through 12 living in the newspapers' circulation areas, winners in each of three age groups are awarded silver dollar prizes.

Contestants may still enter the event, either by phoning the newspaper, BR. 9-9444 or by registering at the bandstand at contest time.

Five silver dollars are awarded each first place winner in age groups one through four, five through eight and nine through 12.

Second place winners in each group collect two shining cartwheels and third place winners, one.

Roger Tracy Named Honorary Chairman

Honorary chairman for the annual summer festival of the Convent of the Good Shepherd, scheduled for Aug. 2, will be State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy.

Frank M. West will serve as general chairman; George J. Igel, tickets chairman; and Lee Magee, grounds chairman.

$urpri$e Gift$ In $tore For Guests At Bean Dinner

Gifts galore of merchandise as well as money, will be given guests at the Hilltop Bean Dinner in a unique give-away program designed for fun as well as profit.

A gigantic array of valuable gifts, all donated by Hilltop Business Association members, and scores of silver dollars will be distributed by three distinct methods throughout the afternoon and evening of both days.

Auctions, with panelists' names chosen from a drum of tickets and patterned on the "Price Is Right" TV show, will be held twice daily; outright drawings for merchandise prizes and silver dollars will be conducted and an "on the spot" plan, with prizes given to persons doing a predetermined thing at a specific time, promise to be exciting and fun.

Names of participants in the auctions and outright drawings will be drawn from ticket containers at the entrance of Exhibit building A. Bean Dinner guests may collect tickets at the same location to deposit in the drum.

The drum will be emptied Tuesday night, and new tickets must be deposited Wednesday for participation in the second day's games.

"Price Is Right" auctions, based on the TV program and conducted by the same rules governing the show, will be held twice daily, 4:30 and 9:30 p.m. Names of four panelists will be drawn from the ticket container.

Each panelist will have an opportunity to make one guess on the price of a displayed item, and the contestant whose "bid" comes closest to the marked price, without overbidding, is awarded the item. Other panelists receive silver dollars.

The panel will be dismissed, a new one drawn, and the procedure will be repeated. There will be several auctions at each [illegible].

Following the auctions, several more names will be drawn as recipients of outright gifts. Winners of outright drawings need not be present to collect their prizes. They will be notified by mail, and instructed on how to collect their awards.

Firing of a cannon on the grounds, throughout the afternoon and evening hours of both days will signal the time for "on the spot" awards.

A committee member will be handed a sealed envelope containing instructions, and will proceed to the specified spot on the grounds and wait there, watching for the first person to fulfill the mystery requirement.

Requirement might possibly specify "First man, smoking a cigar to buy a piece of pie at the YMCA Mothers' Council booth." First person fulfilling those conditions, will be awarded a valuable merchandise prize.

Former Vice Principal At West Dies

Miss Blanche Kern
J. Curtis Allen photo

Miss Blanche Kern, 74, teacher of Latin and English, and vice-principal of West High School for 25 years before her retirement in 1952, died Friday in St. Anthony Hospital.

A resident of 1176 Westwood-av, she was a member of St. Paul Episcopal Church, Columbus Latin Club, Classical Language Club, Delta Kappa Gamma and American Association of University Women.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lillian G. Griesinger of Hudson, O.

Funeral services were held Monday at St. Paul's Church. Entombment was at Green Lawn Abbey by Schoedinger Funeral Home.

State Hospital's Treatment Unit Bids Are Low

Mason, Reeb, and Sheaf, Inc., of Columbus, entered an apparent low bid of $499,482 on construction of a reception and intensive treatment unit to be added to the Columbus State Hospital. The company's bid was for the general contract.

Bids for the project amounted to $707,172. This was $65,902 less than estimates, reports Dr. Robert A. Haines, director of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

Other apparent low bids were: William H. Rinehart Inc., plumbing, $63,350; Stephens Co., heating-ventilation, $68,580; and Blum Electric Inc., electrical, $75,760.

Close McKinley

McKinley-av, between Harper-rd and Grandview-av, was closed this morning and will remain so for a week, reports the county engineer's office.

While the road is closed, work will be done to straighten McKinley-av at the Big Four Railroad underpass.

Russell Slater To Resign Post In Child Study

The Columbus Board of Education in its Tuesday afternoon meeting announced it will receive the resignation of Russell Slater, of 191 S. Roys-av, who is director of the department of child study and student counseling.

Slater, 50, will join the faculty of Toledo University as an assistant professor. He plans to teach courses in educational psychology and growth and development.

Slater began his career in 1937 and has been a teacher at West Junior High School and a principal at Reeb-av, Fifth-av and Highland-av elementary schools.

He was appointed director of the department of child study in 1946.

Board Reports Change In Principals, Districts

Columbus Board of Education Tuesday announced changes in administrative personnel of local elementary schools to be effective in September.

Dorothy Weagley, principal of Dana Avenue Elementary School, is taking a leave of absence to tour Europe. She will be replaced by Francis W. Binkley.

James L. Tefft, principal of West Mound Elementary, will also be the new administrative head of Lindbergh Elementary when the school building is completed early next fall.

Edgar Hancock, principal of Franklinton and Bellows Avenue, will move to North Linden Elementary in the fall. Evelyn Swickard, now principal at Como Elementary, will replace Hancock at Bellows. Mary S. Montebello, an administrative cadet, will take over his post at Franklinton.

An administrative cadet is a teacher who has been given a year of extensive training by the Board of Education in preparation for a post as principal.

Daniel L. O'Brien, an administrative cadet, will replace Charles Shell as principal of Fulton Elementary. Shell moves to Fairwood Elementary.

William Weber, principal of Greenlawn Elementary and Sullivant Elementary, will transfer to Como Elementary School. Amos C. Snide, an administrative cadet, will replace Weber at both schools.

Dorothy Lovengood, principal of Heyl Avenue Elementary, will go to Glenmont School. She will be replaced by Anna Freeman, an administrative [illegible].

Paul Langdon, president of the Columbus Board of Education, reported that the contract for the construction of six additional rooms to West Mound Elementary School has been awarded to Mason and Isabel, general and electrical contractors.

Mac Mason, 290 S. Richardson-av, owner of the firm, bid $63,270 on the project. Fast Electric Co. will do the electrical work. Plumbing, heating and ventilating contracts were awarded to William H. Rinehart, Inc., at $16,150.

The new rooms will permit acceptance of students from the newly annexed Rainbow [illegible].

South-West Board Okays Tuition Plan

Acceptance of tuition students from the recently annexed Georgian Heights and Rainbow Addition school districts has been granted to Franklin Heights High School by the South Western Board of Education.

Columbus Board of Education will pay the tuition fees, according to Franklin Heights principal William Rogers. He requests that people contact the school as soon as possible.

Rogers said that prospective enrollment will affect 12 seniors and 14 juniors.

WSBT Jubilee Opens Monday

Although most Hilltoppers have the Bean Dinner uppermost in their minds, the West Side Board of Trade would like to extend an invitation to all Hilltop residents to attend the June Jubilee which opens Monday, June 23, at Sunshine Park, and extends through Saturday, June 28.

Jubilee features games, contests, and amusement rides as well as special highlights including: Jubilee Queen Coronation Monday [illegible] fashion show, Tuesday; variety show, Thursday; and the [illegible] of $1000 Saturday to some lucky person who attends the affair. Square dances will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday eve-[illegible]

Traffic Signal Request Denied For Highland-av

A request by 370 Hilltop residents for a traffic light at the corner of Highland and Sullivant-ave was turned down Tuesday by the city traffic commission.

The light had been requested as a safeguard for children crossing at the intersection on the way to Hilltonia and St. Agnes Schools.

Assistant Traffic Engineer Jack Gallagher recommended rejection of the request saying traffic volume does not yet warrant a signal.

Gallagher added that a signal might be erected later as part of a master traffic control system now being installed in various parts of the city.

Spill the Beans On Us, Win Some Yourself

An eye for errors and a little ingenuity will pay off with a crane of baked beans and other prizes for readers this week.

Ad takers and the proof reader put their heads together and purposely misspelled word in the ads on page 24.

Readers spotting all the misspelled words and forming them into the best slogan, poem or sentence, will receive prizes, appropriately enough, of beans.

Deadline for all entries is midnight, Sunday, June 22, and winers will be announced in The Hilltop Record of June 25.

Second prize in the contest will be 12 cans of baked beans. Third prize winer will receive five pounds of white Navy beans.

Hilltop firms participating in the contest include Grove City Farmers Exchange.

Allen Milk Co., Hilltop Laundry, Sapp's Food Markets, John Reece Realtor, Garber's TV.

Anderson Heating, Geerhart Hardware, Hanleys Coffee Shop, Tommy's Cleaners, Glorinne Beauty Shop, Hilltop Play School, Wolfe Electric.

Holy Family's Summer Festival Features Food, Fun, '58 Auto!

FESTIVAL PLANNERS—These three men have had the responsibility of planning the Holy Family Festival to be held this Friday and Saturday. They were aided by Paul Herold, chairman of concession stands, and Henry Davies, secretary-treasurer, who weren't present for the picture. Left to right are Patrick O'Lion, general manager; Edward Kibbee, chairman of the auto presentation; and Hugh Derrian, advertising chairman.

This coming weekend and the following week, Western Columbus will be alive with gala entertainment and amusement for everyone.

The Holy Family Festival will kick-off these summer festivities with a two-day run this Friday and Saturday, June 20, 21. West Side June Jubilee will follow with a fun-fest week, June 23-28, at Sunshine Park and the Hilltop Bean Dinner is scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, June 24, 25 at Sullivant Avenue Airport.

The annual summer festival of the Holy Family Parish will be held on the school grounds on S. Sandusky-st near W. Broad-st. Entrance to the grounds is on Grubb-st. If expressway construction makes parking conditions difficult, the affair will be held at 584 W. Broad-st.

Traditional games, concessions, contests and amusement rides for children are planned.

Festival activities will get underway at about 5 p.m. and continue until about 11 p.m. both Friday and Saturday evenings.

Fish and French fries will dominate the menu for the Friday dinner. Pizza and a variety of other foods will be served smorgasbord - style Saturday. Dinners will be served in the school cafeteria. All food will be home-cooked by the women of the parish.

Highlight of Saturday activities will be the awarding of a 1958 Chevrolet for which the winner need not be present.

Direct Dialing Will Put 38 Million 'Phones At Callers' Fingertips

Thirty-eight million telephones at your fingertips! That's the number of telephones Columbus and Franklin County subscribers will be able to dial directly beginning July 20.

On that date a new era of direct distance dialing will be inaugurated in this city and the neighboring communities of Franklin County.

A few turns of the telephone dial and station-to-station long distance calls may be dialed to many cities in Ohio, as well as other points throughout the country.

J. P. Gibbs, Ohio Bell district commercial manager, said additional points will be added in the near future and by 1965 it is expected that direct dial contact will be possible with more than 56 million telephones throughout the United States and Canada.

But along with the added convenience, Direct Distance Dialing calls for a few changes in telephone habits. For example, a directing code "112" must be dialed before dialing any station-to-station long distance call.

Calls to points in Southeastern Ohio, say to a telephone in London, Lancaster, Newark, Zanesville, Marietta or Steubenville, are then dialed just the same as a local call.

But in order to dial a number, for example, in Cleveland, Akron, Pittsburgh, New York City, Washington, D.C., Chicago or Denver, an additional three-figure code number must be dialed in order for the equipment to speed your call to the proper destination.

Gibbs pointed out that the new issue of the Columbus and Franklin County telephone directory will contain complete dialing instructions, as well as a list of all cities that may be dialed, including the correct code number for out-of-town points.

To dial any long distance call the subscriber must know the distant telephone number. An out-of-town telephone number that is dialable may be obtained by asking the local operator to connect you with "Information" in the distant city. Once a number is secured it should be recorded for future reference along with other frequently called numbers.

As soon as you have dialed the proper code number and the distant telephone number, a special tone will sound on the line. The dialer then gives the number of the telephone he is using. This is transmitted into the special equipment, which completes the connection and then rings the telephone in the distant city.

Despite the introduction of this faster new service for station-to-station calling, users will still place all person-to-person calls, collect calls, long distance calls from pay telephones, and credit card calls through an operator.

Gibbs also said that beginning July 20, Columbus and Franklin County subscribers would dial "0" (zero), or the last dial pull, for the operator, instead of "110."

Report On Reciprocal Trade Value To Area

"Made in Japan," "Made in England" or "Made in Germany" are a few labels that bring sneers from some American citizens who believe that U.S. citizens should buy and sell American goods exclusively.

The Trade Agreements Act, which has been the basis for the Reciprocal Trade program since 1934, is due to expire June 30 of this year. President Eisenhower has urged Congress to extend the Trade Act for five years.

However, protectionists claiming injury because of import competition are actively opposing the legislation by advocating weakening amendments or by urging its outright appeal.

Advocate of expanding world trade representing industry, agriculture, labor and consumers are urging Congress to consider the national interest as paramount and to renew the Trade Act without weakening amendments.

The bill to extend the program was passed last week by the House and sent to the Senate. The action was a surprise victory for President Eisenhower.

To acquaint local residents with this problem the following facts have been taken from a special report by the Committee for a National Trade Policy, a bipartisan organization promoting public understanding of foreign trade problems.

The report is based on a study by Department of Commerce, using data from the Bureau of the Census, Bureau of Foreign Commerce and other sources.

"The nation's export trade brings at least $61.2 million into Columbus each year, representing full-time jobs for at least 3,892 workers in the area's four main industrial groups.

The groups are; equipment manufacturers, non - electrical machinery, fabricated metals and food and kindred products.

The only Columbus producers known to be concerned with the possible effect of import competition are some manufacturers of machine tools, violins, men's dress shoes, wool textile mill products and knit goods. Nevertheless, according to the Department of Commerce, "the net affect of imports on the area's economy is overwhelmingly favorable.

"Imported flavorings, extracts, and other food products, imported minerals and other raw materials, and imported commodities enable Columbus manufacturers to produce better products at a lower cost and local residents to enjoy better living conditions than might otherwise be obtained."

"Without imports foreign buyers would not have sufficient dollars to purchase America's exported products in return—thus, a lower standard of living in foreign countries as well as in the United States."

Among the many Columbus firms which benefit directly from World trade are: Westinghouse Electric Corporation, S. A. Shenk and Company, Seagrave Corporation, and Nippert Electric Products Company, all of which add greatly to the economy of the area.

The report does not attempt to cover the ill effects of imports to some local industries. The recent closing of the local violin factory, the only one in the United States, points out the dangers of reciprocal trade.

However, the summary of the report seems to indicate that the over-all wealth given to Columbus by foreign trade over-shadows the few shortcomings in the trade program.

Bible Comment:

Mockery Of Christianity

The Christian enterprise from its very beginnings leaves one breathless in consideration of its immensity, especially in comparison with the ambitious plans of those who have sought to bring all the world under their domain by military conquest.

The world of today seems to mock the grandeur of that faith. We have seen professedly Christian nations in deadly combat and practically the whole world involved in war and violence.

Missionary enterprise has been disrupted and Christian missionaries have been forced in some areas to withdraw completely after good beginnings.

But we must not be discouraged. We must guard against seeing world events in the false perspective of despair. As the boundaries of the world have enlarged and progress developed, the power of evil has increased along with the power of good.

The crisis today is perhaps greater than any in the past. But it is inherently no different than successive crises in which powers of anti-Christ have tried without success to overthrow the Christian church.

The promise of God is still to the faithful, and it is as true today as it was in the dark hours when Christ said that the triumph of the Gospel is sure.

When the world passes out of this period of hate and violence, there will still be human need for the power of the Gospel.

We are more than ever aware that only Christ can satisfy the longings of mankind. His words ring true: "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

Simple Dessert Treat Has Elegant Looks!

By Estelle B. Franks

Floating Island is a dessert with an elegant appearance, but it's made simply of chilled soft custard topped with glistening peaks of honey meringue. Team it with frosted cup cakes for a striking summer dessert.

Floating Island

4 eggs, or 3 eggs and 2 yolks 2/3 cups sugar, 1 teaspoon flour, 2½ cups milk, scalded, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons vanilla.

Combine eggs, sugar and flour. Gradually stir in milk. Cook, stirring constantly, in double boiler over hot but not boiling water until mixture coats spoon. Remove from heat immediately. Cool slightly. Stir in salt and vanilla. Chill rapidly. Top with mounds of honey meringue.

Honey Meingue

1 egg white, ⅛ cup liquid honey.

Beat egg white until foamy. Then add honey, gradually beating until meringue stands in peaks (5-10 minutes.) Serve on chilled custard with your favorite cup cakes.

Strictly Fresh

An old-timer is a fellow who remembers when nearly every child in the neighborhood hoped to make a fortune selling homemade lemonade.

Here's the Answer

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Fruits—Strawberries, bananas, lemons.

Vegetables—Leaf lettuce, cabbage, new potatoes, frozen French fried potatoes.

Other Foods—Fryers, smoked ham, large eggs, milk, cheese.

BALANCE THE BUDGET WITH CHEESE

Cheese is a concentrated package of food. It takes about five quarts of milk to make one pound of cheddar cheese. When you use 5 ounces of cheddar cheese you're giving your family as much calcium and protein as one quart of milk plus the milk vitamins, A and riboflavin. Build the meal around cheese for it fits into numerous combinations of vegetables and eggs.

WHITE SAUCE IN A JIFFY

Would you use white sauce more often for cheese or vegetable dishes if it were less trouble to make? One of its special advantages is that it helps get more milk into your family's meals. To save time in making this sauce (the basis for a score of appetising, dishes) USDA- home economists suggest making up a basic mix to store in your refrigerator.

To make the mix into sauce just add the desired amount of mix to hot water in a heavy saucepan, then heat and stir to blend, and cook until it thickens.

You'll have an excellent white sauce in minmum time without any fuss or bother.

Recipe for Mix

1 lb. (2 cups) butter or margarine
2 cups sifted flour
1½ tablespoons salt
1 lb. (4 cups) non-fat dry milk

To blend, use either a pastry blender or an electric mixer (medium speed for 5 minutes.) The mix will be granular in texture and creamy in color. It packs well in jars or other containers and should be kept tightly covered in the refrigerator. If refrigerated it will keep for several weeks.

Any amount of mix may be made into sauce at one time. When measuring, pack or press the mix closely. Use one-half cup of the dry mix (packed) to one cup of hot water for about one cup of medium-thick white sauce.

The above mix recipe makes a total of about one gallon of white sauce. If your family is small, divide the recipe.

There's Gas—at 8,700 Feet!

Deep-well drilling for natural gas by companies of the Columbia Gas System is expected to provide new supplies of this "wonder fuel" within our operating area.

Natural gas was discovered and first put to work here in the Appalachian area. And here, too, more people are using more of this fuel than in any other comparable region in the United States. To meet this ever-increasing demand, much of the gas you use now comes to you from the Southwest. Our deep-well drilling program aims to develop hitherto unexplored gas-bearing formations closer to home.

This constant search for additional reserves is your assurance that sufficient quantities of modern, efficient natural gas will be available to meet increasing demands in the future.

Scouts Leave On Expedition To Southwest

Jim Willis, 694 Wiltshire, Dave Morris, 171 S. Roys, Ron Line, 168 S. Southampton, and Russell Marx, 834 Stephen Dr. W., are heading for Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, N.M.

The ranch is a 127,000 acre installation for Explorer [illegible] given to the Boy Scouts of America by Waite Phillips, of Phillips 66 Oil Co.

The boys will climb from 6,000 to 11,000 feet during their 12 days in camp. They will also visit Pike's Peak in Colorado. Crew advisor is Emerson Cline of Ashville.

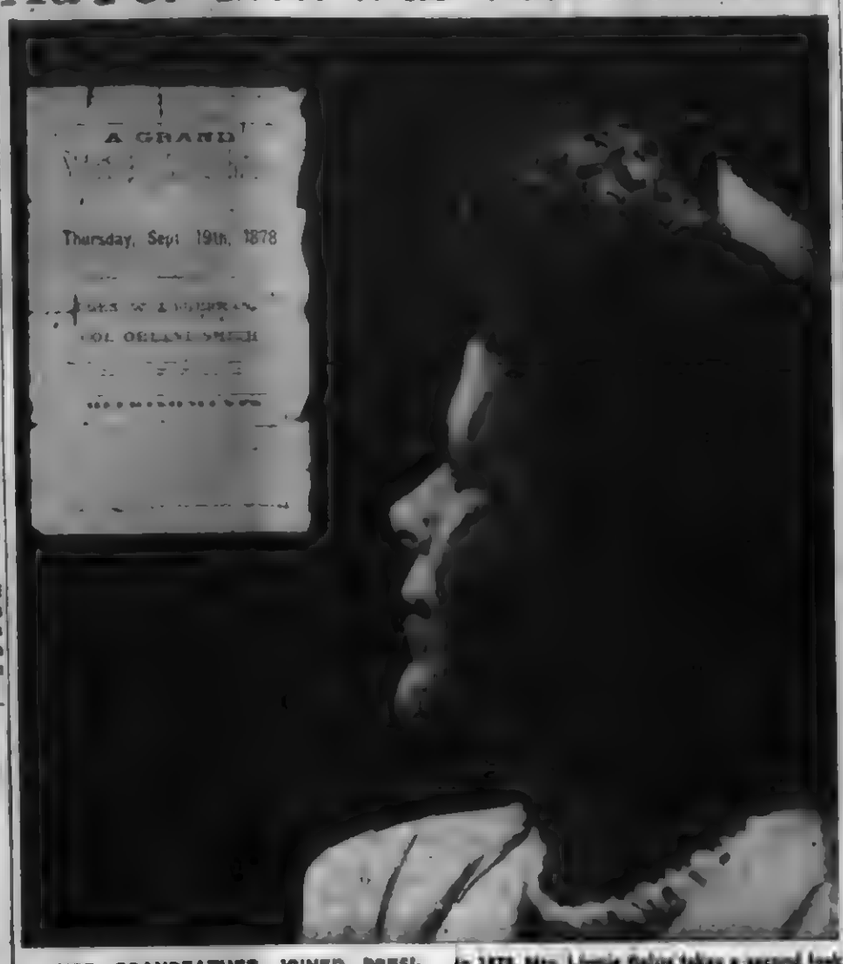
Part of the old Kit Carson ranch, the boys will see the remains of the deep wagon ruts of the Santa Fe Trail. All four boys are Explorers of Troop 172, Hoge Memorial Church.

Rome Heights Residents Name Joseph Fodey

The newly - formed Rome Heights Residence Association held its first election last week naming Joseph Fodey, 164 Oxley-rd, to its presidency. The following were elected to other offices:

Charles Wareham, vice-president; Betty Johnson, secretary; Gladys Clark, treasurer; William Catlett, director; and Don Ater, director.

Named to the board of trustees [illegible] Fodey, Pat Mahoney, Wareham, Thad Sirkoski, Percy Cook, and Joseph Wolk. Chairmen for the following committees were also chosen:



Membership committee, Mahoney; publicity, Wartham; corporation, Walter Fike; and telephone, Mrs. Percy Cook.

Rome Heights, south of Lincoln Village, now has 75 homes within its bounds, but expects over 300 in the next few years. The association is a non-profit organization and will ask for a charter from the state.

Housewife Finds Grandfather's Ad For Civil War Vets Reunion

HER GRANDFATHER JOINED PRESIDENT HAYES in attending the Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion advertised by this handbill in 1878. Mrs. Linnie Bolus takes a second look at the time-worn handbill she found while cleaning her home.

Amazing things turn up during spring house-cleaning time! Mrs. Linnie Bolus of 409 Prospect, recently discovered some old coins and an 80-year-old handbill while cleaning a little-used drawer.

Mrs. Bolus said the coins and handbill were given to her by her grandmother 15 years ago. She had placed them in a small change purse, put it in the drawer and forgotten about them.

The handbill is an advertisement for a large Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion held at Chillicothe in 1878. Mrs. Bolus' grandfather, Frank L. Hagedorn, who died some years ago, had attended the reunion. He was a Union soldier in the Civil War.

Excerpts from the handbill read as follows: "A Grand Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion will be held at Chillicothe, Ohio, on Thursday, September 19, 1878, under the auspices of the Ross County Soldiers' Memorial Association.

"President Rutherford B. Hayes, Gen. W. T. Sherman, Gen. Durbin Ward, Col. Orland Smith and other distinguished speakers are invited and expected to be present.

"Half-fare arrangements have been made with all the railroads centering in Chillicothe. Tickets are good from 18th to 20th of Sept.

"Refreshments can be obtained on the grounds. Dancing and other amusements are provided for.

"No pains will be spared to render the day an enjoyable one to all. Ex-soldiers, farmers, mechanics and laborers—for one day lay aside your work and let there be such an assembling of the Old Soldiers and their friends as shall make the day one long to be remembered."

Westway Post Scouts Plan Jitney Supper

ESTATE ANALYSIS

One of the most important services which a life insurance agent can provide is an estate analysis. This affords the policyholder an opportunity to make sure that the best possible use will be made of his life insurance estate.

With the proper estate analysis, you can be assured that life insurance will provide your wife with sufficient cash on hand to meet immediate expenses at your death, and that the remainder of your life insurance will provide her with an income for life.

I'm sure I can be of service.
Why not give me a call?

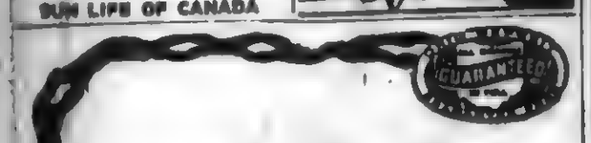
Suit Blames City For Man's Death

A $175,000 damage suit charging the city of Columbus as being careless and negligent causing John O. Reynolds to be accidentally electrocuted last March was filed in common pleas court Saturday by his widow, Mrs. Anna L. Reynolds, 2630 W. Broad-st.



Reynolds was carrying a 20-foot length of pipe from the rendering plant when it came in contact with a high tension wire carrying 12,000 volts causing his death, according to the petition filed in court.

The petition claims the city owned the wire and had no warning signs near it to caution workers.

'Forward Look' Is Keynote At John Burroughs School

The "forward look," as it was referred to by school officials, was very much in evidence last week as John Burroughs Elementary School "promoted" 116 students.

The word "promoted" is used because the school is following new trend in elementary school graduation. Educators feel that graduation is the wrong term to use in the promotion of students from the sixth to the seventh grade and junior high school.

Officials don't want students to feel as if they have graduated from school but have merely completed the first phase in their education.

Formal graduation services were abandoned at John Burroughs this year and a party was held instead last Wednesday afternoon. The school PTA sponsored the affair to which parents and friends were invited.

Parents mingled and became better acquainted with the teachers of the students who were being promoted. Autograph books were supplied by the school and a special period during the farewell party was set aside for autograph collecting.

Certificates of graduation were not given the students at the party but were passed out with grade cards the following day.

The "forward look" was carried out further by a six-foot-long model rocket hanging from the ceiling of the school room. The rocket, modeled after the Thor missile with a few additions, was made by sixth-grade students of Joseph A. Sarsfield.

The rocket is the culmination of a solar study made by Mr. Sarsfield's students. The red, yellow and blue rocket, made of cereal boxes, cardboard and masking tape, required about three weeks of construction time.

The final phase of the "forward look" was a trip Friday morning to Hilltonia Junior High School. John Burrough's pupils being promoted joined 270 new seventh graders from West Mound, Westgate, Dana and Highland Avenue Schools in a tour of their new school home next fall.

Hilltonia's Principal L. H. McAllister spoke to the new pupils urging them to work hard from the very beginning of each school year to reap honors when they reach the ninth grade.

The pupils toured the school and were introduced to their homeroom teachers.

The four sixth grade teachers promoting pupils this year at John Burroughs are Mr. Joseph A. Sarsfield, Miss Stella Schart, Miss Marion Kane and Mrs. Harriet Loveless. Mrs. Maxine Walters is the principal.

Hilltop Cab Driver Victim Of Robbery

A Hilltop cab driver was robbed of $16 in the 200 block of N. Sixth-st Sunday night.

Herb Thatcher, 55, 203 N. Terrace-av, a driver for the Green Cab Co., told police a man armed with a knife forced him to hand over the money.

Police questioned two men near the scene who were later released. Police say Thatcher is the fifth cab driver victim within two weeks.

A birthday party was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jordon on Vadis-st Thursday evening where some 35 teenagers and relatives gathered in honor of the 16th birthday of Barbara Jordon. A lovely birthday cake and gifts were presented to Barbara.

Rev. John Deihl, pastor of Whitethorne-av Christian Union Church read the ceremony Friday evening in the parsonage uniting Robert Smith and Miss Ester Conkle in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sharp and daughter have moved to 927 Midland-av.

Ralph Wright of Jerry City, O., visited several days with Rev. and Mrs. John Deihl on Whitehead-rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cooper of Rea ave. were visited last week by Mr. and Mrs. Clay Bennett of St. Paul Ky. and Mrs. Clarence Skidmore from Garrison Ky.

Mrs. Wm. Kidd and children are spending several days with relatives at Junction City.

Chilcote Given Gas Scholarship

A four-year scholarship at the Institute of Gas Technology, Illinois Institute of Technology, has been awarded to David Lee Chilcote, 130 Powhatan-av.

While enrolled at the Chicago school, Chilcote will be offered summer employment with the Ohio Fuel Gas Co.

Board Reports—

approved the establishment of new school boundaries for the Binns Elementary School district and the new Lindbergh School district.

Binns' boundaries will remain the same with the exception of the east edge. The school's district will now stop at about 100 feet east of Harris-av.

The area taken from the Binns district will be applied to the Lindbergh district. Lindbergh district is bounded on the south by the city limits; on the north by Eakin-rd; and on the west by about 100 feet east of Harris-av or the east edge of the Binns district.

The new boundaries will remove a number of students from Binns to make room for pupils from the newly annexed Georgian Heights area. Ex-Binns students will attend Lindbergh.

West Mound Elementary School's district will be expanded to take in students from the newly annexed Rainbow Addition.

Scouts Will Sponsor Car Wash Saturday

Boy Scout Troop 194, sponsored by Hilltop Christian Church, 120 S. Burgess-av will have a car wash at the church Saturday, June 21 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Proceeds will be used for the purchase of new tents.

Farmers Welcome Woodchuck Hunters

Woodchuck shooting can provide fine sport for the future as well as for the present. This may sound like having your cake and eating it too—and that's just what it is. For every time you rid a farm or pasture of some of these digging pests, you have placed the landowner under obligation to you. He'll remember this when you start talking next season's hunting prospects.

Woodchuck shooting is fine fun for man and youngster. When it becomes a matter of father-son participation, it can contribute far more than appears on the surface in the creation of a better understanding between a youngster and his dad.

Half the fun in wood chuck shooting is in the stalking. A campaign of strategy must be mapped out and carefully pursued. For the "whistle pig" is an exceedingly wary animal since he changed his habitat from the woods to the open sections, he must depend upon his alertness as his greatest defense against enemies and predators.

In planning an unobserved approach to gun range of a crafty old 'chuck's tunnel, the father has ample opportunity to teach his son woodsmanship of a high degree and no father can watch his son make a successful stalk without a great feeling of justified paternal pride.

While special varmint rifles and cartridges have been developed especially for woodchuck hunting, a good stalker can have a lot of successful sport with a .22 caliber rifle. High speed, hollow point bullets make the best ammunition.

Good woodchuck territory can be located by cruising around and watching for their dens, or even the animals themselves. They are usually found on banks or hills with a sunny exposure. In this area many are found along streams. They will also den in gravel deposits.

Ask the land [redacted] for permission to hunt — reminding him that the groundhog is a nuisance. He knows this anyway, and will seldom refuse you, but you might as well remind him without being too obvious about it. When your hunt is over, drop back by the farmer's house, thank him and report your luck. If you shoot a young 'chuck, ask him if he wants it for his table.

When the fall season rolls around you will be welcome to gun for upland game on his farm and your new friend will probably open other gates for you. You'll be having some fine woodchuck shooting this summer and some good upland [redacted] hunting this fall. And if that isn't eating your cake and having it, too, it comes nicee to it.

You hunters who are itching to pull a trigger, might while away a summer hour or two by examining a new shooting brochure offered free by Remington Arms Company. In addition, it's a handsome catalog of the company's products. It contains information on shotgun barrel lengths and chokes, comparative shot size chart, recommended loads for big game species, tables on rifle and pistol cartridges and other data.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Foreign Cars Defended As Safest On Highway

The opinions of your readers in "Penny For Your Thoughts" of June 11 are doubtless sincerely expressed. They are full of misconceptions!

Dildine claims he is "Too big a guy to fit in one of those dinky foreign jobs." I stand two meters tall, and having made several trips of hundreds of miles duration and have arrived feeling less tired and more relaxed than on 100 mile trips in our big American car.

To Mrs. Hartung, I say: foreign cars are much safer than those coming from Detroit. Their petiteness makes for maneuverability that is helpful in getting out of tight spaces. They are made of better stuff than their American counterparts.

At Put-in-Bay Saturday last, an over-enthusiastic driver put his French Renault on its side, with only minor dents resulting. A similar maneuver in an American car would have resulted in rolling it over and doing much superficial damage. One of the better sports car magazines told recently of a person in California who was waiting at a traffic light in his French SIMCA when an American car failed to stop in time and an accident followed. When the smoke cleared, the SIMCA had slightly dented bumpers and the front end on the American car was completely demolished.

To Mrs. Hooper I say: you will never feel safe in American car after you have ridden a few hundred miles in a good European car. Their suspension and riding qualities give a feeling of safety heretofore unknown in an American car.

To Mrs. Price I say: you may be annoyed by those little cars in traffic, but think how they regard you and your two tons of unmanageable machinery. Regarding styling, foreign cars each have a look all their own. They have individualism that can never be achieved with the same body and different chrome (and lots of that). Foreign cars look like cars; not like barges as do the Detroit cars.

Sincerely yours
William Botkin

Auxiliaries Say Thanks

The auxiliaries of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank you" for the generous support given to these two groups at the time of the joint Poppy Sale, Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24.

The money derived through the sale of the Memorial and Buddy Poppies is used in direct relief work among families and orphans of veterans within Franklin County as well as rehabilitation work at the veterans' hospitals. The public responded wholeheartedly and we do appreciate their thoughtfulness as their contributions will bring joy to the hearts of those receiving aid.

Special thanks to the personnel of this newspaper for their splendid cooperation.

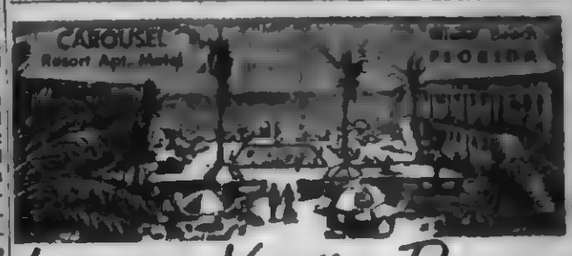
Council Obtains More Acreage For Hunting

Public hunting prospects for this fall are 1233 acres richer following land purchase approvals by the Wildlife Council.

The real estate section for the Natural Resources Department today reported that the council approved 11 land purchase options involving 1286 acres costing $72,350.

Final negotiations on securing property for public hunting is now in the hands of the state controlling board which must release funds before actual purchases can be made.

Three of the approved tracts are within state forests and will be purchased with funds derived from sale of deer licenses. They are Pike Forest, where 411 acres were optioned; Shade River Forest, where 60 acres were optioned; and Shawnee Forest where 200 acres were optioned.



So, cowards flight, when they can fly no farther;
So doves do peck the falcon's piercing talons;
So desperate thieves, all hopeless of their lives,
Breathe out invective 'gainst the officers.—Shakespeare.

Vera Mincks Is Saturday Bride

MRS. RICHARD W. TROTT

Miss Vera Joan Mincks and Mr. Richard W. Trott repeated their marriage vows Saturday, June 14 at Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church. Rev. Irvin H. Lane read the wedding service at 7:30 o'clock before an altar decorated with ferns, pink candles and vases of pink and white flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mincks, 863 S. Hague-av and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Trott, 870 Townsend-av.

The bridal gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle was designed with a fitted lace bodice, sabrina neckline outlined with iridescents and seed pearls and long, tapering sleeves. The bouffant skirt of tiers of ruffled tulle featured a lace overskirt and extended into a chapel train.

A pearl and iridescent crown held her fingertip veil and she carried a white Bible mounted with shattered pink Apollo and white carnations with white streamers.

Miss Shelba Jones served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Betty McCray, Miss Gail Amato, Miss Rosemary Ryerson and Miss Marilyn Sheets, cousin of the bride.

They were gowned identically in ballerina length frocks of pink taffeta, styled with scoop necklines and princess panel skirts gathered into back fullness, and pillbox hats with circular veils.

The honor attendant carried shattered pink carnations and white gladioli flowerlets and the others carried shattered pink Apollo and white carnations.

Sharon Lane, flower girl, wore a floor-length frock of white nylon flocked with pink. Scallops around the skirt were trimmed in pink rosebuds and she scattered pink rose petals in the aisle.

Mr. Charles Trott served as bestman for his brother and guests were seated by Mr. Ronald Mincks, brother of the bride; Mr. Charles Landenberger, Mr. Byron Poston and Mr. Donald Duncan.

Mother of the bride wore a gown of blue silk organza with matching accessories and corsage of pink shattered carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose beige silk organza with matching accessories and an identical corsage.

Hostesses for the reception held at the church were Miss Joyce Strickler, Miss Nancy Berner, Miss Karen Meeker, Miss Nancy North, Miss Betty Coffman and Miss Marilyn McQuiniff.

The new Mrs. Trott was graduated from West High School and Columbus Business University. She is employed as secretary to Herchel E. Henry, planned insurance estates.

Her husband was graduated from West High School, attended Otterbein College and is a student in the College of Architectural Engineering, Ohio State University.

Following a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, the couple will be at home at 384 N. Burgesser.

Little Nine Opening Postponed By Rain

WET OPENER—Prepared to play no matter what the weather are catcher Jim Baus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Baus, 211 N. Chase-av and Dan Dent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dent, 201 N. Chase-av. The youngsters were ready to play Saturday morning, but rain forced cancelation of the Hilltop YMCA's scheduled baseball clinic.

Members of the Hilltop YMCA's Little Nine Baseball League found only mud and water at the Y's 10-acre plot on Valleyview-dr Saturday instead of the scheduled baseball clinic.

Although not in shape to use for the opening clinic and organizational meeting, observers were pleased to see how well the ball fields drained.

As the Hilltop Y's Men continue to develop these ball fields, a useful pair of needed diamonds will be available for use by the Hilltop ball players. Plans for evening exhibition games are still being seriously considered.

With the opening meeting rained out, the "Y" staff has set about dividing the boys up by teams from the application blanks already turned in at the "Y" office, and scheduling practice sessions for each team for this week.

Notices of team assignments and practice schedules have been sent out to those who had their application blanks in when the clinic was scheduled. Those joining later will be assigned to teams as their applications are received.

The Beulah Park Jockey Club's semi-professional baseball team which was to have led the clinic Saturday has been asked for a "rain check" to appear another time during the season.

Following this week of practice, the Little Nine will swing into their season's schedule of play at West High School practice field each week-day morning.

Additional clinics or special coaching sessions are planned for spots in the schedule this summer to enable each boy to learn the fundamentals of the various positions on a baseball team.

Firm Under New Owner

Smith's Frozen Foods, 2902 Sullivant-av, was recently sold to a new owner and is now going under the name, Guy's Inc.

Guy B. Harris, the new owner, purchased the firm from Jack Smith and will continue to offer rental locker service as well as frozen foods. He is carrying a full line of choice meats and offers carry-out service.

Harris built and operated a locker business for the last 15 years at 3737 N. High-st, which is now owned by Smith. Before this, Harris was a refrigeration engineer for the Frigidaire Corp.

Walt Grierson, who has 23 years experience in this type of firm, will be handling the meat for Guy's Inc.

Harris is president of the firm and his wife is treasurer. Richard Huggard, an attorney at 44 E. Broad-st, is secretary.

Thomas Avenue Has Bible School

Vacation Bible School is being held at Thomas Avenue Church of Christ, 904 Thomas-av, June 23 through June 27. All children three years of age and up are invited.

"We Worship the Lord," is the theme.

School is divided into nine classes with 22 teachers and helpers. Classes are held each morning, Monday through Friday, from 9 to 11:30.

A picnic will be held on the last day of school at the noon hour. Each child will bring a sack lunch, and the church will furnish the cold drink and ice cream.

Movies will be taken of the children during the school and shown to them and their parents on demonstration night, Sunday evening, June 29.

Each class will display what it accomplished and certificates will be awarded.

MRS. SEAMAN REMODELS

Mrs. Seaman, 328 Ryan-av, has a permit to remodel a frame dwelling.

If you plan to broil or barbecue a chicken, a rule of thumb is to buy one-half bird for each adult and one-fourth for each child.

Recommended temperature for frozen food storage is zero degrees Fahrenheit.

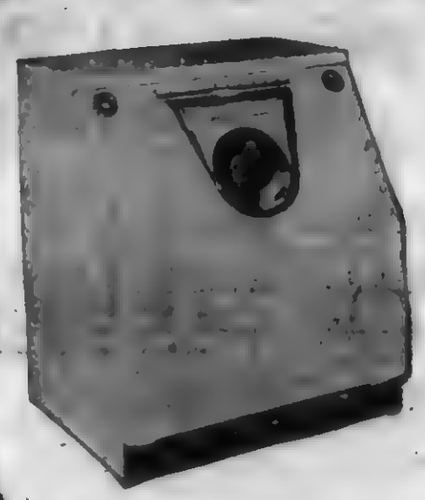
Binns' Record Best Posted In 'Y' League

Binns Gra-Y Club won the top position in the Hilltop YMCA's Softball League for Gra-Y Clubs, boasting four wins and one loss for the season.

Number two team was West Broad with three wins, two losses, and the distinction of being the only team to beat Binns.

Following this narrow 7-6 win, West Broad shared first place with Binns, only to be set down 8-3 by West Mound.



Actually, places were pretty close as the final standings were Binns holding a 4-1 record; West Broad and John Burroughs having 2-2; West Mound and Westgate each had 2-3; and Highland remained in fourth place with 1-4.

John Burroughs won sportsmanship award for its league play.

Profits Of Bean Dinner Will Go To Aid 'Y' Building Fund

This is the architect's drawing of the front and one side of the new Hilltop YMCA to be built on Valleyview Drive and N. Hague av in the Hilltop Civic Center. No date has been set for start of construction of the building but it is hoped that a portion of the project will get underway within the early part of 1959. It will contain a swimming pool and numerous recreation and meeting areas. Net profits of the Hilltop Bean Dinner at Sullivant Avenue Airport next Tuesday and Wednesday will be given by the Hilltop Business Association as a gift to the local Y Building Fund

The building will cost an estimated $400,000. It will be located on 10 acres of land.

Net profits of the Hilltop Bean Dinner to be held next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Sullivant Avenue Airport will be contributed to the Hilltop YMCA to aid in its building fund.

Since the inception of the bean dinner many years ago it has not been planned that the event should be held as a money making affair. Any profits that were made in a single year were held and advanced to the cost of the event the following year.

Clear weather should mean a reasonable profit for the event. A sizable gross profit is already being made available by the special advertising section in The Hilltop Record today on the following pages devoted to the bean dinner.

Numerous organizations in the community are joining hands to assist with the bean dinner so that a profit may be assured.

An attractive and interesting program has been developed and should provide fun for all ages. The event also serves as a reunion at which time numerous local residents renew acquaintances. Plenty of parking space will be available.

Y Mothers To Sell Pie At Bean Dinner

Eat a piece of pie and help the Y! Bean Dinner planners are hoping Hilltoppers will "eat" their way to success — success of the YMCA Building Fund, that is!

Hilltop YMCA Mothers' Club is sponsoring a pie sale to boost the financial return of this year's Bean Dinner. Pies will be sold either whole or by the wedge.

The Mothers' Club will be assisted by the Y's Men's Club, Y's Menettes, Indian Guides, Gradale Sorority and other Y groups.

In the past the Bean Dinner has been a non-profit event held purely for the enjoyment of local residents. Any money left after costs was placed in the HBA treasury and applied to the Bean Dinner of the following year.

This year, however, it is hoped that the affair will net a big profit. All money raised by the dinner will be placed in the YMCA Building Fund to speed the reality of a new Hilltop "Y".

A number of local organizations have donated their services to make the Bean Dinner a success, both in entertainment and financial return!

The pie sale will be one of many money-making concessions sponsored at the Bean Dinner for the sake of the building fund.

A large tent will be erected on the Sullivant Avenue Airport grounds for the YMCA display. The tent will house exhibits of the many worthwhile activities carried on by the "Y".

With a smiling nod from the temperamental weatherman and a big turnout of pie-eaters and other fun-loving people, the Bean Dinner should be a lot of fun and serve a worthwhile cause too!

Prizes

Cash and merchandise prizes during the Bean Dinner will be distributed according to the plan of LES SWINFORD, Penney's Great Western.

Community's annual open house party, with everyone on the Hilltop invited to "come early, stay late and have supper with us," is the result of many months' careful planning by hard-working committee members.

This year's event, to be staged for the first time at Sullivant Avenue Airport and planned to benefit Hilltop YMCA building fund campaign, presented many new, magnified problems.

Planned on a greatly enlarged scale to accommodate the ever-increasing Hilltop population, HBA hosts are prepared to welcome and entertain thousands of guests with a menu headed by three tons of free beans served with crisp, salted crackers, and a two-day program packed with planned events.

Man Behind Men Behind Bean Dinner

C. H. CAMPBELL

Busiest man around our end of town come Bean Dinner time is always C. H. (Doc) Campbell, executive secretary of the Hilltop Business Association.

As a man behind the men who plan the Bean Dinner, he coordinates details of each committee, fitting jigsaw planning pieces into the frame of an overall program.

Executive secretary of the HBA for seven years, he has been a member of the organization since 1926.

He is also a member of Hilltop Kiwanis Club, Camp Chase Post 98, American Legion; Central Ohio Academy of Pharmacy and is secretary of the Columbus Druggists' Association.

One Will Rule As Queen Of Hilltop Bean Dinner Events

No Bean Dinner would be complete without a queen to reign during the two day festivities, and this year's monarch will be chosen Tuesday, June 24 at 8 p.m.

Selection of a queen and court of two will be made by a panel of judges on the bandstand at Sullivant Avenue Airport.

Girls will be dressed in street clothes and judges will base their conclusions on personality, poise and appearance. Winner will receive a trophy and a $25 savings bond. Two runners up will also receive a savings bond.

Contestants may still enter by picking up an entry form at Hilltop Business Association office, Hilltop Swimming Club or Hilltop Record office.

Entries must be received at the Hilltop Record office by 9 a.m. Monday, June 23, to be considered for the competition.

Contestants already entered in the race for crown and title are shown in the accompanying pictures.

THESE SERVICE STATION OPERATORS WILL STAND ON THEIR HEADS

TO KEEP YOU AND THE FAMILY CAR HAPPY AT ALL TIMES

Yes sir! These service station men just about do that very thing. Day in and day out in warm and cold, rain or shine, they are at your service, ready, willing and able to do the things that are necessary to keep the family buggy in operation.

Actually they consider it a privilege and a pleasure to give this fine service. When you go back time after time it proves the fact that you are pleased and have learned to rely on them.

Now that summer is here and vacations are with us again why not drive in and ask your service station man to give your car the one last check to be sure it will keep you smiling until you return.

Good Luck

YMCA Means Many Things To Local Youth

It means building better bodies through athletics.

It means fun for fathers and sons

It means crafts and educational programs for all ages

It Means a sense of fair play.

In the more than ten years the Hilltop YMCA has been in operation in this community it has meant much to youth and adults alike. The program has mushroomed to the place where it has reached thousands of homes and many more thousands of individuals.

In these years the program has been conducted from an old buiding on Broad-st., and in the schools, on playgrounds, etc. Practically every other organization in the community has assisted in many ways in seeing the program expand.

In this same period the community has been looking forward to the time when the local Y would have a fine facility with sufficient meeting rooms, club rooms and recreation areas to do a much better job.

Now that dream is about to become true . . . Currently the county wide capital fund drive has reach the nearly one million dollar mark in a campaign for two and one half million dollars.

Out of this campaign the Hilltop Y is scheduled to receive $350,000 for the erection of a fine building on Valleyview Dr., and west of Hague-av, on a ten acre site the Y now owns.

Several hundred local firms and individuals have made pledges toward the amount sought. Yet thousands of individuals who could subscribe to the fund have not yet been contacted or made their pledges.

It is hoped that more people will volunteer in the next few weeks to subscribe to the fund. The earlier the drive is a success the earlier the new Hilltop Y will be built. The complete plans and specifications for the project are ready to be let out for bids . . . All is need is the necessary pledges to back it up!

Any profit from the Hilltop Bean Dinner next Tuesday and Wednesday is scheduled to be given to the Hilltop Y Building Fund. This fine gesture by the Hilltop Business Association and cooperating groups makes for the building of a better community.

The World Health Organization reports that only 514 cases of plague were recorded in 1957. This is a new low for the century.

A new highway in Maryland is unusual because every phase of it was planned and engineered from aerial photographs.

The Administration Building at West Point, which is 160 feet tall, is said to be the tallest masonry building in the world without steel girders.

Penny For Your Thoughts

Question: Which do you feel helps young teenagers most—, the responsibility of a summer job or attending summer camp to learn how to get along well with others?

Mrs. Lee R. Bone, 183 S. Richardson-av: "I think summer camp does wonderful things for youngsters. It teaches them early in life to live, work and play with other children and get along together. I feel there are many young people today who just haven't learned to live with people yet! They constantly think of themselves first and have little consideration for anyone else!"

Mrs. Milton Day, 161 Lechner: "I think both serve the purpose of helping youngsters mature. Children can learn a lot at a good summer camp with good leaders. But a summer job also teaches them responsibility and the true value of money. I think teenagers learn to get along well with people by holding down a job too!"

Charles Thomas, 446 S. Terrace: A summer job, in my opinion, prepares a teenager more for future life. After all, they will have to go to work some time. Not only that, but a job will teach them how to get along with others also. Summer camp is a good thing for younger boys and girls around the ages of eight to ten."

Mrs. Marian Hairston, 159 S. Wayne: "Teenagers need to be kept busy and I think a summer job is the best way to do it. However, I think that a summer camp should be ideal for younger children. It all depends upon their ages and needs."

Gustave A. Pope, 56 S. Roys: "I think teenagers should help their parents do more work around the house; there are enough things to do there. Mothers and fathers can provide them with odd jobs as well as recreation."

Apple Crop Can Improve By Thinning

Hand thinning apple trees now can mean a better apple harvest next fall, says says Eldon Banta, an Ohio State University fruits specialist. He explains that thinning fall and winter apples will help increase the size of the remaining fruit.

Thinning involves removing all but one apple in a cluster and spacing remaining apples so they are about eight inches apart along the branches. It's done by bolding the apple stem between the forefinger and the thumb, then twisting off the fruit.

Thinning has other merits besides producing larger apples, Banta points out. It takes weight from the tree and helps prevent limb breakage. It is particularly favorable, he says, to larger size apples during dry seasons.

Thinning such varieties as Jonathan, Grimes Golden, Delicious and Golden Delicious, can be quite effective in increasing fruit size, he says, even if it is done as late as early July.

If apples were thinned by means of chemicals earlier in the season, the horticulturist explains, hand thinning may be needed only to space apples properly on trees where the chemicals didn't do the complete job.

City Planners Vote Against Gravel Lease

Columbus Planning Commission recommended against the leasing of city-owned land to the Visintine Equipment Co. for the purpose of gravel extraction, reiterating an earlier decision on the same issue.

By a 2-0 vote, Service Director Floyd Redick abstaining, the commission rejected the proposal on the grounds that the area in question—on the west bank of the Scioto, south of Stimmel-rd — has nursery and recreational value.

The recommendation went before City Council for consideration Monday.

With a round of picnics and parties the Hilltop YMCA Gra-Y program has come to a close. Thoughts of Summer Fun Club, Little Nine baseball, camp, family vacations and swimming now predominate the thinking of these grade school boys.

Little Nine baseball swung into action this week. Games are being played on the West High practice field once again this summer. Most games will be played at nine in the morning. Afternoon games will be at 1 p. m. An exhibition game for each team is planned for several evenings during the season.

Summer Fun Club begins July 8 for Hilltop "Y" members, age eight and up. Registration blanks are available at the Hilltop YMCA, 2725 West Broad-st, for those who have not yet signed up for Fun Club.

Of course, an item of interest to Hilltoppers young and old is the Bean Dinner June 24 and 25 at Sullivant Airport. If you want to get an eyeful of what Hilltop Businessmen are selling you'll want to look over the displays at the Bean Dinner.

If you want to get a picture of what the Hilltop YMCA is doing on the Hilltop you also will want to see its display. If the terms Indian Guides, Gra-Y, Junior and Senior Hi-Y, Gradale, Y's Men, Y's Menettes, etc. are just so many names to you, you will want to visit the Hilltop "Y" display and see what goes on in these programs.

Schedule for the week follows:

Wednesday, June 18—Little "g" baseball, 9 a.m.; Y Slo-Pitch Club Division, Westgate Park, 6 p.m.

Thursday, June 19—Little "g" baseball, 9 a.m.

Friday, June 20—Little "g" baseball, 9 a.m. Y Indian Guides —Cheyenne, Dakota, 7:30 p.m.; Y Indian Maidens — Mohican Tribe, 7:30 p.m. Y Mothers' Council—picnic, Westgate Park.

Saturday, June 21—Jr. Church softball, Westgate Park, 10:30 a.m.

Monday, June 23—Little "g" baseball, 9 a.m. Y's Men's Club —Colony Restaurant, 6:30 p.m.; Y Indian Guides—Sac, 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday, June 24—Little "g" baseball, 9 a.m. Y Slo-Pitch — Church Division—Westgate 6 p.m. Bean Dinner - Sullivant Avenue Airport.

Wednesday, June 25—Little "g" baseball, 9 a.m.; Y Slo-Pitch —Club Division—Westgate Park 6 p.m. Y Golden Age Club, potluck, Westgate Park 12 noon. Y Indian Guides—Sioux, Mingo, Seneca, Huron, Comanche, 7:30 p.m. Bean Dinner — Sullivant Avenue Airport.

Free Chest Check Facilities Available At Bean Dinner

This year as always, the Tuberculosis Society X-Ray cruiser will be parked at Sullivant Avenue Airport during the two-day Bean Dinner June 24 and 25, 3 to 11 p.m. Everybody over 15 may take advantage of the free service and have his chest X-rayed.

Hilltop Bowling Center Is Under New Ownership

Leroy Borghese, 1500 Lanette-av and Angelo Carnevale, 771 Linwood, recently purchased Hilltop Recreation Center from W. K. O'Brien.

Lee Walters, 1715 Maradale, manager of the center, which is located at 2419 W. Broad-st, will continue in the same capacity and will give free bowling instructions.

The new owners, who also operate Angelo's Furniture Manufacturing Co., have a [illegible] plans for the recreation center. The poolroom has been removed and is being replaced by a bar and lounge. Baby-sitting service and an adjoining beauty salon are planned for the future.

S. S. Dunlap Is Accident Fatality

Samuel Stuart Dunlap, 67, of 189 S. Harris-av, died in Mercy Hospital, Springfield, Thursday night of injuries suffered in an accident near Springfield, Wednesday afternoon.

Dunlap, on vacation at the time of the accident, was driving East toward Columbus when he swerved into the path of an oncoming truck driven by Walter J. Cottan, Jr., according to Sheriff's Deputy Robert Tehan. Dunlap auto was demolished.

Cottan was treated for minor injuries.

An artist with the Dispatch advertising art department, Mr. Dunlap was a member of Wolfe Industries 25-Year Club and American Legion.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; stepchildren, Mrs. Walter C. Powell, 127 Lakeview-av; Mrs. Robert Jacoby of Delaware; Richard Janes of Chicago, Ill.; Robert Janes of Rock Island, Ill., and Mrs. Ernest Pitzer of 41 Euclid-av; sisters, Mrs. Frank Colley of 1689 Summit-st, and Mrs. J. W. Kirker, of Bethlehem, Pa.

Services were held Monday at Schoedinger Chapel with burial in Walnut Grove.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Edited By JACK H. FRAVEL

To Meet Outdoors

From this week on through the summer, Troop 29 will have its troop meetings every two weeks instead of every week, with the alternate weeks set aside for patrol meetings. All of the troop meetings this summer will be outdoors. The dates for these meetings are July 1, July 15, July 29, Aug. 12, Aug. 26, and Sept. 2.

July 19 and 20 have been set as tentative camp dates by Troop 29.

Eleven Attend Camporee

Together with several other Hilltop and West Side Scouting Units, Troop 14 spent last weekend at the Southwest District's annual spring Camporee at Camp Lazarus. Scoutmaster Marvin Wright reports that 11 boys from Troop 14 attended the event.

To Sell Fudge

A swimming party was held by Post 225 last Sunday at the Hilltop Swimming Club, with five boys attending. The five were Kenny Martin, Carl Hott, Larry Rennie, Jim Demorest, and Jack Fravel.

Post 225 is planning to start its fudge sale in the near future, with the profits going to pay for the Kentucky Lincoln Trail hike the post is taking at the end of the summer. Credit for selling the candy will be given to each boy individually, according to how much he sells. Jim Demorest is in charge of the project.

Glenwood MYF Elects Officers

New officers of Senior Youth Fellowship, Glenwood Methodist Church were installed by Rev. Joseph Shellhaas during worship services Sunday, June 15.

They are, president, Harry Postlethwait; vice president and Citizenship area, Bill Jones; secretary, Patty Graves; treasurer, Barbara Burr; M. Y. fund secretary, Barbara Slagle.

Publicity, Sue Crawshaw; faith area, Jean Postlethwait; outreach area, Sharon Spencer and fellowship area, Dave Koons.

International Harvester Co. Fills Sullivant-av Warehouse

BUSINESS BEGINS—It was moving day Tuesday at International Harvester's new warehouse on Sullivant-av, where parts were arriving to fill the spacious building. Pictured above unloading the truck are John Harrison, 4026 Halsey-pl, on the lift-truck, and Ronald Bonner, driver for Hilltop Van and Storage Co.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

By Mrs. James W. Whalen
Public Relations — Ohio Trefoil Council

WESTHILL NEIGHBORHOOD

It is the plan of the central Scouting Office that all those desiring basic group leadership training courses for new troops to be started in the fall, register now and have their training during the summer months. These registrations should be submitted to the Central Scouting office in order that the classes can be planned and scheduled.

Intermediate Troop 584

During the summer months plans are being made for the troop's leader, Mrs. Barlow, to meet each week with four girls and work more closely on badge work. There are sixteen girls in this troop. Plans are being made to have a party in the fall honoring the special badge awards to which the parents will be invited.

Intermediate Troop 669

Members of this troop are working on their second class badges. Recently a cook-out was held at Holton Park for the troop members. On Friday, June 13, troop members visited Kenjockety and received their skating badges and second class badges. Leader is Mrs. Harry Crawford.

Brownie Troop 137

A fly-Up ceremony was held on Wednesday, June 4, for the following troop members: Deborah Sines, Janice Logan, Cheryl Frakes, Eileen Hutchinson, and Linda Miller. Mothers were invited to attend the fly-up.

Members of this troop went on an outing to Kanjockety on Saturday, June 7. Leader is Mrs. Robert Duncan.

Intermediate Troop 744

This past Saturday, members of this troop along with their leader, Mrs. George Borchers, had a wiener roast and hike. Mothers accompanying the group were Mrs. Spicer and Mrs. Mrs. Richter.

Intermediate Troop 129

On Friday, June 13, members of this troop held their birthday party and combined it with a Court of Awards On Father's Day, troop members honored their fathers by having a family get-together. Troop families drove in a car caravan to Old Man's Cave. The girls have been making leather gifts for their fathers.

Preceding the birthday party and Court of Awards was a barbecue at the home of troop member, Barbara Moritz, 90 N. Warren-av. Leader is Mrs. D. T. Crawshaw.

Troop 6

Troop members spent Monday, June 14, at Blendon Woods and cooked three meals there. First aid has been the program studied by the troop members under the guidance of their leader, Mrs. D. T. Crawshaw.

More Of Everything Tonight At Bean Dinner

CONTEST CUTIES—Nearly 100 entries in the Pony Tail Contest, sponsored by The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News, made decision difficult for judges at the Bean Dinner Tuesday. Winners in the one through four-year age group were, from left, Barbara Jo Murphy, 4172 Dixie-ct, first place; Louise Proctor, second, and Lynda Sue Tindell, third. Judges are, from left, Mrs. Dorothy Hott, Mrs. Hazel Moss and Mrs. J. Curtis Allen.

M-M-M, NEVER BETTER! — And who should know better than these bean sours, C. H. Campbell, left, and E. O. Melvin. Melvin, native of southern Ohio, first introduced the Hilltop to Bean Dinners, as popular in the South, in 1938. He and "Doc" Campbell, executive secretary of the HBA, have been important "men behind the scenes" at every Hilltop Bean Dinner.

Bean Dinner Is Like Big Family Reunion

Another Hilltop Bean Dinner will soon become history and in doing so has served to bring many people together for a friendly visit who would otherwise not have such a reunion. In fact the event has become a very large family reunion as old acquaintances are renewed again each year.

A lot of effort goes into the development of such a community project and certainly the business people of this community who make it possible are to be complimented on their public spiritedness.

No figures are available as yet on whether any profit will go to the Hilltop Y building fund but certainly the community deserves an "A" for effort.

There are a few hours yet this evening before the bean dinner is over for another year. Why not drive down to Sullivant Avenue Airport and mingle with the crowds!

• • •

We Talk About the Bad Things

A speaker remarked recently in a public address in this community that too much stress is being placed today on the unfavorable things that people do and not enough attention is given to the good in people.

Every day the downtown papers carry numerous stories pertaining to the news events of our community that deal with people in trouble. This is frequently true of stories relative to young people.

For a long time it has been the policy of our community newspaper group to refrain from printing court cases and police blotter matter. While these items are news, we feel there are so many more worthwhile things in our community that deserve recognition that we have adopted a policy of making every effort to so recognize the better things that people are doing.

Ours are "grass roots newspapers," dealing with family life . . . and we ask you, "What is more important in the lives of any of us today than our families?"

Mon-E-Bak Annex Proposed By Group

School Bus Question Might Be Key To Residents' Choice

A school bus controversy has apparently thrown a damper on plans to annex the Mon-E-Bak area to Columbus.

Petitions for annexation are being circulated in the addition and along Wilson-rd. They are reportedly being received favorably by Dallas Blair, 3640 Plainview-dr, a member of the group favoring annexation.

Blair originally carried a petition containing 180 signatures, all but five of the possible signers in Mon-E-Bak, to Columbus City Hall.

The petitions were revamped into a more legal document and Blair started revisiting the area land owners.

Advantages being offered by the city are water lines, police protection and a lower tax rate. The tax rate in Columbus is currently $22.40 per $1,000 compared with $25.80 in Franklin Township.

Biggest drawback to the plans seems to be a claim that the area will lose school bus transportation if annexed. Blair states that many persons he has revisited changed their minds about signing because of the school bus question.

The area is currently part of the Southwestern and Scioto-Darby School Districts.

If the territory should be annexed to Columbus, there is no assurance that it would become part of the city school district.

The city district would be forced to seek the approval of the state board of education before any change in the school arrangement could be made. In any event, Columbus school officials say there is no possibility of such change by September.

Francis T. Rudy, executive assistant to Columbus School Superintendent Harold Eibling, said that it was the policy of the Columbus Board of Education to continue transportation in annexed areas.

He stated that such services would continue until a school was built within reasonable walking distance or city transportation facilities extended to the area.

"Certainly no youngster will be made to walk from near Trabue-rd down either Hague-av or Wilson-rd to the schools on Valleyview-dr," he added.

If the territory did become part of the Columbus district, Rudy said that present facilities would probably be so crowded that the board would consider building a new school to serve the area.

While the petition is receiving strongest support in Mon-E-Bak, Blair plans to visit additional residents along Wilson-rd.

He said that residents west of Wilson-rd were fairly favorable while opposition grew as he moved northward.

It was at first thought that the annexation might include Raymond Memorial Golf Course, but this is not termed likely now.

Glenwood Methodist's 'Summer Holiday' Slated

The Asbury and Wesley older youth fellowships of Glenwood Methodist Church will sponsor a "Summer Holiday," open to the public Monday, June 30, 6:30 p.m. at the church, 64 S. Highland-av.

There will be refreshments and entertainment. Proceeds will go to the new church building fund.

"Summer Holiday" will be held rain or shine, said David McLaughlin, publicity.

BEAN WINNERS! HERE THEY ARE—

At least five people will be eating beans for some time to come.

Winners of the annual Bean Dinner Word Contest printed in last week's issue of The Hilltop Record and West Side News have been selected and are announced as follows:

First prize goes to Mrs. J. P. Compton, 45 N. Chesa-av; second prize to Mrs. George Neibler, 789 S. Wayne-av, and third prize to Carmen LeFever, 279 S. Green-st. Consolation prizes will be awarded to George Kerchner, 1201 Carbone-dr, and Virginia A. Jacobs, 131 Avondale-av.

All prize winners may pick up their prizes anytime at the office of Hartley Newspapers, 2465 W. Broad-st.

Masonic Chapter Sets Installation

Annual election of officers of West Gate Chapter No. 216, Royal Arch Masons, will be held this evening.

Excellent High Priest Cranston Williams will open the stated convocation at 7:30 p.m. Installation will be held after the election.

Refreshments will be served.

Prominent Hilltop Lions Are Honored At Meeting

Sixteen achievement and merit awards and 27 perfect attendance citations were presented at the annual awards meeting of the Hilltop Lions Club held Thuraday night, June 19, at the Florentine Restaurant.

Plaques for inspired leadership of committees went to Paul Carter, sight-saving chairman; Sam Taylor, 1957 Fourth of July community celebration chairman; and Jack Kirwin, program chairman.

In recognition of excellent committee work, miniature lion statues were given to E. D. (Bun) Kimball for his boys and girls committee activities; Erwin Schmidt for conduct of the recent lightbulb sale; John Garber for community betterment activities; and Bob Myers for his assistance in youth work and for the annual newspaper sale campaign.

Cuff links in recognition of outstanding Lionism demonstrated during the past year went to Jerry Spears, Sr., Dick Gilger, Paul Hott, Dr. Jerauld Ferritto, Jim Musick, Harold Greene, Charles Neil, Al Dailey and Bill Thiemt.

SKY-ROCKETS ADD AERIAL THRILLS

The Sky-Rockets, a group of parachutists who perform aerial acrobatics during a 3,000-foot free-fall from an airplane before pulling their 'chute ripcords, will give another exhibition tonight at the Hilltop Bean Dinner. The attraction, secured too late for previous publicity, may be viewed tonight at about 7 o'clock.

Hilltop Still Leads In 'Y' Fund Drive

While complete figures were not available at press time today it was evident that the Hilltop Special Gifts Division in the YMCA-YWCA Development Fund Drive would go over the $50,000 mark at the Wednesday noon report meeting.

This was the best of the residential area reports, followed by the Spring Street section with over $35,000 and South Side with better than $25,000.

Bill Jones, chairman of the Hilltop division, has asked that all outstanding cards in this division be returned to him immediately at the City National Bank, 3100 W. Broad-st.

A special effort is being made to get clean-up work completed by July 10 at which time the campaign effort will be slightly relaxed until early fall when the cards will be redistributed to various volunteer workers who will assist at that time to see the drive through to a successful conclusion.

While the campaign goal has not yet been attained the steering committee has decided to continue it until such time that the goal has been attained. It is believed the figure will near the $1,000,000 mark by July 10.

PICKIN' UP POINTERS—Younger baseball fans listened with rapt attention Tuesday afternoon as members of the Jets explained some tricks of the trade during a baseball clinic held at the Bean Dinner.

Hilltop Bean Dinner Attracts Thousands To Sullivant Site

Time was when a "hill of beans" didn't amount to a thing. Not so on the Hilltop this week!

A three-ton "hill of beans" is being served free, during the dinner hours 5 to 7:30 last night and tonight at Hilltop Bean Dinner, now in progress at Sullivant Avenue Airport.

Crowds thronging the spacious airport's midway and exhibit buildings signalled their approval of the enlarged location and new attractions added to the traditional event.

A program jam-packed with events to delight young and old entertained thousands throughout yesterday afternoon and evening, and a schedule guaranteed to equal or top Tuesday's, is promised for today.

A brand new give-away plan for distribution of money and merchandise prizes added to yesterday's fun and will be continued today.

"Price Is Right" auction, with panelists' names chosen from a drum of tickets will be continued again today, at 4:30 and 9:30 p.m. Contestants guessing closest to the marked price of a displayed item claim the prize. Other panelists receive silver dollars.

Firing of a cannon throughout the afternoon and evening hours signal the time for an "on the spot" award. A committee member spoting a person on the grounds doing a predetermined thing, will receive a prize.

Littlest guests are by no means the least at the Hilltop Bean Dinner, and both days' programs are packed with events for their amusement.

Baseball clinic got underway Tuesday at 1 p.m. with several members of the Jets on hand to offer "words to the wise" to avid young baseball players.

Pony Tail Contest, sponsored by The Hilltop Record and Rural-Urban News was judged at 2 p.m. by a panel of judges comprised of Mrs. Hazel Moss, Mrs. Dorothy Hott and Mrs. J. Curtis Allen.

Winners in the one through four age group were Barbara Jo Murphy, first; Louise Proctor, second and Lyla Sue Tindell, third; five through eight, Deborah Crabbe, first; Robin McMillen, second and Pam Schaefer, third, and nine through 12 years, Karen Born, first; Diane Douglas, second and Lynda Christian, third.

Games' winners were balloon hunt, Roger Reese and Harold Kontz; shoe kick, Jody Nelson, J. Douglas Premon and Denice Felix; sack race, Lee Daniels and Joyce Parson.

Race for six-year-olds, Dave Osborn and Phyllis Rose Suel; shoe scramble, Pat Eviston and Karen Born; nut roll, Jack Tyler and Diane Izzie; ping pong ball push, Bob Thornton.

H. Markins Has Fatal Heart Attack

Harry E. Markins, 67, of 81 N. Westgate-av, was pronounced dead on arrival at Mt. Carmel Hospital Tuesday, following a heart attack.

He was a Hilltop realtor for many years, associated with C. B. Barnett of 1863 Sullivant-av.

Mr. Markins was a member of Glenwood Methodist Church, Aladdin Temple and Magnolia Lodge, F&AM.

Surviving are a son, Glenn H. of Ft. Lauderdale; two sisters, Mrs. Charles C. Brown of Jackson and Mrs. Clarence Stanley of Zaleski; two brothers, Andy J. of Indiana and Dermont G. of Florida; three granddaughters, Ann, Barbara and Deborah Wrigley of Columbus.

Friends may call at Jerry Spears Funeral Home. Private services will be held there Thursday at 10 a.m.

Family requests that flowers be omitted.

Two Hilltop Groups Planning Big Fourth

At least two different big Fourth of July celebrations were being churned by Hilltop committees this week. One is the traditional Lions "cracker day" event at West High's Magly Field. The other is the first July 4 venture of Georgian Heights, the newly annexed community at the western extreme of Sullivant-av.

"All for you — the Hilltop Lions Club will spend more than $1000 to bring the loudest, safest and most colorful Fourth of July of your life," said chairman Carl Strickler.

The seventh annual Lions-sponsored community Independence Day celebration will begin with the opening of the gates to West High's Magly Field at 7 p.m. Music and entertainment will start at 7:30 p.m. and the fireworks show will commence at 9 p.m.

Strickler added, "Just to help you make up your mind to join several thousand of your Hilltop neighbors at this gala event:

"Music by Ziggy Coyle's Combo, at least three professional entertainment acts, 10 earth-shaking ground charges, 80 aerial shells and an American flag portrayed in fireworks as the grand finale; plus such concessions as pop, popcorn, ice cream, hot dogs and candy."

Queen Will Rule All-Day Event At Georgian Hts.

Clarence Starr and his social committee of the Georgian Heights Civic Association, Inc., are planning a lively Fourth for Heights [illegible] and their friends.

Festivities will start on the Georgian Heights playground at 10 a.m. and will draw to a close at dusk with a wiener roast and sing. There will be games and prizes for all. An attractive Westinghouse appliance will be given away every hour.

Crowning of the queen will come first. Following will be a parade with most of the boys and girls of the Heights area taking part. Five queen candidates have been nominated by the Georgian Heights Teen Club and will be selected this week by residents' ballot vote. The girls are Diana Dixon, Judy Logan, Joan Klatt, Mary Jo Dixon and Dinah Baker.

The queen's court will be made up of six little girls, age 3 to 7. They are Pamela Brill, Toni Johnston, Brenda Starr, Roxanne Graves and Mary Lynn Hickle.

A double header Little League baseball event is also on the docket. And, with an eye to roaring sales of ice cream and pop, a committee will pass out between 100 and 200 pounds of peanuts.

Further details are available from Mrs. Sally Dixon, civic association secretary, BR. 9-0173.

JUBILEE IN ACTION

West Side June Jubilee is continuing lively at Sunshine Recreation Center through Saturday evening. The festivities boast contests, concessions and rides plus special events each evening at 8 p.m. including square dance, a cash award and a variety show.

Playgrounds Swell With Throngs Of Children

"Your city playgrounds hold for all the family a treasure chest of summer recreation." Thus spoke out Jo Courtney, one of the many summer play supervisors who bagen their programs in this area last Tuesday.

Jo continued: "We invite you to go and visit these playgrounds and become acquainted. They will most surely open the door for you for a summer of fun and relaxation."

Jo's particular responsibility is Westgate Park play area. There, despite rain and some chill, 300 children were on hand for the official opening June 17. The flag was raised by the Campfire Girls and games for boys and girls of all ages followed.

A vehicle parade was held and prizes furnished by school PTA's were distributed.

Similar events were held at all local play areas. Many reports of opening day were sent to this paper for publication and are condensed in the following paragraphs. Most groups are preparing for the pet show at Glenwood Center, 1925 W. Broad-st, this Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Next month the sectional clown contest and lantern parade will be staged at Westgate Park.

At Westgate . . .

This year Westgate has 12 Little Jet League baseball teams, including boys from eight to 13 years. The minor league teams play at 2 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, while the major league teams play at 6 Monday through Thursday. There are still many places open for would-be ball players. Not to be outdone, the young ladies have formed two softball teams. Girls from ages nine to 15 are eligible to play and need only to come to the park to sign up. The schedule for these teams has not yet been determined.

The tennis courts are a great attraction for the entire family. The carefully cared-for clay courts are well lighted at night and are open for playing from 12:30 until 10 p.m. There is no charge for playing and later on this summer free lessons will be given.

For children of all ages an arts and crafts program is made available every day from 1:30 until 3. The children are guided in such activities as papier-mache, weaving, painting, coloring, graphite, paper construction, gimp work, etc.

At McKinley . . .

The formation of a Little Jet League baseball team marked the opening of the McKinley playground at Central and McKinley-ave.

Plans for the summer include the pet show at Glenwood. A doll show last Monday began the week's activities.

A lantern parade, drama festivals, sports tournaments and a city-wide pageant head the list of plans.

Henry Gary, McKinley Playground athletic director, will post baseball activities and is hopeful for a successful season, reports Barbara Hill, recreation aide.

Mayor Opens Summer Season

At Hauntz . . .

Approximately 250 boys and girls were on hand to officially open the 1958 season at Hauntz Playground, Columbian and Springmont-avs.

This year Hauntz has a new shelter house and a blacktop area for basketball, volleyball and group games. Seven Little Jets League teams face the following schedule:

Friday, June 27, 1:00, Yanks vs. Cards; 5:45, Jets vs. Reds.

boys and girls coming to Hauntz playground are invited to take Monday, June 30 — 1:00, Braves vs. Aces; 5:45, Giants vs. Cards.

Tuesday, July 1 — 1:00, Jets vs. Aces. 5:45, Yanks vs. Braves.

Thursday, July 3 — 5:45, Reds vs. Cards.

Monday, July 7 — 1:00, Yanks vs. Aces. 5:45, Braves vs. Giants.

Softball teams will be organized this week. The physical fitness program has already begun, with 10 boys currently trying to pass the physical goals for their age classifications. All part in the physical fitness program. Playground supervisors are Bob and Millie Green. Hauntz is open from 12:30 to 8:30, Monday through Friday.

All boys and girls interested in the lantern parade which will be held July 14 at Westgate are to attend the arts and crafts period, 1 to 3 p.m., at Hauntz every day. The children will make their own lanterns for the parade.

Outdoor cooking and hiking are two new activities at Hauntz this year. Outdoor cooking will be every Wednesday, 3 to 4:30 p.m. Hiking will be held every Thursday, 1 to 3 p.m. Any interested boy or girl should contact one of the supervisors.

Guys and Dolls, which originally met at Glenwood Center, will now meet at Hauntz Playground every Monday at 6 p.m.

Teen Club, which originally met at Glenwood, will now meet at Hauntz every Wednesday at 6 p.m.

At Holton . . .

Softball teams for both boys and girls are being organized this week at Holton Playground on N. Eureka-av.

Holton's participants in the pet show at Glenwood this week are reminded to have their entries registered by 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

At Burroughs . . .

A delegation of women from the John Burroughs PTA, led by Mrs. Evan Morgan, was in charge of opening ceremonies at the playground June 17. Winners of the girls' events were Elaine Terrill, Darlene Bennett, Linda Sue Damron, Pam McGuire, Susan Dale, Joan Chapman, Brenda Harmon and Carol Krivet.

Boys' events were won by Charles Karpick, Bryon Sheets, Daniel McQuade, John Monsour, Toney West, Jim Monsour, Ken Brokamp, Dave Holloway, Daryl McKay.

An organizational meeting of the Burroughs Little Jet League was held June 18. Ninety boys (enough for six teams) and 25 parents turned out for this opening meeting. Six parents expressed a desire to help with the league: Orval Longerbone, A. W. Ellington, W. Barlow, W. Spencer, W. A. Landon and R. Kuka.

Any other adults interested in helping should contact Supervisor Howard Nicklaus or Janet Reid at the playground between 12:30 and 8:30.

Winners in the bike parade and pet show May 28 were Martha Markert, Nancy Markert, Devoe Flowers, Bob McDaniel, Susan Dunbar, Robert Robertson and Jim Ayis.

Many children from Burroughs are participating in the sectional pet show at Glenwood Thursday.

Hilltop Barber Shop Gives Quick Service Men Want

John B. Ezzo

"One-Stop Shop for Men," is the way John B. Ezzo refers to his barbershop located at 14 N. Harris-av.

"Bud," as Ezzo is known to most of his customers, stocks a full line of hair and shaving needs. He said he feels that men should be able to purchase all their toiletries in one place and a barbershop is the most logical spot!

He also has three other barbers on hand at all times for the convenience of his customers. They are: Otho Sisk, Rocky Lettore and Bud's uncle, Charles "Louie" Ezzo.

Charles Ezzo has been a barber on the Hilltop for 10 years. Bud, who has been barbering since 1951, served part of his apprenticeship with his uncle. He bought the business from his uncle three years ago and has devoted his spare time and money to remodeling the shop.

Bud, a born and raised Hilltopper and graduate of West High School, put in some time for Uncle Sam, Ohio Bell Telephone Company and General Motors before going into his barbering career at the urging of his fiancee.

Bud and his wife, Norma, and their three children, Deborah, Mike and Donald, reside at 792 Binns-blvd. Ezzo likes to fish but said he spends most of his spare time around home with his family and his hobby, woodworking.

He is a member of HBA, Master Barbers' Association of America and St. Mary Magdalene Church.

Billy Finally Made It!

BILL DOUGHTY, 2462 Elliott-av, Hilltop Record carrier, receives proof that he has "come of age" from the Tuberculosis Society's X-ray technician John Hoffman. Bill celebrated his 15th birthday Friday, June 20, by getting a free X-ray on the Christmas Seal X-ray Cruiser. For several years he has persistently tried to board the cruiser at the Hilltop Bean Dinner but has been turned down for being under-age. This year he couldn't wait for the annual Hilltop event and hopped on the Cruiser at Central Point. At right is Mrs. Harold L. Doughty, ready to testify as to her son's birth date.

Need More 'Little Jets' At Glenwood

Little Jet practice began last Thursday at Glenwood Recreation Center. Because of bad weather attendance has been low. Approximately 60 boys have reported.

Practice sessions are held at 12:30 on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. Any boy interested in playing should contact Glenwood immediately.

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

Fruits — Lemons, bananas, cantaloupe, watermelon, pineapple.

Vegetables — New potatoes, Cabbage, beets, tomatoes, leaf lettuce.

Other Foods—Fryers, chuck roast, ground beef, large eggs, ice cream.

TANGY LEMONS

There's nothing like a tall glass of tangy cold lemonade on a hot summer day. Whether you make it from fresh lemons, frozen lemonade or a canned product you will find the current supply good and the price attractive. Although lemons are available the year 'round, the peak of harvest is in June and July.

While the principal use of lemons is in making drinks, you'll like their flavor in salad dressings or as part of the salad, whether you use vegetables, meat or fish. Good cooks say a squeeze of lemon accents the flavor of soups and juices, such as tomato, and gives zest to many kinds of cooked vegetables as green beans, asparagus, and spinach. Lemon pies, tarts and cookies are old favorites.

When buying lemons, look for fine textured skins, waxy appearance, good shape or form and weight relatively heavy for the size of the lemon. Avoid shriveled, hard - skinned or spongy fruits. A dozen lemons will make about 16 glasses of lemonade.

Keep lemons in the refrigerator, but in a plastic bag away from other foods that might absorb the strong odor.

Lemons are nutritionally good. All forms of lemon provide substantial quantities of Vitamin C. Two tablespoons of fresh lemon juice will provide one-fifth of the daily recommended allowance of this important vitamin. If you are cutting down on orange juice because of its current high price, lots of lemon juice may be used as an alternative.

ICE CREAM FESTIVAL TIME

An ice cream festival promotion by the dairy industry is in full swing. Ice cream will be featured in many stores from now until mid-July. This is part of June Dairy Month.

Have you taken time lately to check the dairy counter? You may be surprised to find how many new ice cream products are waiting for you.

There are over 300 different flavors of ice cream on the market today, but vanilla is by far the most popular. In 1956 over 53 per cent of ice cream sold was vanilla. Chocolate rated second place and strawberry was third.

Annex Offense Fizzles As Foe Does Not Show

A concerted offensive against the proposed 270-acre annexation of part of Franklin Township to the City of Columbus fizzled out last Monday night when the sponsor of the petition for annexation failed to appear. The petition was dismissed.

L. Kent Rummel, 3166 Northam-rd, annexation advocate did not show up at a hearing to discuss the issue. Attorneys C. Richard O'Neill and Tom Applegate, township trustee John Guy, and Clyde Crandall, president of the Township Citizens Association, had gathered at the hearing to fight the annexation petition.

The area in question, which will remain in the township, is a delta-shaped plot on the west side of the Scioto River, bounded on the south by the corporation limits of Columbus and Valleyview, and in the north by a point above Fisher-rd.

Pvt. E. Carr Completes Army Cooking Course

Army Pvt. Edwin J. Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Carr, 260 S. Central-av, recently completed the eight-week cooking course under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Knox, Ky.

Carr received basic combat training at the fort.

The 18-year old soldier is a 1956 graduate of Central High School.

A $10,900 sale at a total cost of just $2.06!

Sounds unbelievable doesn't it?

But that is the report of Henry Jones, a local real estate salesman who advertised a six room house in the Hartley Newspapers last week.

This is but one of the many testimonials these newspapers receive each week. They are result packed advertising values due to the very low cost in reaching out into some 52,000 homes each week.

One of the big things that make these papers so valuable as an advertising medium is the fact that they are filled with the local community news and stay in the home until the next week's issue arrives.

Dennis Duggan Is Winner In City-Wide Shoe Contest

BIKE WINNER—Dennis Duggan, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Duggan, of 865 Wilshire-rd, was one of seven top prize winners in the city-wide Red Ball "Jets" shoe contest. He was chosen a winner through an application placed at the Salvatore Shoe Store, Central Point Shopping Center. Dennis, a student at St. Mary Magdalene School, stands with his prize, a Murray two-speed bicycle. Posing with Dennis are Frank, left, and Dante Salvatore, owners of the store.

Look For This

Any subscriber who finds this insignia stamped on an ad in this copy of this newspaper, should take it to the office of Hartley Newspapers before Saturday at noon. It will be redeemed for $35 in "Confederate" currency which can be used to make purchases at any local business establishment advertising in this issue.

This insignia has a value of $1. Follow the same procedure for "cashing in" as outlined above.

No employe or carrier of Hartley Newspapers nor any member of his family, is eligible.

REMODELS

Insignia Is Valued At $35 Today

No claimants on last week's "Confederate" prize money has increased the value of today's jackpot insignia to $35.

Ten additional $1 insignia, printed on ads in ten other copies of the newspaper, increase subscribers' chances of cashing in on the "money" offer.

Subscribers finding a "Confederate" money insignia printed in bright, distinctively colored ink on an ad in their copies of the newspaper, may collect "Confederate" money at Hartley Newspaper office by Saturday noon.

All advertisers appearing in the current issue of the newspaper will accept "Confederate" currency in payment for any merchandise in their stores.

Any subscriber whose name appears on our records as having paid in advance or on his carrier boy's route book as a paying customer is eligible to collect "Confederate" money.

Employes or carriers of the newspaper and members of their families are excepted.

Check List Handy Camping Guide

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Ed Larle, 70 Mary-st, West Jefferson, and his son, Rickey, are going on a camping-fishing trip, and they asked me the other day about some items of camp equipment.

More and more people, it seems are spending their yearly vacations outdoors. A camp outing makes an inexpensive vacation once a few basic necessities are accumulated.

Camping also makes an enjoyable vacation—if you plan for it in advance. Ed and Rickey chose the location for their expedition, in northern Wisconsin, more than six weeks ago. Then they started to gather their equipment. They purchased things like sleeping bags and air mattresses, and they are going to borrow a tent from a friend. Most of the other items they will need are around the house, but they are making a list and will check them off as the car is loaded.

FISH REPORT

Robert Noice, 3679 South High-st, landed a 12¾ pound channel catfish on his first trip to Clendening Lake, according to boat dock operator Bill Bass. The interesting thing is that it was Noice's first trip to the lake—a case of beginner's luck.

Elden Noice, charter boat captain at Put-in-Bay, reports the white bass fishing in Lake Erie is picking up, and that it should be at its best for the next couple of weeks. These scrappy fish travel in schools, and will hit almost any kind of small shiny spinner or spoon. Some fishermen are taking smallmouth bass around the islands on both live and artificial baits.

CAMPING WISE—This fisherman is well prepared for camping. At night he will store his equipment under his boat and sleep in his stationwagon. (Photo by Dick Matt.)

Most campers supply themselves well with food and the more obvious items of camping equipment, but they forget the little things. Here is a camping checklist that I have found to be useful: an orange crate, picnic basket, clothes line and pins, mirror, oilcloth, clock, broom, axe and knife, shovel, folding chairs, folding table, flashlight, fly swatter, bug bomb, first aid kit, coat hangers, laundry bag, sewing kit, some string, pen and paper, soap and box.

Detergent, paper napkins, wax paper, toilet paper, paper towels, pot cleaners, pot holders, small flat boards, warm jackets, extra shoes, toilet and shaving articles, towels, dishcloths and washcloths.

Frying pan, stew pots, tea kettle, can opener, bottle opener, spatula, knives, cooking forks and roasting forks, fishing tackle and camera.

These are the things you will need whether you camp in a cabin, tent, or trailer. To this list you must add the other items necessary to your campsite. You should also plan the menu for each meal while you are gone, and take some canned meat in case you don't catch a lot of fish.

AAA Warns Motorists Of Hitchhiker Crimes

"The lonely hitchhiker may arouse sympathy in many motorists, but those who stop to pick him up are asking for trouble," advises Russell H. Campbell, general manager of the Columbus Automobile Club.

The record of hitchhiker crimes rises sharply during the summer months, and many a good Samaritan motorist who offered a ride to a "clean-cut young hiker" has wound up in a hospital minus car and cash.

According to the FBI, the prints of two out of five thumbs raised to beg a ride are on file with the police. The majority of hitchhikers do not intend to do the motorist harm, but enough criminals use this method to find a victim to make picking up a stranger not worth the risk, Campbell pointed out.

Aside from being robbed or beaten, there is another very good reason for ignoring the out-stretched hand. In many instances, motorists have been sued heavily by hiking passengers for injuries sustained in an accident.

Twenty-two states have laws which forbid "standing in the roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride." But these laws do not protect the motorist. In fact, these laws are traffic safety measures and it is legal in all but two states to hichhike from the sidewalk or road shoulder. In the state of Washington, it is not only illegal to solicit rides, but the motorist who stops to pick up a hitchhiker is also subject to arrest.

Campbell quotes Section 27.368 of the new Columbus Traffic Code, "No person while on a roadway outside of a safety zone shall solicit a ride from the driver of any vehicle."

Children's Playtime Accidents Require Mom's Close Attention

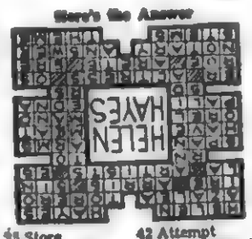
Mother takes great care with cut on her daughter's knee. Even slight wounds can mean infection.

BY EDNA MILES

As soon as school is out, the burden of homemaking increases. Never a light job at any time, it then includes riding herd all day long on active children who turn up at regular intervals with anything from a burn to a bruised knee.

It's up to mother to be prepared for the emergencies that are bound to arise. Two absolute essentials are a first aid reference book and a first aid kit.

Treating cuts and slight wounds seems simple, at first thought. But infection can spring from the smallest cut if treatment isn't right.



Before you bandage a cut or wound, cleanse it thoroughly with sterile cotton or a sterile gauze pad. Next, use a good antiseptic on a fresh pad, place the pad on the wound and wrap with the bandage.

The bandage should never come in contact with a wound unless it is a newly opened sterile roll. Therefore, the individual sterile gauze pads are safest for use.

Propaganda On Alcohol Equalizes

Alhcohol is the occasion of an immense amount of propaganda. For many years those who favor total abstinence have carried on extensive and highly organized campaigns against the liquor traffic. Lately, propaganda in defense of moderate drinking has been extensive, if not on an equal scale.

Efforts to distort or to overstate the facts either against or in favor of drinking will, in the long run, defeat the propagandist. The speedy enactment of prohibition and its speedy repeal ought to remind us, whatever our viewpoint, how great and quick reaction can take place when people are influenced by high-pressure propaganda without being fundamentally convinced.

It is obvious that there is today considerable confusion as well as much honest difference of opinion conserring the facts. A total abstainer sees no reason to abandon his practice. From his viewpoint, total abstinence never hurt anybody. Yet it would be folly for him to assume any moral superiority over plenty of men and women wro drink in moderation.

No amount of argument has ever been able to set aside the Biblical denunciations and warnings upon which the "temperance" lessons are based. But the fact that even among church people drinking is much more common than it was a few years ago makes it difficult to teach such lessons without recognising changed conditions.

What should we do? Face the facts. Encourage frank and open discussion. Avoid censuring judgments, but do not compromise the truth. No habits that are sound and no cause that is right need have anything to fear from the fullest investigation, inquiry and discussion.

Five Classes Offered At OSU Homemakers' Course

Five home economics classes are being offered at Homemakers' Short Course on the Ohio State University campus June 23, 24, and 25, according to Mrs. Lea Whitfield, State Leader, Home Economics Extension.

The clothing class "Choice, Construction, and Care" is planned to help the homemaker choose fabrics, patterns, construction and pressing techniques to make professional-looking garments.

"Is Your Money Buying You The Kind of Life You Want Now And In The Future?" is the title of the family economics class. There will be discussions of family financial security and also consumer credit.

The food and nutrition class "Food Needs and Meat Shopping Guides" will stress the importance of meat as food for the family and its relationship dollar wise to the over-all food budget. Homemakers enrolled in this class will have the opportunity to learn identification of cuts, care of meat and methods of cookery which will result in a tasty, satisfying and nutritious product.

"Let's Use Household Equipment" is the theme of the home management class. Those who select this class will study the operation of dishwashers, disposers, refrigerators, freezers, washers and dryers and how to get the best use from equipment.

The fifth home economics class from which to choose is in housing. It is planned to help homemakers improve their present storage or plan additional storage for their homes. Class discussion will deal with storage in the living room, dining room, bedroom and kitchen.

The home economics classes offered at Homemakers' Short Course will be taught by Ohio State University Extension specialists.

THERE'S A NEW WAVE OF OPPORTUNITY COMING...
AND SMART PEOPLE ARE GETTING READY FOR IT!

7 BIG REASONS FOR CONFIDENCE IN AMERICA'S FUTURE

1. MORE PEOPLE . . . Four million babies yearly. U.S. population has doubled in last 50 years! And our prosperity curve has always followed our population curve.

2. MORE JOBS . . . Though employment in some areas has fallen off, there are 16 million more jobs than in 1939—and there will be 20 million more in 1975 than today.

3. MORE INCOME . . . Family income after taxes is at an all-time high of $5500—is expected to pass $7000 by 1975.

4. MORE PRODUCTION . . . U.S. production doubles every 20 years. We will require millions more people to make, sell and distribute our products.

5. MORE SAVINGS . . . Individual savings are at highest level ever—$340 billion—a record amount available for spending.

6. MORE RESEARCH . . . $10 billion spent each year will pay off in more jobs, better living, whole new industries.

7. MORE NEEDS . . . In the next few years we will need more than $600 billion worth of schools, highways, homes, durable equipment. Meeting these needs will create new opportunities for everyone.

ADD THEM UP and you have the makings of another big upswing. Wise planners, builders and buyers will act now to get ready for it.

Sputnik III Caught By Camera While Passing Over Area

LIKE A SUPERCHARGED FIREFLY, Russia's little space traveler, Sputnik III, passed this way early June 16. As predicted, Sputnik's rocket carrier (known as Delta-one) appeared in the sky at 3:42 a.m. A Hartley Newspapers editor, Mare Orr, managed to take two time exposures during the satellite's spectacular two-minute trip through a cloudless sky. Sputnik's brilliance rivalled the brightest stars in the pre-dawn sky. The alternate streaks were recorded as the rocket tumbled over and over every five or six seconds, reflecting varying degrees of light. Technical data on photo: 4x5 Speed Graphic, brief time exposure at f 4.5 on Super Hypan film, developed double the normal time.

Murky Depths Off Maine Coast Give Up Three Giant Lobsters

MONSTERS OF THE DEEP—The sea off the Maine coast gave up three of its denizens June 13, and from the looks of these fellows the tide probably went down after they were removed from the water. Linne Durst, who is noted for his marine displays in and around Columbus, is holding the larger of the three lobsters. It weighs in at 23½ pounds. Durst said he's had an order in for lobsters this size for over six months. He will arrange a display with the lobsters in the window of a local seafood restaurant.

West Side Kiwanis Is First Service Club To Hold Dinner Meeting At State Hospital

MEMORABLE VISIT—Establishing somewhat of a "first" at the Columbus State Hospital last week was the West Side Kiwanis Club, it was the first service club ever to hold a luncheon meeting at the institution. At the end of the visit members planted a tree on the hospital grounds. Officiating are, left to right, Kiwanian Beryl Hatfield; Victor Ewald, chief of CSH volunteer services; Stephen A. Long and Lee Price of the West Side Club. This activity is part of the educational efforts of the Inter-Club Council of Central Ohio Service Clubs and the recently created Volunteer Services Council of the hospital.

Jackson-Guldan Violin Company Resumes Work

Jackson-Guldan, Inc., of 165 W. Main-st, reopened recently for limited production of guitars, violins and violin planters.

L. F. Daniel, president of the firm, which is the only violin-making factory in the United States, closed the plant Mar. 28 because of "competition from low-cost violin imports from Germany and Japan."

Some of the firm's employes returned to the factory without pay to try to keep the industry alive. Daniel said that if tariffs are increased on cheap imported violins, his company has a good chance of survival.

Ex-Central Boy Fails In Attempt Of 'Cincy' Run

Former Central High School cross-country runner, Tom Morlan, 19, of 636 E. Starr-av, who attempted a 127-mile runs to an Eagle's Convention in Cincinnati last Wednesday, collapsed about 107 miles short of his destination.

An estimated 30 persons gathered at Central-av and W. Mound-st as Morlan swung onto Route 3 accompanied by the State Highway Patrol.

The youth, who planned to attend an Eagle dance Wednesday evening, collapsed from exhaustion just north of Mount Sterling near the Madison-Pickaway County line. Morlan said he plans to try again in three months.

Open Fitness Program At Recreation Center

A physical fitness program will begin at Sunshine Recreation Center the week of June 22. All boys and girls interested in participating should contact Miss Martha Clark; and Fred Behmer.

Certain qualifications are set in the various age groups (junior, intermediate and senior.)

A participant who qualifies in his or her division is eligible to receive an AAU certificate.

Softball, Jr. Olympics Head Girls' Athletics At Glenwood

Girls of all ages are encouraged to participate in the summer softball league at Glenwood Recreation Center, 1985 W. Broad-st.

Girls 12 and under play in the Junior League on Fridays at 2:30; 13, 14 and 15 with the Intermediates on Thursdays at 6:30; 16, 17 and 18 with Senior group on Tuesdays at 6:30. Teams are now being organized and interested persons may call or stop at the center for further information.

Mothers and daughters are invited to the Thursday afternoon tennis classes. They are from 1 to 3:30 on the center's courts. There are a few rackets and balls available but participants are encouraged to bring their own if possible.

A physical fitness and Junior Olympics program is scheduled for Monday, 2:30-4; Tuesday, 4:30-5:30; Wednesday, 6:30-8:30; Thursday, 4:30-5:30. The object of this program is to help develop better physical fitness in general, as well as coordination, poise, and an understanding of the sport itself. The program is terminated by a sectional and city-wide meet in August.

Initiated Into Honor Frat

James L. Graham

James L. Graham was recently initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, national scholastic honor fraternity, at Ohio State University. Members consist of the top two per cent of the freshman class.

A graduate of West High School, he is enrolled in the pre-law curriculum. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Graham, West Jefferson.

Northway Post, VFW, Lions Lead Slo-Pitch

The Northway Post and Lions Club are leading the pack with 2-0 records for this round of the Slo-Pitch League. The Northway-Lions game was rained out in this round and must be made up. The winner of the game will be the winner of the round.

Northway gained their two victories by edging Westway Post in a close contest 9-8 and defeating the Y's Men by a score of 19-11. The Lions Club earned their two victories with a shutout victory 8-0 over Westway Post in a game last week. They had previously beaten the Hilltop Y's Men's Club 20-1.

The Church Division was rained out for the second straight week. Glenwood is still leading the pack with West Park close behind.

Hilltop Kiwanis, Ladies, To Mark Anniversaries

Hilltop Kiwanis Club will mark its 13th birthday Thursday evening jointly with Kiwanikwe (women's group), who will observe their tenth anniversary.

A smorgasbord dinner and program will begin at 6:45 p.m. at Lincoln Lodge. Elmer Hegenberger and Mrs. C. C. Hartley are program chairmen.

The combined groups will hear Dr. Philip E. Auer, pastor of Peace Lutheran Church in Galion since 1924. Dr. Auer is a graduate of Capital University Seminary, which conferred the honorary doctor of divinity degree upon him earlier this month.

Dr. Auer is past governor of the Ohio Kiwanis District, and has served as trustee and vice-president of Kiwanis International. Active in Red Cross, Boy Scouts and other community and youth projects, he has been in demand as speaker for commencements and conventions in all parts of the country.

Listed in "Who's Who in America" and "Who's Who in the Midwest," Dr. Auer also was mentioned in the May, 1956, "Reader's Digest" as one of the organizers of the nationally-acclaimed "Galion Trouble Clinic."

Both clubs will honor their past presidents, who will, in turn, acknowledge active members who joined the clubs during their terms of office. Kiwanikwe will take part in the entertainment. Kiwanis lieutenant-governor of the 10th district, Jay Flowers, and Bob Hill, past governor, will be among the honored guests.

Dr. Philip E. Auer

Gary Koontz Is Lieutenant

Gary C. Koontz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Koontz, 169 S. Sylvan-av, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army upon completion of four years in Reserve Officers Training at Ohio State University. He was graduated from the OSU College of Commerce June 12. On Nov. 1 he will enter six months active duty at Ft. Benning, Ga., with the infantry. Lt. Koontz was also graduated from West High School.

Your Youth

By Al Hollowell and Bud Martin

The Little Nine baseball clinic scheduled for the past two Saturdays has unfortunately been rained out on both occasions. It will be rescheduled in a few weeks. A family day at the Valleyview site is being considered. The Little Nine program is now under way following a week of clinic sessions conducted by the Y staff.

Summer Fun Club applications are now being accepted at the Y. Registration fee is $1 and membership is available to all boy and girl members of the Hilltop Y. The club program starts July 8 and will include mystery trips, scavenger hunts, movies, crafts and other events for boys and girls. Applications may be picked up at the Hilltop Y between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. daily.

Starting next week the Hilltop YMCA movies will be shown at the Lincoln Village recreation program each week. Y movies will also be instituted in other parks and places this week and the schedule will be announced in this column next week.

The schedule for the week follows:

The junior girls will practice Thursday at 4 p.m. Girls who are interested may contact Marty Clark at the center.

Engineer Is Panelist On Creativeness

H. F. Simmonds, of the refrigeration engineering department at the Columbus Westinghouse plant, has been selected to participate in the fourth annual Creative Problem Solving Institute being held June 23, 24 and 25 at the University of Buffalo.

He was selected by the Creative Education Foundation because of his leadership in creativity sessions (commonly called brainstorming) within the Westinghouse engineering department. Simmonds will represent Westinghouse in the group that will include men from nearly every large company, university and scientific group in the country as well as many government agencies, including the military.

The institute is designed to provide training in the operational use of creative sessions to stimulate useful ideas. Simmonds has been selected a leader in three of the seven seminars that will be held.

A native of New York City and a graduate of New York University, Simmonds joined Westinghouse in 1953 following service in both World War II and the Korean conflict. He came to the Columbus plant in 1954 from the East Springfield, Mass., plant and resides with his wife at 662 Wedgewood-dr.

Too many people spend money they haven't earned to buy things they don't want just to be able to impress people they don't like.

You wouldn't think of throwing dollar bills out of your house but many of you have done almost the same thing without realizing it.

All those pieces of furniture, automobile tires, toys, motors, appliances and hundreds of other items that you have stored in your attic and garage are the same as cash.

Just place an inexpensive classified ad in Hartley Newspapers and nearly 51,000 "little merchants" will immediately go into the homes of this community and sell for cash the things you no longer need.

Don't delay . . . call classified today and a helpful "want-ad taker" will gladly assist you.

If you want to buy, sell, rent, trade or offer a service your message will reach more people at the right time when carried in the pages of this newspaper.

GUIDE TO OUTDOORS

Council Lists Area Summer Camps

The United Community Council announced today that registration for summer camp is now open. Most of the camps open about the middle of June.

According to a camping survey conducted by the Council's member recreation agencies last year, more and more families in the Greater Columbus area are enjoying outdoor life during the summer months.

Registrations are already pouring in, but most of the following camps listed by the Council still have openings for both children and adults.

The list includes resident camps, day camps, and camps for the handicapped accepting applicants from the Greater Columbus area.

For help in choosing a suitable camp or for further information regarding camping facilities, applicants should contact the Information Center, United Community Council, 137 E. State St. CA. 8-5696. Applications should be made to the sponsoring agency.

West Juniors Attend Wooster College's Polytechnic Institute

WEST BOYS WITH ENGINEERING INTERESTS — These three West High School juniors and a fourth who wasn't present for the picture, have been chosen to attend the Worchester Polytechnic Institute this week in Worcester, Mass. The boys will be among 50 other Ohio high school juniors attending. The institute is designed for boys interested in entering the field of engineering in college. The students will be given aptitude tests, visit laboratory sessions and go out in the field with trained engineers. Preparing for their departure last Sunday are: left to right, O. Paul Varnell, of 3388 Wicklow-rd; Joe Jacobs of 92 S. Southampton, and Bill Jones, of 243 N. Warren-av. Bob Elliott of 766 S. Harris-av, was not present for the picture.

SPECTATOR . . .

. . . The city has an attractive offer for an elderly man and wife in good health to take over the job as caretaker of Westgate Park. Applicants should contact Ray Dietz of the city parks division . . . Last week Hilltop Kiwanians were served a nice piece of specially decorated cake provided by Mrs. Dorrell Jacques on the occasion of the birthday of her late husband . . . Hilltopper John Swartz is attending the Ohio School of Banking this week at Ohio University. John is a Huntington National man . . . Camp Chase Post of the American Legion has purchased the lot immediately west of their post home on Broad-st, and will develop it into a parking area . . . Former Hilltopper Mike Agee, now of Detroit, sailed Monday as an exchange student and will spend the summer in Normandy. Then there was the lady who was plagued with pains in her arm and had difficulty zipping her dress. Nearing home late one evening she solved her problem by driving into a filling station for one of their extra services: "Will you please unzip my dress?" . . . Sign on back of a truck: Have wife, must travel . . . Have mother-in-law, glad to travel."

Kiwanians Present Check To Hilltonia Junior High

Athletic equipment for Hilltonia Junior High School will be purchased with a $100 gift from Hilltop Kiwanis Club. Ray McVay, right, member of the Kiwanis boys and girls committee, made the presentation to L. H. McAllister, school principal.

CORRECTION

Names of two staffers of the Ron Parrish Realty Co., 967 Hodge-dr, were spelled incorrectly in last week's opening announcement.

The names should have read Miss Helen Wigal and Vern Moder.

APOLOGIES DUE

The Olson Rug Co. ad appearing last week as a booster for the Holy Family festival carried the wrong telephone number. It should have read CA. 1-6118.

About one-tenth of an egg is shell; the rest is edible.

Sputnik III Caught By Camera While Passing Over Area

LIKE A SUPERCHARGED FIREFLY, Russia's little space traveler, Sputnik III, passed this way early June 16. As predicted, Sputnik's rocket carrier (known as Delta-one) appeared in the sky at 3:42 a.m. A Hartley Newspapers editor, Mare Orr, managed to take two time exposures during the satellite's spectacular two-minute trip through a cloudless sky. Sputnik's brilliance rivalled the brightest stars in the pre-dawn sky. The alternate streaks were recorded as the rocket tumbled over and over every five or six seconds, reflecting varying degrees of light. Technical data on photo: 4x5 Speed Graphic, brief time exposure at f 4.5 on Super Hypan film, developed double the normal time.

Murky Depths Off Maine Coast Give Up Three Giant Lobsters

MONSTERS OF THE DEEP—The sea off the Maine coast gave up three of its denizens June 13, and from the looks of these fellows the tide probably went down after they were removed from the water. Linro Durst, who is noted for his marine displays in and around Columbus, is holding the larger of the three lobsters. It weighs in at 22½ pounds. Durst said he's had an order in for lobsters this size for over six months. He will arrange a display with the lobsters in the window of a local seafood restaurant.

West Side Kiwanis Is First Service Club To Hold Dinner Meeting At State Hospital

MEMORABLE VISIT—Establishing some[illegible] "first" at the Columbus State Hospital last week was the West Side Kiwanis [illegible]. It was the first service club ever to hold a luncheon meeting at the institution. At the end of the visit members planted a tree on the hospital grounds. Officiating are, left to right, Kiwanian Beryl Hatfield; Victor Ewald, chief of CSH volunteer services; Stephen A. Long and Lee Price of the West Side Club. This activity is part of the educational efforts of the Inter-Club Council of Central Ohio Service Clubs and the recently created Volunteer Services Council of the hospital.

Jackson-Guldan Violin Company Resumes Work

Jackson-Guldan, Inc., of 165 W. Main-st, reopened recently for limited production of guitars, violins and violin planters.

L. F. Daniel, president of the firm, which is the only violin-making factory in the United States, closed the plant Mar. 28 because of "competition from low-cost violin imports from Germany and Japan."

Some of the firm's employes returned to the factory without pay to try to keep the industry alive. Daniel said that if tariffs are increased on cheap imported violins, his company has a good chance of survival.

W. R. Dailey, 797 S. Harris-av, is remodeling a frame dwelling.

Ex-Central Boy Fails In Attempt Of 'Cincy' Run

Former Central High School cross-country runner, Tom Merlin, 19, of 636 E. Starr-av, who attempted a 127-mile runs to an Eagle's Convention in Cincinnati last Wednesday, collapsed about 107 miles short of his destination.

An estimated 50 persons gathered at Central-av and W. Mound-st as Morian swung onto Route 3 accompanied by the State Highway Patrol.

The youth, who planned to attend an Eagle dance Wednesday evening, collapsed from exhaustion just north of Mount Sterling near the Madison-Pickaway County line. Morian said he plans to try again in three months.

Open Fitness Program At Recreation Center

A physical fitness program will begin at Sunshine Recreation Center the week of June 23. All boys and girls interested in participating should contact Miss Martha Clark; and Fred Behmer.

Certain qualifications are set in the various age groups (junior, intermediate and senior.)

A participant who qualifies in his or her division is eligible to receive an AAU certificate.

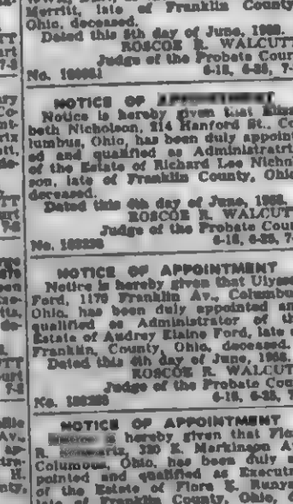
Softball, Jr. Olympics Head Girls' Athletics At Glenwood

Girls of all ages are encouraged to participate in the summer softball league at Glenwood Recreation Center, 1925 W. Broad-st.

Girls 12 and under play in the Junior League on Fridays at 3:30; 13, 14 and 15 with the Intermediates on Thursdays at 6:30; 16, 17 and 18 with Senior group on Tuesdays at 6:30. Teams are now being organized and interested persons may call or stop at the center for further information.

Mothers and daughters are invited to the Thursday afternoon tennis classes. They are from 1 to 3:30 on the center's courts. There are a few rackets and balls available but participants are encouraged to bring their own if possible.

A physical fitness and Junior Olympics program is scheduled for Monday, 2:30-4; Tuesday, 4:30-5:30; Wednesday, 6:30-8:30; Thursday, 4:30-5:30. The object of this program is to help develop better physical fitness in general, as well as coordination, poise, and an understanding of the sport itself. The program is terminated by a sectional and city-wide meet in August.



Northway Post, VFW, Lions Lead Slo-Pitch

The Northway Post and Lions Club are leading the pack with 2-0 records for this round of the Slo-Pitch League. The Northway-Lions game was rained out in this round and must be made up. The winner of the game will be the winner of the round.

Northway gained their two victories by edging Westway Post in a close contest 9-8 and defeating the Y's Men by a score of 19-11. The Lions Club earned their two victories with a shutout victory 8-0 over Westway Post in a game last week. They had previously beaten the Hilltop Y's Men's Club 20-1.

The Church Division was rained out for the second straight week. Glenwood is still leading the pack with West Park close behind.

Initiated Into Honor Frat

James L. Graham

James L. Graham was recently initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, national scholastic honor fraternity, at Ohio State University. Members consist of the top two per cent of the freshman class.

A graduate of West High School, he is enrolled in the pre-law curriculum. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Graham, West Jefferson.

Hilltop Kiwanis, Ladies, To Mark Anniversaries

Hilltop Kiwanis Club will mark its 13th birthday Thursday evening jointly with Kiwanikwe (women's group), who will observe their tenth anniversary.

A smorgasbord dinner and program will begin at 6:45 p.m. at Lincoln Lodge. Elmer Hegenberger and Mrs. C. C. Hartley are program chairmen.

The combined groups will hear Dr. Philip E. Auer, pastor of Peace Lutheran Church in Galion since 1924. Dr. Auer is a graduate of Capital University Seminary, which conferred the honorary doctor of divinity degree upon him earlier this month.

Dr. Auer is past governor of the Ohio Kiwanis District, and has served as trustee and vice-president of Kiwanis International. Active in Red Cross, Boy Scouts and other community and youth projects, he has been in demand as speaker for commencements and conventions in all parts of the country.

Listed in "Who's Who in America" and "Who's Who in the Midwest," Dr. Auer also was mentioned in the May, 1956, "Reader's Digest" as one of the organizers of the nationally-acclaimed "Galion Trouble Clinic."

Both clubs will honor their past presidents, who will, in turn, acknowledge active members who joined the clubs during their terms of office. Kiwanikwe will take part in the entertainment. Kiwanis lieutenant-governor of the 10th district, Jay Flowers, and Bob Hill, past governor, will be among the honored guests.

Engineer Is Panelist On Creativeness

H. F. Simmonds, of the refrigeration engineering department at the Columbus Westinghouse plant, has been selected to participate in the fourth annual Creative Problem Solving Institute being held June 23, 24 and 25 at the University of Buffalo.

He was selected by the Creative Education Foundation because of his leadership in creativity sessions (commonly called brainstorming) within the Westinghouse engineering department. Simmonds will represent Westinghouse in the group that will include men from nearly every large company, university and scientific group in the country as well as many government agencies, including the military.

The institute is designed to provide training in the operational use of creative sessions to stimulate useful ideas. Simmonds has been selected a leader in three of the seven seminars that will be held.

A native of New York City and a graduate of New York University, Simmonds joined Westinghouse in 1953 following service in both World War II and the Korean conflict. He came to the Columbus plant in 1954 from the East Springfield, Mass., plant and resides with his wife at 662 Wedgewood-dr.

Wasted!!!

You wouldn't think of throwing dollar bills out of your house but many of you have done almost the same thing without realizing it.

All those pieces of furniture, automobile tires, toys, motors, appliances and hundreds of other items that you have stored in your attic and garage are the same as cash.

Just place an inexpensive classified ad in Hartley Newspapers and nearly 31,000 "little merchants" will immediately go into the homes of this community and sell for cash the things you no longer need.

Don't delay . . . call classified today and a helpful "want-ad taker" will gladly assist you.

If you want to buy, sell, rent, trade or offer a service your message will reach more people at the right time when carried in the pages of this newspaper.

GUIDE TO OUTDOORS

Council Lists Area Summer Camps

The United Community Council announced today that registration for summer camp is now open. Most of the camps open about the middle of June.

According to a camping survey conducted by the Council's member recreation agencies last year, more and more families in the Greater Columbus area are enjoying outdoor life during the summer months.

Registrations are already pouring in, but most of the following camps listed by the Council still have openings for both children and adults.

The list includes resident camps, day camps, and camps for the handicapped accepting applicants from the Greater Columbus area.

For help in choosing a suitable camp or for further information regarding camping facilities, applicants should contact the Information Center, United Community Council, 137 E. State St. CA. 8-5696. Applications should be made to the sponsoring agency.

West Juniors Attend Wooster College's Polytechnic Institute

WEST BOYS WITH ENGINEERING INTERESTS — These three West High School juniors and a fourth who wasn't present for the picture, have been chosen to attend the Worchester Polytechnic Institute this week in Worcester, Mass. The boys will be among 80 other Ohio high school juniors attending. The institute is designed for boys interested in entering the field of engineering in college. The students will be given aptitude tests, visit laboratory sessions and go out in the field with trained engineers. Preparing for their departure last Sunday are: left to right, O. Paul Varnell, of 3388 Wicklow-rd; Joe Jacobs of 92 S. Southampton, and Bill Jones, of 243 N. Warren-av. Bob Elliott of 766 S. Harris-av, was not present for the picture.

Kiwanians Present Check To Hilltonia Junior High

Athletic equipment for Hilltonia Junior High School will be purchased with a $100 gift from Hilltop Kiwanis Club. Ray McVey, right, member of the Kiwanis boys and girls committee, made the presentation to L. H. McAllister, school principal.

CORRECTION

Names of two staffers of the Ron Parrish Realty Co., 967 Hodge-dr, were spelled incorrectly in last week's opening ad. The names should have read Miss Helen Wigal and Vern Mohler.

APOLOGIES DUE

The Olson Rug Co. ad appearing last week as a booster for the Holy Family festival carried the wrong telephone number. It should have read CA. 1-9118.

About one-tenth of an egg is shell; the rest is edible.

OLD LEDGER REVEALS

'Bringing Home Bacon' Easier On Budget In 1863 Than 1958

THOSE WERE THE GOOD OLD DAYS—Mrs. Thomas Wright, 46 S. Eureka-av, looks questioningly at the stack of 12 pounds of bacon that could be purchased for $1.56 in 1863. The same amount of money today will buy the two pounds Mrs. Wright holds in her hand. She is an employe at the Chubby Dieterhorst Market, 2445 W. Broad-st.

By Ray Shaffer

People complain about inflation but they would really wince at rising costs if they compared price notes in an old ledger dated 1833 recently found in the Thomas Engineering Co. offices.

The record was kept by Salmon Thomas, owner of a general store in Worthington. It was started in 1833 and extends to 1878. Included are credit accounts, clothing and food prices and the owner's employe pay rate.

Harley Watts, Sr., owner of the local firm, said Salmon was the great-grandfather of James O. Thomas, who founded the engineering company in 1924. James died in 1939, leaving the business to his son, Daniel, who in turn sold it to the Watts family.

Few Paid Cash

Salmon had a booming clock business! He sold 15 of them during April, 1834. They sold for $20 apiece. He was paid with such things as cherry trees, four loads of hay, $20 worth of wagon making, blacksmith work, tailoring and several people even paid cash.

On Monday, March 27, 1837, Josiah Fisher purchased one pair of pants at $1.25, a pair of "drawers" for 56¼ cents and a spade for 88 cents. A cent being divided into quarters was nothing unusual in those days.

In March of 1863, Salmon charged four men $12 for room and board for one week.

A bushel of potatoes sold for $1.25, a pound of pork was 15 cents, thirteen pounds of bacon went for $1.56 while a box of "fancy soap" sold for as unheard of 37½ cents.

"Mr. X" Closes Account

Nov. 19, 1864, a Mr. X paid Salmon $55.65 which ended his indebtedness to the general store. The signature on the receipt reads "This is my mark . . . X." He was among the many in his day who couldn't write.

Salmon Thomas paid his farm laborers by the day, week or sometimes by the month. A day's pay ranged from 50 cents to $1.25. Monthly salary ranged from $8 to $14. But they had labor problems in those days too.

Judging by the ledger, few of Salmon's hired hands ever lasted a month!

This exploration into the past brought forth some rare spelling. Salmon wrote "dolars" for dollars, "weak" for week, "buter" for butter, "tenn" for ten and "Mis" for Miss.

There's one thing to remember while examining these fantastically low prices — even though a pair of shoes ranged in cost from 44 cents to $1.25, a man was paid only about $13 a month for farm labor!

The ledger was discovered in an old bookcase by Harley Watts, Sr., his son, Harley, and Bill Coon., Jr. It was found while moving office equipment from Thomas Engineering Co.'s former address, 2202 W. Broad-st, to its present one at 2808 Sullivant-av.

Not until recently did the Thomas office staff begin to browse through the ledger finding amusement in the general store's dealings between 1833 and 1878.

Pvt Vaughn E. Ullman, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn T. Ullman, 1168 Brown-rd, recently completed the eight-week clerk-typist course under the Reserve Forces Act program at the army armor training center, Fot Knox, Ky.

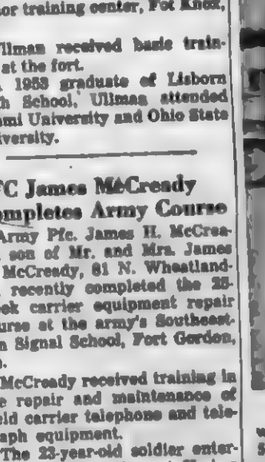
Ullman received basic training at the fort.

A 1953 graduate of Lisborn High School, Ullman attended Miami University and Ohio State University.

PFC James McCready Completes Army Course

Army Pfc. James H. McCready, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. McCready, 81 N. Wheatland-av, recently completed the 25-week carrier equipment repair course at the army's Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

McCready received training in the repair and maintenance of field carrier telephone and telegraph equipment.



The 23-year-old soldier entered the army last August. He is a 1954 graduate of West High School and is a former employe of Weinman Pump Co.

Jack Kamer To Train On Navy's USS Beale

Ohio State University NROTC student Jack E. Kamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kamer, 458 S. Wayne-av, is participating in Midshipman Training Cruise X-Ray II this summer.

He is receiving training in the duties and responsibilities of a Junior Division Officer of the US Navy on board the USS Beale from June 17 to Aug. 2.

Kamer is a 1957 graduate of West High School and is presently a sophomore at OSU in the College of Engineering.

Lincoln Society Founds Special Army And Navy

Emile Reiss, secretary of the Lincoln Historical Association of Ohio, Inc., which meets in old Memorial Hall, reports that the organization has established "Mr. Lincoln's Honorary Army and Navy" in connection with the Abraham Lincoln Sesqui-Centennial to be held in

The honorary military outfits will serve in a drill team capacity for parades, marches and other displays. They will wear uniforms patterned after those of Union Forces during the Civil War.

Reiss, local attorney of 29 N. Wheatland-av, also reports the local Lincoln group has submitted some revisions and suggestions to the Federal Post Office Department about the new four cent Lincoln stamp to be issued Aug. 1, this year.

A special assistant to the Postmaster General said the suggestions of the club are being considered.

Bonnie June Clifton, Edwin F. Brobeck Exchange Marriage Vows On June 14

MRS. EDWIN FRANKLIN BROBECK

White carnations decorated the altar of Hilltop Lutheran Church for the wedding of Miss Bonnie June Clifton and Mr. Edwin Franklin Brobeck on June 14. Rev. John Hydinger officiated at the ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

Given in marriage by a friend, Mr. Robert F. Grosh, the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Earl Clifton of Cleveland. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brobeck of 1156 Oregon-av.

The Chantilly lace bridal gown was designed with a fitted bodice, portrait neckline, elbow-length sleeves and a ballerina-length skirt of ruffled tiers.

Her fingertip veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible mounted with an orchid and streamers of carnations and ivy. Her only jewelry, a strand of pearls, was a gift of the bridegroom.

Patricia Ann Grosh served as maid of honor and Ann McIlyar, as bridesmaid. They were gowned in pink, pleated chiffon with coral cummerbunds and carride cascades of coral carnations.

Mr. Gene Brobeck served as bestman for his brother and ushers were Mr. Donald Blakeslee and Mr. Ronald Waltz.

Hostesses for the reception held at the church following the ceremony were Miss Jean Wagner, Miss Catherine Christoff, Miss Janice Hafey and Miss Patricia Hill.

The new Mrs. Brobeck was graduated from West High and is secretary to the sales manager of Kimell Co. Her husband, also a graduate of West High, is enrolled as a junior in the College of Education at Ohio State University.

Following a wedding trip to Virginia Beach and Washington, D. C., the couple will be at home at 1156 Oregon-av.

Hoge Memorial Church Is Scene Of Booth-Elder Marriage Rites

MRS. FREDERICK [illegible] ELDER

Miss Barbara Ann Booth and Mr. Frederick Milton Elder repeated their marriage vows June 21, 2:30 p.m., at Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church. Rev. A. J. Wold read the marriage service before an altar decorated with chancel bouquets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums, and candelabra wound with greenery and bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Calvin Booth, 509 S. Brinker-av, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Milton Elder, 616 S. Westgate-av.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's floor-length gown of taffeta and chantilly lace was designed with a fitted bodice, oval neckline and short sleeves. Lace encircled the dropped waistline and rows of the same lace encircled the full skirt of taffeta.

A crown of iridescents and pearls held her finger-tip veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of French fuji petals with lily of the valley and stephanotis bells. Shower streamers were tied in lover's knots and florets.

Miss Beverly Booth served as maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Gotter Miss Sheila Castellarin, Miss Jean Walters, all of Columbus, and Miss Soula Dontchos of Xenia.

They were gowned identically in moss green silk organza frocks, styled with oval necklines, short sleeves, princess-gored skirts and white embroidered band at the waistline forming bows and sashes in back.

They carried white French baskets filled with pink sweetheart roses and sprays of euphorbia. Mr. Jerald Ruffner served as best man and guests were seated by Mr. Byron Booth, brother of the bride; Mr. Bill Myers, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. David Apel and Mr. Roger Thompson.

Mrs. Booth chose for her daughter's wedding a beige peau de soie gown, trimmed with lace, and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink silk linen sheath with iridescents at the neckline and matching accessories. Each pinned a white glamellia corsage to her clutch purse.

Hostesses for the reception held immediately following the ceremony at the church were Mrs. Bill Myers, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Marlene Schad, Mrs. Richard Sensenbrenner, Miss Joan Moore, Miss Joan Courtney, Miss Nancy Scheider of Marysville.

The new Mrs. Elder was graduated from Ohio State University where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and served as president of the Women's Self Government Association and Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary. She was a member of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary.

Mr. Elder, also a graduate of Ohio State University, was a member of Ohio Staters, Inc., and of Sphinx, senior men's honorary, and Phi Alpha Theta, honorary.

Following a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, the couple will reside at 616 S. Westgate-av until August when they will move to Princeton, N.J., where Mr. Elder will enter Princeton Theological Seminary.

About The Hilltop

Up at Vandalia, O., the R. G. Weinharts became the proud parents of another baby girl, Marcia, Ann, May 7. Mrs. Weinhart is the former Shirley Shroyer, daughter of the Lowell Shroyers. Paternal grandmother is Mrs. Louella Weinhart . . . Over the week-end, Bobbette Ann Gunville, daughter of the W. T. Gunvilles, former Westgate residents, was in town. The Gunville family, now residing in Cincinnati, will soon be announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter to John G. Hoyt III, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Toyt of that city. They are planning a honeymoon in Europe.

At this writing Cpl. Donald R. Beck is stationed with the Third Marine Division at Camp Hague, Okinawa . . . Last week, Frank Lombard, left for Canada on a fishing trip with a group of local execs. Mr. Lombard is the local manager of Otis Elevator Co. . . . After a vacation at Buckeye Lake, the Frank Hooks arrived home with the keep full of fish . . . On July 2, Mrs. Jack Spanable (the former Marcia Weber) will leave here with her baby, red carpet style, to join her husband, Jack Spanable, who is stationed with the U.S. Air Force in the Philippines.

Last week, Jim Loomis, who has been residing on the Navajo Reservation while working on the Navajo Dam in New Mexico, arrived in town for a vacation stay . . . The Bob Neiderhouses are home after a vacation stay in Florida . . . Sunday a-week, Mary Paxton of the confectionery clan left for a short stay at Lake Erie.

Did you know? The Lloyd Hoovers are vacationing in Florida . . . This summer, Elsie Kimes, is enrolled in the College of Education at Ohio State University . . . At this writing, George Woodland (Woodie) is seriously ill at White Cross Hospital . . . This past week, the Condon twin sisters, Ilean and Bernie, arrived in town with their respective husbands, James Guess of San Diego, and Jack Jones of Florida, for a stay with their family . . . Everybody's welcome to St. Agnes Athletic dance "Under the Stars", sponsored by the Athletic Association. Aggy Stabile's orchestra will play. Among those serving on the committee are Jack McAndrew, Forest Compton and Harold Little.

The unit of Marines established at the Bayonne, N.J., Naval Supply Depot in 1941 to guard the gate has been withdrawn. The gate will be guarded by civilians.

Bethlehem Lutheran To Be Dedicated Sunday

Rev. Paul R. Milheim

Rev. William L. Nies

Bethlehem Lutheran congregation will dedicate its new church at Harris-av and Vida-pl, on Sunday, June 29. The date is also the sixth anniversary of Rev. Paul R. Milheim's installation as pastor.

There will be a full day of activities, beginning with Sunday School at 9:15 a.m. At 10:30 Rev. William L. Nies, pastor of Mt. Zion Lutheran Church, Detroit, will be the guest preacher for the dedication service.

Open house will be held from 2 to 4:30 p.m., when all members, friends and guests from neighboring congregations are invited to inspect the new building, its Sunday School facilities, lounge, kitchen, etc.

At the 7:30 p.m. vesper service, Rev. E. J. Klamfoth, former pastor of Bethlehem, will be the liturgist, and Rev. Kenneth Priebe, president of the Ohio district, will be the guest speaker.

Organ Recital Set

On Wednesday evening, July 2, at 8 p.m., Robert C. Johnson will present a recital on the new Baldwin organ. He will also conduct the special music service in which both the senior and junior choirs will participate.

The new church is an extension of the original Bethlehem Lutheran, which was dedicated Feb. 14, 1937, and cost approximately $20,000. Its charter membership totaled 48.

The present structure will cost around $165,000 and the membership now numbers more than 600, Rev. Milheim stated.

Frederick W. Stritzal, a member of the congregation, served as architect.

Church Sets 'First Shovel' Rites Sunday

Ground-breaking services for the new Highland Avenue Friends Church will be held at the church's new location, 2750 Sullivant-av, Sunday afternoon at 3.

Plans for construction on the building will begin immediately.

Rev. Leonard Wines, pastor, will speak at the service and the program will be conducted by the local ministry and oversight body.

Public is invited to attend.

Bible School To Purchase Finger-Phonos For Liberia

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL GIFT—Mike Evans, of 287 Eldon-av, a student of Hilltop Christian Church's Vacation Bible School, and Mrs. Jack Reagan, dean of the school, are looking over one of the finger-phonos the school plans to send to missionaries in Liberia.

Hilltop Christian Church's Daily Vacation Bible School is using its offerings to purchase a new item offered by the American Bible Society as an aid to foreign missionaries.

Mrs. Jack Reagan, of 355 S. Eureka-av, dean of the Bible School, said the offering money will be used to purchase finger-phonos and records to be sent to missionaries in Liberia.

Finger-phonos are manually-operated phonographs propelled by the finger. Bible Scriptures recorded in various languages are produced for the small machine. A package of three phonographs and 18 records can be purchased for $10.

Mrs. Reagan said the Bible School students have given enough money to buy six phonographs and hope to purchase nine by the time school ends this Friday.

The phonographs are excellent for small European villages that don't have electricity. The Bible School is sending records carrying the story of Jesus Christ recorded in the Glo language of Liberia.

The American Bible Society reports that finger-phonos have been used with great success among the Navajo Indians in Mexico. Recordings are now being prepared for many other countries in the world to aid the work of missionaries.

St. Agnes Group To Hold Dance For 'Older Set'

Teenagers have plenty of opportunity for summer dancing activity through many functions planned by local groups but the St. Agnes Church Parish has decided to give Hilltop's adult residents a chance for some light-steppin'.

The Athletic Association of St. Agnes will sponsor the "moonlight dance" to be held "under the stars" Saturday, June 28, 9 to 12 p.m., at the church grounds.

Iggy Stabili and his orchestra will provide the music. Admission is by reservation only, which can be made by calling BR. 4-2075 or BR. 4-6414.

Bible Class Sets Pilgrimage Date

Keystone Bible Class of Hillcrest Baptist Church will hold its annual pilgrimage Sunday, June 29.

A lakeside picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Evans of Port Clinton will be included.

School Principals Are Transferred By Board

Administrative personnel changes and other transfers in the city's public school system that affect this area were announced last week in a meeting of the Columbus Board of Education. They are as follows:

William L. Weber, 99 S. Westgate-av, transferred from principal of Greenlawn and Sullivant Elementary Schools to principal of Como Elementary. He has been principal of the two schools two years. He has taught at John Burroughs and was principal of Bellows and Sullivant Elementary Schools for three years.

Mrs. Mary Montebello, [illegible] Bellwood-ct, promoted from administrative cadet to principal of Franklinton Elementary. She has a BS degree from St. Mary of the Springs and an MA from [illegible]. She joined Columbus schools in 1953 and taught at Deshler Elementary School.

James L. Tefft, 221 Piedmont-rd, principal of West Mound Elementary, will also head the staff of the new Lindbergh Elementary School when it is completed this fall. He has a BS and an MA degree from OSU. He has been principal of West Mound for one year.

Miss Evelyn Swickard of New Albany has been transferred from principal of Como Elementary to principal of Bellows Avenue. Miss Swickard has been at Como four years. She joined the school system in 1936 and has BS and MA degrees from OSU.

Amos C. Snide, 1239 E. Hudson-st, promoted from cadet to principal of Sullivant and Greenlawn Elementary Schools. He has BS and MA degrees from Ohio University and has done additional graduate work at OSU. Snide was a teacher at Franklinton Elementary for one year.

Francis Binkley, 84 Delandav, transferred from principal of Fairwood Elementary to the same position at Dana Avenue Elementary. He has been at Fairwood two years and prior to this assignment was principal of Highland Avenue Elementary. Binkley has BS and MA degrees from OSU and joined the city's school system in 1937.

Edgar M. Hancock, 2646 Purdue-av, principal of Franklinton and Bellows Avenue Elementary Schools, has been transferred as principal of North Linden Elementary. He has been a teacher at Greenlawn Elementary three years, principal of Franklinton and Greenlawn two, and principal of Franklinton and Bellows two years.

Miss Anna Freeman, 2320 Neil-av, has been promoted from administrative cadet to principal of Heyl Avenue Elementary. She has a BS from Capital University and an MA from OSU. She joined the Columbus public schools in 1947 and has taught at Bellows, First Avenue and Hamilton Elementary Schools before becoming an administrative cadet this last year.

Hilltoppers Are Reserve Officers

Four Hilltop men were among recent Ohio State University graduates who were commissioned as second lieutenants in the U. S. Army Reserve. All have completed four-year training programs at the university.

The new officers are John H. Bolg, 156½ S. Burgess-av, Corps of Engineers; Gary C. Koontz, 169 S. Sylvan-av, Infantry; Roy F. Martin, 337 S. Burgess-av, Transportation Corps; and Lawrence E. O'Brien, 319 S. Angonquin-va, Transportation Corps.

Pvt. Capehart Is Active In Army Field Exercises

Army Pvt. Marvin Capehart, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Capehart, 100 N. Warren-av, recently participated in a field training exercise conducted by the 4th Armored Division near Grafenwohr, Germany.

A truck driver in Service Battery of the division's 32nd Artillery, Capehart entered the Army in February 1957. He completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex., and arrived in Europe last November.

Capehart attended West High School.

Pvt. Groves In Army Day Fete

Pvt. Loren F. Groves, son of Emory R. Groves, 512 W. Broad-st, participated in Army Day activities with the 501st Armored Medical Company in Germany.

Groves, a truck driver in the company, entered the army in March 1957, completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and arrived in Europe in August 1957.

The 18-year-old soldier attended London High School.

Columbus Cop Is Arrested On Burglary Rap

Patrolman Paul R. Howard of the Columbus Police Department, stating that he was "hopelessly in debt," admitted that he and two accomplices had attempted to burglarize a flower shop on E. Broad-st a week ago last Wednesday.

Howard, 32, of 662 Darrow-rd, was arrested at his home the following evening by fellow police officers. He was implicated in the attempt by 20-year old Willie Battle, 327 E. Engler st, and Willie Armstrong, 28, 325 E. Noble-st. Battle was apprehended near the scene shortly after the attempt failed.

Howard has four children, eight through 12, and his wife works in the police secretary's office. She has been ill and was recently released from the hospital after undergoing surgery.

Wages of both parents had been attached for payment of debts.

Howard has been on the force for almost eight years, having had a spotless record except for the debts.

Sensenbrenner Says He'll Veto Gravel Lease

Sharply admonishing City Council, Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner stated last Wednesday that he would veto an ordinance allowing private concerns to exploit gravel rights on city property.

Council had passed the ordinance in the face of negative recommendations by both the Planning and the Parks comissions, which is what Sensenbrenner deplored.

Service Director Floyd C. Redick had vehemently fought the ordinance. The mayor's veto would represent a victory for Redick and a defeat for democratic council president, W. Wesley Llewelyn, who sponsored the bill.

Llewelyn had accused Redick of retreating from the issue at every chance, offering lame excuses for his opposition to it, and told the mayor that Redick has been deliberately misleading him (Sensenbrenner) and the parks commission in order that they will oppose the ordinance.

The council president reported that in a conference he had with the mayor last week, Sensenbrenner hinted that he might still change his mind and refrain from vetoing the bill.

Should the mayor permit the ordinance to pass, rights for a gravel lease would go to the Visintine Equipment Corp.

The lease would cover a 40 acre section of the west bank of the Scioto River, north of Frank-rd.

The Division of Parks has expressed a desire to use this land for a nursery.

Franklin Village Children's Home Cuts Services

Lack of finances and hazards of communicable diseases have served temporarily to halt the acceptance of children into the Franklin Village children's home.

James W. Grant, Child Welfare board executive secretary, reported that there now are 85 children in the home which was built to handle only 25. He listed measles, ringworm, infectious conjunctivitis, worms (intestinal), trench mouth, throat infections, impetigo, and chicken pox among the diseases now suffered by children in the [illegible] medical center. He blamed crowded living conditions for the fact that the diseases so frequently crop up in various stages of infection and reinfection.

Grant told newspapers that the financial crisis confronting the Village is going to force him to close two cottages, thereby sending children back to their parents, and to lay off about 14 employees in maintenance and clerical jobs.

Chief Philip Momburg of the Police Juvenile Bureau stated that Grant was not to blame for the situation, but that voters who refused to uphold a welfare levy should shoulder the responsibility.

Editors To Interview Delmar G. Starkey

Delmar G. Starkey, secretary and general manager of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, will be the featured guest on "The Editors Meet," at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 28, on WOSU Radio.

Editors interviewing Starkey will be Corwin Pierce of Pierce Publications, Eleanor Boardman of the Tri-Village News and C. Carlton Hartley of Hartley Publications.

Move To Ban Sack Dress

A movement is reported on foot by rod and gun clubs and conservation groups to ban the sack dress from all fishing waters, according to R. F. Jennings, public relations director of the Cortland Line Co., Inc.

There is a feeling that this garb encourages female anglers to exceed legal bag limits of fish which can be concealed easily within the copius confines of the garment. This will not apply in Ohio as there is no legal length or bag limit on any kind of fish.

One tackle dealer, who also handles hardware, reports that a lady customer in sack dress made off with one of his best wheelbarrows without changing her contours.

Ten Word INTELLIGRAM

Rector To Enter NROTC Program

John Marcus Rector, son of Mrs. Martha A. Rector, 46 S. Harris-av, will participate this summer in the Midshipman Aviation Amphibious Indoctrination Training Cruise as a member of the Ohio State University NROTC program.

Rector will receive training in the duties and responsibilities of a Junior Division Officer of the US Navy at the Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, Virginia, and the US Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas. The training period will run from July 9 to August 20.

Midshipman Rector is a January '56 graduate of West High School. At the university he is studying architecture, is a member of Alpha Rho Chi fraternity, and is art editor of the Ohio State Engineer.

Hilltop Agents Attend Confab

Two agents of Nationwide Insurance will represent the Hilltop at the company-wide sales convention June 29-July 1 in Columbus.

The agents are Clyde Major and Harold Waits with offices at the Central Point Shopping Center. They will be accompanied by Earl Rader, 4915 Maidenwy, district sales manager for West Franklin County.

More than 4,000 persons, including 2000 agents from 17 states, will attend the three-day meeting. It will be the first company-wide gathering in seven years, and one of the largest sales conventions in the history of Ohio's capital city.

ISON BUILDS

Clarence V. Ison, 220 S. Harris-av, has a permit to erect a two-story frame dwelling at 2531-33 Steele-av.

Hip, Hip, Hooray! The Fourth Is Really Somethin' For Them!

FOUR FOR THE FOURTH . . . and a portion of that birthday cake! Friday will be more than a national holiday at the home of Calvin M. Coon, 530 Woodbury-av. It marks not only his birthday, but also the birthdays of his twin daughters, and of his sister, Mrs. Harold Day of Lebanon, O. Mrs. Day, who joined in a family birthday party at the Coon home Sunday, is holding Patricia Lee, while Calvin holds Teresa Lee. Or is it the other way around? Anyway, the twins are one year old!

Festive Weekend Is Forecast

Magly Field Opening To Crowd At 7 p.m.

Upwards of 10,000 Hilltoppers will climax a safe and sane Fourth of July by attending the 9 p.m. display of fireworks at West High's Magly Field.

This marks the seventh year the Hilltop Lions have sponsored the family community event as their contribution to the patriotic observance of the holiday.

Carl Strickler, chairman of this year's celebration, declared that the more than $1000 set aside for the event would insure the loudest and most colorful display ever seen here.

Here's the timetable:

Gates of stadium open at 7 p.m.; "live" and recorded talent show begins at 7:30 p.m.; and fireworks go off at 9 p.m.

Ziggy Coyle's Orchestra will play for the program, which will be presented from the chassis of a huge trailer loaned by the Weaver Trailer Co.

Bill Mertz, popular WVKO radio disc jockey and star of "Bill's Basement," will serve as master of ceremonies.

Entertainment will include the barbershop harmony singing of the Crawford Brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crawford, 185 N. Burgess-av, and Miss Jan Wihl, 334 S. Richardson-av, widely-acclaimed comedy pantominist.

The Crawford Brothers have attained at least "semi-professional status" by virtue of their many appearances before local audiences and on Columbus and nearby radio and TV programs. The three brothers—Jack 15, Bill 16 and Dave 13—have been singing as a group for the last eight years. They attained national prominence on the Herb Shriner television program two years ago.

Miss Wihl, who has been lectured for the last two years as an entertainer at the Everglades Restaurant and who will return there in the fall, has presented her distinctive comedy-pantomime routines before social and service organizations throughout central Ohio. A "show stopper" at last year's Fourth of July celebration, she has promised several different impersonations this year.

PROMISE BIG AERIAL SHOW

Grand finale of the fireworks program will be the sketching in fireworks of a blazing American flag. Other details of the contract with the Columbus Fireworks Display Co. call for firing of 19 ground pieces, 80 aerial shells, 12 daylight aerial bombs to remind the community of the event, and 30 shells for the grand finale.

Two policement will assist in maintaining proper safety measures within the stadium and additional police will help keep the heavy flow of traffic moving smoothly after the event. At least 40 members of the Hilltop Lions will also assist in conduct of the affair.

It's all in fun as eight-year-old Carla cowers behind the Hilltop Lions Club banner while her father, Charles Strickler, chairman of this year's Hilltop Fourth of July celebration lights a huge fake firecracker. Just as Carla feels safe behind the banner, so may the community enjoy the Fourth safely at West High School's Magly Field.

Bean Dinner in 1959?

The heavy downpour that hit the Hilltop Bean Dinner last Wednesday evening may have dampened the spirits of many who participated in the preparation of the big event and some are asking already, "Will there be a bean dinner in 1959?"

Had the very fine weather of last Tuesday continued through Wednesday the 1958 edition of the bean dinner would have been a big success. The very large attendance Tuesday evening predicted success. No one has found a way to foretell accuracy in the weather or how to compete with it in outdoors events and it is one of the big chances taken in sponsoring such an event.

Commuities like this need large community events however, and so we predict that if it isn't a bean dinner it will be something of the sort in a big community celebration comes next year.

DANCE AT WESTGATE SET AFTER DISPLAY

A free dance for teenagers will be held Friday, July 4, 9:30 to 11:30 p.m., at Westgate Park, following the fireworks display at Magly Field.

The "Classmen," a band featuring Johnny Rogers, will provide "live" music for the dance, which will be sponsored and chaperoned by members of the Hilltop Lions Club.

Dance contests, door prizes and refreshments will be provided by the Lions.

This will be the fourth in a series of summer dances to be held weekly at Westgate Park, scheduled by the Hilltop Youth Council.

Mrs. H. C. Booth of the Hilltop Community Council, is the advisor for the dances. Jerry Hummel is the teen chairman.

Betterment League Seeks Action On Traffic Signal

Hilltop Betterment League will meet Saturday evening to discuss further strategy in its quest for a traffic light at Highland and Sullivant-avs. The meeting has been called for 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, 226 Highland-av.

The group had a hearing with the Traffic Commission June 17 and was denied its petition for the signal.

"The organization was disappointed," said Wilbert Pack, public relations secretary. "It was suggested by the traffic committee that in the fall when school opens we could resubmit our petitions."

Pack continued, "This area is a hazard for pedestrians, not just school children during the rush hours. Trying to cross Sullivant-av to catch a bus or to shop during these hours is dangerous. The closing of schools did not lessen the hazard."

"We do not believe a list of fatalities in this area is necessary when personal observation by this committee could prevent such," Pack insisted. "We intend to continue our efforts to get this light," he concluded.

The Betterment League has contacted C. O. Tyree, court probation officer, regarding juvenile delinquency. Tyree replied that he has a challenge to offer on youth problems here. He has been invited to meet with the organization on Saturday, July 19. All interested citizens are invited to the session.

On June 19 a delegation from the league toured the Columbus State Hospital, with Victor Ewald, director of volunteer services. Members, many of whom had never seen the institution before, learned how they can aid in work at the hospital. The group has offered its assistance.

Other HBL officers are Julious Tanner, president, and Horace Toler, secretary.

Rev. W. George, Retired Pastor Of West Park, Dies

Rev. William Martell George, 67, 455 S. Huron-av, retired pastor of West Park Methodist Church, died early this morning at White Cross Hospital, where he had been a patient for the past nine weeks.

Rev. William M. George

His retirement last June marked the end of 46 years in the ministry, with 10 years' service at West Park.

Rev. George was a past president of West Side Ministers Fellowship and a member of West Gate Lodge, F&AM.

Surviving are his wife, Mabel; son, Rev. Donald George, pastor chaplain of Tulane University in New Orleans; two daughters, Mrs. Emerson Roush of Lancaster and Mrs. Donald Preuninger of Marion; six grandchildren; one brother, Paul George of Reynoldsburg.

Friends may call at Wylie S Shroyer Funeral Home, 1278 W Broad-st. Services will be held Saturday at West Park Methodist Church.

Brookshire Plan To Be Submitted

Congregation of Brookshire Methodist Church will vote on plans for the proposed new church building Sunday, July 15.

Sumitted plans must be approved by the congregation. The building will be erected at the end of Harris-av in the Brookshire Addition.

George Hardy Hits Standard Jackpot

This has been a good week for George Hardy who lives at 566 S. Richardson-av. He checked the Standard Oil License Plate Jackpot numbers in the Glen Hamilton Sohio Station, Sullivant and Hague and found he was a winner of $1000.

Friday Is Picnic Day At Jet Park

For families who like fireworks and baseball too there is a big package Friday evenings at Jets Stadium, W. Mound-st.

A 5:30 p.m. July 4 doubleheader against the Havana Sugar Kings will highlight the Jets' return this week.

A picnic between games and a fireworks display following the completion of the twin bill will be features of the July 4 double header. The first game will be a seven-inning contest, with an hour between games.

Fans bringing picnic suppers will be able to check their baskets and other accessories free of charge at the stadium. Picnic tables will be provided by the Jet management.

The gates will open at 4:30 p.m. in time for fans to have their picnic before the first game.

Storm Upsets 'Best Ever' Bean Feast

Torrents of rain, Wednesday night, put a "damper" on the most fabulous Bean Dinner ever staged on the Hilltop.

Tuesday's crowd, so large that many were turned away because even the immense parking area provided was inadequate, signalled approval of the affair. Their enthusiastic reception of a tremendous program, enlarged midway and the exhibits, seemed to assure the event's financial success

But heartsick committee members watched Wednesday's downpour wash away their months of hard work along with hopes for a sizeable contribution to the Hilltop YMCA Building Fund.

Planned as a profit-making project, proceeds from this year's event, had it been successful, would have given the 'Y' fund a hearty assist. Exact status of the venture won't be known until all bills are received and receipts totalled.

Committee members planning earlier dates for the event, gambled that rain in June was less of a threat to capacity crowds than the intense heat of July.

Another factor of importance was availability of the rides. Previous contracts for fairs and festivals during July committed most of the better rides. Scheduling the event for June made 17 of the best, most interesting ones available.

Rain failed to completely dampen spirits of the crowd. Marooned in hangers, they mingled with old friends, enjoyed the exhibits and, of course, feasted on beans and homemade pie and cake.

Nine five-gallon cans of beans, left at the end of the evening, were given to Franklin Village

Val-U-House proved to be a "good neighbor" to an adjoining exhibitor, J. Curtis Allen. When a leaky hanger roof over Allen's photography display threatened to ruin expensive equipment, Val-U-House offered the use of a tent in his own exhibit to house cameras and film

A few drenched merrymakers, caught on rides when the rain started, braved the downpour by continuing on other rides.

The wind blew and the feathers flew—Hilltop YMCA tent with its display of activities and crafts including Indian headdresses, was a casualty of strong winds. Everything was rescued, as willing hands brought order out of chaos

Among Wednesday program features cancelled because of rain, was the "Price is Right" auction, scheduled for 9:30 p.m. Prizes reserved for the event were given away by direct drawings and to "on the spot" winners.

One hundred and fifty valuable merchandise prizes, as well as 100 silver dollars were distributed during the two-day affair.

BEAN DREAM. Readily accepting the big $25 Bean Dinner jackpot from Hilltop Record Editor Marcus Orr is a mother-daughter team who live at 218 Belvidere-av and subscribe to Hilltop Record. Receiving the Confederate cash, is Mrs. Fred J. Renner and daughter Rose. Subscribers to the four other Hartley Newspapers were also eligible.

Hilltopper Snares Cash Award

A Hilltop mother and daughter found themselves $35 richer last week.

The name of Mrs. Fred J. Renner and her daughter, Rose, of 218 Belvidere-av, was pulled last week from a box containing slips signed by thousands of Hartley Newspaper subscribers who visited the Bean Dinner.

* * *

Subscribers to any of the five Hartley Newspapers — Hilltop Record, Rural-Urban News, South-East Rural-Urban News, West Side News and South Side Leader — were eligible to register for the drawing.

The Renners have been subscribers to the Hilltop Record for 16 years.

* * *

Mrs. Renner plans to use the money to buy "school clothes" for her daughter who will enter her senior year at West High School next fall.

The Confederate money may be spent at any merchants who advertised in one of the five newspapers last week.

Bean Contest Winner Gets Case Of Same

JUST IN TIME—Canned beans are traditional camping fare and Mrs. J. P. Compton, 46 N. Chase-av, claimed a whole case of them as her prize in Hartley Newspapers' contest, in time for the family camping trip next week. Mrs. Compton formed the best sentence from deliberately misspelled words in Bean Dinner ads.

Mrs. J. P. Compton, first prize winner in this year's misspelled word contest, sponsored by Hartley Newspapers, was second place prize winner in the same competition last year.

She also won ten silver dollars at last year's Bean Dinner and was a recent winner of a $200 contour chair in a guessing contest.

She and her husband, with their three children, have planned a camping trip to Lake Erie next week.

Kids Win Silver Dollar Prizes

Program of games and contests, conducted at the Hilltop Bean Dinner Tuesday afternoon, was repeated Wednesday.

Winners of silver dollar prizes in the events were Lois Bryant, Fay Halley, Jackie Willie, Russell Carper, Nancy Wooddell, Debbie Nelson, William Moore, Jerry Spence, Anne Sexton, Colleen Russell.

Judy Nelson, Steve Fain, Lynn Daniels, David Osburn, Robert Kryzler, Arnold Jackson, Judy Imie, Hans Nemes, Jackie Schriedeer and John Yinger.

Fire Ruins Clubhouse At Born's

By Myrtle Kidd
BR. 4-2649

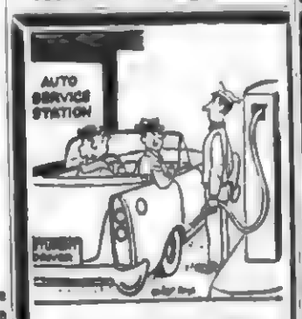
Firemen were called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Born, 2215 Eakin-rd, Saturday, when a fire broke out in a combined club house and storage room at the rear of the home. Nothing was saved, even though firemen from the city and township answered the call quickly.

Contents of the club house considered of model airplanes, electric trains and such belongings to Bill Born and a cousin, Richard Phillips, who spent most of their time playing there. Lost in storage were tires, outboard motor and a tractor. There was a reported loss of several hundred dollars.

Mrs. Lula Kasper of Clarendon-av was visited over the weekend by Mrs. Lee Waugh and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Llyions and children from Ashland, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hill of Midland-av had as a visitor two days last week, Mrs. B. C. Casto from Huntington, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Irvin and family of Clarendon-av spent several vacation days visiting at Pikeville, Ky.



Mrs. Coila Irvin of Vadis-st is on a trip to California with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aleshire and family of Grove City.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cooper and daughter, Davalene of Reav spent the week end in Kentucky.

Oceans Of 'Bubbles In The Air' Captivate Sailplane Enthusiasts

Airways are thrilling ways to members of the Columbus Soaring Association.

Twenty members, including one woman, compose this well-knit group of sailplane enthusiasts. Meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of each month at the North American Club room. Sixty per cent of the members work at North American.

Principles of soaring were first applied by efficient Germans after World War I, stated Lee A. Washburn, 3130 Fishinger-rd, operations chairman. "Because of the conflict that had just ended, the Germans were not allowed to use power planes," he explained.

They first took up slope soaring. They thought that something must happen when wind hits the side of a mountain; it cannot go through it. They figured that sufficient air rebounds upward to enable them to make a glider take-off.

Since then, more scientific procedure has brought out the fact that when the hot rays of the sun hit dark patches of earth the air is heated. As this heated air expands, it rises. Other air rushes to take its place.

"Bubbles" are formed by the ascending air. It is these bubbles, or thermal currents as they are known in the soaring trade, that allow gliders to remain aloft for hours.

"The funny thing about it," pointed out Club President Ralph Turner, "is that sailplanes are constantly descending. But thermals are rising faster than the glider falls." It is much the same as a man walking down an escalator that is going up at a faster rate.

The association's glider lessons are held at Cardosi Airport on Alton-rd. The aircraft is either towed by a winch or power plane until airborne. From then on it is up to the pilot to keep his ship in the air.

"Looking for thermals in the air is as hard as finding a needle in a haystack, even though there may be more around," said Washburn. He has been flying since 1933.

"We watch for buzzards and hawks that circle hours on end without lifting a wing, then head for those spots."

Mostly it takes experience to determine where the bubbles are. Little air bumps that pilots of power planes try to avoid are the ones these modern day Icarians hope to find.

Safety is constantly stressed by the association. Members are not to fly nearer than 500 feet to the foot of a cloud base. "These thermals usually dissipate as the air gets cooler, but air currents near thunderhead formations can get pretty rough at times."

Distance record for a glider is 540 miles. The sailplanes leave a bubble close to the top and head for the bottom of another one.

Lessons are given on weekends and holidays and consist of half hour flights. "Cost per lesson runs approximately 33 cents," Washburn said.

According to the soarists, there is nothing quite like the thrill of a glider ride—all alone in a big ocean of blue sky, with not a sound but that of the wind whistling past the plane.

To paraphrase Robert Louis Stevenson, "I love to go up in a glider, up in the air so blue. I think it is the most pleasantest thing ever a person can do."

Schools and colleges in the United States and Canada reduced their losses from major fires in 1957 by more than $1,500,000 compared with the previous year.

Report Usefulness Of Good 'Backseat Driver' On Trips

Mr. Traffic Accident should be well-rested by now after his busy Memorial Day weekend and in fine shape for his Fourth of July ordeal.

The Columbus Automobile Club has come up with some unique ideas about the advantages of good "backseat drivers" and their potential asset to safe, enjoyable motoring on holidays and during general travel.

Actually, statistics from the Ohio Department of Highway Safety show that Mr. Traffic Accident has had a fairly light year thus far in this state.

May's 141 traffic fatalities including Memorial Day figures, have slacked off 22 percent from last May and 13 per cent from the same month in 1956. Good backseat drivers can help keep this coming weekend's fatalities at a minimum too.

"Backseat driving, done intelligently, can be a big help to the driver of a car," states Russell H. Campbell, general manager of the Columbus Automobile Club.

He added, "In fact, the passenger who supplies useful information without irritating the driver and distracting him from the job of watching the road can contribute much to safe and enjoyable motoring."

Campbell suggested the following "do's and don'ts" for non-drivers while sitting in the passenger's seat:

"Never startle the driver. Don't shout look to call the driver's attention to a beautiful sunset or some scenic attraction. As his involuntary reflexes snap his head around at your exclamation, the car ahead may suddenly slow down, or another car may pull out from a side road.

"Don't irritate the driver by continuously pointing out hazards, traffic signs and driving conditions that are perfectly obvious to him.

"Learn to read maps. If possible, take the full responsibility for navigating on long trips. Read road signs and other bits of interesting information aloud.

Don't just point them out to the driver and cause him to take his eyes off the road.

"On long trips, don't fall asleep. Stay awake and keep the driver company—or he may join you in slumber, with disasterous results!

'Converse with the driver, but don't argue, about or get him angry.

"Be helpful. Light the driver's cigarette, tune the radio, unwrap the candy bars. If the driver tries to do two things at once, they may be the last things he ever does."

"Too many people take driving for granted," Campbell said. It's a full-time job for one man, but if the passenger will think of himself as a co-driver he will make motoring easier for everyone," he added.

Make July Fourth a day independent from traffic tragedy in your home.

Advertising is the good servant of those who really know how to use it.

Science Supports Genesis

The story of creation in Genesis, some allege, comes into conflict with science. But there is no real conflict if the story is properly interpreted. On the contrary, there's very real agreement.

The story of Genesis was written before the days of scientific investigation, before the testimony of the rocks was discovered or understood. Scientists have probed the records that God has written in nature, in the rocks, and in various other manifestations. We know that man's roots are a great deal further back than was formerly supposed.

What Genesis teaches is that creation was a process of bringing order out of chaos and this is exactly reinforced by modern science. Scientists have discovered a great many details concerning that long process but, so far as the essential truth is concerned, science has not gone beyond the Genesis story.

This fact is strongly emphasized in a book, "The Days of Creation," by Willy Ley, written from the standpoint of science. The writer has stressed the general parallelism without going into detail.

The great mistake was in reading with narrow literalism what is really the great poem of creation. The marvel is that this poem, written ages before the era of scientific discovery, should be confirmed in the general conception of creation.

Dear Son

Vernon Is 'Visiting' Chittlin' Jail

Chittlin' Switch,
Sunday afternoon.

Dear Jason:

I was reading in the Daily Bugle yesterday that your old buddy, Vernon Stench, was arrested again for drunken driving. Vernon has been up in front of Judge Potts eighteen times in the past year and the Judge has come to dislike him. Anyway, he was found not guilty of drunken driving and then the Judge asked him what he was doing for work these days. Vernon told him he was working at the General Hospital as an orderly. When the Judge heard that he gave Vernon six months for panhandling.

For years your father has tried his best to become a member of the Moonshiner's Benevolent Society over in Pasture Flats but he wasn't very successful. Last week he found out that at their weekly meeting he was nominated as a club member and I thought that he'd be real happy about it. However, after thinking it over, he says that he doesn't want to have anything to do with the lodge whatsoever. Paw says that any organization that is low enough to accept him as a member he wants to steer clear of. Your Paw is a man of principle.

Speaking of principle, I had to have a good heart-to-heart talk with your sister, Ophelia. I told her that she'd simply have to get her mind off of the boys and get busy with her school work. She's not too smart in school and if she wants to get promoted to the fifth grade next year she'd better begin to learn. The other day the teacher asked on her to spell Mississippi. Ophelia asked her which Mississippi. The river or the state.

Guess that this is all for now. Oh, yes. Here's a very funny story I heard that you might use the next time a conversation gets dull. Like when you're at a luncheon at your Captain's house. Ask him if he ever heard the joke about the two blood corpuscles who loved in vein. It's a gasser, son.

Write soon.
Your loving,
MOM.

HOW TO PICK YOUR PICNIC STEAKS

What kind of meat to buy for picnicking this weekend is the No. 1 problem for many food shoppers. Will it be steak for your family, regardless of price? If so, meat experts have some suggestions.

For broiling over a charcoal fire these meat experts say a well-marbled steak is essential. By marbling they mean steaks with fat interspersed within the lean. A well-marbled steak will usually be tender and juicy when broiled . . . if it comes from a young beef animal.

You have no way of judging this last point, but federal meat graders do . . . and you can take advantage of their knowledge by using U.S. grades as a guide in picking your picnic steak.

USDA Prime and Choice grades provide steaks which are good for broiling. You can easily tell if beef is federally graded. On the fat covering you will find one or more purple shield-shaped stamps enclosing the grade name and the letters USDA. This shield grade mark is registered in the U.S. Patent Office for your protection. If you are buying pre-packaged steak information is on the label.

Selecting the appropriate cut is just as important as knowing quality when you're buying beef for broiling. Porterhouse, T-bone, sirloin and club steaks are the best. However, a rib steak compares favorably with these in tenderness and flavor, and usually costs less per pound.

Ground Beef — May be the choice of many of us who need to keep an eye on the budget. Try shaping the beef patties ready-to-cook the night before, then refrigerate. You'll find they hold together better for broiling.

Try Filled Hamburger Patties

Make patties one-fourth to one-half inch thick. Before cooking, place together with filling between, pinching edges together.

For filling, use grated cheese seasoned with chili sauce or catsup, and thin slices of onion. Broil or pan-broil.

FRESH FRUITS FOR DESSERT

You can always rely on fresh fruit as a popular dessert for the picnic menu, and the easiest one, too. The fresh fruit market has improved from last week. In addition to the ones listed above you'll find more peaches and plums of better quality, and easier on the budget. The supply and quality of honeydew melons are improving. The eating quality of watermelons is excellent. Both fresh lemons and frozen lemonade are bargains for making all the cold lemonade you can drink.

CROP SUSPECTS

General crops prospects are quite favorable over most of the nation. Natural hazards are still a factor, though, especially the severe infestation of grasshoppers in the Plains area, and flooding in the east and south.

Llewelyn Vows To Fight Gravel Veto And Redick

City Council president W. Wesley Llewelyn averred that Service Director Floyd C. Redick is now exercising dictatorial powers over the city of Columbus, after he alleged that Redick had applied pressure on Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner to veto an ordinance aimed at permitting the Visintine Equipment Co. to dig gravel on a Frank-rd tract of city-owned land.

After weeks of wrangling over whether to lease the 40 acre area or not, Mayor Sensenbrenner last Thursday vetoed the bill. In a message explaining the veto the mayor's office stated that leasing the property is not consistent with future plans and requirements for the acreage.

Council has passed the measure over the objections of both the Parks Division and the Planning Commission. Parks Division has voiced a desire to turn the plot into a nursery.

Llewelyn has said he will try to muster enough strength in Council to override the veto.

Folks who say something is as easy as "taking candy from a baby" never tried to do so.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

As you read this many of you will be making plans for the long Fourth of July weekend coming up. A substantial number of you will spend part of your weekend holiday near the water—swimming, boating, fishing, camping, or picnicking.

Most of us are aware of the safety rules connected with swimming, but when it comes to boating we're prone to blame accidents on kids, bad weather, or fire. The results of a recent survey prove otherwise. The Outboard Boating Club of America found that boating accidents are caused by foolish operation, overloading, standing up in the boat, unbalanced load, and turning too sharply. These are what cause drownings, and turn a holiday into tragedy.

The survey was based on an analysis of newspaper reports of boating accidents over the country in a six-month period. Storms caused more than nine per cent of the accidents and collisions rated almost nine per cent.

Anglers Biggest Casualties

Fishermen were involved in proportionately more fatal accidents than boatmen engaged in other forms of boating activity. Since, fishing, as an activity, does not require high speed operation, the speed factor must be discounted as a major contributor to fatal accidents, said Guy W. Hughes, OBC executive director.

All these statistics are rather dry, I realize, but if you heed their warnings they will keep you from getting wet. There have been many boating rules spelled out, but safe boat operation is a combination of "horse sense" and experience.

Important rules given

While it is not possible to list a safety rule for every situation facing a boat operator, here are a few starters for beginning boaters: Be sure your boat has air chambers if it is made of non buoyant material; never overload; be sure your motor is fitted to your boat, too much power will swamp you; carry extra gas in a safety can—never in a glass jug; carry a fire extinguisher; equip your boat with running lights if it is to be used at night; carry a life vest or buoyant cushion for each passenger aboard; do not buzz other boats, swimmers, docks, or fishermen; never venture out during rough weather or during a storm.

Keep these rules in mind — they will guarantee a happy holiday, and they may save your life.

Plans Made For Festival At Grove City

Plans are well under way for the Grove City Harvest Festival, a four-day celebration which will be climaxed by the big parade on Saturday, July 19, with Governor William O'Neill at the head.

The Governor indicated his willingness to participate in the festivities in a recent letter to Mrs. Marcile Gueth, parade chairman.

Many Grove City organizations and youth groups will be competing in the parade with colorful floats and entries. Commencing at 3:30 p.m. the parade will follow a longer, more extensive route than in previous years.

Youth Day on Wednesday, July 16, at Beulah Park, will feature the installation of new city officials for the four-day period. The young people will take over civic offices from mayor on down to water commissioner.

Other Youth Day activities will include a Marhoefer wiener eating contest, a dance contest, kid games, and antics by Flippo the Clown in persona.

There will be many other activities and displays, among them a hobby show, antique show, flower show, sponsored by Terra Garden Club, doll show, bake sale, beauty contest for high school girls, and an amateur show to be held on Saturday night.

Grand prize of the harvest festival will be the King Midget, a hand-made convertible sports car, which is on display now in front of Girbert's Cabinet Shop on North Broadway.

The July 4 Celebration - Pro and Con

'Move Fireworks From Area' Reader Urges Hilltop Lions

The Record this week carried the notice that the Hilltop Lions will again have the Fourth of July celebration at Magly Field. "More than $1000.00 will be spent to bring the LOUDEST, SAFEST and most colorful 4th —."

Undoubtedly it will be the loudest as among other items 19 earth shaking ground charges plus 80 aerial shells are listed as part of the entertainment. Music, street dancing, professional entertainment, concessions, etc. are fine but why must the residents in this area be subjected to this bombing. It is entirely built up too much for fireworks, even though they are set off by experts. The terrific noise from the ground charges must be dreadful shock to the little one who have been put to bed or the ill who are trying to rest.

If the Lions feel that fireworks are a necessity to make their party a success, let them move their activities to the outskirts of the city. Most all families have cars and if interested in the celebration will drive a distance to attend.

If the "gala event" must be kept in the neighborhood, I would suggest the money that will go for the fireworks be applied to the fund for which the Lions sell papers and canvass the area.

I for one am definitely sure that from now on I will think twice before I make my contribution.

Thanks for letting me have my say.

Yours truly,
Mrs. K. W. Sharadin
196 Letchworth-av.

Says Patriotism Here Is Not Yet 'Old Fashioned'

Thanks for letting us know in last week's paper. Someplace we had heard a rumor that the Hilltop Lions weren't going to hold their fireworks display anymore. And my whole family was a little "shook up" about the matter.

I'm awfully glad that they will hold the celebration again this year. My family wouldn't think of missing it because it sort of caps off our holiday celebration every year. I have a boy six and a girl four. It it weren't for community celebrations of this type, they would never know the joys of celebrating the Fourth of July in the good old-fashioned way. Let's make more noise on the Feurth!

A lot of stern-faced folks make fun of flag display and patriotic observance of all sorts. Thanks to the Lions our once-a-year-chance to make lots of noise about our nation and what it means to us. At least this is one community where patriotism hasn't gone out of fashion.

Robert Roese.

Couldn't Pry Her Away

It makes you glad to be a Hilltopper when you read that still another group is planning to run a patriotic fireworks and family program on the Fourth of July. The Bean Dinner is just behind us—something that no other community can boast. And now we're getting ready to have a wonderful July 4th community celebration, thanks to the Hilltop Lions and this new Georgian Heights group.

Hilltop USA is the best place to live. Neighbors are friendly. We've got lots of tradition. Now it looks like the "Glorious Fourth" will be even more glorious. They couldn't pry me away from the Hilltop on the holiday and into all that traffic for anything.

Thanks to both groups for making safe and sane family celebration possible.

TO ATTEND SUMMER CAMP

Fourteen boys from Troop 295 will attend summer camp this year, according to Scoutmaster John Sealer. The troop will be in camp from July 27 to Aug. 2.

Troop member Bob Cummings passed his Second Class requirements this week, and Chic Smith received an art merit badge.

An interesting event at the Monday night troop meeting was the troop's attempt to walk the "scout mile"—a mile in 12 minutes.

Judges Ponder The $64 Question

Whose Pet Is Best?

PUTTIN' ON THE DOG for pet show judges is "Mitzy" in a baby doll outfit, presented by Connie Byers (left) of 1655 Thomas-av, and Judy Myers of 499 Helen-pl.

O-MIGOSHI Young cat lovers clutch their pets frantically as a lordly Great Dane and his owner walk near the cat encampment at the Glenwood pet show. The dog is "Sparky" and his owner is Doug Carter of 756 Pierce-dr.

More than 150 people enjoyed the Columbus Recreation Department's West Sectional Pet Show here June 26. Seventy children from 15 local playgrounds entered their pets in the Glenwood Recreation Center show. Included were dogs, cats, birds, rodents, cold-blooded and—well, you name it.

W. Ralston Westlake, city councilman, was emcee. Judges were John Clay, Mrs. H. C. Booth, Mrs. Kenneth Merrick, Mrs. George Hennick and Mrs. W. R. Westlake.

Show winners were (in order of placement):

MOST AFFECTIONATE PET
Kay Boggess, 75 Bellows; Mickey Plass, 796 Whitethorne-av; Mike Foley, 251 Nashoba-av.

MOST OBEDIENT PET
Carolyn Stewart, 188 S. Princeton-av; Bea Wickert, 237 Dana-av; Ray Rigsby, 753 Pierce-dr.

LARGEST PET
Doug Carter, 756 Pierce-dr; Richard Weakley, 488 Larcomb; Neal Lewis, 710 Bellows.

BEST PERFORMING PET
Karen Penny, 467 Ryan-av; Nancy Baicer, 251 Dana; Dennis Post, 796 Bellows.

BEST COSTUMED PET
Vicki Tanner, 1944 Fairmont; Judy Meyers, Helen-pl; Linda Ruest, 191 S. Westgate-av.

CUTEST PET
Paula Morrow, 864 Clark-av; Mary Jane Harper, 1981 Fairmont; John Bowman, 1309 Virginia.

SMALLEST PET
June Bragg, 285 S. Skidmore; Steve Doane, 2173 Amherst; Carole Reese, Wicklow-rd.

MOST UNUSUAL PET
Alice Rigsby, 753 Pierce-dr; Catherine Lewwe, 759 Bellows-av; Bobby Calendine, 2361 Glenview.

BEST GROOMED PET
Butch Deal, 389 S. Vale; Fontaine Jordan, 149 Wisconsin-av; Kathy Weiss, 1771 Gerrard-av.

BEARING AN UNBECOMING TITLE—but undaunted are these three youngsters with "cold blooded" pets. Kneeling in the foreground are Trina Smallwood with beribboned goldfish bowl and Billy Bragg with his turtle. In the background are Susan McCann, Joellen Valentine, Bobby Compton, Janie Bragg, Vickie Sapp and Mary Ellen Smith.

"RUSTY," a four-month-old Cocker, gets a high perch as his young mistress, Rosalie Berton, 10, of 611 Larcomb-av, brings him up to the judges' stand.

Mrs. Sweazy President Of Women's Club

Mrs. Eugene Flegm, 265 Columbian-av, was hostess at a luncheon and first board meeting for recently-elected officers and chairman of the Women's Club, United Commercial Travelers.

New president of the organization is Mrs. John M. Sweazy, 922 Derrer-rd.

Other officers are Mrs. Flegm, first vice-president; Mrs. Dana C. Milligin, 232 Whiteborne-av, second vice-president; Mrs. Paul A. Hiett, 70 N. Chase-av, treasurer.

Mrs. Howard Sweazy, 1035 Searls-av, secretary; Mrs. Melvin Brothers, 344 N. Burgess-av, assistant secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Charles Sweazy, 1770 Inchcliffe-dr, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Thomas N. Wintle, 52 N. Westgate-av, is the retiring president.

Last year's club projects included assistance to "Meals On Wheels," Girl Guards of the Salvation Army Goodale Corps and organized charity drives.

With Peg Warren

About The Hilltop

Recently, Ed Jones, long-time sales manager of West Side Motors, retired. Before leaving with Mrs. Jones for their new home in St. Petersburg, Fla., company personnel feted them with a dinner party at Lincoln Lodge . . . It's a red haired baby boy for the George Powells. Mr. Powell, now home on leave, is stationed in California with the US Navy. Mrs. Powell is the former Martha Ann DeVore, daughter of the Paul DeVores . . . OSU grad and former serviceman, Fred Goddard, has been named industrial designer by Industrial Nucleonics Corp.

In June, Charley Kienle and Henry Barber, toured the Smokies while on vacation . . . This summer, Don (Donnie) Woodland, athletic coach and teacher, is working on his master's degree at Ohio State University . . . Just recently, Mrs. Ethel Trotter was elected membership chairman of the Columbus Reading Council . . . This week the Ralph Kilbourns are due home after a vacation stay in Michigan.

Did you know? The Rolland Prices are now residing in Westgate . . . Just caught so many fish and had such a good time the Carl Pollocks are planning another fishing trip at Lake Erie . . . On Aug. 10 Elk's Lodge will hold its basket picnic for members and their guests at Murphy's Picnic Park at Powell, next door to the speedway. For the kids there will be free popcorn, peanuts, soft drinks and toy balloons. Loren Smith is chairman of the annual affair.

In May, Ed Scanlon celebrated his 50th birthday. Looking forward to retirement he has been associated 37 years with Ohio Bell Telephone Co. . . . On Aug. 3, Barbara O'Brien, RN, will exchange nuptial vows with Jack Cherry, sports writer for the Lancaster Eagle-Gazette in an open church ceremony at St. Mary Magdalene Church. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Hildegarde O'Brien and the late Mr. Edward (Ed) O'Brien . . . We're happy to bring you good news of the rapid recovery of Bob Sifferlin, a patient at Benjamin Franklin TB Hospital.

CARD OF THANKS

The committee in charge wishes to thank all those who participated either by their attendance or by their work in making the Summer Festival of the Holy Family Parish a huge success. Namely we wish to thank the West Side News and the Catholic Times for the publicity in their newspapers; also the merchants of the community for their advertisements in our programs and all who so diligently supported the affair.

General Chairman

Indianola Church Of Christ Is Scene Of Rozell-Noland Marriage Ceremony

MRS. LOWELL E. NOLAND

Miss Marilyn Faye Rozell and Mr. Lowell E. Noland repeated their marriage vows June 21, at Indianola Church of Christ. Rev. J. E. Gordon read the wedding service at 2 p.m.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Marvin L. Troth, the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frances M. Rozell, 84 N. Burgess-av. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Orville Noland of Johnstown.

The bridal gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over white satin was designed with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice, long, tapering sleeves and bouffant hooped skirt, trimmed with scrolled design in iridescent sequins and extending into a circular train.

A pillbox trimmed with pearls and sequins held her silk illusion veil, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and stephanotis centered with pink roses, and a white satin Bible.

Mrs. Joan Wheeler, matron of honor, wore a gown of mint green Chantilly lace with a fitted bodice, satin sash bolero jacket and matching headpiece.

Bridesmaids, Miss Mary DePoy, Miss Barbara Sestito and Miss Rita Troth were gowned identically with the honor attendant, in frocks of pink, yellow and powder blue.

Mr. Richard Geggie served as best man and guests were seated by Mr. John Noland, brother of the bridegroom; Mr. Phillip Dials and Mr. James Trachsel.

The mother of the bride chose a gown of beige lace with pink accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother chose blue crepe with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at Mrs. Root's Party House.

The new Mrs. Noland was graduated from West High School and is employed by Highway Safety Division.

Mr. Noland will be graduated from General Motors Institute, Flint, Mich., Aug. 14.

Following his graduation, the couple will reside in Columbus.

Mrs. Koontz Named La Sertoma Secretary

Mrs. Henry N. Koontz, 485 Hilltonia-av, is the newly-elected corresponding secretary of La Sertoma International club of Columbus.

On July 7, Mrs. James G. Smith, president of the club, will entertain the board of directors and committee chairmen at her home when club activities for the year will be planned.

CLOVERLEAF CLUBS MEET

Cloverleaf Clubs will meet July 7, 8 p.m., at Marion Hall, St. Anthony Hospital. Mrs. Raymond Highfield will preside.

From The

Top O' The Hill

By Betty Daft

Although their allegiance has changed, Mrs. William Potts, 870 Savannah-dr and Mrs. Robert Porter, 525 Stephen-dr, are countrymen still. Wives of American servicemen, they became citizens of their adopted country before Judge Moll G. Underwood, June 20. After her arrival here, Mrs. Porter was among television viewers of a show with Mrs. Potts appearing as a guest. She contacted Mrs. Potts, and a fast friendship developed.

The two filed citizenship papers in March and studied at home with Mrs. Gertude Herrimes of Wayne-av. Happy in their new status, they urge other foreign born to do the same.

Robert Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Frederick of 204 Binns-blvd, is home to stay after three years service with the U. S. Navy. He plans to enroll in college in the fall. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hartranft (Barbara Harlow), 106 Wilson-av, Circleville, announce the birth of a daughter, June 24. . . . Mrs. Blanche Dalley, 297 S. Harris-av, was among guests of honor at the party held by Grant Hospital Alumnae Association at Bonita's.

Scott Elsis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elias, 480 N. Warren-av, became the proud "parent" of some dwarf tomatoes last week. He acquired the plant at school, Valleyview Elementary, in April.

Mr. and Mrs. David Skipper of Tucson, Ariz., (former Marianne Brooks) announce the birth of a son, Bret David, born June 16. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steward, 121 S. Westmoor, and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Skipper of 487 S. Burgess . . . Miss Eve and Miss Estella Burnside, 39 Haldy-av, attended the wedding of their great-niece, Sandra Smith Churton to Mr. Joseph E. Pyle, in Huntington, June 14. A former student at OSU, the new Mrs. Pyle has many friends on the Hilltop. Her husband is a junior in Farm Management at OSU.

Brookshire WSCS Elects Officers For Coming Year

Woman's Society of Christian Service of Brookshire Methodist Church elected officers for the coming year at a recent meeting held in the home of Mrs. Frank Gentile, 188 Hawkes-av. Installation services will be held in September, with Rev. J. Herbert Manton officiating.

Officers are president, Mrs. Andrew Stovall; vice president Mrs. James O. Harrison; recording secretary, Mrs. Albert Distelhorst; promotion and membership, Mrs. A. F. Burrell; treasurer, Mrs. Philip O'Day.

Secretaries are missionary education, Mrs. Rollie Hanson; Christian social relations, Mrs. Sarah Clark; local church activities, Mrs. Dale Johnston; spiritual life, Mrs. Louise C. Frost; literature, Mrs. Russell Ross.

Youth work, Mrs. J. Herbert [illegible]; status of women, Mrs. E. M. Shields, children's work, Mrs. Russell Ross; supply work, Mrs. Malcolm Kuhn.

Representatives to Goodwill Industries are Mrs. M. F. Gray and Mrs. Grace Salyards. Publicity chairman is Mrs. Malcolm Kuhn.

Couple Feted At Party On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Lilly, 2247 Springmont-av, were honored at an open house, given by their children, on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary, June 24.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Nikodem, Mr. and Mrs. George Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. John Ralph, Jacqueline Ralph, John Ralph, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dice.

Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Harwood, Mrs. Helen Ebrahem, Mr. and Mrs. John Hester, Mrs. Ada Kober, Mr. and Mrs. George Neff, jr., and George III, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donner, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Fox, Theresa Fox.

Miss Mary Lilly, Edward Lilly jr., Miss Virginia Alberts, Mrs Minnie Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wenrich, Mrs. Harriett Webb, Mrs. Charles Rothwell and Sandy, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schneider and Judy, Mrs. Paul Alberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Timmons, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilson, Mrs Minnie Brown, Mrs. Hazel Faulise, Miss Kay Bowsher and Richard Kaiser.

Former Westsider Mrs. Lillie Bohnert Knapp, 510 Columbia-st, Marysville, Wash., would be most happy to hear from old friends. She celebrated her 85th birthday, May 18.

The wife of John Bohnert, city councilman in 1913, they lived for many years on W. Broad-st at Yale-av, and had a tin shop in the rear of the lot where Kroger Store now stands. They moved to Montana after the 1913 flood.

Memorial Baptist Buys New Church Site

More than 100 persons gathered Sunday afternoon at the ground - breaking ceremonies held for the new Memorial Baptist Church to be built at 2345 [illegible].

A large part of the church's membership watched as their pastor, Rev. C. C. Clawson, turned the first shovel of soil. The church closed the deal on the land just last week.

Completion of the entire building is expected by early fall. The $150,000 brick building will house church offices and a modern nursery as well as a large sanctuary.

Classrooms in the basement will be partitioned by folding doors for conversion into a full size auditorium.

The church's former building at 28 S. Sandusky-st, was sold to the state in March for $125,000 to make room for the new Mound - Sandusky Expressway. Congregation has been meeting in South Franklin School since.

Aide Named At Glenwood

Rev. Phillip W. Jones

Rev. Phillip W. Jones, newly named assistant to Dr. Joseph Shellhaas, pastor of Glenwood Methodist, has assumed his duties at the church.

Rev. Jones will assist with pastoral calling and work with the church's Sunday School and youth program.

A native of Chillicothe, he studied one year at the US Naval Academy and two years at the American University in Washington, D.C. He is now a senior at the College of Arts, OSU and, after graduation, will enroll at John Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C.

He served as director of youth work at Palisades Community Church in Washington, D.C., and just finished a year as pastor of Colwell-Amlin Charge.

Highland Friends Church Breaks Ground

Local Artist Has Painting Exhibit

Walter F. Smith, 501 Binns-blvd, is displaying 31 of his paintings at the Southern Hotel Art Gallery, through July. On Sunday, July 6, 2 to 4 p.m. he will hold open house.

His daughter, Mrs. Leonard F. Wilson will be chairman-hostess. Other hosts and hostesses will be Mrs. Walter F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Doelinger, Mrs. Paul Mathews, Mrs. David Rinehart and Leonard F. Wilson.

Mrs. Marguerite Heer Andrews, pianist and Miss Hortense Mohr, dramatic soprano, will present a musical program at 3 p.m. Public is invited.
